Growth with Quality

Approximately a year ago, the Camden Military Academy Board of Trustees, at the request of the headmaster, decided to make the Academy a 300 cadet school. Pursuant to the Board's decision, we immediately began to implement our plan to increase enrollment. Implementation involved recruiting new cadets, building the physical facilities to house and educate them, adding the personnel necessary to accommodate the increased numbers, and continuing to improve all aspects of the Academy programs and quality of living.

Owing to the high demand for the Academy's educational services and to the fine efforts of the Development Office and other responsible persons, recruitment has been highly successful. We opened this school year with 281 cadets. That number now stands at 310. It is our goal to be the best 300 cadet military school in the United States. We have no plans to expand beyond that number.

Construction is proceeding in a timely manner. Cadets will soon move into a comfortable new 12,000 square foot barracks. Two temporary classroom buildings have been added, pending new construction. The three to five-year building plan includes an auditorium, chapel, and classroom complex which will house English, humanities, and fine arts in one department; a new gymnasium (the old one will be maintained); and a spacious new or refurbished dining hall with a modern kitchen.

New personnel to accommodate the increased enrollment have already been added--an English and a mathematics instructor, both with excellent credentials. Other faculty will be hired as necessary to keep our classes at 16 students to 1 teacher or below.

In order to improve quality, academic programs are always under review. In the near term, graduation requirements are going to increase. New independent Advanced Placement courses will be offered. Future plans include fully resourced art programs and drama being added to the curriculum. We want to increase extracurricular opportunities as well with such offerings as chess, foreign language, and science clubs.

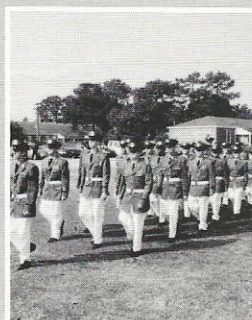

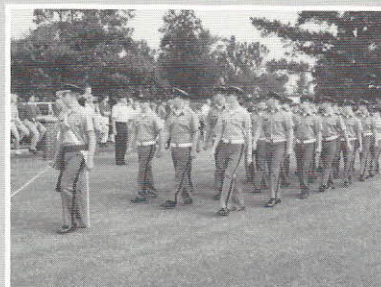

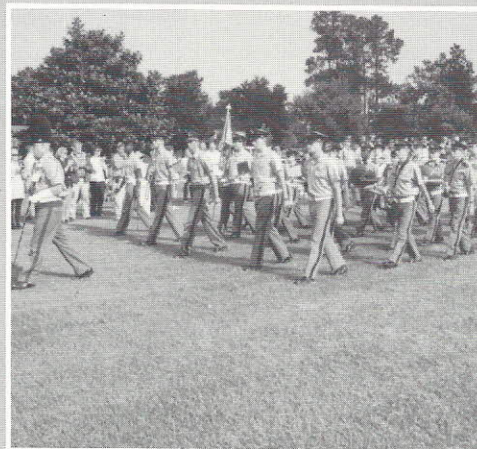

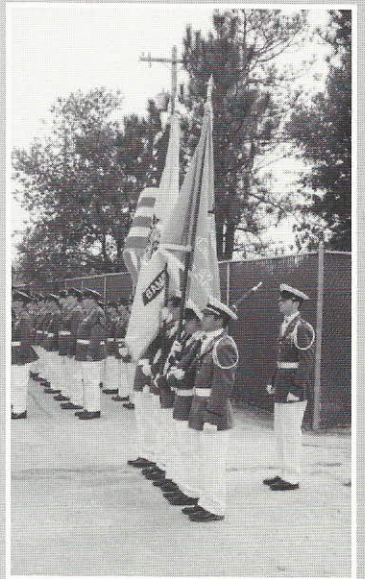

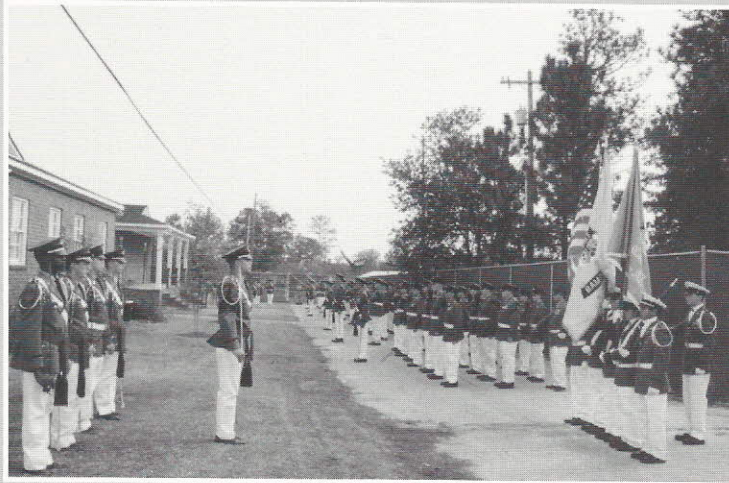

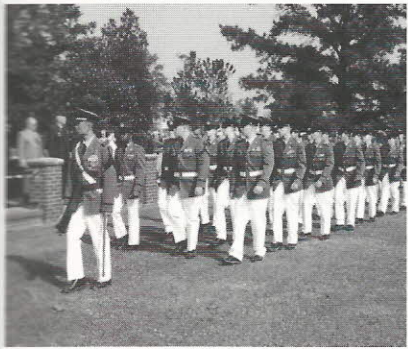

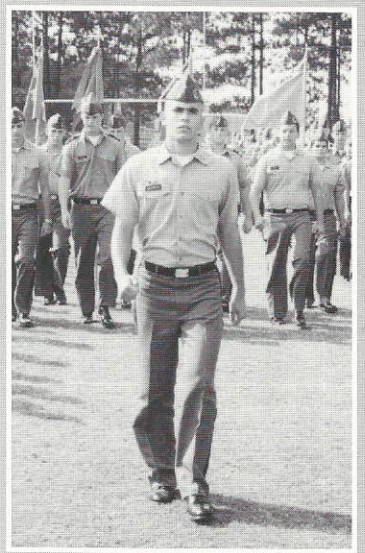

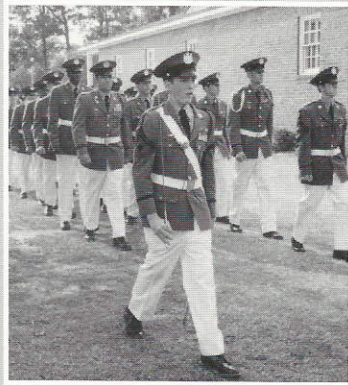

Our athletic programs are also being adjusted and expanded. The soccer schedule is being moved to spring to allow greater participation by cadets. This year's team will christen the new soccer field. Moreover, the Academy will have a lacrosse team for the first time this spring. In addition, a swimming team is in the planning stages and will be formed when schedules can be arranged.

Colonel William K. Orris, Headmaster

We are very pleased that our master plan is being implemented successfully so that the Academy can offer its unique educational opportunities to a larger number of young men; and we are committed to maintaining and improving the quality of our physical plant, our academic and athletic programs, our faculty and staff, and our corps of cadets. Doing so will preserve our status in the top tier of military schools in the United States.

To Be a Cadet

We are growing larger, but our system will not change. The great advantage of military education is that it is designed to develop character and social skills, and it has worked for hundreds of years. It teaches cadets to function effectively as members of a group to achieve common goals and to function effectively as individuals in performing assigned tasks in a timely and responsible manner. It teaches cadets to be both trustful and trustworthy, because they must rely on the group for support and at the same time give support to the group by faithfully performing their assigned roles. All cadets are held personally responsible for their actions and are expected to behave ethically at all times. Respect for the rights of others is built into the military system. Moreover, the system requires leaders, and they rise to the top. Whether a cadet becomes a high ranking officer or not, he learns a great deal about leadership by observing it in action every day. The military system also encourages patriotism and service to the community, the state, the nation and the world. There is no better system for molding the character of young men.

Cadet Captain Rivers Killen, A Company commander, shows effective leadership by setting an example as he helps a new cadet move into the barracks.

The Camden Military Academy Pep Band adds excitement to the football games. Under the direction of Band Director David Green, the band always performs in an outstanding manner.

Booting UP 2001

Camden Military Academy started the new school year with 281 cadets, the largest enrollment in the history of the school. The Cadet Corps will exceed 300 members by year's end.

Cadet 1LT Tim Ross answers questions for the family of Cadet Robert Huffman while they wait for their number to be called to begin the registration process.

All cadets began matriculation at Station Number One, manned by Mr. Casey Robinson, assistant director of admissions.

School nurses Debbie Anderson and Denise Miles get medical information from Tyler Harrington and his family.

LTC Kelly Schrader, academic dean, assists Cadet Brandon Voss with registration.

2LT Adam Hogan helps a cadet move his belongings into the Band and Staff barracks.

SFC David Green calculates total supply charges for Cadet Dax Burt and his family.

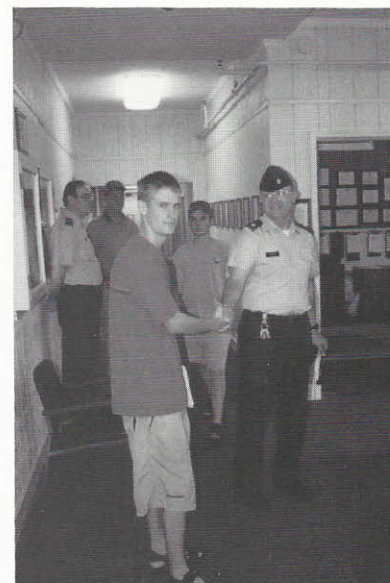

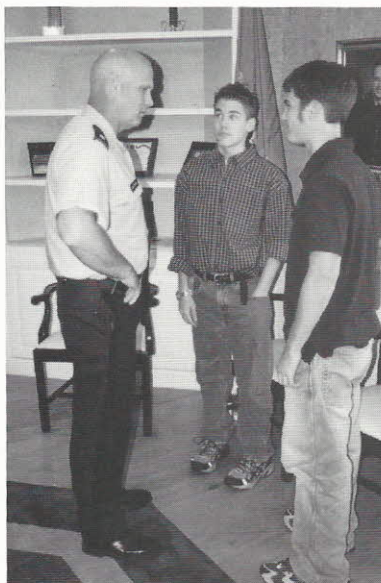

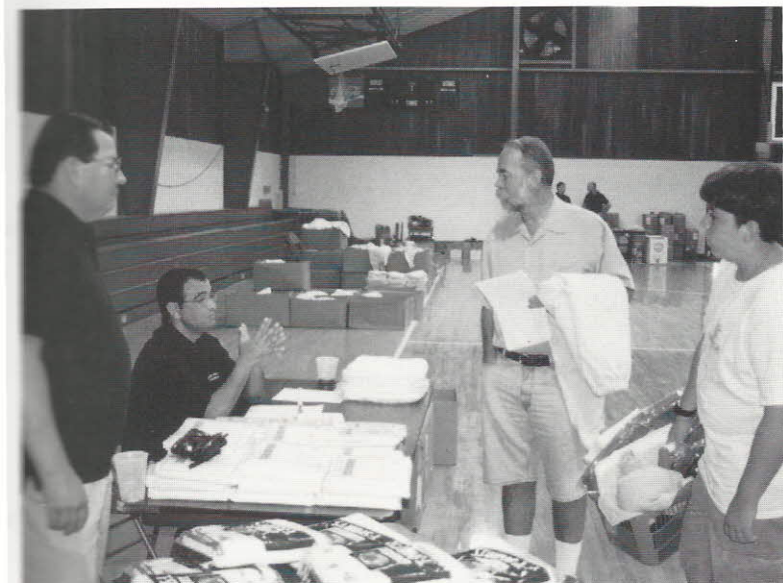

2LT Jiang and other B Company cadre members give new cadets their first taste of military drill.

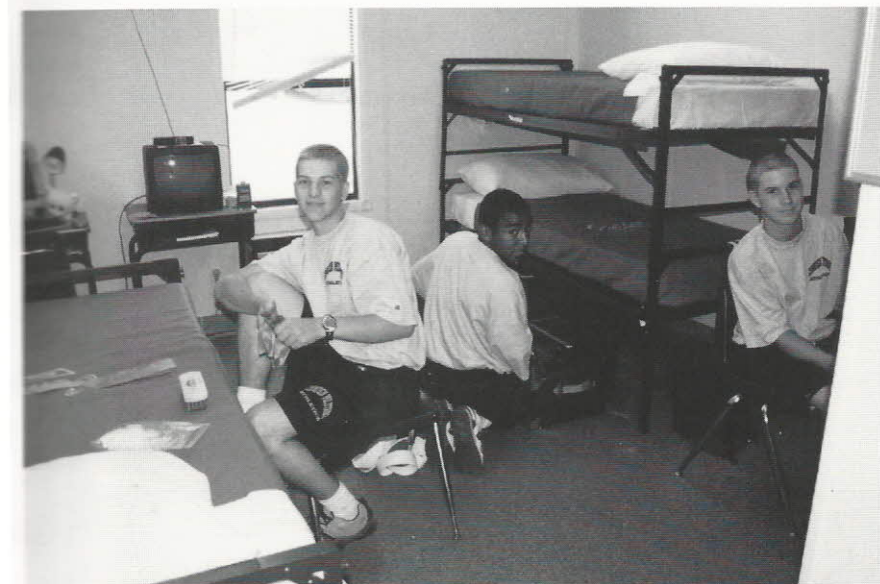

Veteran cadets Jason Kennedy, Cadet Corps bugler, and B/S Company Commander Brandon Johnson are old hands at moving in and setting up for a new year.

LTC Cook, A Company tactical officer, greets senior Jason Horne.

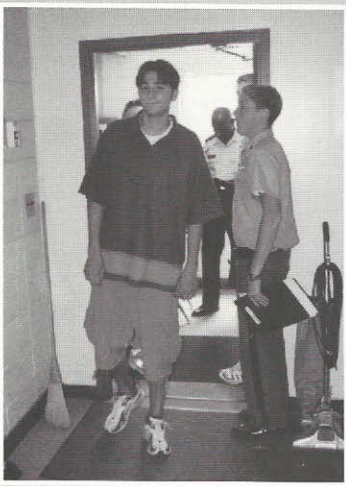

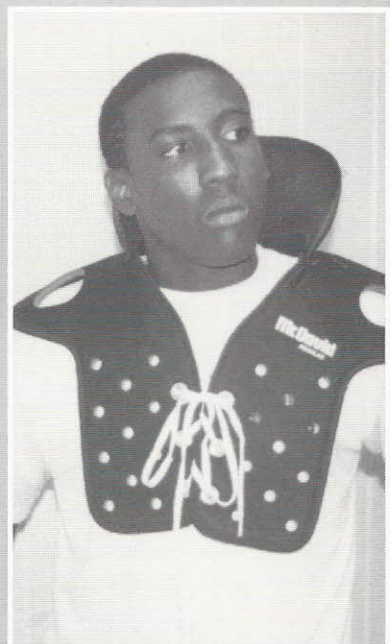

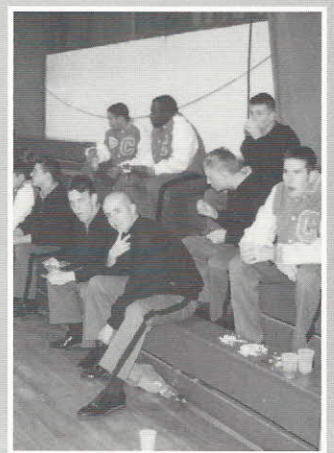

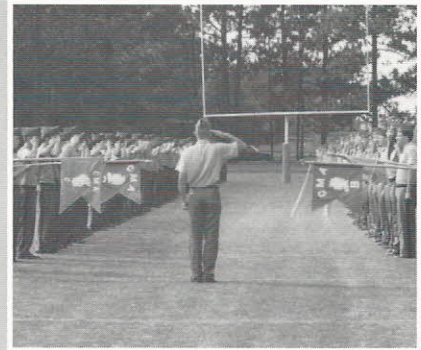

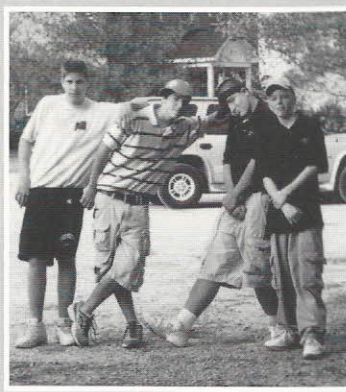

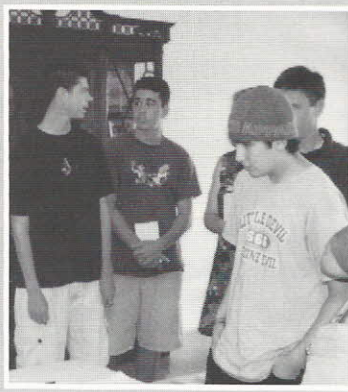

CPT Cerrezo and LTC Ferjani outfit Cadet Thomas Wood with tee shirts, socks, and shorts.

