OUR HEADMASTER

YOUNG GENTLEMEN:

Liberty is like a tree, planted on the rocky hillsides of danger. It is rooted in the soil of self-sacrifice, nurtured by the storms of adversity; and lifting its leaves toward Heaven, it synthesizes from the sunlight of God's countenance and the blood of heroes the golden fruit that men call security.

Yours Sincerely,

JAMES F. RISHER.

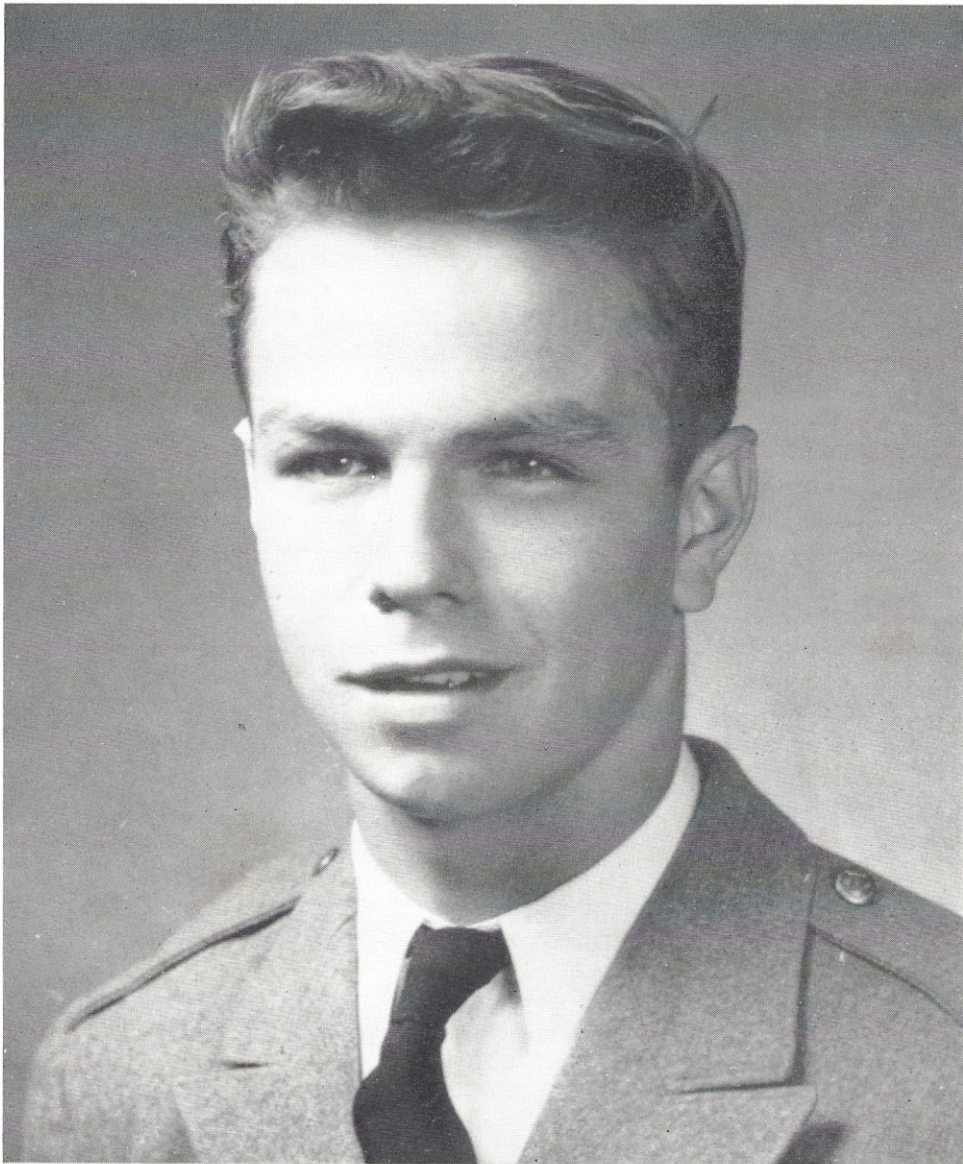

FOREWORD

On the pages that follow you will see, through formal and informal photos, the cadet as he works in academic and military pursuits, in athletic, and other activities.

