OUR HEADMASTER —

YOUNG GENTLEMEN:

The path of duty is a rough and rugged one. It leads up hills of difficulty, through valleys of disappointment, over deserts of doubt and self-denial, and sometimes down into the darkness of an unknown tomb. It does not end there, however, but leads on into the glorious sunlight of an eternal resurrection; to joy and true success.

Sincerely,
JAMES F. RISHER.

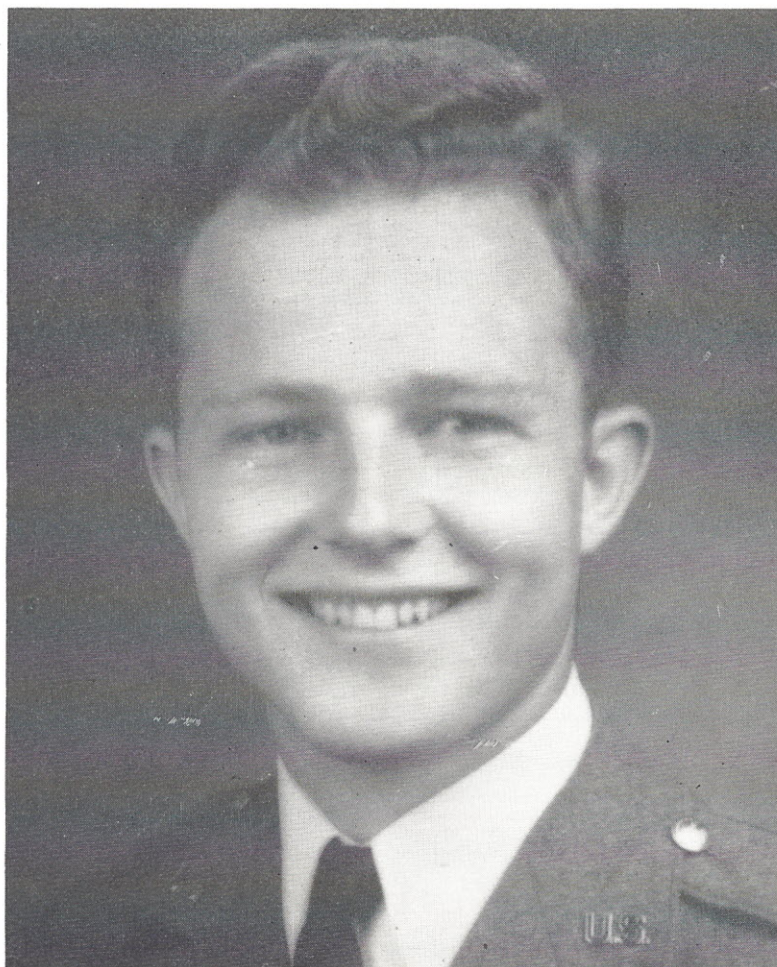

FOREWORD ---

As we unfurl the curtain upon our stage of cadet life, our hope is that this presentation will display and reveal for your inspection and investigation, a true and authentic portrayal in pictures and print of the normal daily life of a Carlisle cadet.

With our step into the passageway of life, let us remember the foundation of freedom and liberty upon which our great America has been built, and let us ever strive to uphold the innumerable merits, virtues, and sacred privileges of our nation, never failing or faltering in our strides forward.

If our presentation brings pleasure and enjoyment to you, all our efforts and endeavors will have been rewarded with the ultimate measure of appreciation.

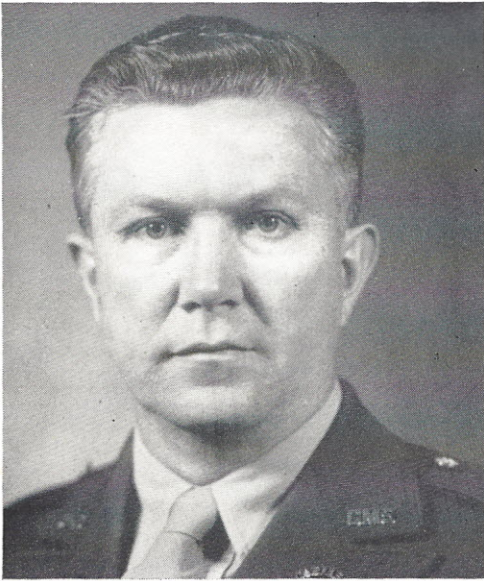

In Memoriam

CADET DONALD M. CUSTARD
DENVER, COLORADO
1927-1951

Cadet Major Custard graduated from Carlisle in 1946, with an admirable and respected record of merit. He paid the supreme sacrifice on the battlefields of Korea, September 19, 1951.

