Capt. Reeder fits Cadet Phillips with his ACU's.

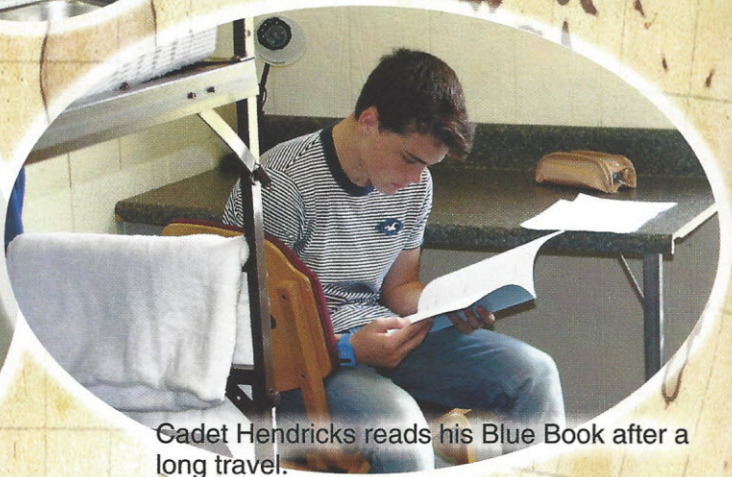

Cadet Prot reaches Camden from Peru.

Cadet Crabtree shows a father where his son will reside..

Cadet Kuimov contemplates his future at the Academy.

Loving grandmother of the new Cadet Caamano prepares to say, "Hasta la vista."

Cadet Hooton arrives from Switzerland.

Cadet Miller finds out he will soon need a haircut.

LTC Ferjani awaits new cadets.

Officer Peed guides new Cadet Wallace and his family to his new home.

Cadet Geiger does some heavy lifting for Cadet Gordon, another long-haired new boy.

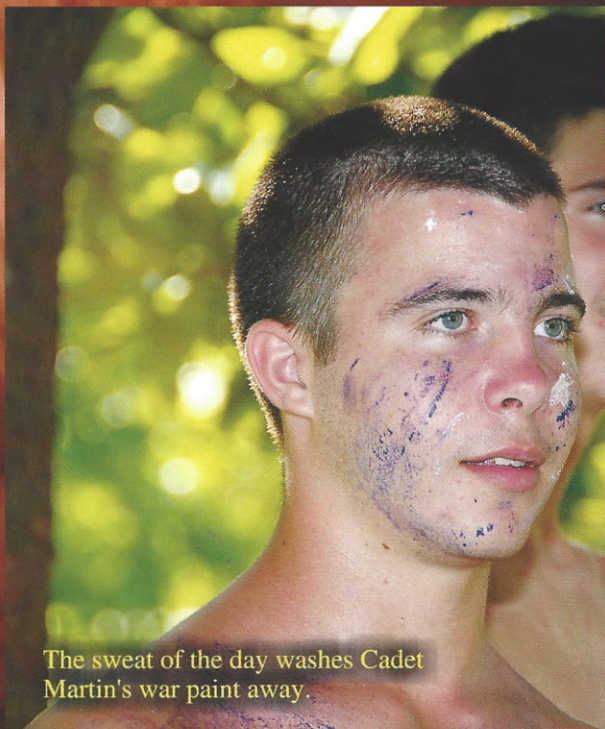

Cadet Vanderheiden shows new Cadet Kozinski and his mom to Delta Company barracks.

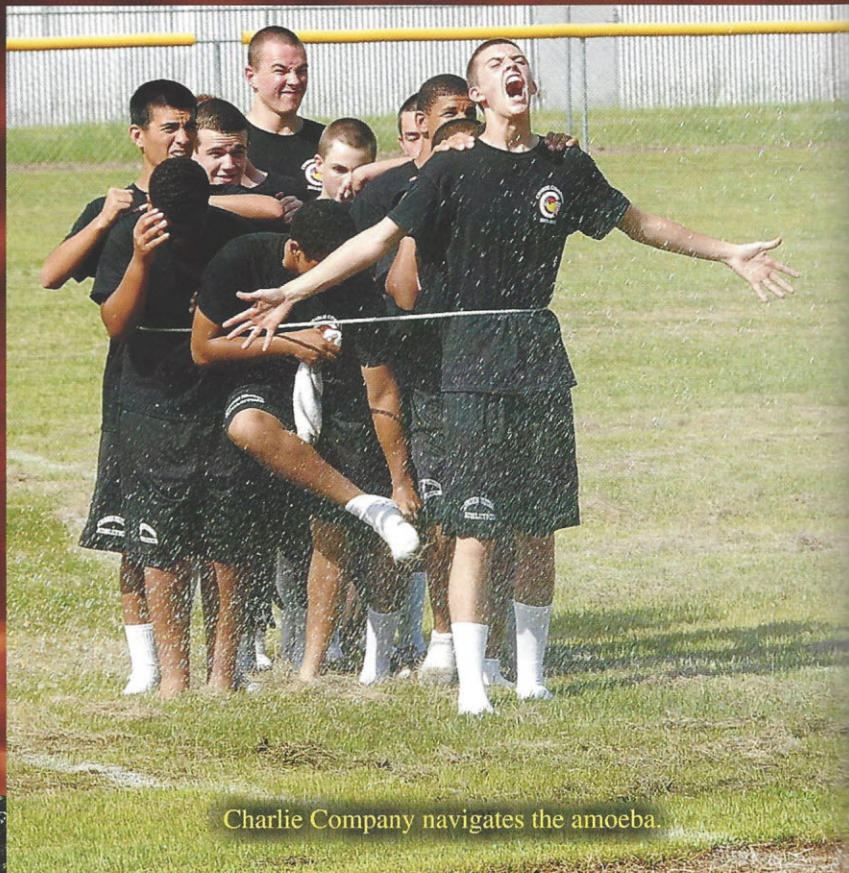

Cadet Huntley helps Bachman settle into Bravo Company.

SPARTAN

The sweat of the day washes Cadet Martin's war paint away.

Charlie Company navigates the amoeba.

Delta cadets keep their form, as the company marches out.

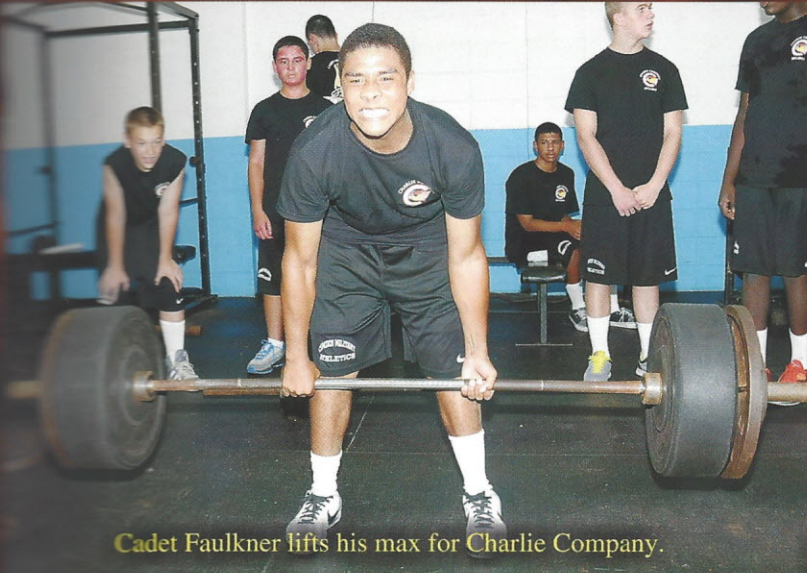

Drums and horns herald the arrival of Band & Staff. Left to right: Cadets Walker, Shanahan, Starks and Hogan

"Emperor Wang" (above) of Band & Staff is held high by his company as it enters the field of competition.

CHALLENGE

Cadet Owens carefully protects his cargo during the Egg Challenge.

Delta Company cadets take aim in the Rifle Challenge.

Bravo's balance is tested.

Alpha charges onto the field of play with tremendous spirit.

Charlie marches forward to a methodical beat.

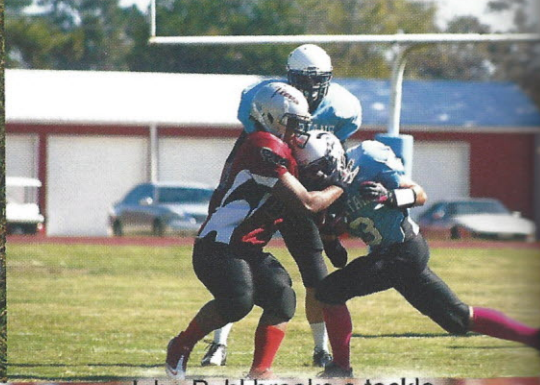

Homecoming

Cadet Rasmussen is a Blueman.

Offense wins games, but defense wins championships.

