

Sean Patrick Smith

You came into this world the sweetest child parents could ask for. You've always been helpful, kind, and a great advocate for people you thought mistreated. These past two years have been challenging but the growth you've exhibited will be invaluable throughout your life. We are proud of the young man you are and of the leader you've shown yourself to be. I know your dad is looking down upon you and is equally as proud and amazed.

Love,
Mom, Jimmy, Georgia and Savannah