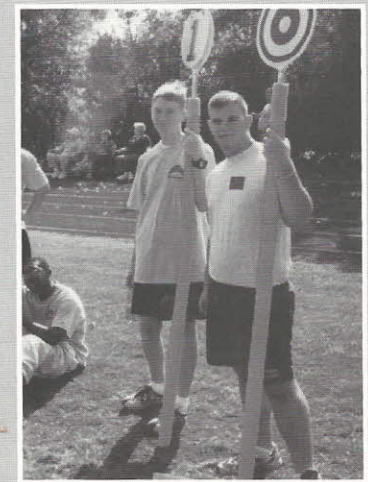

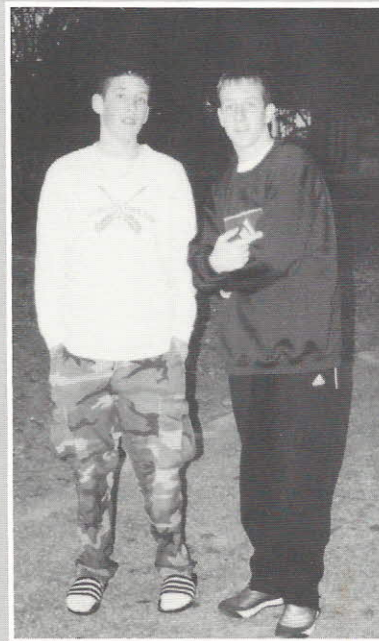

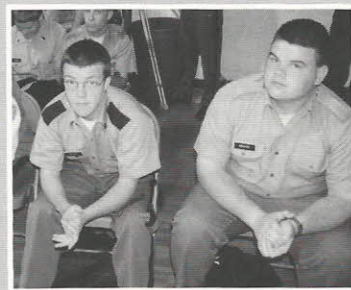

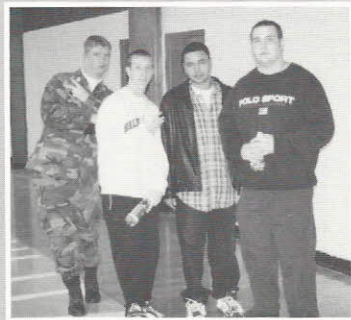

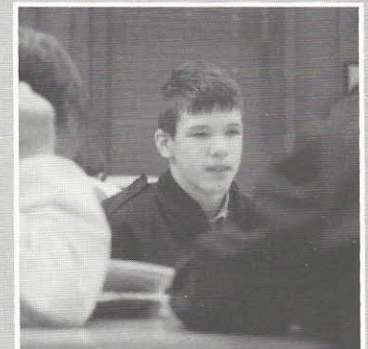

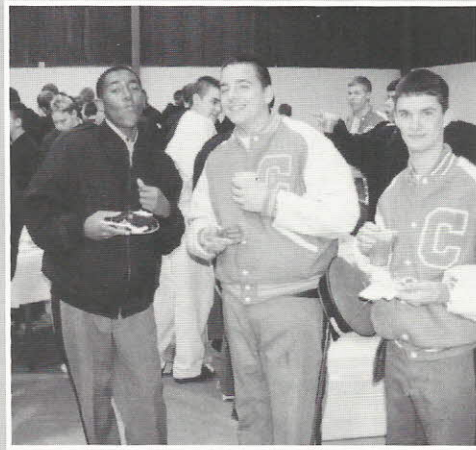

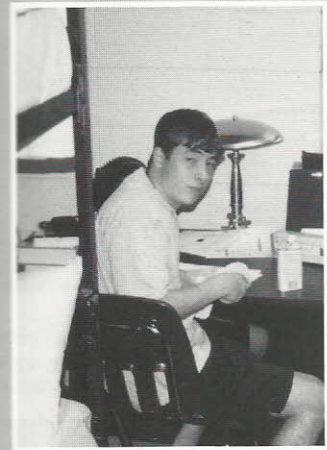

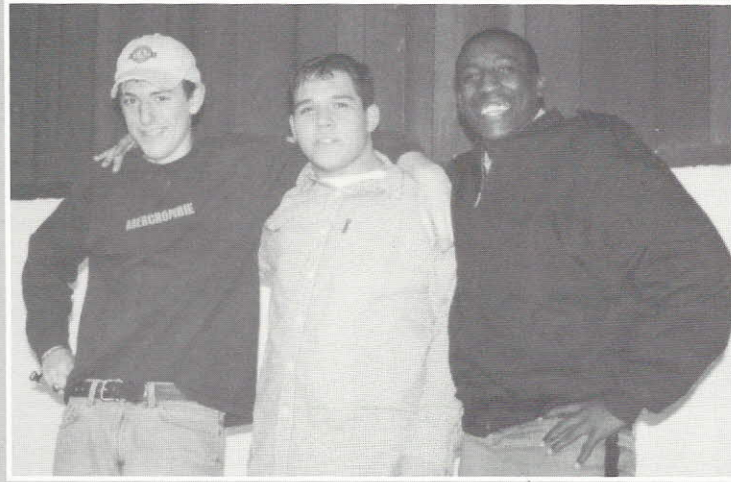

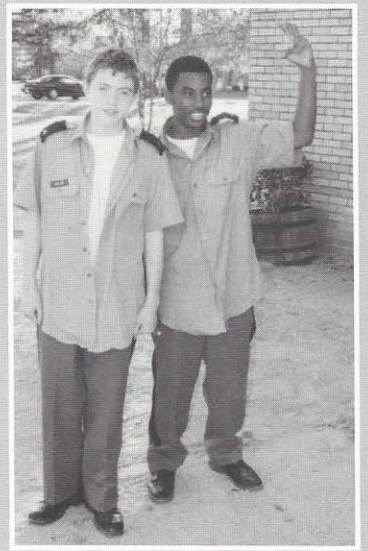

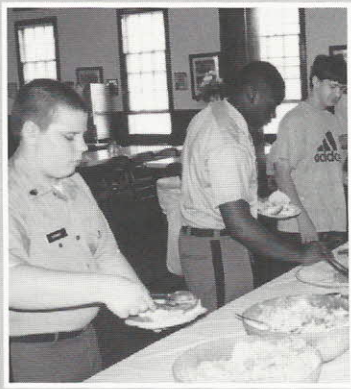

LTC Armstrong, commandant, welcomes new cadet Gankowsky and friend.

CPT Joseph McDonald, 1SG Mike Irvin, tactical officer, and 1LT Colin Buchanan converse with Cadet Brooks Sharpe and his family in the D Company hallway.

Cadets Brian Post, Trayvon Owens, and Nathan Short have their room in order and enjoy their new surroundings in D Company temporary quarters.

Special Events

Visitor's Day Parade: In early November Camden Military Academy held its first visitor's day of the year. Cadet LTC Rafael Boshetti, battalion commander, reports to Col. William K. Orris, headmaster, and to LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant.

First Lieutenant Colin Buchanan leads D Company by the reviewing stand. D Company was formed this year and represents the first step in expanding the battalion to 300 cadets. Well over 100 visitors were present for parent/teacher conferences and the parade.

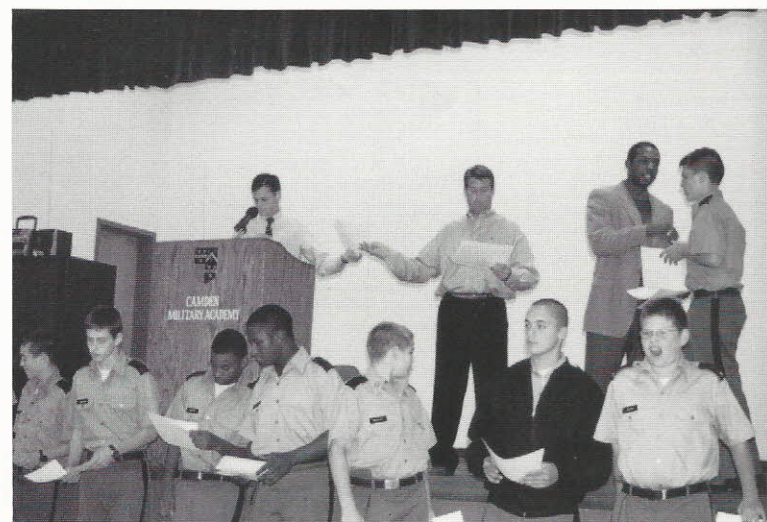

See You at the Flagpole Service: Getting the school year off to a proper start spiritually, a sunrise prayer service was held at the flagpole early in the first semester. The event was well attended by cadets, faculty, and staff.

Ring Ceremony: The annual Ring Ceremony for graduating seniors is a proud day for all the CMA family. Cadet LTC Rafael Boschetti salutes the corps after receiving his ring from Mr. Cam Walters, member of the Board of Trustees.

Christmas Celebrations: Before leaving for the holidays, CMA celebrated Christmas with both frivolity and gravity. Mr. David Reuwer narrates the action as the Way Off Broadway Players present MAJ LePage as a wayward Santa Claus holding up Mr. Gene McCaskill, MSG Tom Hewitt, CPT Jim Fitzpatrick, and CPT Bob Whitmire.

Fall Sports Banquet: LTC Eric Boland, athletic director, assists Coaches Rice and Priester in presenting awards to members of the Junior High Football Team. The event is important to both cadets and parents because it rewards sports participants for their dedication and hard work.

Community Visitor's Day: On Friday, November 3, CMA invited numerous city and county officials, as well as local political candidates, to a reception and a parade. Cadet LTC Rafael Boschetti leads the Battalion Staff and the CMA Band by the reviewing stand.

Following the reception in the Risher Administration Building, many of the visitors elected to watch the parade from the porch.

Martin Luther King Day: This year our speaker on this special occasion was Elder Thomas C. Bell, pastor of St. Mark Church of God in Christ in Camden. Elder Bell is dedicated to breaking down denominational, racial, and economic walls.

Black History Month: Leading off the month was Command Sergeant Major Russell Anderson, senior military instructor at Batesburg-Leesville High School. He urged cadets to place greater value on the development of the mind.

