Pecan Festival

The 15th annual N.C. Pecan Harvest Festival was held in Whiteville, North Carolina. The Festival has a variety of activities, entertainment, and plenty of the superior nut on hand. Some of the Pecan Harvest highlights include: the festival parade, a tour of elegant Whiteville homes, and headliner entertainment.

Mrs. Suzanne King, festival executive committee member, is a liaison between the festival and the N.C. Pecan Grower Association. Mrs. King's husband is a CMU Alumnus, William "Billy" King, Class of 1966. Each year LTC. Heflin takes cadets to escort the belles. Mrs. King stated, "Some of what makes our festival unique is that it has Pecan Festival belles, a luncheon and house tours."

This year the Pecan Harvest Festival Celebrity King was Jackson Brundage of Warner Bros. hit TV show One Tree Hill.

State Champs

The 2008 football season was special. The Spartans went 10-0 and won the CIAA State Championship. One key for success was a core group of returning players and talented newcomers. The chemistry of this team was outstanding. The players really enjoyed being around one another. The team worked hard all season and was rewarded for their efforts. The Spartans' attitude on game day was "Refuse To Lose." The team won two games in the last plays of the games. The 2008 team also set 17 school records - nine on offense and eight on defense.

Outstanding performers on this year's squads include: Jordan Ilbrink, Matt Repass, Cliff Stevenson, Aaron Ross, Apollo Pegues, Grady Ditumona, David Ford, Austin Baker, Eric Otokawa, and Brodrick Dixon.

The Spartans block the punt.

Jordan Ilbrink has his back against tacklers as David Ford looks to take advantage of a hole in the defensive line.

68 Matt Repass going for the touchdown on fourth and long.

Aaron Pegues running for yet another big gain, making road kill out of the defense in the process.

Quarterback Matt Repass was the field general who took the Spartans undefeated to a conference title. Great job Matt!

JV Football

The J.V. football coaches set some goals before the season started this year. The first goal was for the young men to have some fun at football. The second goal was to win some ball games and the third goal was to prepare these young men for competition at the varsity level. In all aspects of life one needs a plan to be successful.

The first goal of having fun playing football was not always easy, but we, as coaches, felt like this goal was accomplished. On the last day of practice, before the last game of the season, our players did not want to leave the field. They were really enjoying the day of hitting and did not want it to end.

It has been a few years since our J.V. team won a game. This year we tasted victory and it helped make our season a success. The last goal of preparing these players for next year's varsity was also attained, although difficult to do in one year. After our season ended, several of our players were sent up to the varsity to help them with their last few games.

The coaches really enjoyed the season and the success these players had this year.

Winning Awards this season were Most Valuable Offensive Player, Louis Cassety; Most Valuable Defensive Player, Garrett Sisler; Most Improved Player, Ray Volpe. The Coaches Award went to Tom Michalk.

Middle School Football

This year, Coach Patrick Fitzgerald and Jonathan Richard welcomed SGM Stokes into the team, which proved to be a huge success for an inexperienced Junior High Team. Though their 0-5 record may not have shown much, this year's team did an excellent job of learning and executing formations and plays that seemed impossible in the beginning. Several season highlights include a 65 yard touchdown run by Cody Owens, and stellar tackles by Christopher Mullings on the defensive line. The individuals who received awards on this years team were, Most Valuable Offense Ben Rackcliff, Most Valuable Defense Chris Mullings, Most Improved Demetrius Bryant and Coaches Award winner Jonathan Taylor.

The Camden Military Academy Cross-country team had another great season. The Spartans followed the tradition of other CMA teams before them by beating teams from much bigger schools such as Marion High School, North Central, and Indian Land. The major goals for this year were to fully understand the concepts of 1Team, 1Dream, and 1Heartbeat. By the end of the season these goals were fulfilled and every team member had a thorough understanding of them. This year's team awards are: MVP: Collins Gundling; Gazelle Award: Sergey Olson; Hustle Award: Jack Davis and Chad Smith; Most Improved: John Yannessa; Coach's Award: Nash Underwood and Matt Volpe; and "Twig" Award: Amit Parmar

Middle School Basketball

The 2008-2009 Junior High basketball season was a year of firsts. Coaches Dan DuPree and SGM David Stokes entered their first season as head and assistant coach respectively, as well as more than half of the players on the roster who were playing organized basketball for the first time. The team enjoyed success straight from the start, defeating Trinity Collegiate in the first game of the season. Victories against Manning Middle School and Orangeburg Prep highlighted the season, with competitive games against the Timmerman School and Fairfield Middle School as well. The team's final record of 6-8 was a great achievement for the players and coaches alike.