Friendships that are formed and experiences that are enjoyed during one's school life will always be a source of pleasant recollection and reminiscence. Since these associations are realized among a group of boys from such varied geographical points, the CARLISLE REBEL should be a helpful medium in recalling them.

Years from now, after all has been decided, although one may not know the whereabouts of his classmates, the successes they have attained, nor the ambitions they have fulfilled, he will have this, the '50 REBEL, as a guide to lead him back in thought through the years to relive and recapture the life he knew as a cadet. Herein lies the real value of a year-book.

MILITARY

Under the direction of Capt. Waddy Thompson, P. M. S. & T., and Capt. William Scaffe, and with the assistance of cadet officers, the cadet corps has developed into a well-disciplined and well-trained military unit. As in past years, Carlisle is still under the ancient and honorable code of arms.

Each school day in the week we have the sometimes monotonous but valuable drill. On Saturday, we have a rigid inspection of barracks along with a personal inspection. Sunday afternoons are reserved for the formal dress parades in which the cadet corps displays its skill and proficiency before proud parents and friends. Besides the daily drill, inspection, and parades, the students attend classes twice a week in which they receive military training.

We feel that the training we receive will help us a great deal when we must face the many problems of life.

CROSS SABER CLUB

The Cross Saber Club is probably the oldest and proudest of all the Carlisle organizations. It is composed of the executive officers of the corps of cadets. These are the commissioned officers of the battalion staff, band, and companies.

The members of this club convene informally with the cadet major presiding, to discuss matters pertaining to the betterment of the school. As a result of this, each year has been one of great improvement.

The success of the school depends upon these few officers, for through them the conduct and morale of the corps flourish.

NON COMM CLUB

The Non-Commissioned Officers' Club is in every sense of the word, an officers' club; therefore it is one of the best organized clubs on the Carlisle campus. Membership in this club is limited to the cadets who have acquired the rank of a Non-Comm.

Without their full co-operation very little could be accomplished, for they are undoubtedly the backbone of the corps of cadets. The success and discipline of the entire corps rest directly on their shoulders.

These men will soon rise from the proud ranks of this group to become Commissioned Officers.

One of the highest honors which can be bestowed upon a cadet at Carlisle is that of serving on the Honor Council. The Honor Council is composed of the Cadet Major, all Cadet Captains, and Capt. Thompson, faculty advisor.

It is the duty of this group to assign judicial punishment to those cadets who by their actions, have committed an offense which reflects discredit on the honor of the corps of cadets. When such a violation occurs the party is given a hearing by the Honor Council in which all evidence, witnesses, and their testimonies are brought forth, so that a just verdict may be reached. The verdict, along with punishment, is submitted to the Headmaster for approval.