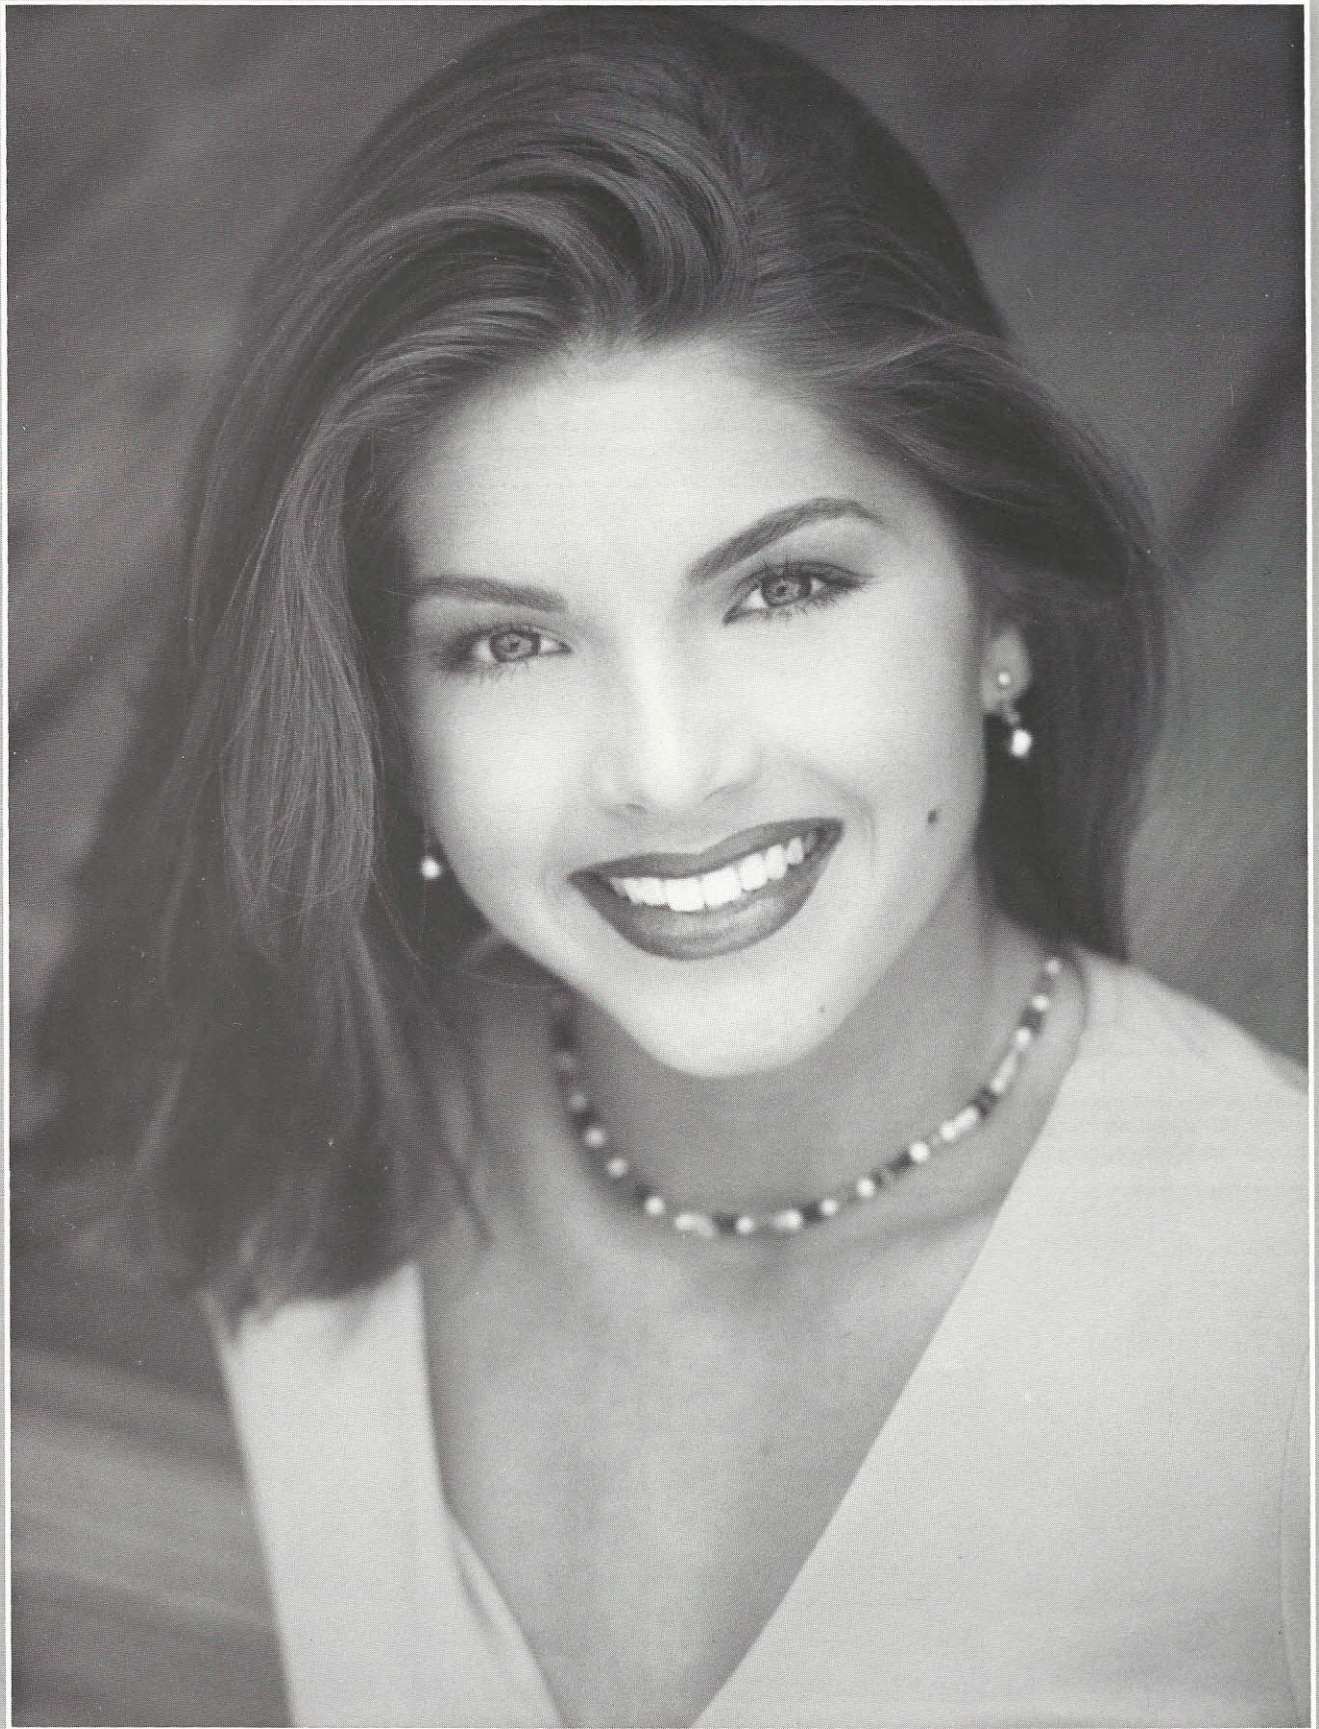

Skiing: On January 26 a group of CMA cadets traveled to Winterplace, Virginia. Having fun in the snow are Clemens, Cabbage, Stanley, Lilla, Barr, and Michaud.

New Barracks: From a spot on the ground to an impressively large structure gradually taking shape, the new barracks through "cellular growth" will eventually become a comfortable building of 12,000 square feet.

Achieving the Goal

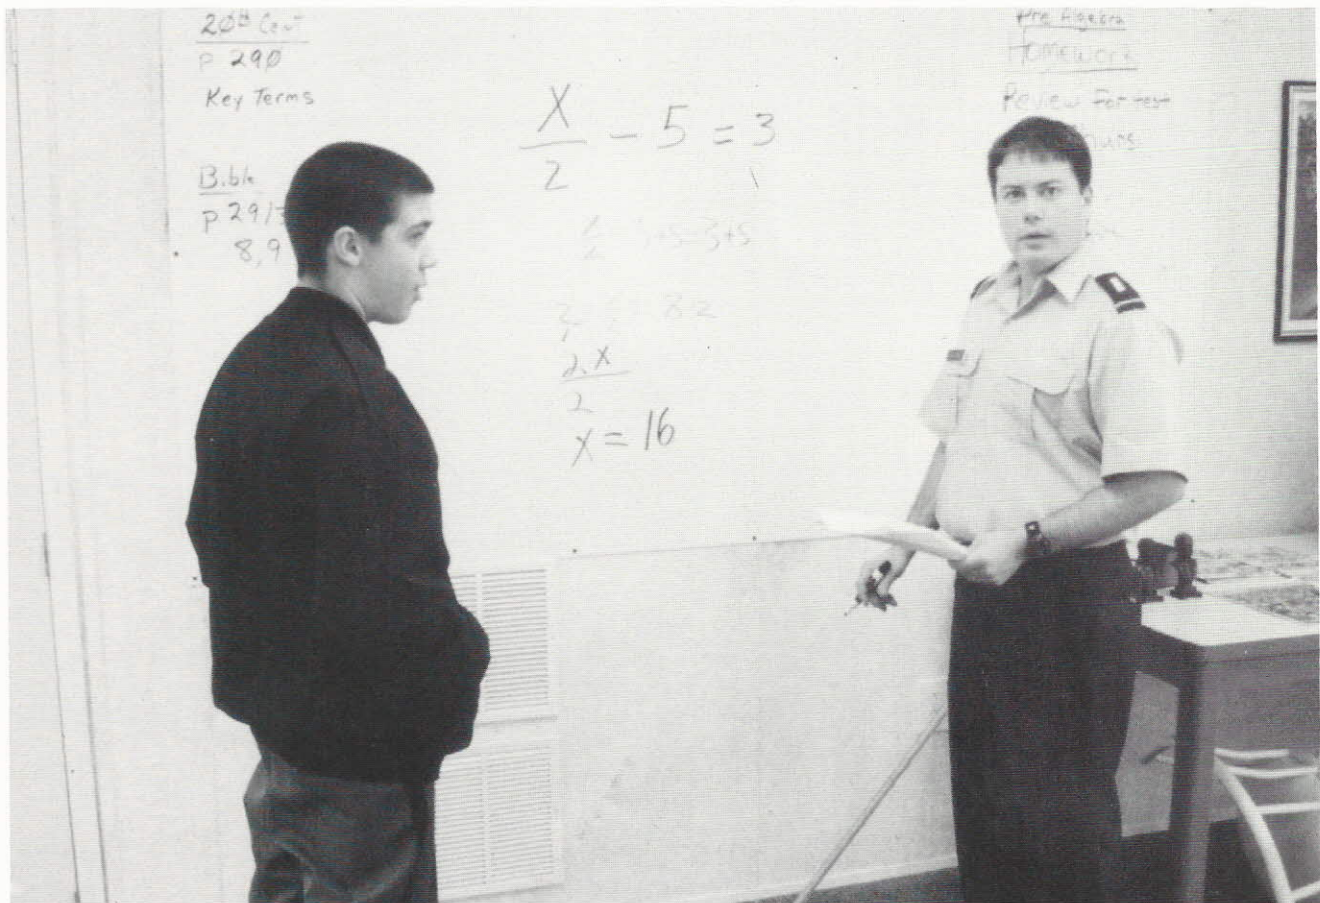

Last year at this time, Camden Military Academy stated a goal of enrolling 300 cadets during the next school term. As of February 8, 2001, enrollment stood at 310, and the new barracks is nearing completion. Delta Company, the latest addition to the battalion, has grown to 38 cadets in size and reports few serious infractions during the first semester and a chain of command that is virtually intact. The cadets of Delta are a testament to the Academy's practice of admitting only those students who possess the same good character that is typical of our present cadet corps and of adding only those instructors and staff who meet our high standards. Growth in quality will be commensurate with the increase in physical size. The people of Camden Military Academy are the institution: a corps of cadets with good character and great potential and a competent, caring faculty and staff to guide them.

Gene McCaskill, Director of Development, continues his very important role in the growth of Camden Military Academy as our enrollment expands beyond 300 cadets.

Joining the faculty second semester was Captain Jim Hayes, English instructor. He comes to CMA from Morris College in Sumter. Captain Hayes holds both bachelor's and master's degrees in English from Western Michigan University, where he also studied Japanese. Moreover, he taught in Japan for a year. A welcome addition to the faculty, he brings interesting new perspectives.

Captain Chris Watson also joined the faculty at the beginning of the second semester as a mathematics instructor. Captain Watson has dual ties to Camden Military Academy. He is a 1984 CMA alumnus, and his father, LTC James Watson, was a long-time Carlisle and CMA faculty member. As a cadet, Captain Watson was executive officer of A Company and a member of DKS. He holds a BS degree from the University of South Carolina.

Colophon

In 2001 the Excalibur Staff published its 43rd volume. This year's edition numbers 350 books with a black, textured, silver-embossed cover and 140 pages, including the supplement. Excalibur is a cooperative effort of cadets, faculty, staff, and parents. Each year, many persons who are not regular members of the yearbook staff provide assistance, for which we are very grateful. This year's staff consists of the following members: General Editor--Perry Eubank; Sports Editor--Justin Reid; Copy Editor--Charles Schofield; Layout Editor--Machi McFarlane; Writers--Rivers Killen, Evan Martin, James Pope, Bradley Pye, Foster Ramsey, and Brandon Johnson; Special Assistance--Adam Hogan, Tyler Harrill, John Stamm, and Andrew Niemeyer; Adviser--Sonny Brown.

The Military Tradition

M I L I T A R Y

The Cadet Corps is going through a period of rapid growth. With the addition of Delta Company, battalion strength now stands at five companies. At the beginning of the year, D Company was housed in temporary quarters, but the completion of the new barracks is anticipated during second semester. The growth of the Academy is a measure of its appeal to parents as an institution in whose trust they can place their sons. The Academy has established itself as one of the leading military schools in the United States. Our reputation attracts students from around the world, and we are justly proud of our military tradition. For over thirty years our JROTC Unit has been designated "Honor Unit with Distinction." We graduate young men prepared to fend for themselves in a highly competitive environment. Our alumni are leaders in every stratum of society, at home and in other parts of the world. Military education is a valuable complement to the classroom, instilling discipline, order, teamwork, and self-respect. It completes the molding of the whole man.

Commandant's Staff: LTC Paul Cook, LTC C. H. Armstrong, commandant, CSM Rosvelt Martain Row 2: CSM Othell Terrell, 1SG Michael Irvin Row 3: CSM Rolf Irtenkauf, SGM William Greene, Jr., CSM Melvin Brooks

The mission of CMA's Department of Tactics is to develop in the Cadet Corps qualities of leadership with emphasis on duty, integrity, morality, and self-discipline. Following a strict military regimen, cadets develop a deep sense of duty and obligation that motivates them and teaches them the responsibility necessary to meet future challenges. The process of developing a sense of duty comes from creating an environment that makes clear to cadets what is expected of them, fosters progressive growth and maturity, and exposes them to role models who demonstrate exemplary and mature commitment. Our goal is to build better Americans and in the process create a nurturing environment in which all cadets can grow and develop into outstanding young men.

Homecoming Parade

In the reviewing stand for this year's parade were Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster; Dr. Robert Blackwell, president of the Alumni Association; and Lieutenant Colonel C. H. Armstrong, commandant of cadets.

On October 28, 2000, Camden Military Academy held its fourth annual Homecoming. Over 100 parents, friends, and alumni joined the Cadet Corps for the event, which began with a golf outing on Friday, October 27. Following registration and a reception on Saturday morning, the CMA Battalion held a dress parade for the visitors. After the parade, awards were presented to distinguished alumni. Following lunch, spectators were treated to an exciting offensive display when the Spartans defeated Northside 58-14 in the afternoon football game. The highlight of the weekend was the testimony of award recipients as to how CMA had inspired and shaped their lives. Dr. Robert Blackwell will continue as Alumni Association president and looks forward to another successful Homecoming in 2001.

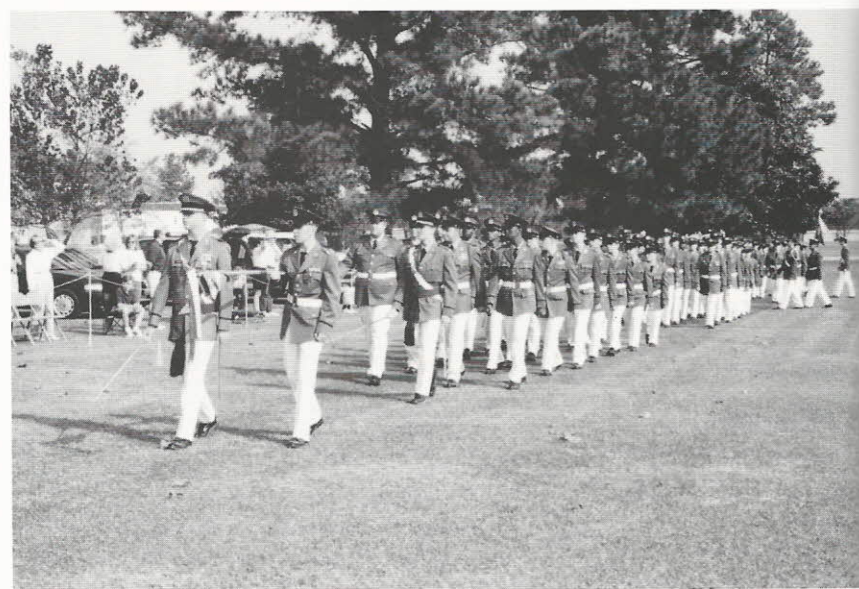

Receiving the Distinguished Alumni Award was Dr. Breeden J. Blackwell (CMA '64). Presented CMA Service Awards were Mr. William G. Hamilton (CMS '40), Mr. Henry Moore (CMA '42), and Ms. Elizabeth Varn. Recipients of Alumni Achievement Awards were Mr. Ogden S. Babson (CA '52), Major General Van C. Doubleday (CMS '47), Senator William H. O'Dell (CA '56), and Mr. Daniel Wayne Waddell (CMA '60).

CPT Rivers Killen leads A Company by the reviewing stand. A Company is Honor Company this year.

Under the command of 2LT Kris Thapoung, the CMA Color Guard enters the parade ground.

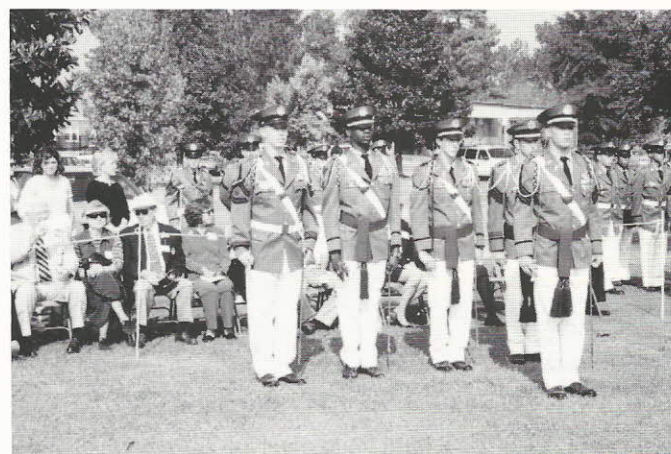

Led by CPT Rhett Parkman, C Company passes in review. The platoon leader is 2LT David White.

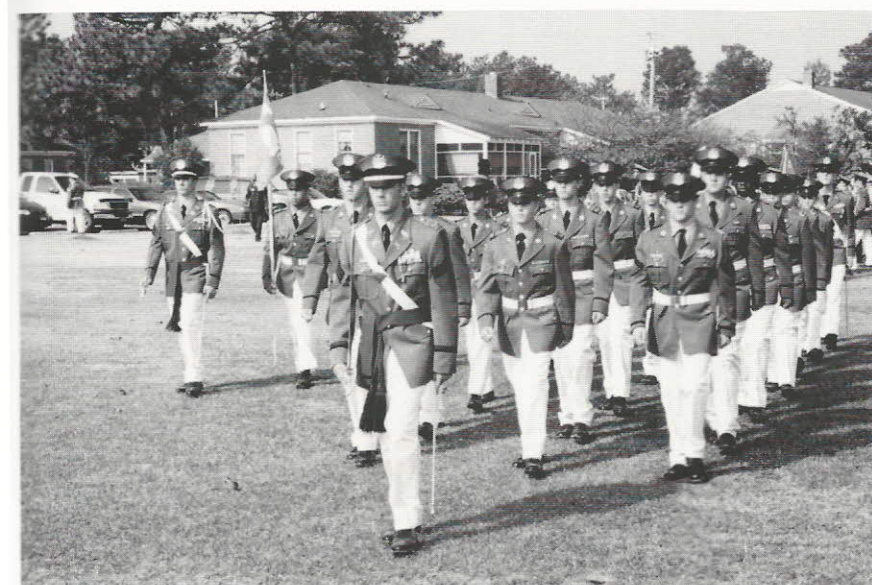

Award recipients and honored guests were provided special seating to view the parade: Mrs. Banks Scarborough, Senator William H. O'Dell, Mr. Ogden Babson, Mrs. Dean Risher, Mr. Bill Hamilton, Mrs. Babson, Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Varn, Major General and Mrs. Van Doubleday, and Mr. Ben Brunson.