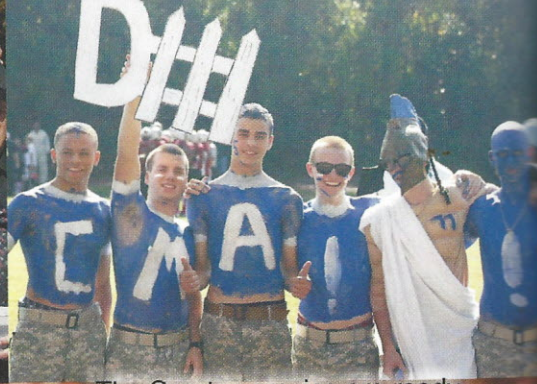

John Puhl breaks a tackle.

Former B.C. Nick White enjoys a chat with LTG Thorpe.

Homecoming means tradition.

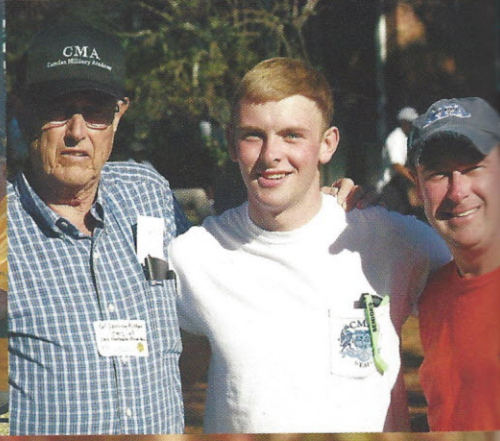

The Spartan crazies are ready for some football.

Patterson learns more about CMA from some old alumni.

Alumni and friends enjoy the postgame cookout.

CMA is a family tradition; (left to right) Co Risher, Cadet Osteen and his father

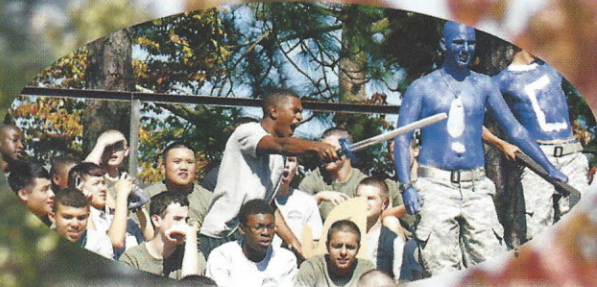

Collins bolts downfield.

Dekanski gets in tune with the game.

Horn feels ecstatic about the team's touchdown.

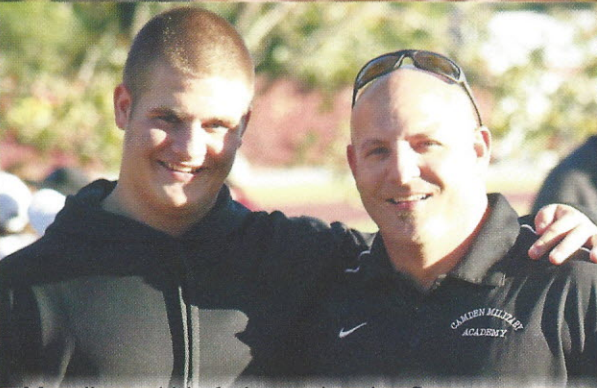

Coleman runs for a touchdown.

Spartan fans are pumped for the big game.

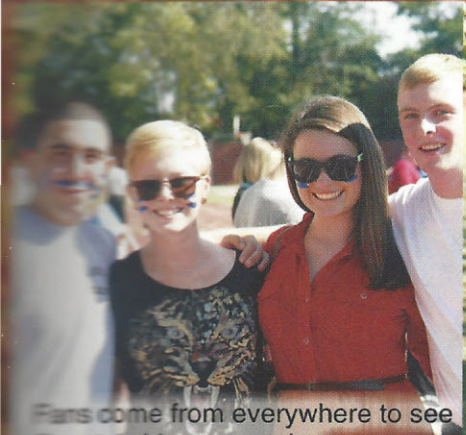

Present Colors!

Marullo and his father enjoy the Spartan support.

Cannon Detail - Present!

Fans come from everywhere to see Caputo's blue mustache.

Homecoming means coming home to what is in your heart.

The Irtenkaf family hands down a tradition.

Physical Training

PT, or Physical Training, takes place every Tuesday and Friday here at CMA. This activity is directed and supervised by our TAC Officers. PT is hosted by different companies each time the activity is performed.

Cadets are divided into companies before starting the physical training.

Stretching is very important before any type of physical activity.

This activity is always performed at early hours of the morning.

Members of the staff demonstrate the exercises to their respective companies.

CADET CHALLENGE

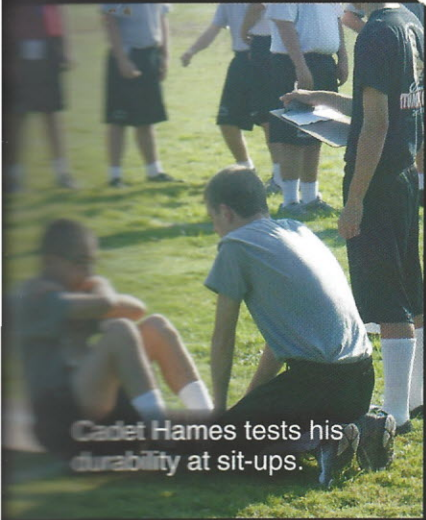

Cadet Whitmore performs his 20th pull-up.

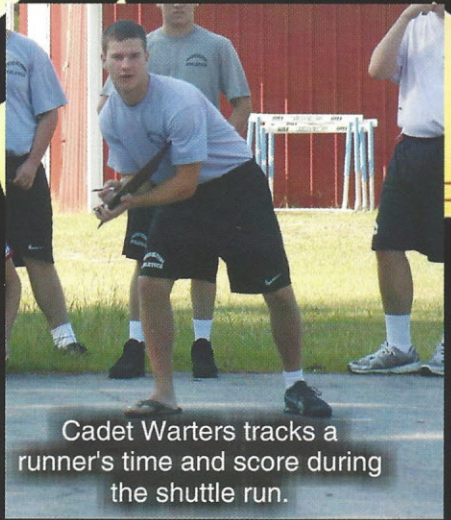

Cadet Wang, Z. heads for the finish line in the shuttle run event.

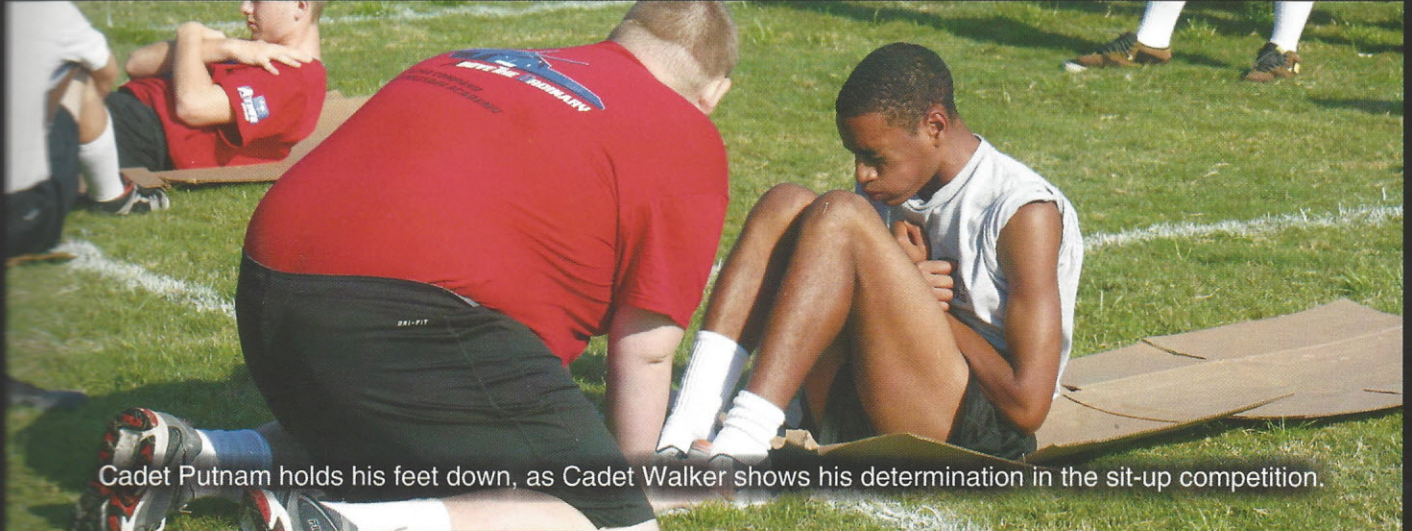

Cadets quench their thirst at the trough.

Cadet Hames tests his durability at sit-ups.