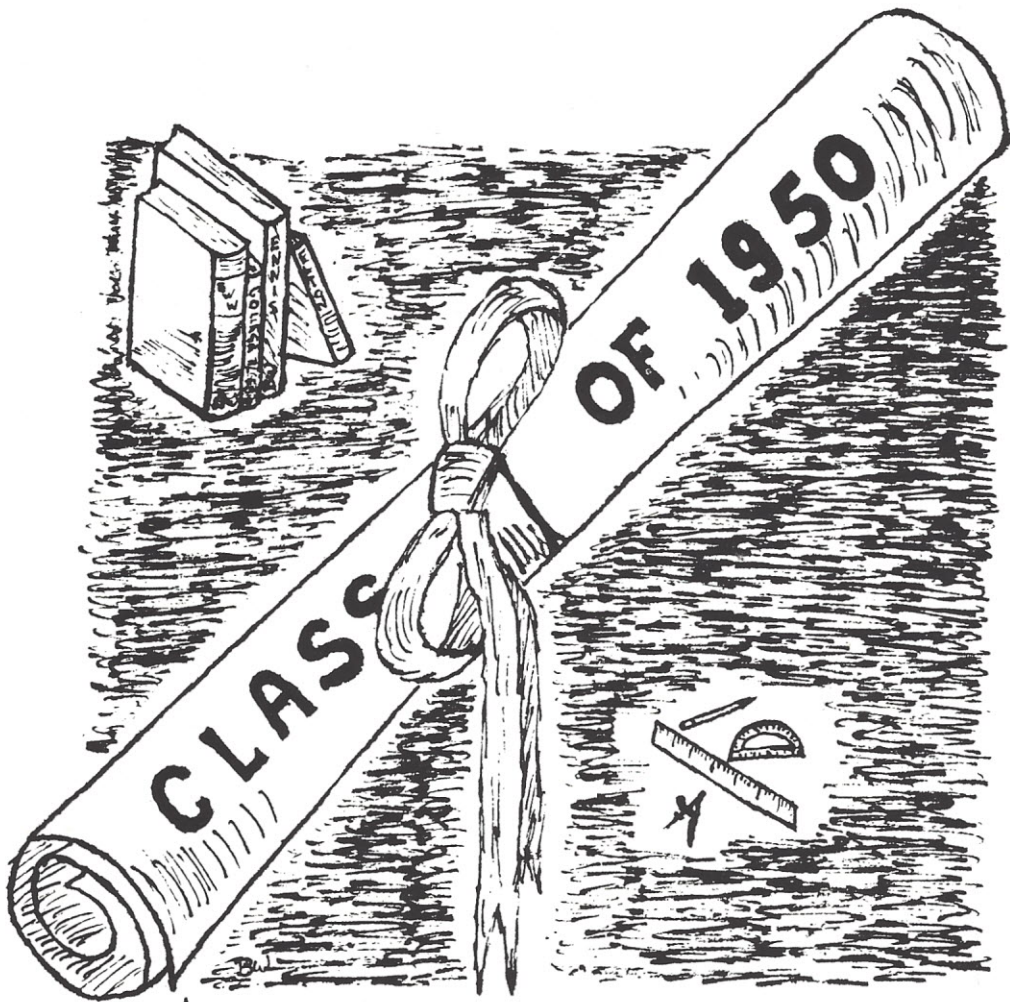

As can readily be seen, a group such as this which has unlimited power in handling these matters, must be made up of capable and broad minded men of sound judgment.

SENIOR CLA

We are not prophets nor sons of prophets, but we'll do our best to bring you a picture of the future. The time is Thanksgiving Day, in the year, '75, and the place is Carlisle Military School in Bamberg, S. C.

As we look in on the metropolis of Bamberg, we see that Carlisle is observing its 26th annual Homecoming. The sun is shining down brightly on the magnificent 9,999-acre campus which consists of 497 gigantic mansions. Here millions of alumni, friends, and parents are swarming the grounds.

Wandering over the campus we see Charles Henderson, Buddy McElmurray, and Donald Jordan, lounging around one of the 76 luxurious swimming pools and enjoying the scenery of this beautiful place which is under the supervision of the caretaker, Bob McCully.