BATTALION

The observing guidance and careful, watchful supervision of Captain Waddy Thompson, P. M. S. & T., and Captain William Scaffè, Band Director, combined with the unfading, unflinching leadership of the cadet officers, has molded this year's battalion into a capable, trustworthy military organization, which has performed its duties and assignments with a maximum degree of skill and ability.

The training schedule of the battalion includes class instruction twice weekly on military science and tactics, and a daily drill routine, conducted under the strictest rules of discipline. A formal, conscientious inspection of equipment and quarters is held each Saturday morning, with the spectacle of the week, the dress parade following on Sunday.

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council, the judicial committee of Carlisle, is composed of the cadet major, captain adjutant, and the company commanders. The council functions under the supervision of faculty advisor Captain Waddy Thompson.

Upon this committee rests the responsibility of punishing those cadets who have committed offenses too serious in nature to be reprimanded by regularly prescribed rules of discipline.

The recommendations and judgments of the Council are strong influences in the final decision, and in their adjudications, the members must maintain an unbiased and impartial resolution.

CROSS SABER CLUB _____

The Cross Saber Club is probably the oldest of all the Carlisle organizations. "Tradition, honor, loyalty, duty, fraternalism," these five words well describe the club.

Here we find the executive officers and the living backbone of the corps. It is composed of the commissioned officers of the battalion, the staff and the band.

The officers of this club convene often with the cadet major to discuss matters pertaining to the betterment of the school.

The success of the school, as well as the conduct, morale, and general attitude of the corps of cadets depends on these officers.

NON-COMM CLUB

The Non-Commissioned Officers' Club forms the nucleus for the disciplinary system at Carlisle. Morale, which is a strong influence in school affairs, is controlled mostly by "Non-Comms". The commissioned officers of tomorrow are chosen from this group, and honor and dependability are the deciding factors for their selection. Knowledge of leadership is obtained through duties performed by these men, and it makes them capable of efficiently and effectively executing the responsibilities of an admirable cadet officer. With this invaluable training they doubtlessly will be the future leaders of America.

DEDICATION To The Seniors ---

Soon, our ships of endeavors will set sail upon the sea of life, in search of lands of accomplishment, and achievement. The lines of the following composition should challenge all to make their ship seaworthy, and capable of enduring the many storms and rough seas, that they are destined to encounter, until the beacons of the harbor of destiny beam welcome to the sailors of a successful voyage.

“DESTINY”

We have come to those doors in the corridor of age,
Whose locks we must open, and in a man's life engage.
Many paths await our choice to the realms of tomorrow,
But one only can we choose, and one only can we follow.
Which will you select to journey upon,
Will it lead to happiness, or to the slough of despond?
Will your travel be profitable and abundant in gain,
Will its completion be rewarding, or futile and vain?

We have laid the foundation for our castle of fate,
Its construction to finish with our future estate.
We have lasting materials with which to build,
Study, prayer, and virtue—all God has willed.
Let us hew these structures with beauty and grace,
Till they glow in time's sunshine, as a memorable place.
Let us exalt their spires to seraphic heights,
As beacons to others, with their guiding lights.

Engrave your name in the book of ages,
With hallowed writings on immortal pages.
Let your deeds be remembered ones,
And honored by pilgrims in the time yet to come.
Emblazon your success as stars in the skies,
To dazzle with light, the learned one's eyes.
But become not too proud of accomplishments made,
Instead, strive to deserve all the praise that you're paid.

Wherever your journey in the parade of the years,
Do not falter in steps, or be repelled with ill fears.
Mold your destiny with an immortal trust,
Secure your eternity ere mortality is dust.
Time is fleeting, and the years are few,
To color life's sunset with a rosy hue.
Establish your goals for the heavens to share,
And plan your destiny in the glory that's there.

SENIOR CLASS

"Ladies and Gentlemen, because of the paramount importance of the latest war happenings we interrupt our regularly scheduled program of music from Birdland in New York by Don Coble and his orchestra, for a special news summary of the latest developments from around the world."