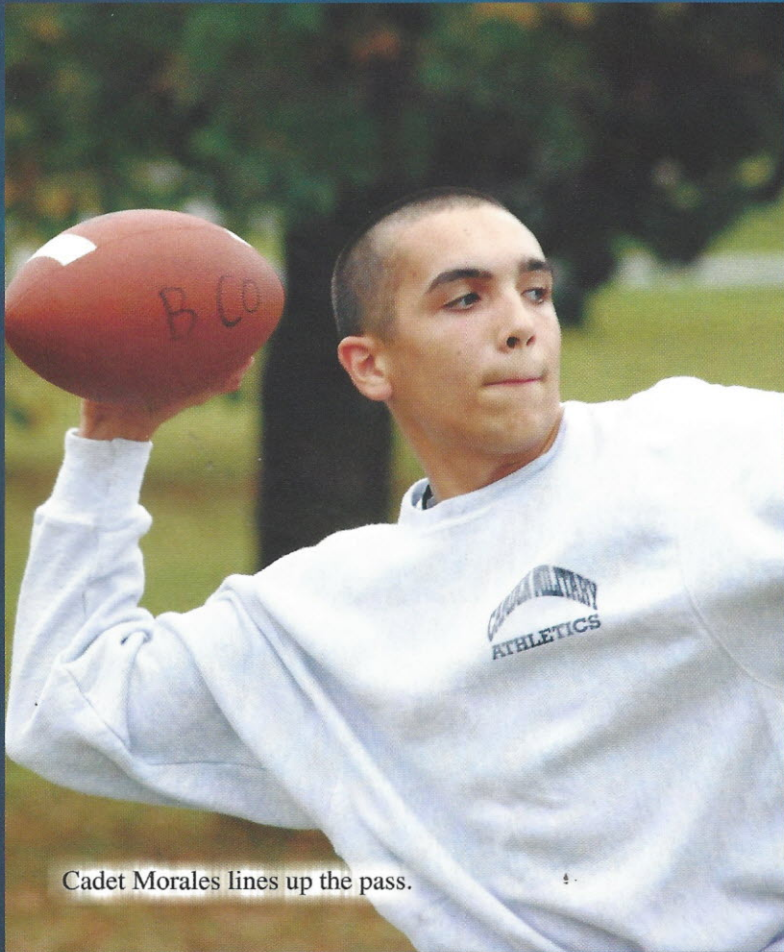

Cadet Warters tracks a runner's time and score during the shuttle run.

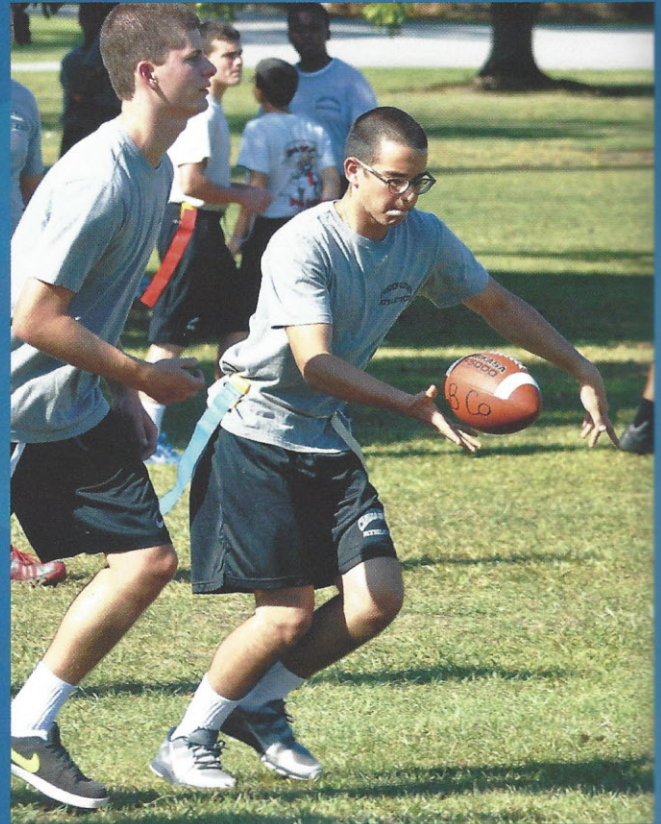

Cadet Putnam holds his feet down, as Cadet Walker shows his determination in the sit-up competition.

Intramurals

Cadet Morales lines up the pass.

Cadet Hopson slices through the defense.

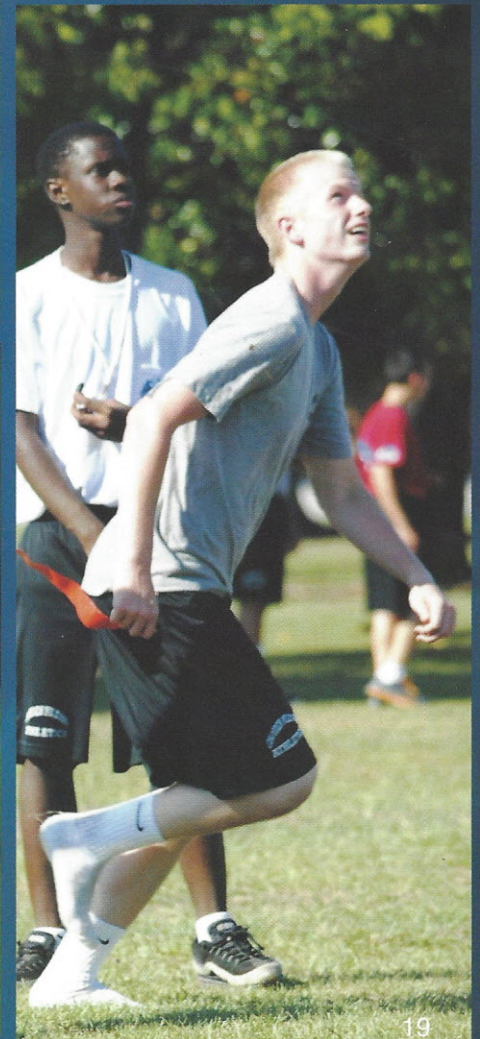

Cadet Allen runs the ball hard for Charlie.

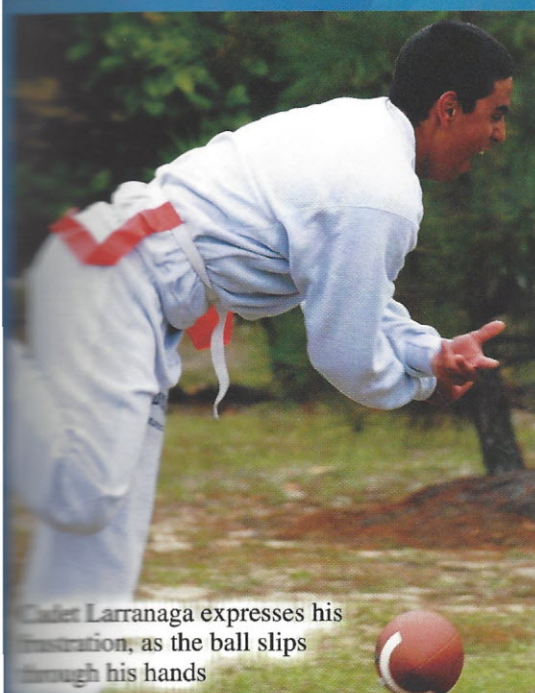

Cadet South aims for his receivers deep down field.

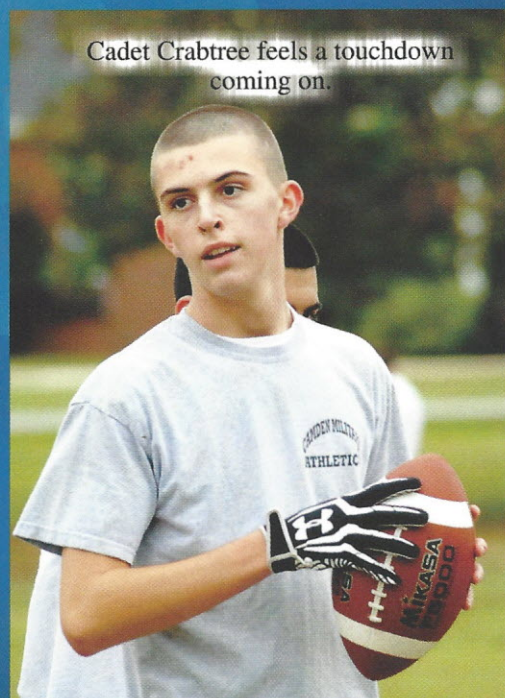

The companies play tough defense.

A sock-footed Cadet Wilson follows the kickoff downfield.