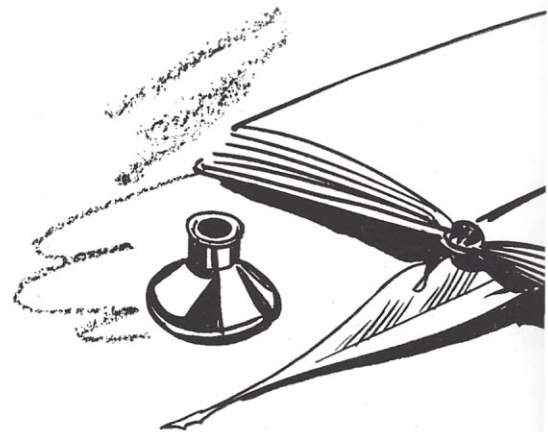

Our next stop is at one of the numerous banquet halls where we bump into James Ogden, the head waiter, who, along with his help, is trying to serve the thousands of people. Looking over this beautiful Hall, we find seated at one of the tables, Stephen Miles, Ernest Prosser, and Wade McCarthy, who are eating some of the delicious food prepared by the chef, Ruggero Angeli. As we start to leave we hear a tremendous roar down the street and soon see a streamlined, gold-plated, limousine pass. Inside is Charles Huggins, chauffeuring multimillionaire Donald McKeown and his wife. We then take a jet subway on which we find the driver to be, none other than William Tedder. We get off the subway at the enormous, modernistic Armory, where, under the watchful eyes of P.M.S.&T., Bill Green, and the Quartermaster, Orlando Brown, everything is running smoothly.

Next we go to one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus, the Carlisle Canteen. The two doormen, Cecil Cate and Sammy Royster, open the gigantic bronze doors for us. Once inside we take an elevator to the 34th Floor and step out into the pastel-colored Cocktail Lounge where we see numbers of familiar faces. Leading the fine Bop Orchestra is Oliver Utzinger. In his orchestra are Monty Hallman, Charles Johnson, and Kenneth Huggins, blowing away on the latest Bop specials. Looking over at the bar, we see the man who has made millions at the Cornell Arms, Gene Mixson, now the bartender here. Seated over at one of the gold-topped tables, Henry Black, Morris Knight, and Jack Shull, are leisurely sipping their drinks and enjoying the beautiful music. Out on the dance floor, John Crawford and "White Rat" Melton are giving out with the latest steps in dancing. Leaving the gay-colored lounge, we go up to the 55th floor to the Snack Bar where Sam Hall and Joseph Smoak are eating their usual lunch of cornbread and "zip."

Dropping in on the Gambling Casino, we find Harry Townley, Bobby Padgett, Cleveland Sanders, and "Monkey" Davis, at their favorite game. . . . Canasta. Over at the roulette wheel, Jerry Miller and George Saxton are losing a fortune.

As it is nearing time of the Great Event, we go out to the monstrous supersonic airfield to catch a rocket to the stadium. Once aboard, we learn that the pilot is Fred Ellis. Passing over the field, we see the new $90,000,000.00, Henry C. Bryan Stadium, named after the famous coach of Notre Dame. H. C. Bryan. From the landing field we take a cab, driven by Arthur Weber, to the stadium. At one of the many gates, we give our silver tickets to James Plampin and go inside the enormous place. After much difficulty we locate our 50-yd. line, furlined box, furnished with private loudspeakers. Seated next to us is Billy Williams with two good looking blondes. We are suddenly startled by a loud screech down the field and soon see that it is Bob Dillard still trying to be an opera singer. Coming down the aisle we notice James Yeo selling peanuts. Right behind him, Charles Sams is selling cold drinks in a gold-plated push cart.

At this time Carlisle's 800-piece band, under the direction of Colonel Don Watson, is putting on an exquisite performance out on the field. Who is this we see crawling down the rows of seats? Why, its Stanley Elsner looking for cigarette butts. While sitting there waiting for the game to begin, we see a black streak coming into one of the gates, which turns into one of those new sharp looking Wardmobiles. Stepping out of the car now is multitrillionaire, Ennis Goettee and his beautiful wife, who have come to see their son, "Little Amos," the manager, carry the medicine kit.

The game is about to start for the teams are huddled around their coaches. The Porter team, around its coach, Donald Cooper, and the Carlisle Gridsters, in their black silk uniforms, around their great coach, Bob Ingram, who has had a very impressive record while coaching here. . . . 1,209 wins to nary a loss. They're getting ready for the kick off now as "Speedy" Hayford, Jr., son of the All-American great, Eugene Hayford, gets set to kick for the Golden Cyclones. It's a beautiful kick down to the 1-yard line, and there the entire Carlisle team smothers Donald Davis, the receiver. Carlisle soon gets the ball and begins to roll. In a matter of minutes they rack up eight touchdowns and begin to get things under complete control. Holding the yard markers down on the field are Joseph Font and Billy Ebner. It looks like William Fountain handling the down marker, too.