"This is Johnny Elliott reporting from the newsroom of WCMS, with a complete worldwide round up of latest news from our correspondents at home and abroad. First to Washington and Norman Thomas."

"President Bryson today called a special meeting of the joint chiefs of staff, and cabinet, to discuss the favorable turn of the war. Secretary of Defense Omar Smith suggested the draft call should be lower. Economic Stabilizer Charles M. Shadle stated that 12,000,000 buttons were wasted last year since suspenders were against regulations. Chief of Staff Sterne Bolte suggested a vote be taken as to whether or not the H-bomb should be used to end the war. Those for the plan were: Piatt, Majors, and Truitt, and against the plan were: Suarez, Allan Thompson, and Bamberg. Since it was a tie, the plan was abandoned. And now we switch you to Johnny Aimar at the battle front, on the coast of Baidaratskaya."

"Thousands of troops landed on the icy beaches, in sub-zero weather today. When formation was sounded by bugler Wilber Thompson, gross chaos was created by his failing to blow 'jackets.' Monkey Davis was sent ahead to cut a hole in the Iron Curtain with his acetylene torch, to enable General Forrest Face Melfi, with his well-trained National Guard, to make the famous run on Tavern Valley. Reinforcements were soon due aboard the U. S. S. Mortimer, named after the famous espionage agent, Percy Guest. The giant ship was nosing its way through the Barents Sea. One of the greatest casualties of the war, thus far, was the loss of Captain Tinker Ted Matheson, who was killed while standing in his foxhole reading the reports of Charlie Swindell. Sgt. Billy Foote today committed insecticide, because he couldn't find Jimmy Reid without a shoe shine. During the heat of the battle, Brown R. was found destroying an enemy 'pillbox' with a late model repeating action rifle, named the bullshooter. Private Magee was dispatched to learn the location of the heavy artillery and came back with harmonica in hand saying they were 'down yonder.' Three chief demolition platoons, led by Lts. Sigg, Grinnell and Taft, were captured while attempting to destroy the 'Axe and Sickle Club,' which housed two hundred top brass Russian leaders. They were later freed in a card game, with Albrecht's skilled fingers winning their freedom. As the allies entered Moscow, Arn was seen on the Kremlin steps taking candid shots of the national heroes, as they received the 'Chartreuse Heart.' They were Bauer for frost-bitten bunions; Jimmy Clark, wounded while selling Stalin an accident policy; Corbin, loss of cerebrum; and Driggers, married in action."

"And now for a detailed analysis of the war in Russia we hear from Maurice Bellinger."

"Here in downtown Moscow, the celebration is well underway. Captain Horrible Hubert Smith, leading his 200-piece band, is being followed by Alan Rozon and his 'Old Timers,' featuring Schenck on the mandolin. MPs for the occasion are Boatwright, Buckingham, and Cothran."

"Other news of a quieter nature. . . . A crime committee met today, and cabinet members Beam, Wallace, True, and Sires agreed on Vincimyske being sentenced 50 hours t.b.w., and also brought before the committee a case involving Nick Tucker and Cecil DuRant and the front line mail delivery. The charge was for demanding fees on letters delivered to the front lines. This case was brought before the committee by Lt. Jimmy Swindell after he received his latest 'Dear John.' The celebration season is taking heavy tolls with mob scenes resulting frequently, the most recent of which is said to have started when Pvt. Louis Grantham and Sgt. Bobby Brown were served grits in a local cabaret. Injured in the disturbance were Pvts. Coleman, DePew, and Featherston."

"MP'S Fred Knight and Rice immediately placed the men under arrest, and they will remain in Guildsky Hall indefinitely. Medic Truluck reported their conditions as rare. Captain Bill Pipkins and his fighter squadron of cracked pilots, including Stevens, Rogers, Noel, R. and Morris, have been awarded the 'Distinguished Flying Cross-Winds,' for gallantry beyond, and above their general orders."

And now back to the newsroom of WCMS!! . . . "Now for the inevitable commercial end to radio programs, and to end it all, here is Harold Johnson."

"This is Harold Johnson asking you to try 'Fleeties,' the new breakfast cereal that 'develops manly men.' Listen to these words by the outstanding sportsman of the day, Moco McCord. In a game like marbles, you must have vigor, vitality, and zest. That's why I say, eat 'Fleeties,' the cereal that 'develops manly men.'"