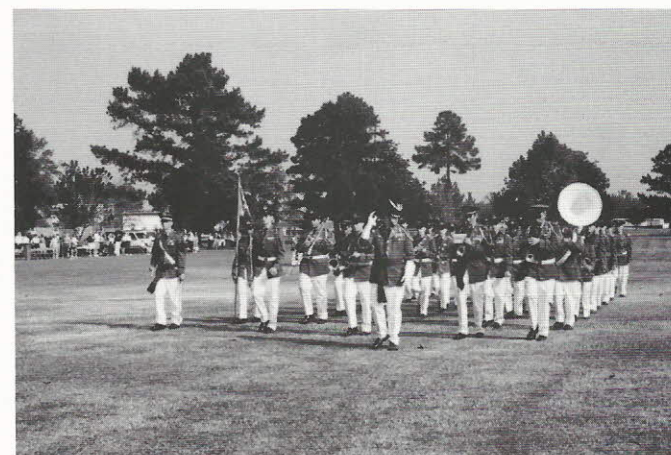

First Sergeant Rustin Gasperson paces B Company in the parade. Second Lieutenant Tao Jiang leads the platoon.

A Company

Alpha Seeks Honor Title Again

Alpha Company won the honor title last year and wants to repeat in 2001. "Evil A" still gets up to the sound of "Airbourne Airs," provided by LTC Cook for everyone's listening pleasure. The goals of A Company continue to be spotless barracks, high study hall ratings, excellent grades, winning military competitions, and a lot of participation in athletics. "Colonel Cook keeps us going in the right direction," says Company Commander Rivers Killen. Athletic participation remains high this year. All the officers have played varsity sports, and nearly all the cadets have, also.

"We are committed to winning Honor Company again this year," observes 1LT James Bakker, executive officer. "Drill and more drill, frequent inspections, and attention to detail will get us there." Alpha wants to be the best drilled, the best disciplined, and the best educated company in the battalion.

B Company

Bravo Excellence

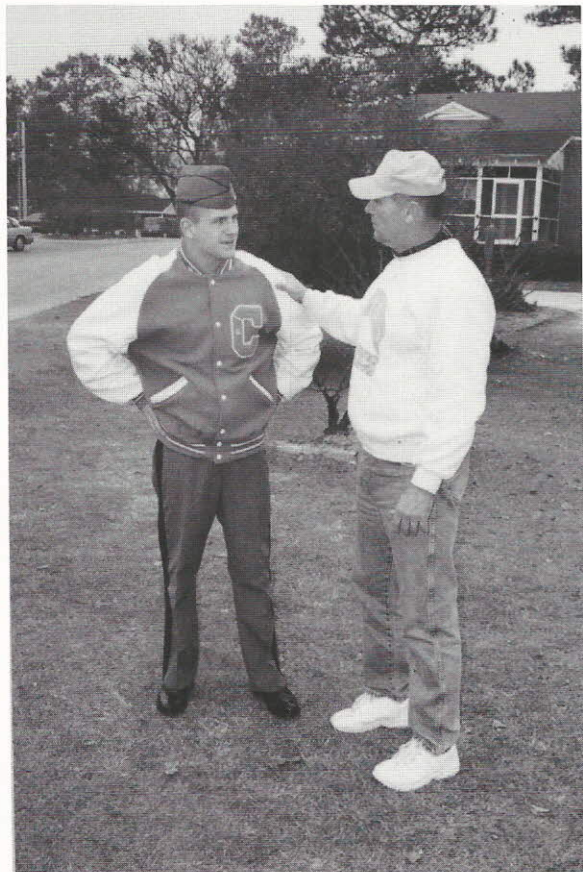

This year has been very productive for the cadets of Bravo Company. In the words CPT Anthony Lilla, company commander, "Bravo Company is full of mature young men, and together we have made great strides toward the title of Honor Company." There have been several constructive changes in the operation of the company. CSM Rolf Itrenkauf continues to run the company in the smoothest way possible with the skills acquired from years of dealing with the young men of Bravo Company.

This year's chain of command is headed by CPT Anthony Lilla, company commander; 1LT Bron Rathert, executive officer; and 1SG Rustin Gasperson, first sergeant. "The chain of command started out as teenagers learning about responsibility but ended up as men with a purpose," CPT Lilla observed.

Over the years Bravo has strived for academic excellence and increased athletic participation. B Company always seeks to excel.

C Company

Brains and Brass

Charlie Company continues to pursue the Honor Company designation, and they are among the leaders in drill competitions. Moreover, they have some of the best athletes in the battalion. But their main source of pride is their outstanding academic performance. "We take grades very seriously in C Company," said CPT David White, company commander. "Study hall rules are strictly enforced." Another trademark of Charlie is clean barracks and company areas. "We emphasize cleanliness," observed 2LT Justin Reid, "including rooms, halls, stairways, and fall-out areas. We police them carefully." Another strength of the company is its chain of command. Charlie cadets consider CSM Terrell "the best tac officer at CMA." First Sergeant Lucas Scholl credits the chain of command with the spirit of togetherness in the company: "Every officer does his job, and we're always accessible to the cadets. We all support one another."

Delta Force

At mid year, CMA's new company had grown from 27 to 38 cadets, and they were already a force in the battalion. "Don't count us out for Honor Company second semester," said First Sergeant Mike Irvin, tactical officer. There is no identity crisis in Delta. Cadets know who they are and like who they are. Delta's trademark is spirited cadence counts, a practice that has spread throughout the battalion. "Morale is high," observes Company Commander Joseph McDonald. "We have an open door policy. Cadets can talk to the chain of command at any time. We want to intervene and stop problems before they get complicated. Also, we reward as well as punish." Among the rewards are birthday and pizza parties. "We want to instill a feeling of unity and belonging," added First Sergeant Irvin. A testament to the success of Delta's way of life is that the leadership has remained virtually unchanged all year, and there have been no serious infractions in the company.

Band & Staff Company

To Be the Best

To become Honor Company is always a goal for Band and Staff Company, but they focus on the whole picture. They want to be the best in drill, in academics, and in athletic participation. "We are tops in academics," says CPT Brandon Johnson, CO. "We emphasize studying and maintain a quiet environment for the cadets." He also observes that B&S has the lowest number on the pad and that there is high participation in all sports. "We make our expectations clear," he adds, "and our cadets respond." Both CPT Johnson, XO 1LT Daniel Benton, and 1SG Adam Byerly credit their tactical officers for company success: "SGM Greene is a great asset to our company, and we also get valuable help from Coach Dority." Excelling in Sports

In 2001 the Camden Military Academy Athletic Program remains a source of pride. The Academy has won conference football titles eight out of the last twelve years. Basketball follows closely with six titles; and baseball, soccer, and wrestling attract a large following. CMA fields competitive teams in all sports, including golf, tennis, track, and cross-country. Under the leadership of Athletic Director Eric Boland and a staff of dedicated coaches, the Academy produces exciting teams that enhance the quality of campus life and instill esprit de corps.

A scoring leader on the Spartan Basketball Team, senior forward Darshan Laborde, who plays at six feet, not only has a deadly outside shot but can also dunk the ball when an opportunity is present.

Greeted by the Cadet Corps, the CMA Football Team runs onto the field, led by Jarad McKenna, David Brown, Charles Schofield, and Bron Rathert.

Having struggled somewhat last season, the CMA Soccer Team was much improved this year. Junior Jason Kennedy (18) heads the ball into the net for the score.

Varsity Football

"This was a talented, well-balanced team," said Coach Boland. "It was only a defensive lapse in the first quarter against Christ School that stopped us from winning the conference and going to the state playoffs." Going 6-1 for the season, the Spartans put up big numbers in several games. They had talented running backs in Chuck Hewitt, Darshan Laborde, Tim Ross, Anthony Williams, and Adam Berstler; and an offensive line anchored by Bron Rathert, Adam Hogan, and James Pope opened up holes for the runners. The Spartans were also able to run a two quarterback system, alternating junior Frank Hill with senior Tony Lilla and getting good production from both players. Another strength was the defensive line of Ehrke, Pope, Rathert, and Hogan. They were able to control the line of scrimmage without help from the linebackers. With title hopes crushed, the team could have folded after the loss to Christ Church, but they did not. They played with heart and for pride. When Chuck Hewitt was injured, Darshan Laborde stepped up and amassed over 1,000 all-purpose yards. Award winners were Darshan Laborde, MVP; Anthony Williams, MIP; James Pope, MVDL; Adam Hogan, MVOL; David Brown, MVDB; Tim Ross, MVOB; Mark Sims, MVDP; Tony Lilla, MVOP. Laborde was All-State and All-Area. A Brown, D Brown, Hogan, Laborde, Sims, and Berstler were All-Conference.

Running back Darshan Laborde, MVP, outruns defenders to score one of his many touchdowns this season.

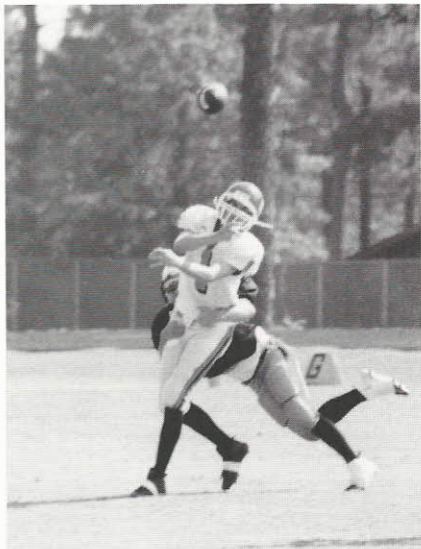

It takes three tacklers to bring down senior Adam Berstler, an All-conference running back and a go-to player in crucial situations.

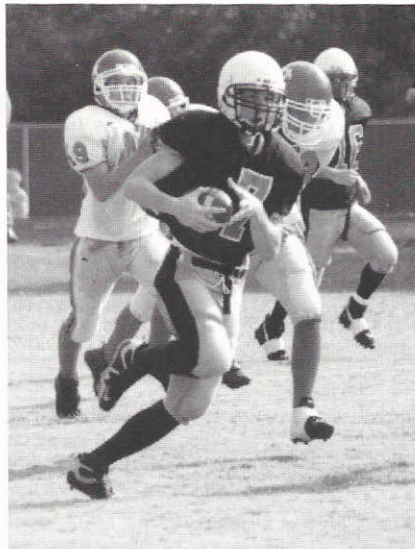

Running back Anthony Williams breaks around right end for a big gain. He was the Most Improved Player for the Spartans this season.

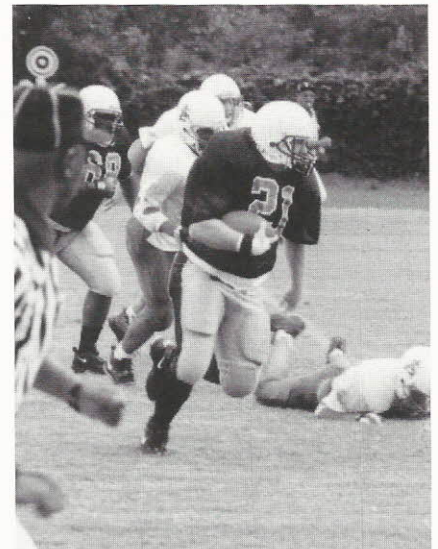

Making the cut, Chuck Hewitt shows the quickness and strength that made him the Spartan's leading rusher early in the season.

David Brown, Most Valuable Defensive Back, spoils the pass and sacks the quarterback.

Quarterback Tony Lilla was a threat as a passer and a runner. Here he breaks coverage and heads for the goal line.

Usually a lineman, Adam Hogan has the ball and will score as Carver blocks up the middle and Clemens covers the end.

The offensive line of Rathert, Hogan, and Pope is set to go as quarterback Tony Lilla calls out the signals.

Quarterback Frank Hill, who alternated this season with Tony Lilla, hands off the ball to fullback Tim Ross.

Team captains James Pope, Tim Ross, and Adam Hogan take to the field to get the action under way.

Junior Varsity Football

From 0-5 in 1999 to 4-1 in 2000 is the story of JV football this season. "Every player gave 100%," said Coach Austin. A high point of the season was a first-ever victory over Charlotte Latin, 20-6. In the team's last game, against Northside Christian, Hoover, Poteet, and McDonald scored touchdowns. On defense, Hoover intercepted two passes, and Bennett, Seigler, Sharpe, and Callaghan turned in outstanding defensive performances. Coach Austin is proud of the way the JV team represented CMA, demonstrating pride, poise, and discipline, on and off the field. Award winners were Hoover and Poteet, MVOP; Seigler, MVDP; Young, MIP; and Callaghan, Coach's Award.

JR HI Football

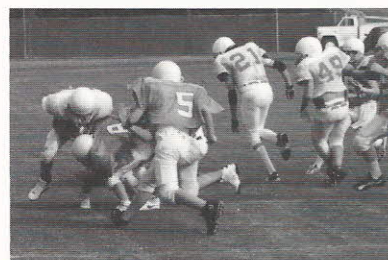

The Spartan JR HI Football Team successfully installed the flex bone offense this year and gave valuable experience to many young men who had never played football before. By the end of the season, the players had come together as a team and had developed an outstanding defense, led by Zachary Lovett. At the top of team accomplishments this season was a first-time victory over perennially strong Charlotte Latin. In the 38-0 win, both Rickey Carothers and Nelson Quinones rushed for 150 yards, and the defense played extremely well. Another strong showing was the win over Northside, when Erik Healy ran back an interception 50 yards for a touchdown. Quinones added 175 yards rushing. "We're looking forward to next year," said Coach Rice. "We will have a much more experienced team." Winning awards were Nelson Quinones, Most Valuable Offensive Player; Zachary Lovett, Most Valuable Defensive Player; Morgan Olufsen and Robert Sjodin, Coach's Award; and Erik Healy, Most Improved Player.

The 2000 soccer team won only half their games but were much improved over the 1999 edition. Every player gave maximum effort this season, losing to conference Champion Christ School only 2-1 in a hard fought contest. Kris Thapoung, Ali Alrumaih, and Justin Reid provided a strong offense, while goalie Tyler Harrill, Erich Weber, J. D. Causey, and Eckerd O'Herron led the defensive effort. Coach Hewitt is looking forward to this year's spring season: "We're going to have a great spring season--lots of games close to home, less travel time. It will be fun." Award winners were TG Harrill, MVP; JD Causey, MVDP; JM Reid, MVOP; and GH Neither, MIP.

Varsity Basketball

The 2001 basketball Spartans played to an 12-6 regular season record. "We were versatile," said Coach Priester. "We could start several different lineups and give our opponents different looks." The team played with heart and were in a position to win almost every game. Darshan Laborde, Anthony Williams, Peter Rooney, and Chad Myers (at times the best player on the floor) provided most of the offensive power that blew some opponents away. Center Bron Rathert and forward Jorge Tillman were strong on the boards and provided interior defense. Maurice Hoover stepped up late in the season to do an excellent job at point guard. Coming off the bench at forward, Frank Hill was always a solid player. Senior Jason Horne was one of the key competitive elements, providing the leadership to hold the team together on and off the court. Playing basketball for the first time, Danieve Harper improved greatly over the season. Thez Robinson, an outstanding athlete, gave the team another reliable performer off the bench when he arrived second semester. Promoted to the varsity late in the season, jayvee players Tyler Harrill and Tony Swinton will provide leadership next season. "Overall," observed Coach Priester, "we had an impressive season."