At the end of the first half, Carlisle, led by Joe Dumond, Jr., and Bob Ingram, Jr., lead by a score of 79 to 0. During the half we walk up to the press box and see William Bence and Wallace Dill, both sports editors of the "Bamberg Herald," now the largest newspaper in the world. They tell us that John Richardson and Bill Stearns are announcing the game. Also that Robert Hollis is working the scoreboard. Going back to our seats we bump into John Stevenson, now president of the Camden 7th National Bank.

As the second half gets under way, Carlisle takes over once more. William Shealy, Porter's doctor, is kept pretty busy as more and more of the Porter squad are dragged off the field. Across the field we see the owners of the WOEG Television Station, Harry Tippins and Robert Thoman, doing a fine job of televising this game to the world.

There goes Harold Turner, the referee, waving his arms to signify that the game is over. . . . Carlisle wins 282 to 0. Now the private cars driven by Charles Carter and Thomas Brown, come out to take the victorious Cadets back to school. General Gene Risher, the Headmaster of Carlisle, looks very pleased as he is leaving but Porter's Headmaster, George Conant, seems pretty down hearted as he and his commandant, James Calhoun, start back to Charleston. As we leave the field, we catch a quick glimpse of Elton Wessells going by in his jet-propelled Chevrolet.

As night is drawing near and everyone is heading for home, we shall do the same, leaving behind all our old classmates . . . just a memory, now.

This year as in the past, the student body had its own newspaper. The Carlisle Bugle. Edited by a staff of capable cadets, under the supervision of Capt. Frank Estes, the paper proved to be a source of enjoyment and interest to the cadets.

Throughout this year the staff has endeavored in each issue to improve the composition of the publication and to cover thoroughly every phase of student activity.

The staff of The Carlisle Bugle sincerely hopes that the student body has enjoyed receiving and reading the newspaper. It has been a great joy and pleasure to publish it.

LITERARY SOCIETY

The James M. Grimes Literary Society again completed a successful year under the excellent supervision of Capt. M. Carson Sturgeon.

Great achievement was made in public speaking, debating, and compositionary fields at the monthly meetings.

The members, twenty-five in all, are carefully selected students, who in the minds of the electors, will both contribute to and benefit in the success of the Society.

The officers for the year, 1949-50, were: Charles M. Sams, President; Kenneth Huggins, Vice-President; William Shealy, Secretary-Treasurer; Eddie Paetzel, First Critic; Bobby Brown, First Censor.

ORCHESTRA

The student body is very proud of its fine orchestra. Equipped with their various musical talents, these boys have gained the well-earned reputation of being real music makers.

Under the capable leadership and perseverance of Capt. William Scaffè, the Carlisle orchestra has been made into a smoothly functioning organization. The "Brigadiers," as they are commonly called, play for all the school dances and perform at various outside engagements.

We are certain that without their help in providing entertainment for the cadets throughout the year, it could never have been as successful and pleasant.

BLOCK "C" CLUB

Membership in the Block "C" Club is limited to those cadets who have earned a varsity letter in one or more of the four major sports at Carlisle. Since the requirements for earning these awards are very rigid, the membership roll includes only those men who are outstanding in their respective fields of athletic endeavor.

To be a member of this organization is a coveted honor, because among the privileges of membership is the wearing of the Block "C" sweater as part of the uniform. This sweater is the symbol of long hard hours of toil and sweat on the gridiron, hardwood, diamond, or in the ring. The club also holds an annual banquet each year, it sponsors dances and intramural athletic events, and it enjoys many minor social functions.

DANCE COMMITTEE

The Dance Committee is a vital organization in Carlisle's social activities. Dancing is a recreation that builds spirit, culture, and morale.

It is the Dance Committee's job to decorate, finance, and provide music for the dances. So it is easily seen why such an organization is so important, as dancing is the main social activity at Carlisle.