Last Will and Testament

JOHNNY AIMAR wills his "hot plate and black coffee" to Jack Stone.

DONALD ALBRECHT leaves his love for Miss I. W. Harper to David Jackson.

DALE ARN leaves his reinforced superstructure to Duckworth, who he is sure can use it.

HENRY BAMBERG wills his cows to Capt. Burch.

LEO BAUER being of unsound mind, wishes to bequeath his abilities to "beat" reports to the unfortunate wretch that replaces him.

EDWIN BEAM wishes to leave to anyone, who next year during mid-term exams will be a bull rat, his deepest sympathy.

MAURICE BELLINGER leaves his place of Pvt. in "A" company to his loving roommate, Del "Daddy" Dorn.

JACK BOATWRIGHT wills to his mother his Carlisle Diploma.

STERNE BOLTE leaves the battalion to Don Duckworth, and wishes him luck with it.

BOBBY BROWN leaves Capt. Burch's paddle to Dicky "Richard" McNeil.

RODNEY BROWN leaves room 169 to Boatwright, F. Y. and Skipper.

DAVE BRYSON leaves to next year's REBEL editor the rest of the "midnight oil."

CRAIG BUCKINGHAM leaves his unsurpassable ways with women to Jimmy Hunter.

JIMMY CLARK leaves his padless clarinet to Bobby Agnew.

"DADDY-O" COBLE leaves to Pete Grinnell his infinite musical ability, with the hope that they'll meet at the top of the "Down Beat All-Star Band" poll.

CLARENCE COLEMAN wills his ability to get special leave to Bob Hicklin.

"CHUCK" CORBIN wills to "Little Crow" his chemistry formulae, with the wish that he may benefit from them.

CHARLES COTHRAN leaves his diploma in the hands of his father.

"MONKEY" DAVIS wills his ring of keys to Ed Steele.

BILL DEPEW leaves an everlasting friendship with Captain Drymon behind.

ALLAN DRIGGERS leaves to David Jackson his ability to always be a "good friend" to the Bamberg girls.

CECIL DURANT leaves his hopes for a better year to the Junior Class.

JOHNNY ELLIOTT by special request of "Mr. Over-Modulation" himself, bequests to John Lowther, his golden voice and unabridged repertoire of Mr. Webster's gems.

LINTON FEATHERSTON leaves his place on the basketball team to "Red" Ramsey.

BILLY FOOTE leaves his great "Louis Armstrong" records to Charlie Fox.

LOUIE GRANTHAM leaves to "Drip" Waldrop his football "T" shirt that he has used for three years.

TEMPLE GRINNELL leaves his shoes, that have walked on North Carolina soil, to Perry Wilson.

"STINKY" GUEST leaves his friendship with Capt. Drymon to "Drip".

HAROLD JOHNSON leaves to Waldrop his ability to conduct parties after taps and his girls.

FRED KNIGHT leaves to Jimmy Hunter his good looks and magnetic charm.

"RED" McCORD leaves the whole state of Texas to Hart.

RICHARD MAGEE wills his ex-sgt. stripes to Don McKain, and also his ability to lend money.

RONALD MAJORS wills his ability to use the talented art of evading Capt. Thompson's drill to Sam Slaughter.

TED MATHESON leaves the office to Ramsey.

LEONARD MELFI wills "C" Company to anyone who is good at changing diapers.

DAVID MORRIS keeps all he owns, and takes it with him.

RUSSELL NOEL leaves his never-before-heard "jokes" to Captain Martin.

HOMER PIATT leaves to Jack Harmon, his love for Bamberg girls.

OSCAR PIPKINS leaves Bamberg's Municipal Airport to Everett Kerr.

JIMMY REID leaves to Richard McNeil, his inevitable misfortune of being the object of all slanderous conversation.

HAROLD RICE leaves his bird hunting ability to George Martin.

"BUBBAH" ROGERS leaves his ability to receive ratings to James Garner.

ALAN ROZON leaves the good luck that he has experienced at Carlisle to Speir Ramsey.

BILL SCHENCK leaves his blindness to his buddy, John Lowther.

CHARLES SHADLE leaves to Jack Harmon his captivating personality.