A consistent outside scorer, Peter Rooney fires his jump shot from three-point range.

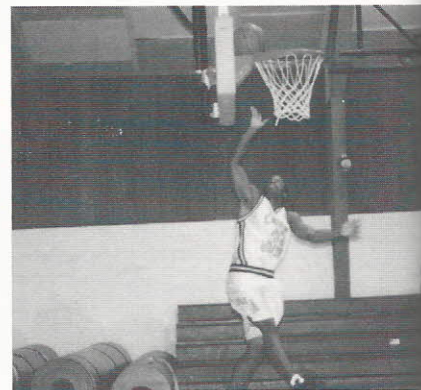

Splitting two defenders, senior guard Jason Horne launches his deadly jumper.

Junior point guard Maurice Hoover gets ready to penetrate the defense.

Senior forward Thez Robinson steals the ball an uncontested lay-up.

JV Basketball

A solid Spartan JV Team went 5-3 this season and bolstered the winning tradition. With only one player returning, this was a "reloading" year. True cardiac kids, the team had one single-point loss at the buzzer, another in overtime, and a one-point win on the road at Lewisville. Only six points separated the Spartans from an undefeated season. The goals of the team this year were to teach the players to use proper individual skills in a structured team concept--to play fundamental, disciplined basketball--and to continue the winning tradition that has clearly emerged in the JV basketball program in recent years. "The Players worked hard and showed a lot of improvement over the course of the season," said Coach Horn. "Several of them have the ability to move up and contribute to the varsity next year."

Cross-country

Most Valuable Runner, senior Perry Eubank has been a mainstay of the Spartan Team during his running career.

Spartans: Jonathan Kaylor, James Denman, Perry Eubank Row 2: Kyle Markey, Eric Jukna, Jorge Rosa, Billy Orris Row 3: Coach LePage

MVP last year, Billy Orris received the Coach's Award in 2000 for his contribution to Spartan success.

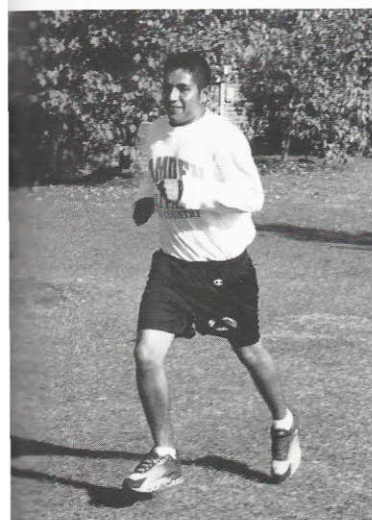

In his first year as a Spartan runner, eighth grader Kyle Markey is gaining valuable experience for the future.

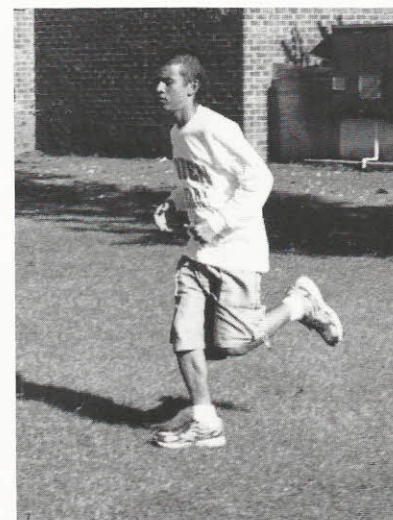

The efforts of senior James Denman and his teammates this year were characterized by hard work and determination.

The 2000 season was a transition year for the Spartans, who moved from the CAA to the Midlands Conference and consequently had an abbreviated schedule this season. Only Billy Orris, Jorge Rosa, and Kyle Markey will return to form the nucleus of next year's Spartan Team. All other members of the team are graduating seniors. Led by Billy Orris, who has won awards during his first two years as a runner, the Spartans have reason for optimism in 2001.

Hard work and determination made senior Eric Jukna a co-winner of the Coach's Award this year.

Junior Jorge Rosa will return as an experienced runner to bolster Spartan fortunes in 2001.

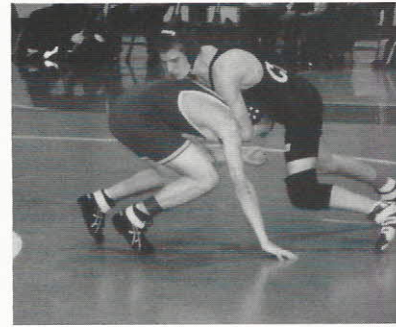

Spartans Markey, Jukna, Eubank, Rosa, Kaylor, and Orris do wind sprints on the CMA track to increase their stamina.

Wrestling

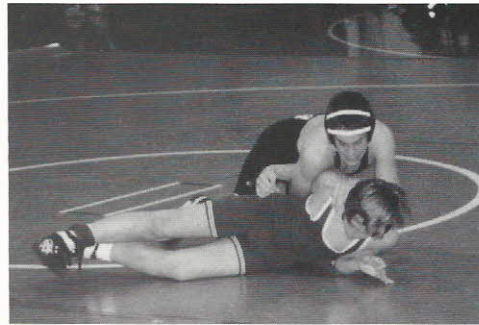

Coaches Hewitt and Dority had two primary pre-season objectives for Spartan wrestling this year: to schedule 20 or more matches and be competitive against good teams and to put athletes on the mat who were committed to giving it their all for the entire season. The team motto was "Only quitting is worse than losing." In years past the wrestling team sometimes has had a habit of slacking off down the stretch. "This year we still had 14 weight classes filled at season's end," said Coach Dority. "There was no quit in this team." The team record for the year was 15-6, the best ever for Spartan wrestling. The four teams to which the Spartans lost were dominant in their respective conferences. Whatever their individual records, all Spartan wrestlers made important contributions to the team's overall success: Nate Harley 16-11, Karl Kakadelis 5-8, Patrick Charping 0-2, Brandon Yountz 5-10, Matt Gankowski 20-8, Jorge Rosa 10-10, Jesse Callaghan 11-7, JD Causey 12-8, Cassie Kinard 11-15, Adam Berstler 18-8, David Brown 17-9, Joey Schnau 11-5, Chuck Poteet 3-5, John Stamm 22-3, Jon McCourt 22-4, Hans Birnbrich 0-1, Lance Wilcox 16-7, Augustus Brown 2-3, Nelson Quinones 0-6, Lance Lott 2-3, Collin Higgins 4-5, Billy Orris 1-0, Damien Prince 1-1.

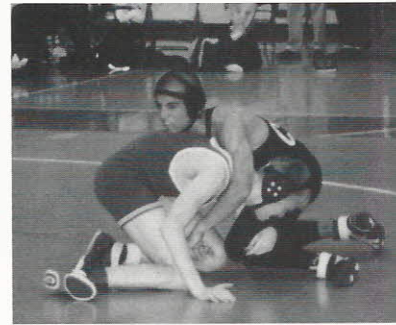

CMA wrestlers go through their warmup routine.

Karl Kakadelis uses a front face lock to take down his opponent.

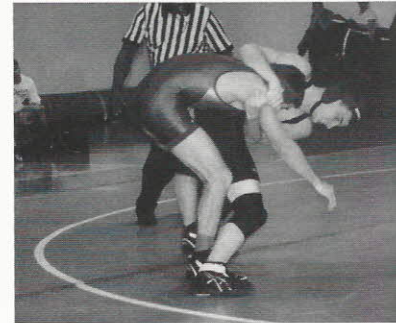

The chicken wing is the right move as Matt Gankowski goes for the pin.

Jorge Rosa grapples with his opponent, trying to roll him over for a pin.

Cassie Kinard throws a barnyard on Indianland wrestler.

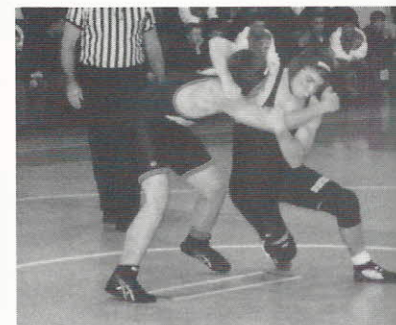

Lance Lott attacks swiftly and gets the pin.

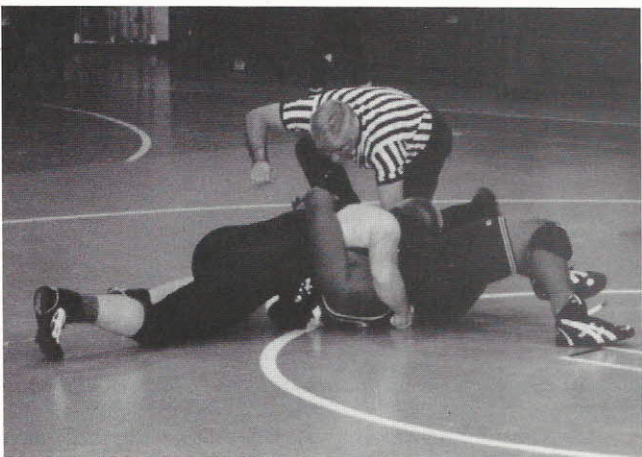

Hans Birnbrich jockeying for position, ready to make his move.

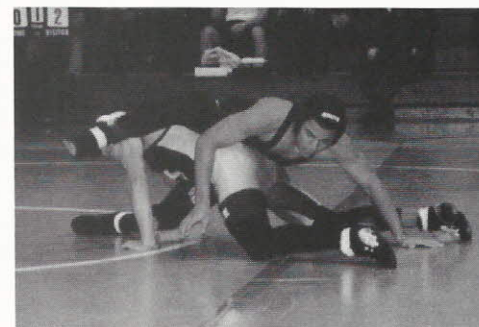

John Causey breaks down his man with a hand chop.

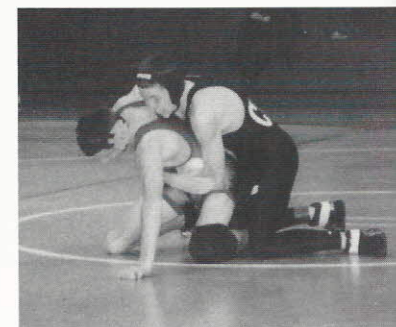

David Brown deftly applies the barnyard favorite move.

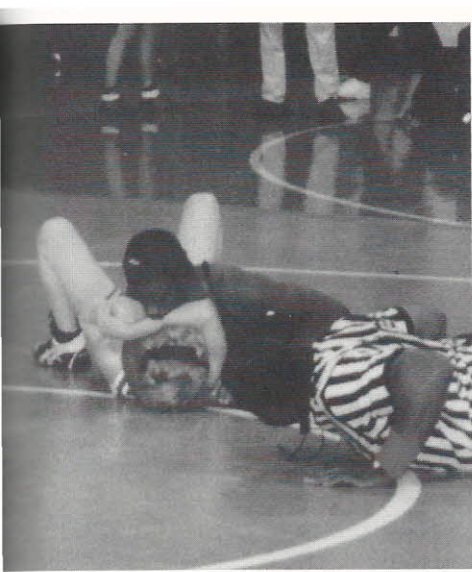

Getting the early advantage, Collin Higgins pins the Camden High School wrestler.

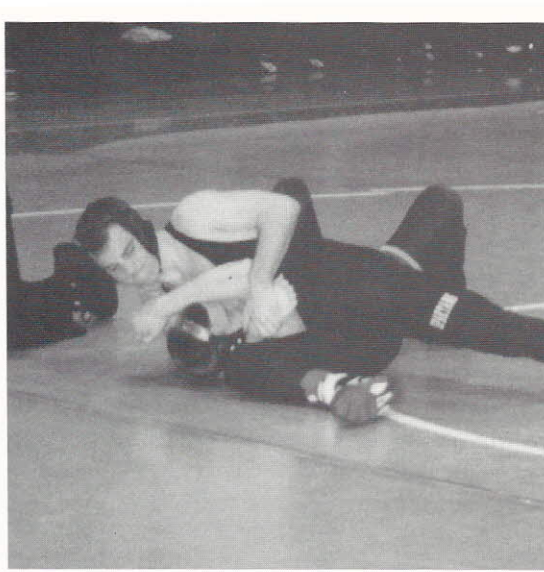

Nelson Quinones bullrides the Charlotte Latin wrestler.

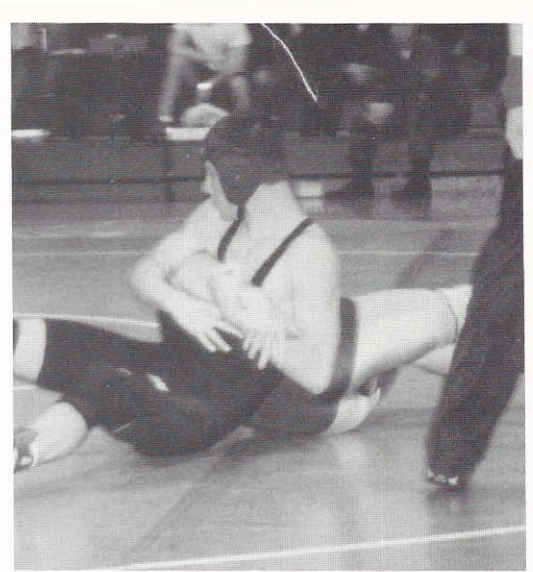

Brandon Yountz applies magnum force in bringing his opponent down.

Harley outmuscles his opponent from North Central and gets the pin.

Employing the barnyard, Adam Berstler pins the North Central wrestler.

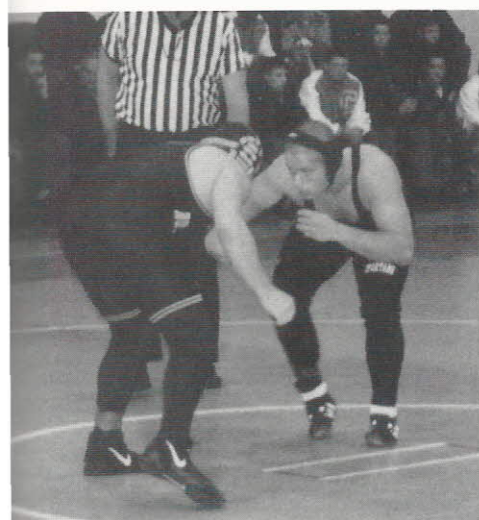

Joey Schnau reverses his opponent with a Peterson roll.

More Activities

In 2001 every CMA cadet was involved in one or more of the many student activities available on campus. Intramural sports during activity period provide athletic opportunities for cadets of every skill level. Choices include flag football, frisbee, pushball, basketball, weightlifting, bowling, soccer, martial arts, and lacrosse. The yearbook, newspaper, and literary magazine staffs provide outlets for those cadets with journalistic or literary proclivities. Delta Kappa Sigma, the CMA honor society, and Junior Leadership recognize campus leaders, shaping and using their abilities in effective ways. The Academy continues its association with the Kershaw County Fine Arts Center, which includes programs at the Center and on the CMA campus. Flexible and innovative, the CMA activities program provides extracurricular opportunities for all cadets. These activities afford a constructive diversion from the classroom and at the same time open avenues for learning and for exploring new areas of interest.

Quality Keeps Pace with Growth

Since Camden Military Academy's enrollment has increased significantly this year, there were some concerns that the quality of instruction might be adversely affected; but adjustments were made quickly to keep the student-teacher ratio at sixteen to one or lower. Two well-qualified teachers were added second semester, one in English and another in mathematics. Two temporary classrooms were set up, pending new construction. The Academy has a sound plan and has responded effectively to the larger numbers. The academic goal of the Academy remains the same: to produce students who can succeed in college level studies, in other post-secondary pursuits, and in meeting the usual challenges of life. A traditional curriculum that includes Latin is mixed with approaches that seek to use computers in the most efficacious ways. What has worked for us in the past will continue to be effective: small classes, highly qualified teachers, and monitored study halls. These practices will remain at the core of our academic system, but we will continuously evaluate our curriculum and methods to determine the most productive ways to help our young men learn.