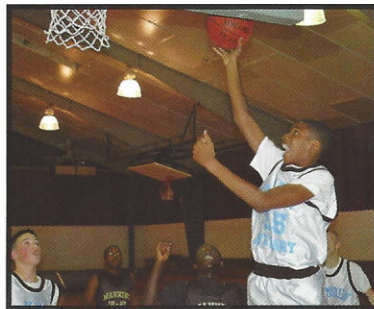

Ray Lock was awarded season MVP after continuous solid performances on the court; culminating in a 26-point performance in the second game against Orangeburg Prep. Dustin Brewington led the team on the defensive end of the court, and was the team leader in rebounds. Most-Improved was Trajan Krause-Lee, a first year player who saw increasing playing time as the season progressed and scored his first career field goal against Trinity Collegiate.

Varsity Basketball

The 2009 basketball season was a year of both ups and downs. The team finished with a record of 9-10. Coach Johnson was happy with the character and the pride his team displayed this season. This team had a "never quit" attitude. They played a very good game in the second round of the conference tournament by beating Prince Avenue Prep in six overtimes. Coach Johnson said, "I am very proud to say I coached these young men this season." Winning awards this season were MVP Matt Repass; Most Valuable Offensive Player Tim Floyd; Most Valuable Defensive Player Jordan Ilbrink; Most Improved Jack Davis; Spartan Award Chad Smith. The two Coaches Awards went to DeAndre Lawrence and Tristan Shore.

JV Basketball

The high turnover of players each year makes the focus of CMA's JV basketball program teaching the individual player how to work within a team concept. This year's team had an overall high basketball IQ. They showed steady improvement throughout the season, which culminated in a victory at home against Marlboro County and on the road against Hammond. The players worked hard, listened carefully, and learned quickly, a fact greatly appreciated by the players, coaches, and fans.

Contributing as regular starters were Greg Dekanski, Collins Gundling, and Zach Loucks at guard with Tom Michalk and Luke Muhirwa at forward. Also contributing as part-time starters and key reserves were DeMontez Lassiter, Nick Lee, Justin Tisdale, and Nash Underwood at guard with Keith Garrison, Malcolm Mathis, Irfaan Mukul and Kristian Thomas at forward. The coaching staff looks forward to many of these players moving up to varsity next year.

Saturday Morning Inspection

Saturday Morning Inspection (SMI) is an experience that cadets will long remember after their time at Camden Military Academy. Although the inspection is not scheduled to begin until nine o'clock in the morning, cadets often begin preparing days in advance, spending hours shining shoes and brass; dusting presses, desks, walls, and window sills; vacuuming floors; cleaning latrines; and making beds. The cadet chain of command and the company tactical officer put the finishing touches on their individual companies.

Intramural Opportunities

At Camden Military Academy every cadet participates in activities outside the class room. Physical training and drill are required of all cadets. Moreover, our no-cut policy assures a place on the team of his choice for every cadet who wishes to participate. In addition, intramural sports during activity periods provide opportunities for cadets at all skill levels. The newspaper and yearbook staffs provide outlets for those cadets with journalistic inclinations. Delta Kappa Sigma, the CMA honor society, and Junior Leadership recognize campus leaders, shaping and using their abilities in effective ways. The Academy continues its relationship with the Kershaw County Fine Arts Center, which includes programs at the center and on campus. Numerous off campus trips are both educational and entertaining. Flexible and innovative, the CMA Activities Program provides recreational and learning opportunities for all cadets. These activities afford a constructive diversion from the classroom and at the same time open new avenues for learning and for exploring new areas of interest.

Spartan Challenge

A new tradition has been started at Camden Military Academy, where teamwork plays an important ingredient in the outcome of the days events. Each company, Alpha, Bravo, Charlie, Delta, and Band & Staff competed against each other in a day filled with fun and individual and team stats, that were calculated at the end of each event to crown the winners.

Each company began during the last week of August by designing company flags that would represent their survival camp. During the first week of September, the cadets were notified of the company competition and briefed on the rules while explaining the general concepts including courage, honor, strength, and intelligence.