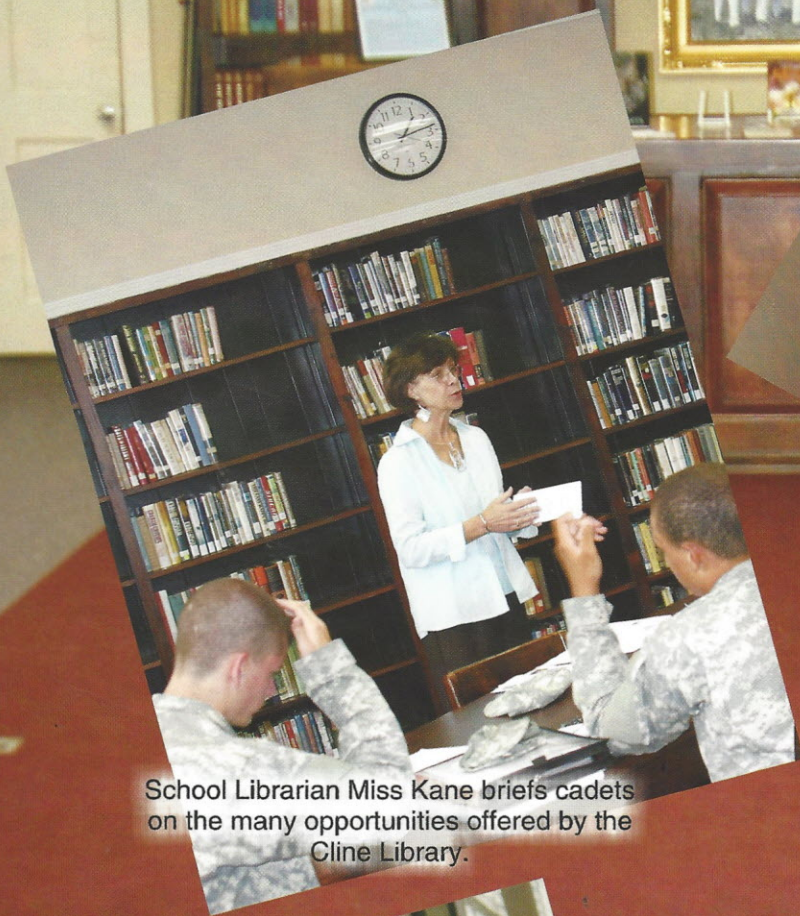

Cadet Larranaga expresses his frustration, as the ball slips through his hands

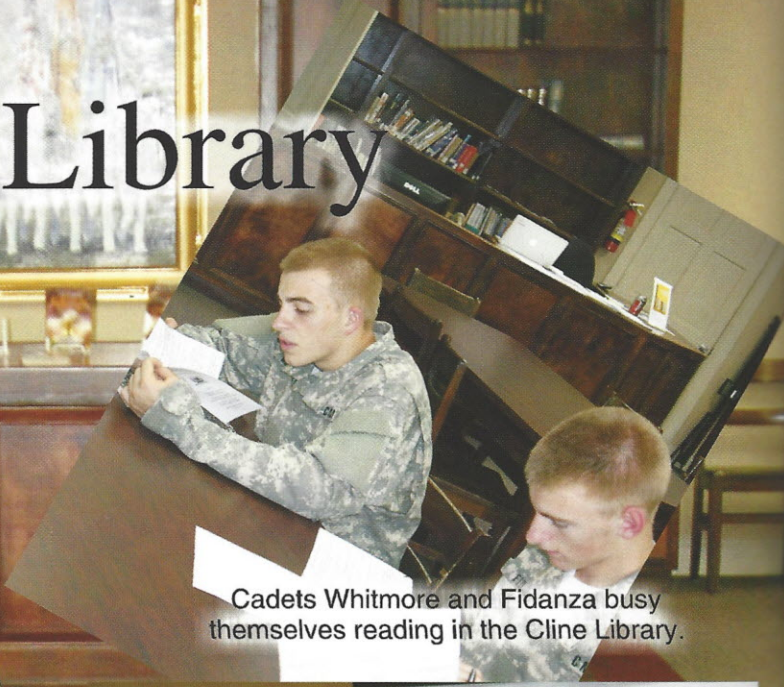

Cadet Crabtree feels a touchdown coming on.

Cline Library

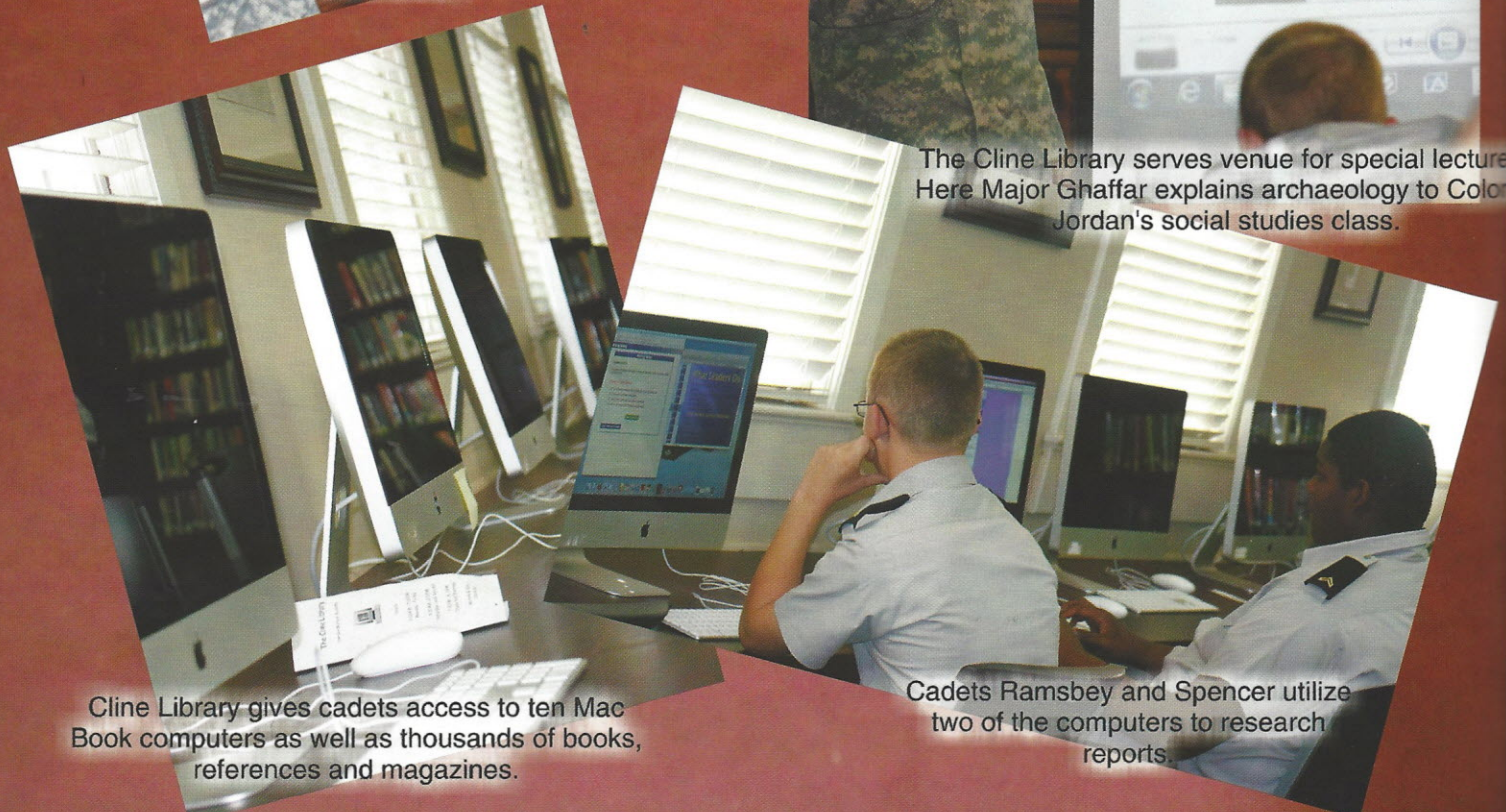

School Librarian Miss Kane briefs cadets on the many opportunities offered by the Cline Library.

Cadets Whitmore and Fianza busy themselves reading in the Cline Library.

The Cline Library serves venue for special lecture. Here Major Ghaffar explains archaeology to Colorado Jordan's social studies class.