Having served as academic dean for fifteen years, LTC Kelly R. Schrader brings to that position the insight of an overall twenty-one years of experience at Camden Military Academy. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of South Carolina.

MAJ Dave LePage gives one of his detailed explanations in chemistry class. MAJ LePage is a science instructor, head of the Science Department, and assistant academic dean. In addition, he controls the CMA computerized grading system, inputting and accessing all data.

LTC W. C. Mobley heads the Social Studies Department and teaches history. He also coaches varsity football and accompanies cadets on the annual trip to Washington, D. C., where he provides them with insights into our nation's history.

Head of the Foreign Language Department, LTC Mohsen Ferjani is a popular instructor of French. He also coaches bowling and sponsors the the International Club.

LTC Dave Roberts is a mathematics instructor and head of the Mathematics Department. He coaches varsity football and baseball in addition to his academic duties.

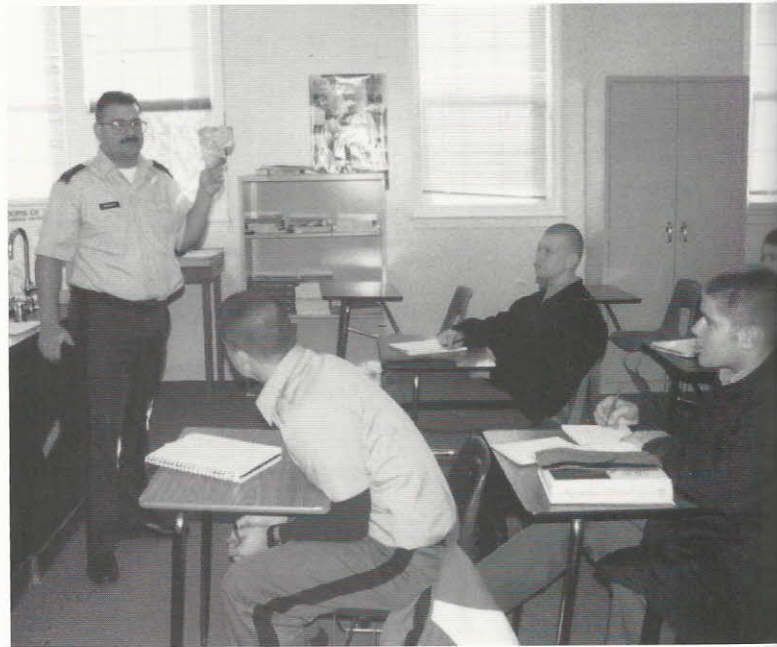

Major Deborah Hartley heads the Effective Learning Program, but she is always available to any cadets who seek her out. Known for her understanding manner, she can also be firm in matters of character and responsibility.

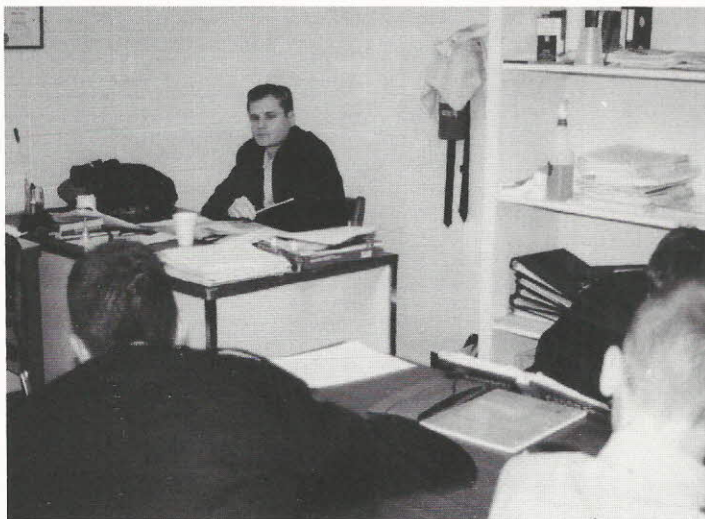

Location, Innovation, Tradition

In real estate it is location, location, location; in education it is innovation, innovation, innovation; and in the military it is tradition, tradition, tradition. One reason for our success at CMA is our ability to use all three of these ideas in their correct perspective. Located in a beautiful city and a great state, our campus reflects an openness and inviting atmosphere that our students grow to appreciate. The campus mirrors the relationship established between cadets and faculty and staff--open and willing to help at all times. Innovation alone can be a disaster. Educational experimentation can be good in the long term, but it can put some students at a disadvantage. Innovation is always a consideration, but never at the expense of our academic program. Using technology is important, but never takes the place of the student-teacher interaction. Although tradition is an important part of every organization's sense of continuity, and certainly in a school, it can be a stumbling block to progress if it is adhered to blindly, without reason. The appropriate blend of location, innovation, and tradition is a key to the success of the academic program and assures each of us the maximum effectiveness of our time and efforts.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader
Academic Dean

LTC Greg Simonson, longtime CMA biology instructor, brings enthusiasm and thorough knowledge of his subject to his classes. He also coaches tennis and sponsors the Science Club.

A CMA alumnus and UNC graduate, Major Will Rice teaches social studies and literature. In addition, he coaches football and baseball.

CPT Samuel Cerezo, Spanish instructor, is known for his long assignments and difficult tests. His other duties include sponsoring the International Club and coordinating intramural sports.

MAJ Ron Horn, social studies instructor, brings both knowledge and discipline to his classes. In addition, he coached the JV Basketball team to a winning season this year.

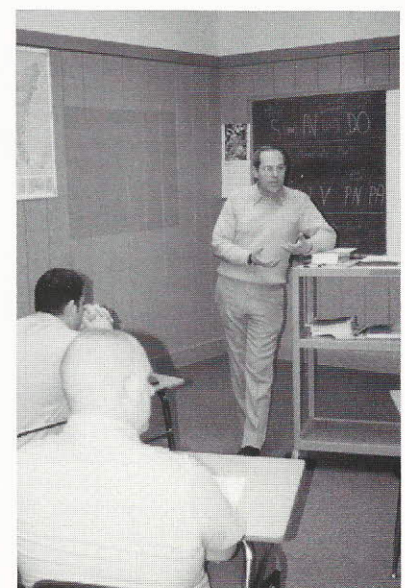

Nearing completion of his Ph.D. in ancient history, CPT James Fitzpatrick is thoroughly prepared to teach both Latin and economics. His broad knowledge of history adds another dimension to his classes. CPT Fitzpatrick also advises the newspaper staff.

Major (Major) Ed Westbury helps cadets in several roles--as pastor, counselor, and history instructor.

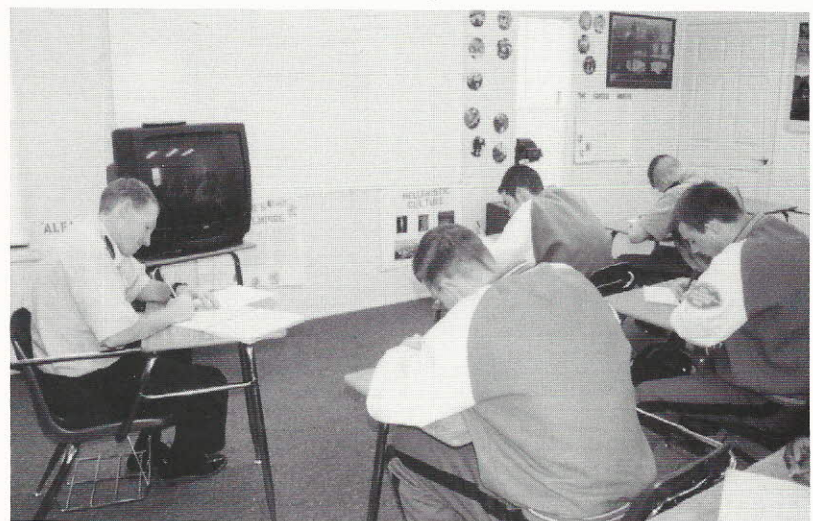

LTC Tom Austin maintains firm discipline in his mathematics classes, but it is accompanied by sound knowledge, thorough preparation, and genuine concern for his students.

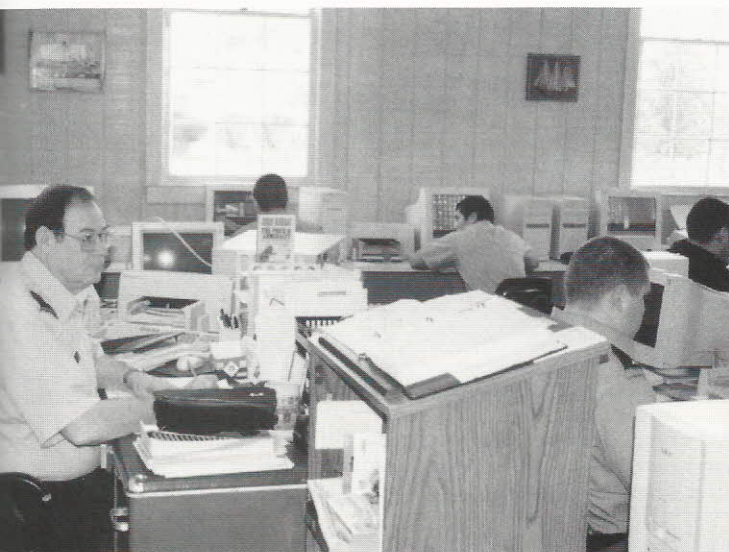

LCDR Doug Marsden, English instructor, holds a bachelor's degree from Mercer and a master's from the Naval Postgraduate School.

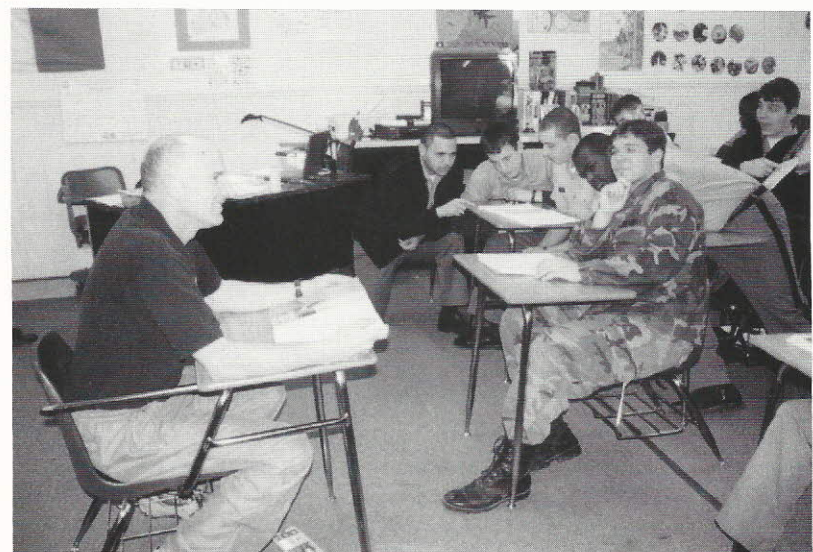

Talented musician and bandmaster, SFC David Green brings many years of experience to his position. He encourages an interest in a variety of music, jazz as well as the stricter disciplines.

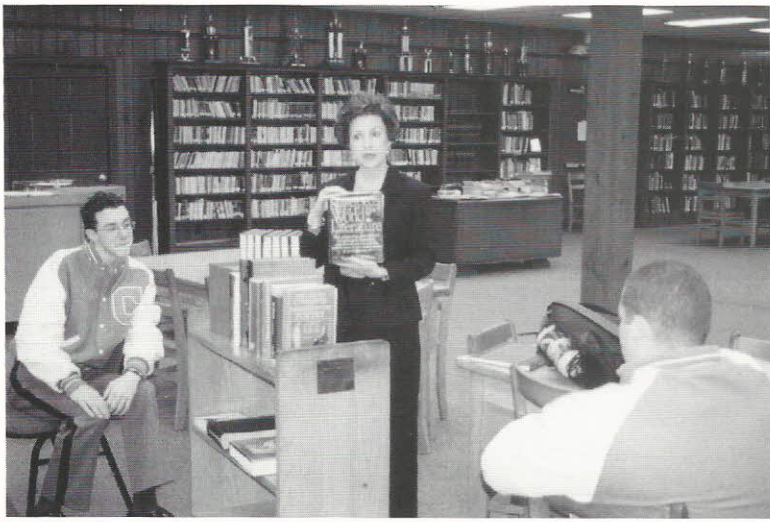

A highly effective teacher of world history and government, CPT Thane Maness also coaches football and baseball.

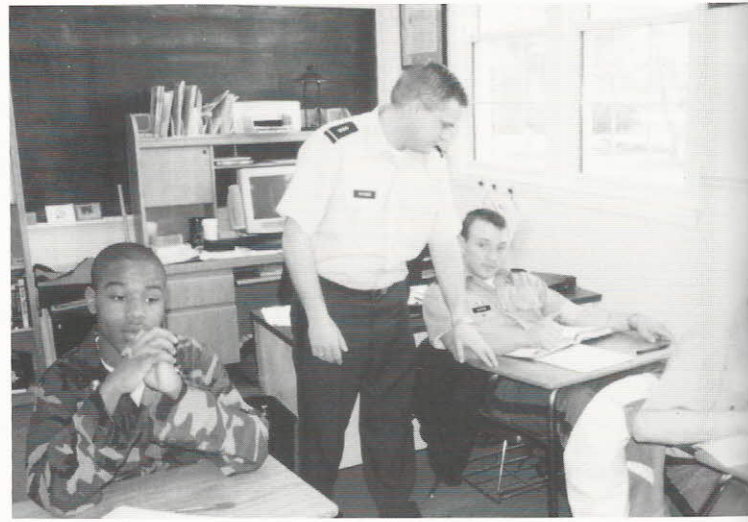

C Robert Thorp, computer science instructor, directs the computer laboratory, performs his duties as school counselor, and runs the CMA Merit System--all in an excellent manner.

A versatile and stimulating science teacher, MSG Tom Hewitt also coaches the very successful CMA Wrestling Team and soccer as well.

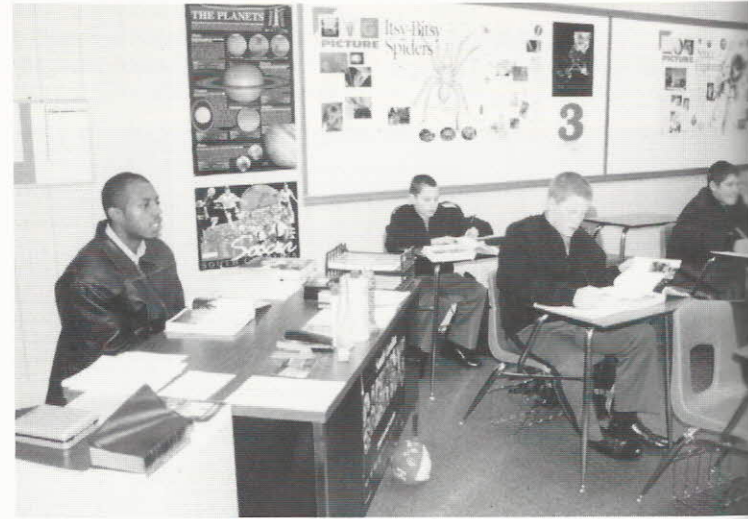

Mrs. Melinda Kane, CMA librarian, identifies and explains sources of literary criticism to an Honor's English IV class. In recent years Mrs. Kane has totally reorganized the library utilizing the latest computer technology.