FRED SIGG leaves to "Buddy" Hollis his brains, and ability to use them.

BURNET SIRES leaves his seat on the basketball bench to Threatt.

HUBERT SMITH leaves his solo trumpet to Pete Grinnell.

GARY SMITH leaves to Wesley Ferns his boxing gloves provided Margie is not in them.

JOHN STEVENS leaves his ability to avoid the bull ring to Clyde Knight.

CARLOS SUAREZ leaves his ability not to get on the bull ring to Menendez.

CHARLES SWINDELL leaves the loudest drum section ever to march down Carlisle Avenue to Perry Wilson.

JIMMY SWINDELL leaves his good looks and his way with women to Denny McCarthy.

JIMMY TAFT leaves to Charlie McNeil his ability to hustle homework.

NORMAN THOMAS leaves his hitch-hiking ability to Irwin.

ALLEN THOMPSON leaves his charm with the girls to Joe Sirven.

WILBER THOMPSON leaves his musical talent to Harold West.

CHARLES TRUE leaves his good looks to "Daddy" Dorn, and all of his women.

PETE TRUITT takes all he owns with him.

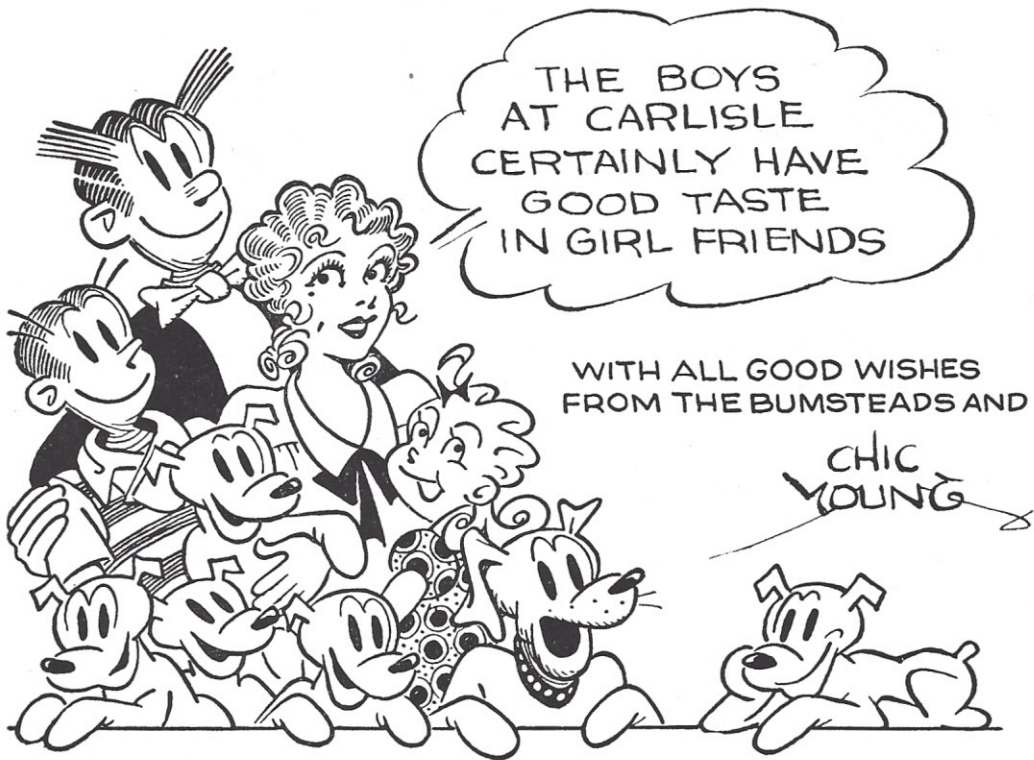

DAVID TRULUCK leaves his furlough obtaining ability to Phillip Edwards.

NICK TUCKER wills his furlough ways to the entire Junior Class.

CHARLES WALLACE leaves his love for Tennessee to Captain Thompson.

It is an impossibility to produce and present a yearbook that will be remembered and treasured through the years without a limitless amount of work.

I want to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to the members of the 1952 REBEL staff who have rendered such an incessant stream of invaluable contributions to this year's production.

