

Gold Stars Inside

First semester Gold Stars were awarded in White Field House this year owing to an outbreak of wet, raw weather on Valentine's Day. Even so, events proceeded precisely on schedule. The day began with breakfast in the dining hall, attended by cadets, parents, faculty, and staff. Following breakfast, the Gold Stars were presented in the field house. After the awards, instructors were available in classrooms for conferences with parents. Despite the inclement weather, everyone was in good spirits. It was the beginning of Fall Break. Classes would not resume for five full days.

LTC Austin, Commandant, and Cadet LTC Moore, Battalion Commander, troop the line.

The Camden Military Academy Band provided entertainment before the Gold Stars were presented.

After the ceremony, Senior Andrew Black proudly wears his most recent Gold Star, one of ten he has earned during his CMA tenure.