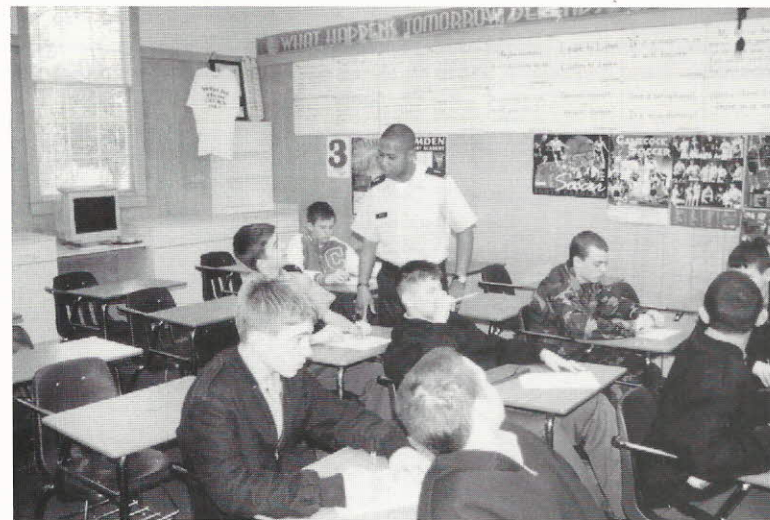

A College of Charleston graduate, Captain Bob Whitmire is also a CMA alumnus. In addition to his duties as a Spanish instructor, Captain Whitmire coaches football and golf.

Captain Ed Porter, an experienced mathematics teacher, also provides many years of acquired expertise to the varsity football program.

Captain Ricardo Priester, mathematics teacher and science instructor, is the coach of the varsity basketball team. A CMA alumnus, he is one of several teachers who have come back to their educational roots.

A former manager of the University of South Carolina Basketball Team, Captain John Heflin is a gifted social studies teacher who uses sports in the context of his classes to create heightened interest.

A poet and a sports enthusiast, Captain Lee Westbury teaches English, serves as an announcer for football, basketball, and soccer games, coaches lacrosse, and advises the staff of Cadet, the CMA literary magazine.

Activity and Creativity

Major LePage, science instructor, presides over the annual rocket launching. Physics students build their own rockets, decorate them creatively, then launch them after they are judged by the faculty. Chuck Hewitt prepares to fire off his creation.

As the odor of formaldehyde attests, it is cat time again in LTC Simonson's biology class. Senior Ren Stanley holds one of the "critturs" that are skinned, eviscerated, chopped up, and otherwise analyzed to teach students more about the mammalian body.

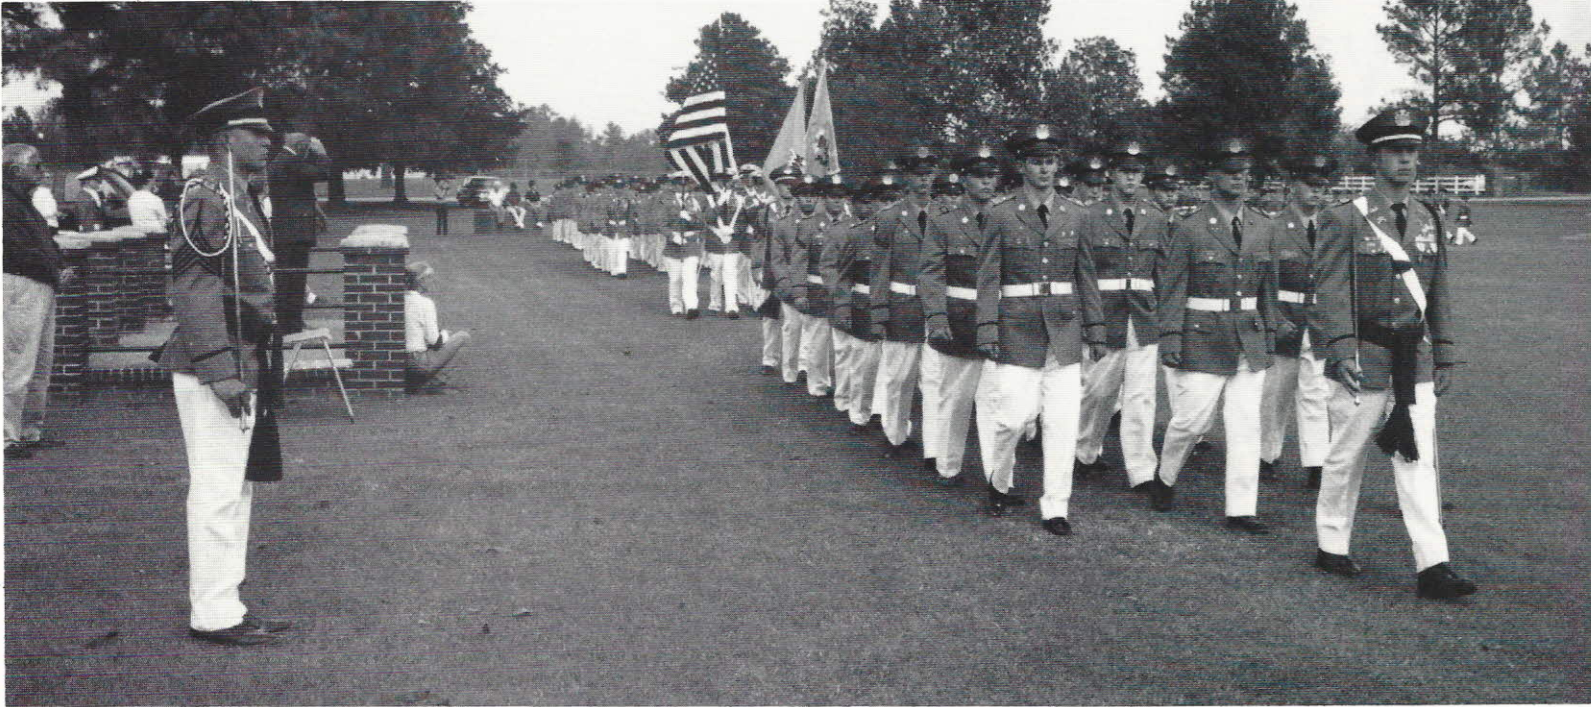

If this were a painting, it would be called Cerezo among the Pinatas. Captain Cerezo, Spanish instructor, has his students make pinatas as a part of their immersion in Hispanic culture.

Mrs. Sharon Schrader, reading instructor, teaches students from the seventh to the twelfth grade. The reading program, which involves computer testing, reaches all CMA students at one time or another and has been highly effective in increasing interest in reading and in improving reading skills.

“There is a passion for hunting-- something deeply implanted in the human breast.” -Charles Dickens

May you grow in your desire to pursue not only the unique excitement of the hunt, but also to follow the One who created everything we enjoy.

Adam, it has been a privilege to accompany you on journeys past.

We look forward to your adventures yet to come.

With great pride, support and much love always, Mom and Dad.

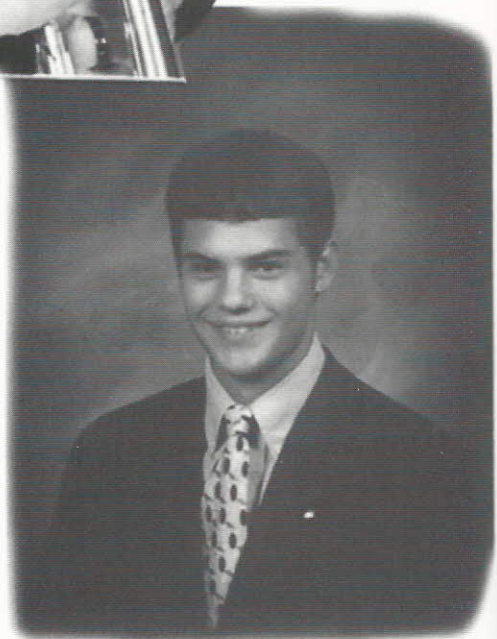

Jonathan A. Kaylor

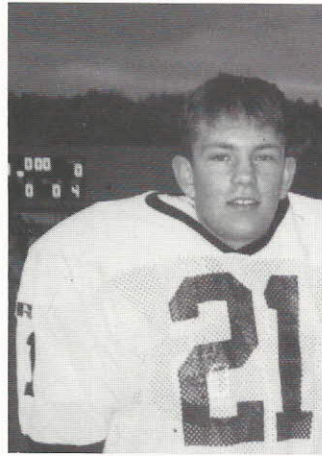

Jonathan,

Use your determination to reach all of your goals and make your dreams come true. When life gets a little rough, as it surely will, look to God for strength and direction. He is always there for you, and so are we. We love you more than words can express.

Mother and Dad

Owen Paisley Anderson

You are such a delightful son, supportive brother, loving grandson and a gift to all whose lives you touch.

Congratulations to a special young man whom we are so very proud of!

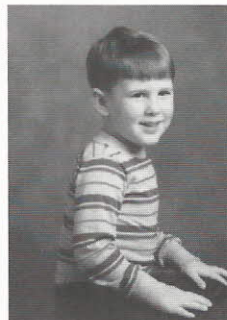

God Bless You on Your Continuinmg Journey. . . .

Mom, Dad, Carson, Heather, and Lee

Timothy Roy Ross

I was never so blessed as I was the day you were born. With each passing day, I have felt more and more blessed to have you as my son. You and I have been through a lot, but we have survived it all. I've always wanted to be able to give you more outside of an education at CMA, but I guess you've noticed that you will need to provide the "more" part for yourself. The past four and half years have been very difficult, not only for you, but also for me and your grandparents. However, I know that someday you will be able to say that CMA was the best thing for you. Tim, I always knew that you could do it. There is no one on this earth who is as proud of their son as I am of you. You have become a strong and mature young man. May all your hopes and dreams come true. I only wish you much happiness and success in the coming years. I love you, Tim, with all my heart and soul.

My love forever,
Mom

Josh Godwin

Congratulations to
Our Son

You will always be loved and have our support. We will always be proud of you. You are such a great person. Always do your best as you go through life.

May There Never Be a Dream That is Beyond Your Reach

*May there be no dead ends in your life and no roads traveled without blessings.
May no day be too short
to fit love and laughter into it;
may time never be so scarce that you cannot give yourself some quiet and gentle thoughts.
May there be no friends too busy for you and no family member who doesn't greatly love you.*

*May there never be a dream
beyond your reach
or a star that you are unable to touch once you get started on your journey.
May you remember all you have had from the start and all that is yours forever.*

- Mary Klock Labdon

Congratulations, Eric!

*With Love & Pride,
Mom & Dad*

You lived through high school and

Love,

May the good Lord be with you
Down every road you roam.
And may sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far
From home.
And may you grow to be proud,
Dignified and true.
And do unto others as you'd have Done to you.
Be courageous and be brave.
And in my heart you'll always stay
FOREVER YOUNG!

May good fortune be with you.
May your guiding light be strong.
Build a stairway to heaven.
Be a prince or a vagabond.
May you never love in vain.
In my heart you will remain
FOREVER YOUNG!

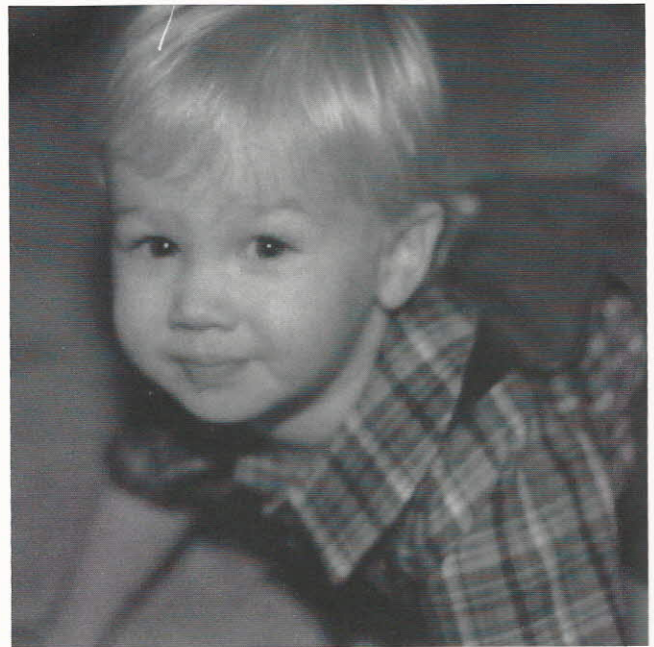

And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served
You well.
For all the wisdom of a lifetime,
No one can ever tell.
But whatever road you choose,
I'm right behind you,
Win or lose.

FOREVER YOUNG!

Love is patient; love is kind and envies no one. Love is never boastful, nor conceited, nor rude; never selfish, not quick to take offense. Love keeps no score of wrongs; does not gloat over another's sins, but delights in the truth. There is nothing love cannot face; there is no limit to its faith, its hope, and its endurance. In a word, there are three things that last forever: faith, hope, and charity; but the greatest of them all is love.

Isn't it strange that princes and kings and clowns who caper in sawdust rings
And simple folk, like you and me,
Are builders of eternity?

A soul to save and set of rules.
Each one will fashion ere life is flown
A stumbling block or stepping stone.

If you can dream—and not make your dreams your master. . .
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worthy of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

To Robert

On Your Graduation...

Look at yourself as you stand among the winners.
 See yourself as one belonging to an elite group of individuals,
 And know that you have accomplished a great success in your life.
 You've taken a dream, added a splash of determination,
 And created the reality which you hold in your hands today.
 And as you stand among the future of our world,
 In that fleeting moment, take time to reflect on the past;
 On obstacles you've had to overcome,
 On mistakes you may have made
 And friends you've known along the way.
 Dream of tomorrow; envision with awe all that it holds for you,
 and be sure that there are no obstacles you can't overthrow,
 And that mistakes can be rectified,
 And that the friends who have been with you will always be with you
 Because the gift of memory will keep them forever alive in your heart.
 So as you end a chapter in your journal of life
 And embark out into an uncharted sea,
 You will tread the uncertain waters with caution, knowledge, and respect.
 For although you can't see to the ocean floor,
 You have the courage to look deep within and make the changes you know you can,
 The knowledge not to disturb the good that is already there,
 And the self-respect to be the best that you can be.

Excalibur Supplement 2001

The Reverend Bruce Hancock, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Camden, delivered the commencement sermon on achieving happiness through selfless service to others and commitment to God. Seated behind the Reverend Crowley are LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Chaplain (MAJ) Ed Westbury, LTC C. H. Armstrong, Colonel William K. Orris, and Mr. J. Banks Scarborough.

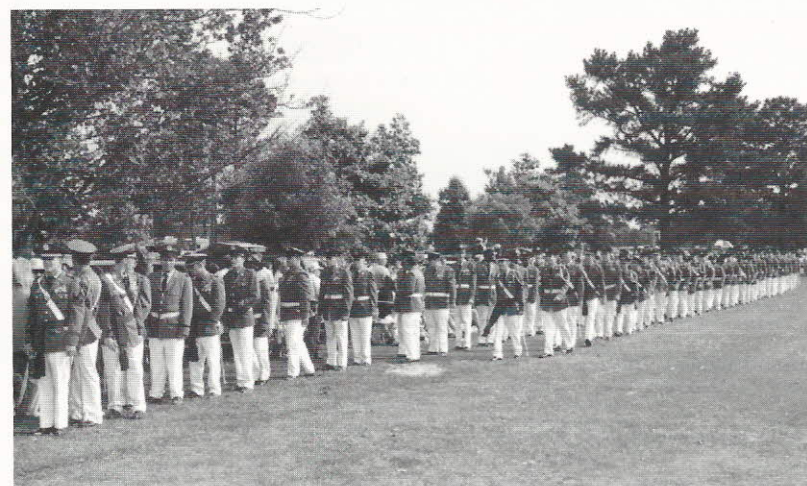

On May 20, 2001, Camden Military Academy presented diplomas to seventy-five cadets, the largest graduating class in the history of the Academy. The graduates will continue their education in institutions of higher learning all over the nation. As his mother takes his picture, Cadet Robert Lee McCants of Sumter, South Carolina, receives his diploma from Colonel William K. Orris, Headmaster, assisted by Mr. J. Banks Scarborough, Board Chairman; LTCC. H. Armstrong, Commandant; and LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean.