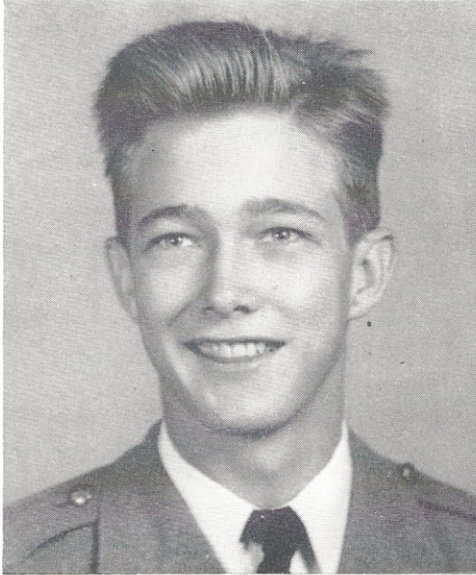

It has been my privilege and pleasure to collaborate with this outstanding group of associates in presenting the 1952 REBEL.

CAPT. ESTES
Faculty Advisor

The Carlisle Bugle, edited by Nick Tucker and a capable staff of editors and reporters, has this year been, with efficiency, the official news unit of Carlisle, with efforts in each publication to produce and present a newspaper both educational and entertaining.

Covering all events of interest and importance, the Bugle has been a paramount interest at Carlisle, and with its publication, we, the Bugle staff, hope our production has ultimately fulfilled your expectations.

LIBRARY STAFF

HUBERT SMITH
President

MISS EVELYN BECKUM
Sponsor

The Carlisle Library Club, a distinguished member of the South Carolina Library Association, has again this year proved limitlessly successful in its undertakings, and a great aid and benefit to the school body.

The chief purpose and function of the club is to instruct the library staff in the operation and proper maintenance of the school library.

LITERARY CLUB

JOHNNY ELLIOTT
President

MRS. JOHN ELLIOTT
Sponsor

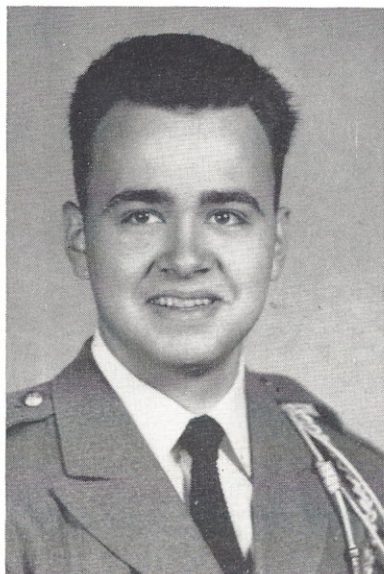

The Carlisle Literary Club, measuring up to the exalted standards established in its motto, "Through Aspiration To The Stars," and functioning under the attentive guidance and watchful supervision of Captains M. Carson Sturgeon, and James T. Dallas, has succeeded in accomplishing the many goals of achievement set for attainment by President Johnny Elliott including assignments in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, and the correct construction in literary composition.

With various oral and written works on topics and subjects of interest, the members have made very lengthy strides in increasing their knowledge and becoming more literary.

With the debut of the 1951-'52 basketball season, the Carlisle courts were filled with a display of new and capable talent. Only two returning lettermen were included in the material that was soon to be molded by the capable and skillful guidance of Coach James T. Burch into an admirable and sporting ball club.

Inexperience resulted in a faltering entrance for the "Pivotteers," which was soon overcome through untiring determination and ever vigorous fighting spirit. They soon found themselves a frequent position in the win column, where the accounts of many of their games are listed.

BASEBALL

1950-1951

With a handful of experienced diamondmen, and a host of newcomers to the game, Captain James Burch will strive this year to mold a baseball team to equal the high standards of sportsmanship and playing ability that have been established by Carlisle teams in seasons past. In preparation for the contests scheduled on this year's game calendar, Coach Burch will prescribe strict training regulations to be observed and practiced by every member of the team throughout the playing season.

Much credit is due the Cheerleaders for the splendid work they do in conjunction with the maintenance of school spirit. An inspiration to the team and players in action, the Cheerleaders keep interest and enthusiasm alive, regardless of the state and condition of the game. Their effervescence buoys the spirits of the spectators and players, and without their invaluable performance, functions in the realm of sports would lack the glitter of success, that with the Cheerleaders' presence, is so abundantly displayed.
