

FOREWORD

The yearbook staff takes intense pleasure in presenting to its readers this, the 1954 edition of the REBEL. We have energetically endeavored to produce a yearbook sufficiently qualified to bear the name of the school which it represents. Page by page, we have attempted to display in pictures and words the broad and abundant life which a cadet at this institution shares.

The picture seen above portrays the first steppingstone to the fulfillment of Carlisle's fundamental principle: "CARLISLE DEVELOPS MANLY MEN."

As you, the judges of our attainments, unfold the contents of this book, it is our sincere desire that you will realize how this fundamental principle is achieved. If this wish is fulfilled, our reward will be obtained.