The Camden Military Academy Class of 2001, the largest graduating class in Academy history, listen attentively as the Reverend Hancock delivers the commencement sermon.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader, Academic Dean, recognizes CPT Rivers Killen for attaining the highest senior class average.

Prior to the commencement ceremony, the Cadet Corps honored the Class of 2001 with a parade. Senior class members march to the graduation site after the parade.

LTC C. H. Armstrong, Commandant, congratulates 1SG Rustin Gasperson and B Company for achieving the Honor Company distinction. Commanded by CPT Tao Jiang, B Company also won the Academic and Best Drilled Awards. The Athletic Award went to C Company; the Spirit Award, to D Company.

Spring Events

Parents Day: On May 4 CMA honored all parents with a reception in the Risher Administration Building and a parade. Band Company passes in review.

100 Night Dinner: Seniors Myers, Killen, Michaud, McCall, Hogan, Webb, and Horne wait for steak and eagerly anticipate graduation day.

Spring Sports Banquet: Track MVP's FA Ramsey and TT Robinson receive awards from Coaches Reuw Marsden, Priester, and LTC Boland, Athletic Director.

Upton Trio: A surprise to some, cadets enthusiastically responded to this very talented chamber group who presented music from the opera Carmen.

Academic Field Day: Once again it is time for cerebral cadets to demonstrate their acumen. MAJ LePage queries this eager group of blustering scholars.

Athletic Field Day: Track events are exciting, but the real fun comes with the egg toss. Ren Stanley awaits the toss as Graham Chrisley fumbles his egg.

Tennis

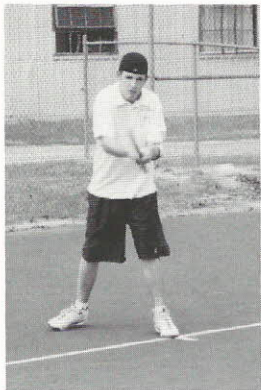

"I'm proud of this year's team. We had a good season," observed Coach Simonson. MVP Aaron Chapman had a nearly perfect year, and Gray Burch, Brad Pye, Rivers Killen, Frank Aull, and Foster Ramsey all won over half their matches. The two wins against Westminster-Catawba were among the best outings of the season. Receiving awards were Aaron Chapman, Most Valuable Player; Gray Burch, Coach's Award; and Frank Aull, Most Improved Player.

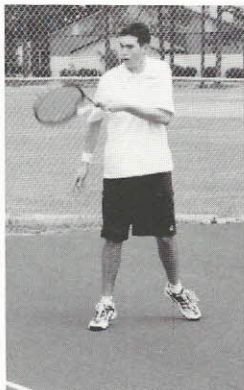

Spartans: Coach Simonson, Bryan Thompson, Gray Burch, Foster Ramsey, Frank Aull, Rivers Killen, Aaron Chapman, and Brad Pye

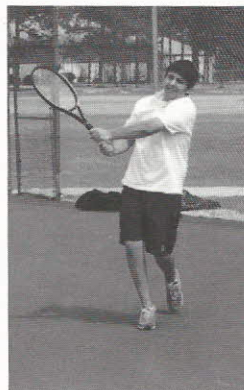

Senior MVP Aaron Chapman slaps a two-handed backhand across the net. He led the Spartans in 2001.

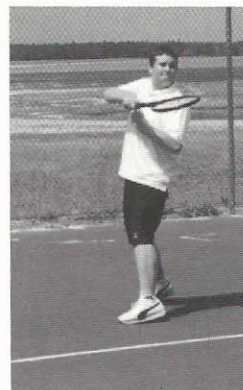

Coach's Award winner Gray Burch returns the ball with force.

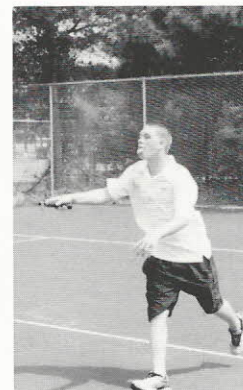

MIP Frank Aull demonstrates his effective forehand.

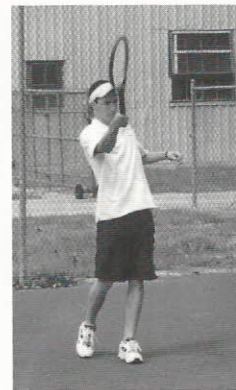

Senior Rivers Killen slices a backhand into his opponent's corner.

Freshman Brad Pye was a reliable performer for the Spartans this season.

Displaying his unique style, Bryan Thompson hits an approach shot.

Senior Foster Ramsey exhibits a smooth forehand stroke.

Baseball

Conference Champions

Spartans: AS Hemphill, ML Olufsen, NM Quinones, CE Hewitt, WM Cabbage, AV Lilla
Row 2: Coach Rice, DH Wall, Coach Roberts, MJ Webb, RT Stanley, DC Hudson, RJ Parkman, CS Clemens, PP Rooney, Coach Maness

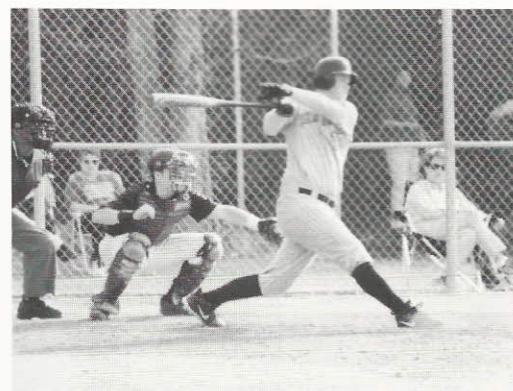

The Spartans won the CAA Championship and lost by a single run in the state playoffs. "The players were dedicated, hardworking, and at the same time showed courage, teamwork, and class," said Coach Maness. The heavy hitting of David Hudson and Rhett Parkman supported Peter Rooney's excellent pitching. The outstanding fielding and glove work of Ren Stanley, David Hudson, and Hamilton Wall contributed to Spartan success. The team lived up to their motto: "Finish!" "I am also proud of the coaching staff," Coach Maness commented, "and appreciate all they have done." Winning awards were Hudson and Rooney, MVP; Parkman, E. Haines Gregg Award; and Wall, MIP. Hudson, Rooney, and Parkman were All-Conference players as well.

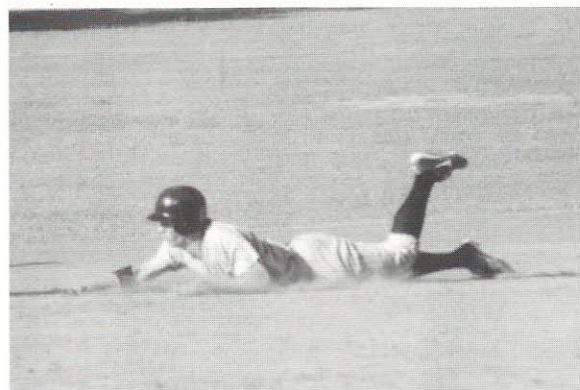

All-Conference MVP Peter Rooney had a 9-3 pitching record this season and will return to lead the Spartans in 2002.

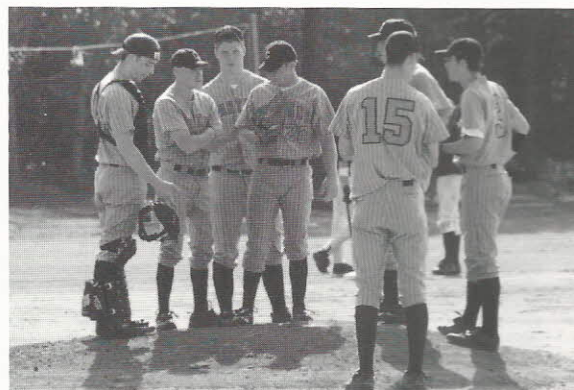

As All-Conference senior MVP David Hudson demonstrates, playing first often requires picking balls out of the dirt.

Rhett Parkman, All-Conference third baseman and a mighty hitter, exhibits his classic swing.

MIP Hamilton Wall slides into second base. Wall bolstered the Spartans with his leadership, desire to win, and effort.

Catcher Johnny Webb, Coach Maness, Rhett Parkman, David Hudson, and Whit Cabbage go to the mound to parley with pitcher Peter Rooney.

Senior utility player Chuck Hewitt contributed pitching, fielding, and hitting.

After making a spectacular diving backhand catch, senior Ren Stanley makes the throw to first base for the out.

Junior Whit Cabbage wielded a sure glove at second base all season and will be back to play a leading role next year.

Playing one of the toughest positions in baseball, senior catcher Johnny Webb was fearless and reliable behind the plate.

Track

Rashad Willoughby was CMA's fastest miler this year and won an award for his outstanding performance.

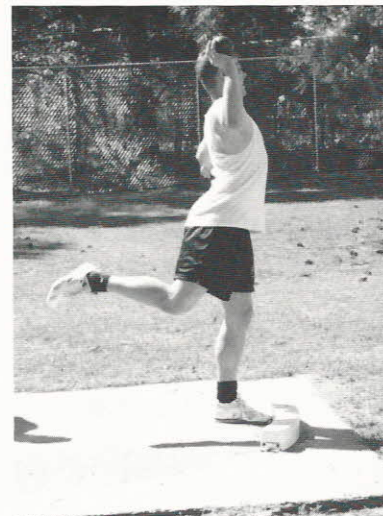

In an outstanding year, the Spartan Track and Field Team met all its goals and laid the foundation for greater success in the future. They learned to understand and live with the joy and pain of running well, to exceed their own capabilities, to raise their own expectations, and to support one another as a team unit. By the end of the season, the Spartans had whittled their numbers down to a dedicated 24. The team's efforts and aspirations came together at the Heathwood Hall Invitational Track Meet, where CMA beat eight strong schools, including Orangeburg Prep, Heathwood Hall, Hammond, Wilson Hall,

In one of the most difficult field events, Victor Sanchez carried the load for the Spartans in the pole vault this season.

Junior Frank Hill shows the form that made him a consistent winner in high jump competition in 2001.

Senior Jonathan McCourt's superior strength enabled him to defeat most of his opponents in the shot put this year.

Spartans: DS Prince, VR Sanchez, JM Chandler, JT Stamm, FA Ramsey, RL Boschetti
Row 2: RB Johnson, JH Pearson, DO Spencer, RG Tadlock, NT Allen, HE Meise
Row 3: AC Brown, TA Hardy, RJ Willoughby, EM Weber, TB Wood, CE Stamey
Row 4: Coach Marsden, Coach Reuwer

and Thomas Sumter. Foster Ramsey and Thez Robinson set new school records: Ramsey in the 300 meter hurdles and Robinson in the 200 meter dash. Winning awards this season were MVP's Ramsey and Robinson; Damien Prince, Most Improved; Rashad Willoughby, Fastest Miler; Jacob Chandler, Heart and Soul Award; and Robert Johnson, Manager's Award. In 5 meets the 2001 Spartans had 13 wins against 6 losses. They finished 2nd in the conference. A solid core of young, enthusiastic athletes will return in 2002 to continue the precedent of high standards set this year.

On the track or in the broad jump, 8th grader Damien Prince, MIP, excels.

With his smooth style and superior stamina, senior MVP Foster Ramsey had an outstanding year and set a school record in the 300 meter hurdles.

Sophomore Jacob Chandler is a tough competitor who won the Heart and Soul Award for superlative effort this season.

Senior John Stamm and junior Erich Weber were always reliable performers.

Taking first and second place, Frank Hill and Dwayne Kinney give the effort that CMA runners exhibited all season.

Senior Rafael Boschetti and Jacob Chandler finish one and two.

Soccer

This spring the Spartan Soccer Team wanted to compete with any team in the state and very nearly did. Ten consecutive shutouts is a rare achievement, but winning the Gator Classic Soccer Tournament and defeating several strong 4A public schools in the process is an even greater accomplishment. Kris Thapoung was a commanding force at midfield and controlled the tempo of the games. James Bakker, Eckerd O'Herron, Eric Jukna, Matt Hamilton, and goalkeeper Tyson Young comprised the "Iron Curtain" defense. Leading the offense were Ali Alrumaih and Aiden Hanlon, who were able to find the net often. The Spartans finished 14-3 with a top ten ranking by The State newspaper. Winning awards were Kris Thapoung, MVP; Eric Jukna, Coach's Award; Ali Alrumaih, Most Valuable Offensive Player; James Bakker, Most Valuable Defensive Player; and Karl Kakadelis, Most Improved Player.

Spartans: TA Hardy, WI Coltharp, KE Thapoung, A Alrumaih, BT Hancock Row 2: CE Martin, KJ Markey, CC Charing, DR Sheriff, KM Kakadelis, EM Harrill, SC Ardoline, JT Wiggins, AJ Tossey, Coach Hewitt Row 3: AS Durkalec, EL Edwards, DK Douglas, GH Neither, JT Kennedy, SE Kilkuskie, AE Berstler, ME O'Herron, EM Jukna, JF Bakker, MC Hamilton, HN Birnrich, SW Meyer, AB Hanlon, TC Young

MVP Kris Thapoung controls the ball. He was a dominant force at midfield all season.

MVOP Ali Alrumaih found the net with great frequency this season.

MVDP James Bakker led the Spartan's renowned "Iron Curtain" defense.

Eric Jukna, Coach's Award winner, captures the ball after a scuffle.

Lacrosse

In this first year of Spartan Lacrosse, the goals were to learn the basics of the game, have fun, exhibit outstanding sportsmanship, and give 100%. All goals were met. "This was the most motivated and enthusiastic team that I have been a part of in all my years at CMA," said Coach Austin. He is proud of the team's dedication, commitment, and hard work. Seth Dell scored the first goal ever by a CMA Lacrosse team, but Ryan McDonald was the season's leading scorer with 3 goals. Senior Collin Higgins was outstanding on defense, especially in the second game against Charlotte Latin. Ray Terry and Matt Amendola were consistently strong on both the offensive and defensive sides of the field. All players made significant contributions to the team effort. The 2001 season was an exciting and promising start for CMA Lacrosse. Award winners were Ryan McDonald, MVOP; Collin Higgins, MVDP; Helgi Olafson, Coach's Award, and Matt Amendola, MIP.

Rob Riner and Charlie Hayes fight for the ball as Matt Amendola and Seth Dell come in to assist.

Leading scorer Ryan McDonald drives to the goal.

Senior Collin Higgins alertly anticipates a shot.

Jarad McKenna clears the ball and heads toward the goal.

Golf

Injuries to Joey Jones and Jason Horne slowed the Spartans in the early going this year, but the team came back to finish strong with a stellar 158 stroke performance against ever formidable Asheville School in the last round of the regular season. Steady play earned the Spartans a 4th place slot in the conference tournament and All-Conference honors for Joey Jones. "I've never coached a finer group on or off the course," said Coach Mobley. Next year's prospects are bright with Joey Jones, Colin Buchanan, Tyler Harrill, and Michael Exum returning. Winning awards were Rivers Killen, Most Valuable Player; Joey Jones, Coach's Award; and Colin Buchanan, Most Improved Player.

Spartans: Jason Horne, Rivers Killen, Joey Jones Row 2: Coach Mobley, Tyler Harrill, Michael Exum, Colin Buchanan

All-Conference Coach's Award winner Joey Jones will lead the Spartan campaign next year.

As Colin Buchanan watches, junior Michael Exum deftly guides the ball toward the cup.

Senior Rivers Killen, MVP, hits out of the sand. His play has been outstanding all through his prep career.

Showing excellent form, junior Tyler Harrill tees off on number 1 at white Pines. He is one of the reasons for optimism in 2002.

Colin Buchanan, MIP, hits his second shot on number 3 at White Pines. He will return as an experienced senior on the Spartan team next season.

Senior Jason Horne rolls the ball toward the hole. Bothered by injuries this season, he still played an important role in the Spartan lineup.