Each company was divided into three groups and competed in three challenges in the same area for a period of 45 minutes. The campus sites and events included: brick shuttle (in wheelbarrows), soccer kick (blindfolded) on the football field and the 3rd event in the weight room; water balloon throw or launch at the baseball field, blindfolded tennis, and slingshot assembly and bulls eye targeting; at the outside basketball court, the egg drop took place and the soccer field held the rocket assembly/launching, as well as the catapult; the parade field held the beam walk and centipede walk, while the volleyball court tested 3-legged (2 tied together) volley; the swimming pool held a raft challenge, while the library and a classroom tested the cadets on citizenship, as well as academics.

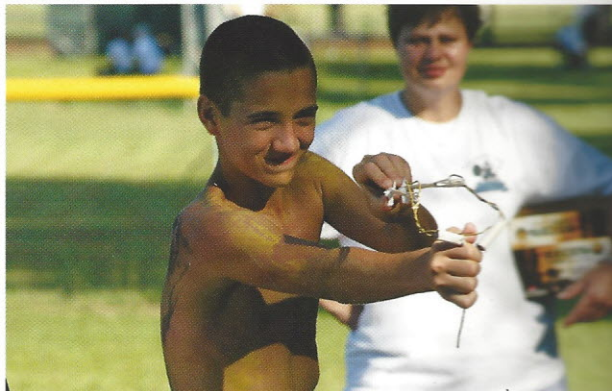

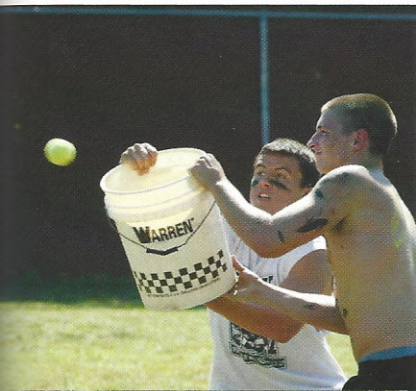

It was a long and hot day of activities that took place from noon until dark. The corps was fed a grilled steak dinner while the points were being tallied for the winners. The evening of awards, a guest speaker (Perry Tuttle-Clemson 1981 Football National Champs), Christian rock band, and pizza capped off the end of the 1st Annual Spartan Challenge.

CMAAS Kolb Site 2009

After sitting through hours of lecture in preparation for the visit, fifteen members of the Camden Military Archaeological Society descended upon the Kolb Site (38da75) in Darlington County on March 18, 2009. Here they were finally able to get their hands dirty, performing archaeological excavations as deep as 80 centimeters below surface, well into the Archaic layer bearing artifacts as old as 10,000 years old. The Kolb Site has been under the supervised excavation of the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources and Diachronic Research Foundation for the past 13 years. During this time archaeologists have found evidence of occupation from freedmen in the late 19th Century, slaves living there in the early 19th Century and early European settlers in the 18th Century. Beneath these components, prehistoric Native American artifacts have been found from the Mississippian phase (400-1,000 years), the Woodland phase (1,000-3,500 years), the Archaic phase (3,500-10,000 years) and even the Paleo-Indian phase (10,000-12,500 years). Cadets found bottle glass, nails and ceramics from historic times. Beneath that, they found stone debitage, animal-bone and Woodland pottery. At even deeper levels, they found Archaic ground stone and stone tool fragments. "Their excavations were as well-done as any first time field archaeologist, better than some," said Christine Dorney, professional excavator and veteran of the site.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Garden City Beach

March 27-29, 2009

Since 1954, FCA has been challenging athletes and coaches at every level to use the powerful medium of athletics to impact the world for Jesus Christ. FCA is the largest interdenominational, school-based, Christian sports ministry in America, reaching over 1.5 million people annually. It provides a positive peer group as an alternative to the negative pressures so prevalent in schools today. FCA is also a vehicle for teammates to influence others with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to offer a different lifestyle to the worldly ways often found on our campuses and in sports today. This year's speaker was Scott Pilkington of New Life Church of God located in Orlando, Florida. The music was provided by Herb and Danielle Moon.

Follow your own dreams, character and ethics. Be who you are, and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind. Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you do.

So throw off the boundaries.
Stay away from the safe harbour.
Catch the tradewinds in your sails.
Explore...Dream...Discover and always call home.

Celebrating 50 Years of Excellence 1958-2008

Camden Military Academy

Mighty Camden, we salute thee now
And may this be our eternal vow,
That the truths hold dear
By the code austere
Shall thunder in our ear.
In adversity
Let us steadfast be,
And face life's trials without fear.
May love of God and love of man,
Freedom, truth, and duty to our land,
Forge a bond between us,
Man to man.

The Tradition Continues...