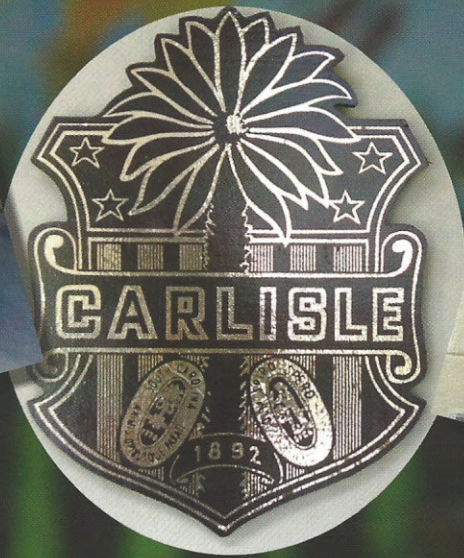

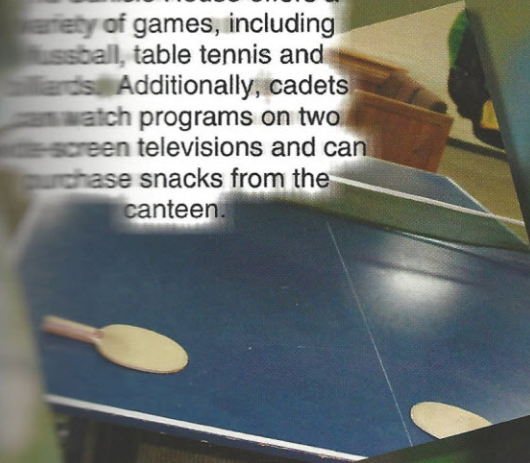

Cline Library gives cadets access to ten Mac Book computers as well as thousands of books, references and magazines.

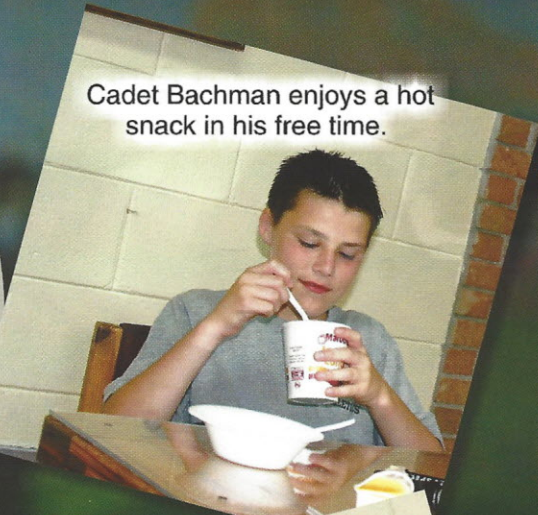

Cadets Ramsbey and Spencer utilize two of the computers to research reports.

CARLISLE HOUSE

The Carlisle House offers a variety of games, including basketball, table tennis and billiards. Additionally, cadets can watch programs on two wide-screen televisions and can purchase snacks from the canteen.

Cadet Bachman enjoys a hot snack in his free time.

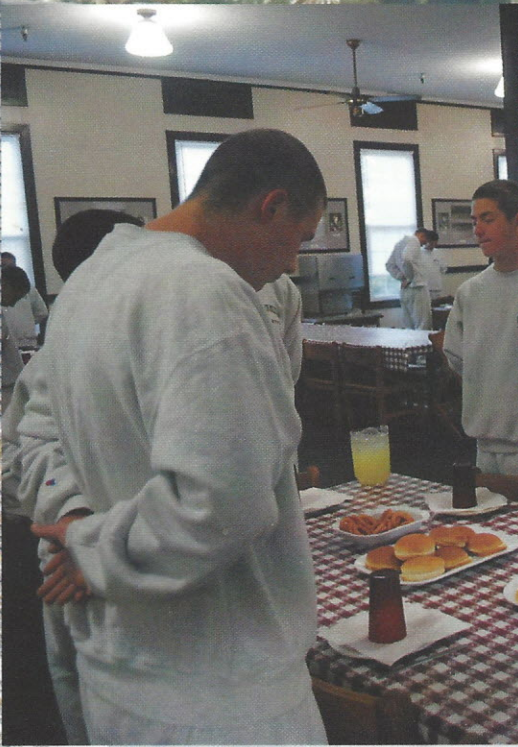

Cadet Forrester plays the keys in his spare time.

Cadet Mulder uses his laptop on one of the Carlisle House couches.

After performing a battalion formation, every cadet marches into the mess hall for every single one of his meals.

Mess Hall

Cadets pray before each of their meals.

Every meal is ready on the table awaiting cadets' arrivals.

Cadets eagerly line up for seconds as soon as the Battalion Commander calls, "Rest!"

Chapel

2013

Cadets Starks and Ward post the colors as "America the Beautiful" is sung.

The Chapel is set up early before service starts.

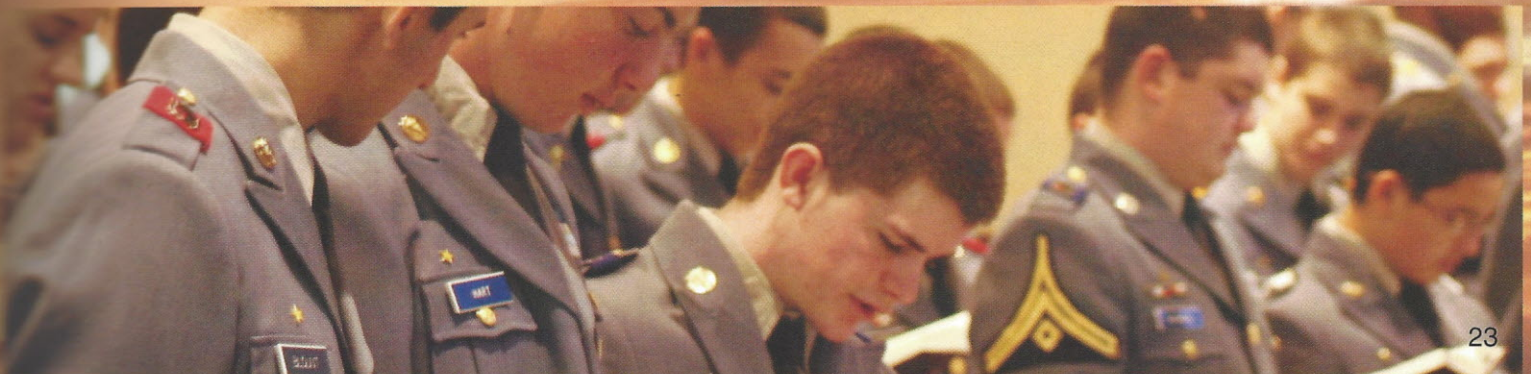

Cadet Canzater listens attentively to the guest speaker's sagacious words.

Colonel Boland enjoys addressing the Corps on some Sunday mornings.

Some speakers, such as Chaplain Harlan Triplett, impart their messages with music.

Punishment & Discipline

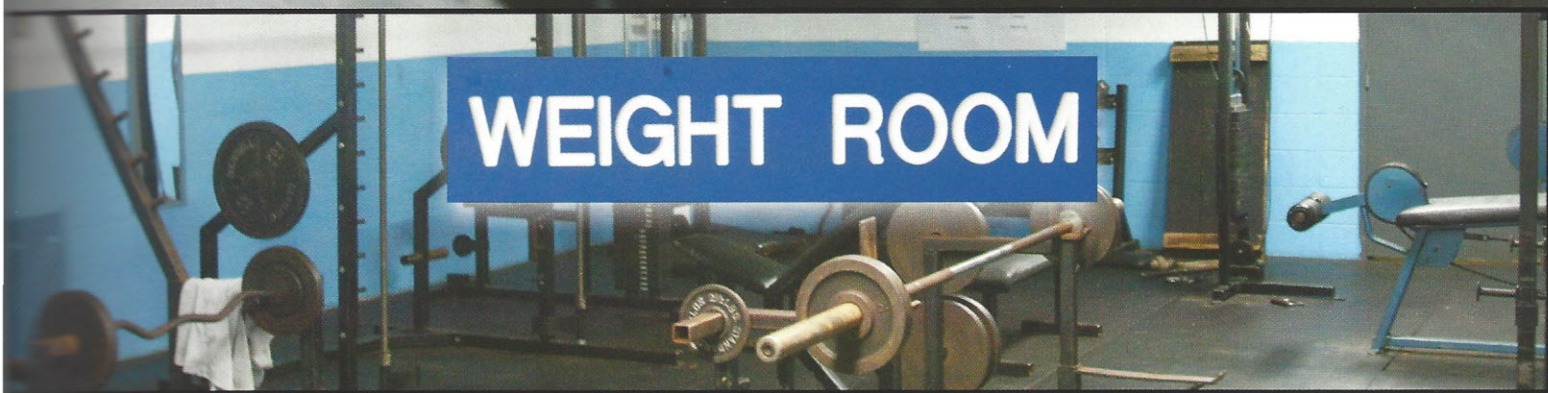

Punishment and discipline at CMA are meted out on the parade field, known to offenders as "The PAD." PAD is walked every day, rain or shine, for an hour and a half, until cadets' TBW's (tours to be walked) are completed.

Cadets perform the walk of shame under the supervision of the Officer of the Guard. PAD is described by some as "dull, boring, hateful and excruciatingly long."