We all appreciate the successful dances which we have enjoyed this year and feel that their success may be traced to these men.

The 1949 football season got under way sooner than usual this year with most of the team returning to school a few days early.

Under the watchful and patient guidance of Coaches Burnette, Estes, and Burch, the gridsters soon got down to work in hopes of having a successful season. Their hard work was not in vain, as they completed the season with an impressive record of six wins and two losses. The win column showed victories over Bishop England, Catholic High, North Augusta, Batesburg-Leesville, Walterboro, and Porter, while losses were to Greenwood and Lancaster.

Carlisle had its first homecoming game this year on Thanksgiving day with its traditional rival, Porter Military Academy. A record crowd witnessed this game in which the Golden Cyclone from Carlisle fought their way to a complete victory.

The Carlisle "Pivoteers" began what became a very successful season with few returning members of last year's quintet. Under the careful guidance of Coach Burnette, the inexperienced were soon developed into fine material. This year's team had confidence, coordination, speed, careful ball handling, and the ability to hit the goal when it was most needed.

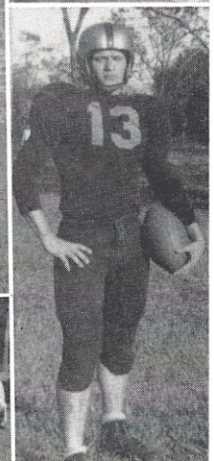

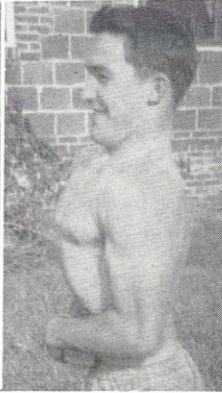

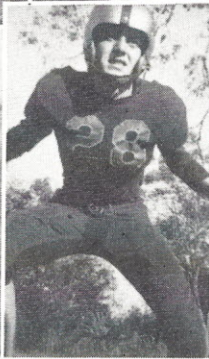

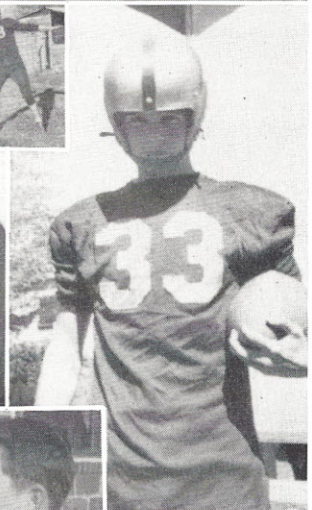

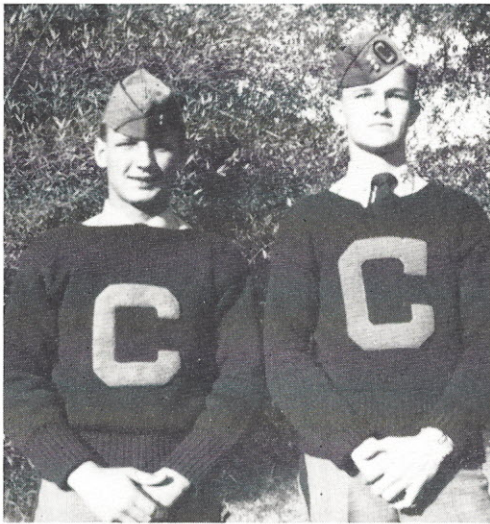

All of these factors when added together show only one thing; that it takes pretty good opposition to put a lid on the Carlisle basket.

BASEBALL

April comes and with it the opening of Carlisle's baseball season. As the yearbook comes out before baseball gets under way, we are unable to present you with a write up or a picture. This year we are going to show last year's team of which we are very proud. Building around a few returning lettermen, Coach E. W. Burnette turned out a fast, hard-hitting club. Returning from last year's team are Jerry Jester, Charlie Potts, and Jimmy Mitchell in the infield; Bob McCully in the outfield; and a pitching staff composed of Charlie Henderson and Elton Wessells.