WEIGHT ROOM

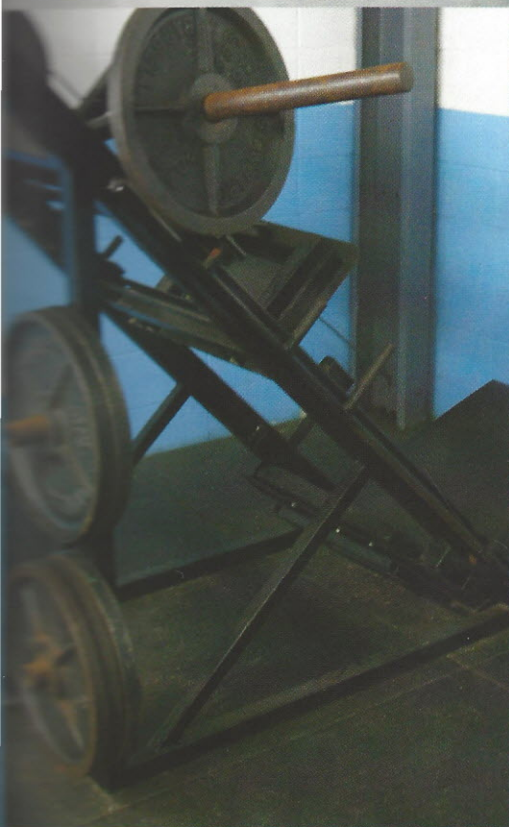

Keeping Focused

Cadet Vanderheiden (left) prepares himself for a deadlift.

Pushing Yourself

Cadet Warters (below) appears to hit his limit, but keeps going.

Setting Up

Cadet Lin (above) finds his way around the machinery of the weight room.

Wok Out

Captain Wang (above) finds great enjoyment in his workout routine.

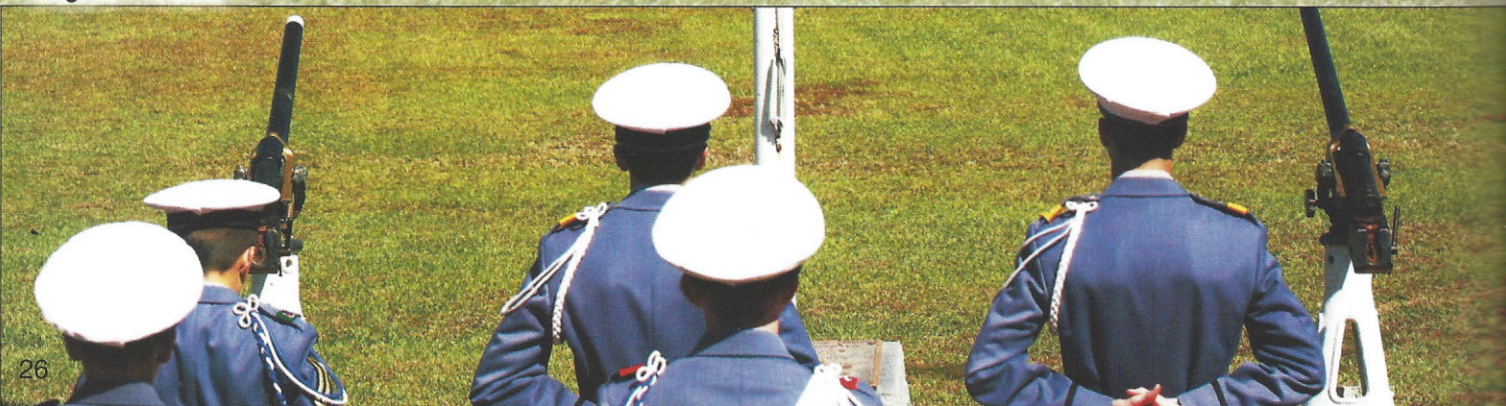

Plenty of Opportunity

The CMA weight room contains six machines and over 3,500 lbs. of interchangeable weights, allowing any and all cadets to achieve their physical goals day and night.

Pass in Review

Pass in Review

The Armory Staff is responsible for maintaining the strict inventory, cleaning and organization of 302 weapons (decommissioned). They are organized by serial numbers and by company. Additionally, the staff trains new cadets in rifle drill. These activities are performed under the commanding eye of Captain Arrindell (right).

Boy Scouts

The scouts regularly perform services for Camden's Revolutionary War Park.

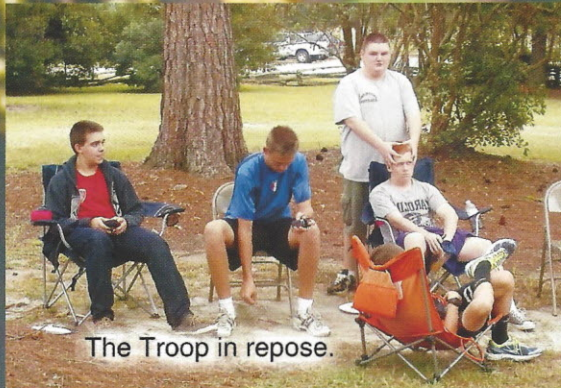

Camden Military Academy Scout Troop 38 aims to add upon the character building and leadership education of the Academy by combining educational activities and fun. To that end, LTC Simonson has organized a multitude of projects and outings, including weekend camping trips, movie nights and Eagle Scout service projects.

Cadet Marullo unloads lumber for his Eagle Scout Project from the back of LTC Simonson's van.

Hopson wears a sash of The Order of the Arrow.

The Troop in repose.

Civil Air Patrol

Cadet Halligan listens intently as Major DeCandia gives a lesson on the technology of modern aircraft.

The tow-plane drags gliders piloted by CAP cadets to soaring altitudes in what is, for most, their first experience in non-powered flight.

Cadet Gradwell learns about aerodynamics of aircraft from Major DeCandia.

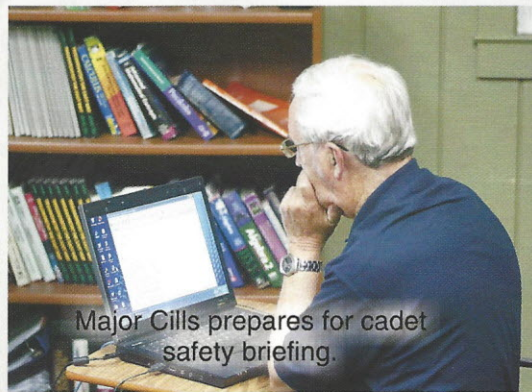

G.A.P. squadron 805 members travel to Wilmington to visit USS North Carolina to watch a half Iron Man Triathlon.

Major DeCandia promotes Cadet Ramsbey.

LTC Melberg enlightens cadets on the fundamentals of wingspan aerodynamics.

Major Cills prepares for cadet safety briefing.

Major DeCandia uses a miniature fighter to explain the workings of the wing.

Captain Wang plays the trumpet with his troops rather than commanding them during parades. His brother, 2nd Lieutenant Wang (not pictured), takes his place.

Cadet Justin Graves (above) leads the band onto the field.

The band marches onto the parade field, led by Drum Major, Master Sergeant Brandon Warters.

During parades, the CMA Color Guard carries the flags of the United States, Carlisle Academy and Camden Military Academy onto the field.

The sound of Camden Military's snare and bass drums can be heard resonating off the windows of Scarborough Barracks during each parade practice.

Fine Arts

Cadets Caputo (left) and Carr up in arms.

The Fine Arts Department of Camden Military Academy includes several programs. The Fine Arts Club performs musicals and plays. The band performs weekly at the Excalibur Society Dinner. The school also offers photography under the direction of Cpt. Lloyd. The Fine Arts Club has participated in several theater productions in cooperation with Kershaw County Fine Arts Center, including Fame and The Tell Tale Heart. Additionally, Mrs. Thaxton leads classes in graphic art and set design.

Art Appreciation is in charge of developing all of the banners and fan paraphernalia for the school. They are also in charge of theater costumes and set designs for Camden Military Academy's Halloween and Christmas plays.

truck it like a beast

New acquisitions add to the XC team.

The 2012 cross country team continued the legacy of success the program has consistently maintained. The team's theme each year has been One Heart Beat and One Dream. The constant work of running 3.1 miles for some is not an easy task, but the diligent works of those committed members made it look easy. Along with the tough practices, these young guns pushed through every meet. This year's team awards were as follows: The Most Valuable Player was Tyler VanBuitenen of Wyokoff, New Jersey. The One Heart Beat award recipients were Nestor Ruiz of Aquadilla, Puerto Rico and Tanner Allison of St. Augustine, Florida. This year's Coaches Awards were presented to Chris Witthar of Grovetown, Georgia and Jamar Arrindell of Silverspring, Maryland. This year's Gazelle Award went to Tripp Osteen of Waxhaw, North Carolina. This year's Most Improved went to Simon Falk of Blythewood, South Carolina and Ross Hogan of Savannah, Georgia. This year's Hustle Awards were given to Cody Auburger of Folly Beach, South Carolina, and Kevin Smith of Conyers, Georgia.

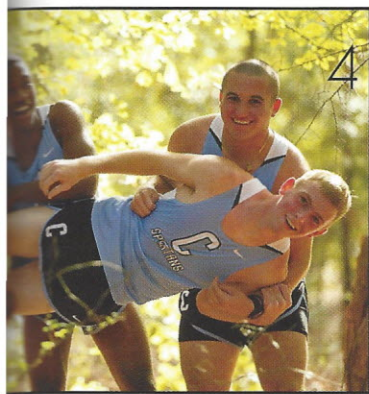

For The Record

"Each year I attempt to instill the values and life skills that will help these young men in the everyday battle of life. Cross country is similar to the race in which we run every day. I hope this sport will enable each runner to become successful." -Coach Heflin.

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment." Mark 12:30

8. Bring It On Runner John Davy showing his skills. About the photo, he said, "I swear I was not posing! I promise!" 9. Starting Strong! Jason Guro starting the race off with a strong start. 10. Fun Times Runners Trent Martin and Ross Hogan enjoying the surrounding scenery. 11. Intense Work Runner Jamar Arrindell ends the North Central meet with a very impressive finish!

Get on the 411 on the Cross Country

Nestor Ruiz

"All I can say is, cross country is a metaphor for life; you get out what you put into it."
~ Nestor Ruiz

Cross Country

(kros'kun'tre) adj. 1. Moving across open country rather than roads. 2. From one side of the country to the opposite. n. 1. A Harrier 2. A Camden Military cadet leading the race.

Get the 411 on cross country

It was wet. There were mud puddles everywhere. However, life is full of those puddles that we must always learn to overcome in the face of adversity. If one has that "never give up" attitude, the sun will literally shine like it did at Hammond School. This was our first meet of the season, and this race would turn out to give our runners a true measurement of how to handle adversity. Truly embrace Mark 12:30 "The Heart of a Champion".

The Senior Class of 2013 consisted of 65 cadets, each presented with a ring of silver, gold or platinum. Each ring bears a Camden blue gemstone.

Gold Star Ceremony

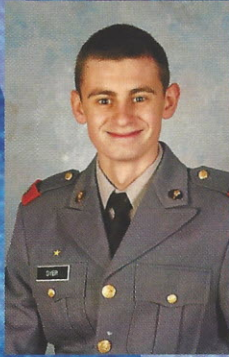

The Gold Star Ceremony is intended to honor academic achievement within the Corp of Cadets. Each cadet earning at least a 90 average for the semester, and earning no grade less than a 77, is presented with a Gold Star Award to be worn on the left pocket of his dress uniform. Within the ceremony, awards are also presented to the Cadet of the Semester nominees and to the Honor Company of the Semester.

Ernest Tre Perry III

Tre,
You're our first born son, and we couldn't be more happy and proud of all your accomplishments on this very special day. You never gave up. Hard work does pay off. Continue to keep God in your life, know we'll love you forever and a day, and that you can do anything, with dedication, faith and hard work! Be the change you wish to see in life, my son.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kevin, Thomas and the Entire Family.

Greg Dekanski

Greg, you did it!!! You have reached a major milestone! Now let your heart guide you to your next step.

With love and FAITH in you,
always,

Mom and All Your Family.

Frank Osteen III

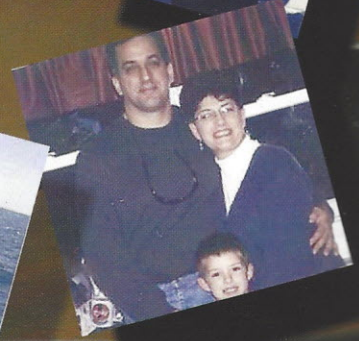

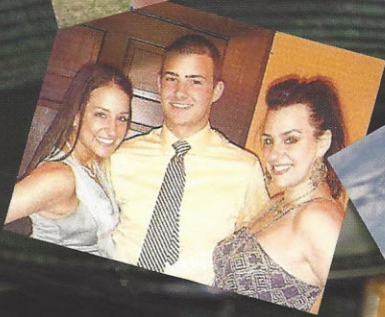

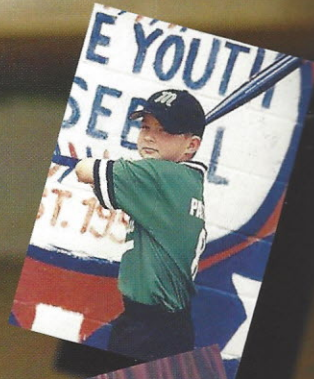

Tripp, we are so proud of you! As you move on to the next phase of your life, we hope that you embrace your new challenges with the same determination and energy that you have displayed at CMA. More importantly, we are proud of you for who you are; not because of your awards, nor achievements. While we celebrate your accomplishments and share in the results of your hard work, nothing you do will change the fact that you are our dearly loved son, and you bring us great joy. Remember who you are and whose you are. Know that we will always be here for you. "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others." Phil 2:3-4

Nestor Ruiz

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak; and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat and humble and gentle in victory...And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet not take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength. Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain!"

--Douglas McArthur

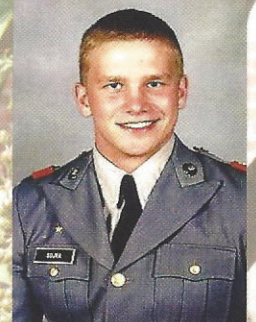

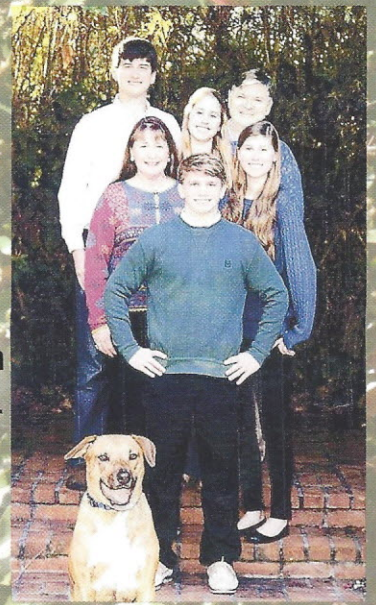

Andrei Sujka

Andrei,
The road has not always been easy.
But you have weathered the storm very well.
Your work is paying off.
You are a strong and talented young man poised for a bright and successful future.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Joseph, Jenni, and Emily

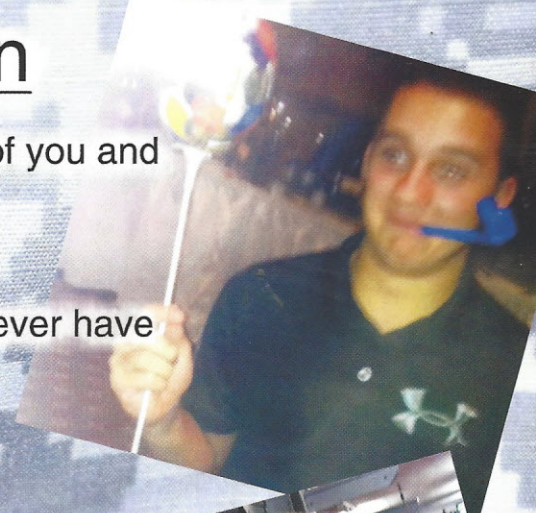

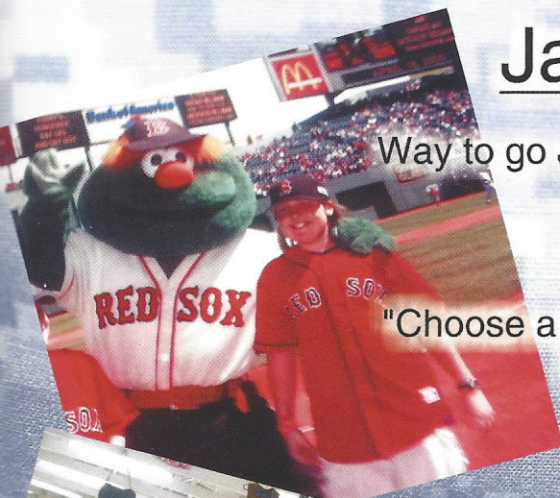

Jackson Hillman

Way to go Jackson!!! We're so proud of you and the man you've become.

Love,
Mom & Dad

"Choose a job you love and you will never have to work a day in your life."

~Confucius

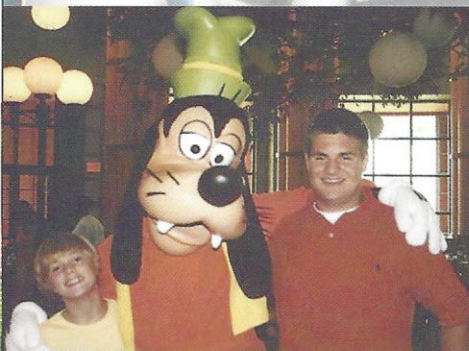

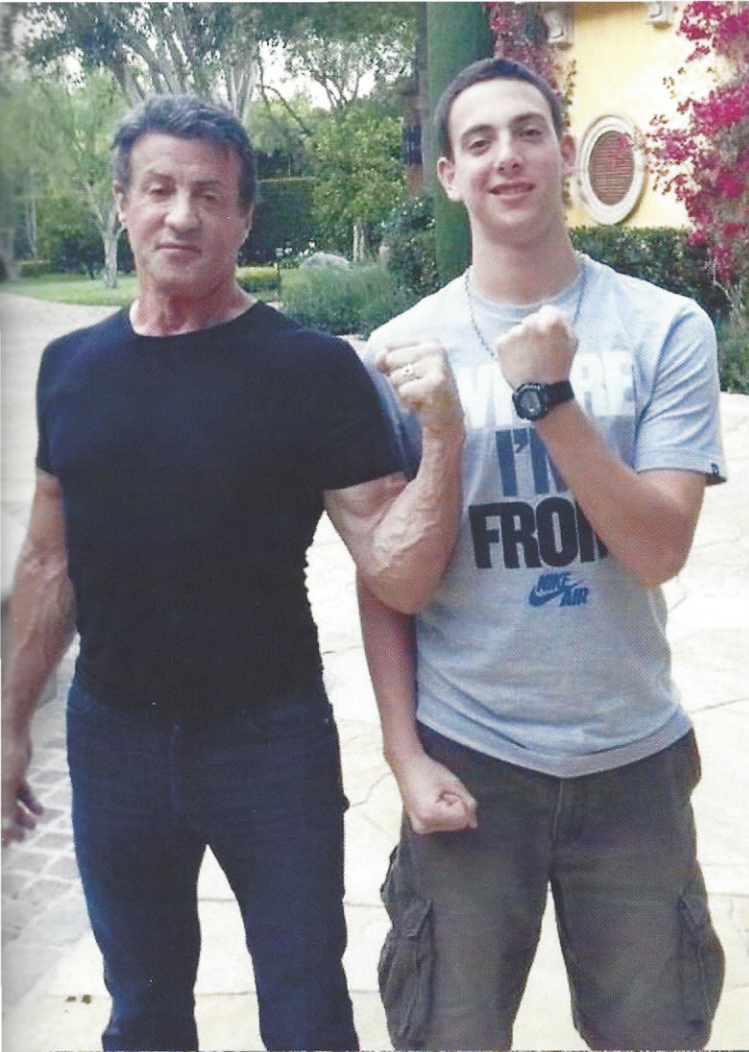

Cole Marullo

It seems like just yesterday you were in premie clothes, and now you are graduating from high school and off to college at the Citadel. You have successfully demonstrated that with hard work and determination, your possibilities are limitless. It is our hope and prayer that you will use your many talents wisely, open your heart to God, and never stop dreaming. You are our shining star, and words cannot express how very proud we are of you. Now go get 'em!!!!

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Stephen and Ringo*

Robert Hart

We are all so
proud of you,
Robbie.

Congratulations!

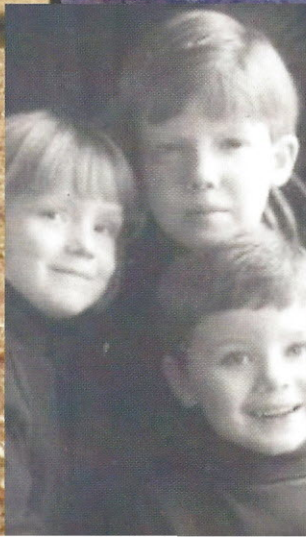

Congratulations!
We love you and are so proud!

"Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

From "A Psalm of Life"
by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

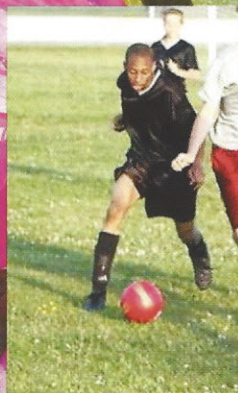

Frankie Caputo

To Our Son Frank,
We are so proud of you
and all your accomplishments!
You mean the world to us. You have really shown us what you are capable of achieving. May God continue to bless you.
Keep up the good work in college!!!

Love Always,
Mom & Dad

Jarret "JJ" Johnson

Good Luck! Move forward and succeed!

Love,
Your Family

Darius English

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments! We wish you much success in your future endeavors. Seek God in all that you do and remember,
"For unto whomsoever much is given,
of him shall be much required."
We love you very much!

Love,
Your Family

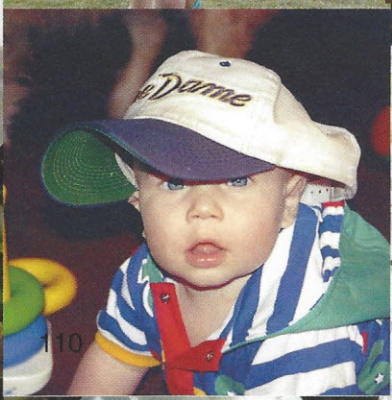

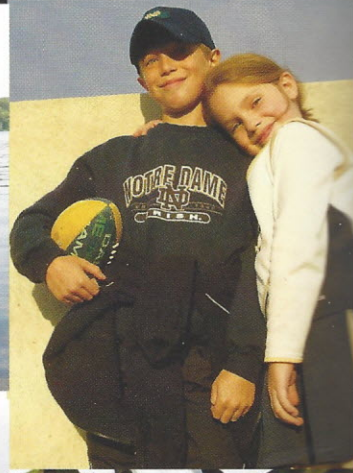

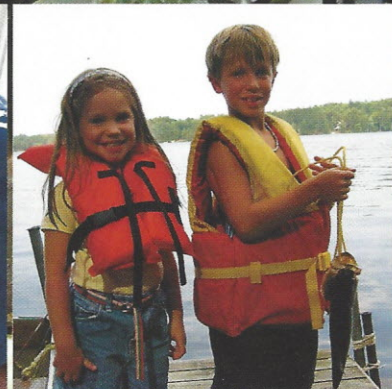

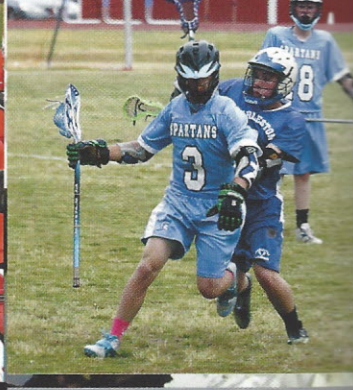

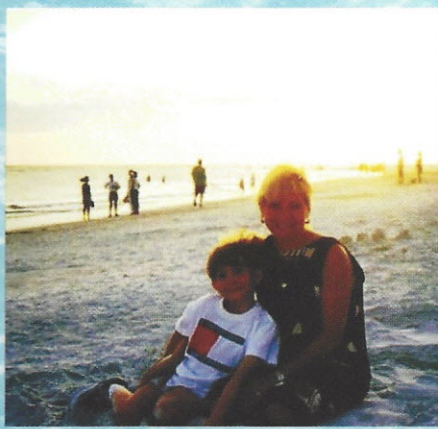

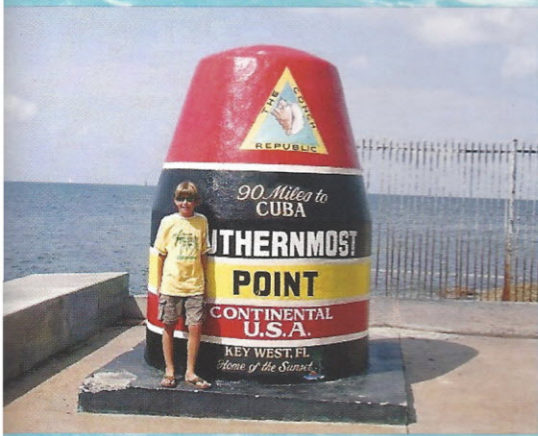

Ryan Collins

You have a zest for life and fun-loving nature that amazes us. Your smile fills the room. You have grown into a young man of character...someone who can influence and lead others. Use your talents to make this world a better place. We are so proud of you and what you have accomplished. We are excited for the next step in your journey. But, please get on the right bus.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and

Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee to behold with Thy favor this, our Academy, that, through the care and instruction of the young men committed to it, Thy Name may be glorified. Be Thou guide to those upon whom rests its government; enlighten with wisdom those who teach; and grant that we who learn may be blessed in our studies; and our characters so molded that we may evermore stand fast in Thy truth, and abide in Thy love, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.
