

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1954, having been declared as sound of mind and sane in senses, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we leave our thanks and appreciation for all that they have done toward producing the most incomparably qualified class ever.

ARTICLE II

To the Junior Class we leave the honor of becoming Seniors.

ARTICLE III

To the poor unfortunate rats and underclassmen we leave our most cherished possessions and traits.

ALDERSON wills his half empty Brasso can to Johnny Mac Boltin.

ANGLIN leaves "A" Company to Dickie McNeil in hopes that some day he will grow large enough to become a member.

BANNISTER bequeaths his ability to cuss out guide sergeants to Toole.

BERRY bestows his ability to acquire hours to "Knock-Knock" McAbee.

BESSINGER endows Hair with his thick bushy locks of hair.

BRADIN leaves his college algebra book and Restriction sign to William Rhett Risher, Jr.

BRASINGTON bequeaths his mighty physique and handsome appearance to Capt. Steadman.

CHRISTIE bestows his ability to pass physics to Posey.

CLARK, J. J., endows his love for Southern food to Strawhecker.

DEDMON wills his quietness in English class to Eliopoulos.

DIXON, J. M., leaves his position on the basketball team to Cutie Austin.

DOUBERLY bequeaths Savannah and its paper mills to Cheatham.

DuBOSE wills his P.F.C. chevrons to Posey.

EDWARDS wills his good looks to Zemp with hopes that he obtain some of his own some day.

EWALD wills his stick pad and a copy of the Rules and Regulations to Don Eckholdt.

FEATHERSTON leaves his love for basketball to Lund.

GATCH bequeaths his ability to type section lists to Zemp.

GILLION wills his hair brush to Eddie Nedell.

GUMKOWSKI wills his algebra and geometry books to any cadet who wants them.

HENDERSON leaves his ability to come on M. P. duty for Dress Parades to some first yearman.

HENSLEY bequeaths his ability to drink coffee and take "No-Doze" tablets to Benny Outen.

HENSON leaves the choice showers in Risher Barracks to Ford and Avery who need them more than he does.

HINSON bestows his private eye to Black Dog.

HOLLIS leaves "Baby Dee" in the care of Capt. Burch.

HUGHES wills his sergeant to Tyree.

HUNTER bequeaths to Stone his socks which have no holes in them.

IRWIN bestows his darkroom to Henry, his vocabulaire de francais to Carscadden and "B" Co. to the luckiest man in the battalion.

JEFFERSON endows Guirado and Nedell with all the good-looking girls in Smallwood.

JONES, R. T., leaves his uniform to the Salvation Army in hopes that it will keep some poor soul warm.

KELLUM bequeaths his somewhat dubious musical ability to Rowland.

KITCHING bestows his ability to K. P. to McDaniels, K. D., who needs it.

KNIGHT endows his roommate Boltin with his Sergeant stripes.

LIPSCOMB wills his squeaky turntable and the rest of the CERO Club to Charlie B. Jones.

LOWTHER leaves his nocturnal habits to the editors of next year's Bugle and REBEL, his shack to Ferns, and his barbells to Henry.

McCONNELL bequeaths the "Green Dream" to Stevie Wall and the privilege of having the best-looking girl in "D" Company to Dickie McNeil.

McKNIGHT bestows his dirty socks and worn out shoes to Wilson, M. J.

METTS endows his homesickness to Tobin.

MILLER, C. F., leaves his ability to break campus and not get caught to Jack Major.

MILLER, J. E., bequeaths his athletic abilities to Lund and Eckholdt.

MINSHEW bestows his pipe and tobacco to Bethea.

MITCHELL, M. W., endows whoever takes his place with the pleasant task of being a guide sergeant.

NAGY wills his ability to do nothing and get caught at it to Mangels.

O'TUEL leaves his love for military life to McDaniels, E. C.

PAGE bequeaths his job as company clerk to some crazy rat.

PARKER bestows his mathematical brain upon Brawley.

PEAVY endows his P.F.C. to Lama.

PLAYER leaves his love for food in the messhall to "Tank" Silvey.

PORTER bequeaths his barbells to Brantley with hopes that some day he will become a man in body as well as in mind.

PUCKETT bestows his love for Charleston to O'Brien and also his ability to go there while restricted.

PUNDT endows his physics book to Dickie McNeil and also the care of the McPundt residence in Memorial Barracks.

RAPE wills the shop to Rabon, L. P.

REBER leaves his ability to baby sit for Capt. Thompson and Capt. Risher on the same night to Eddie Nedell.

RING bequeaths the bull ring to Sam Bailey.

ROBERTS bestows his place at mail call to Richardson.

RODRIGUEZ, A. S., leaves his football letter to little Rodriguez.

RUGGLES endows Cochran with his room in hopes that he may serve many more days of restrictions in it.

SASS leaves his ability to stay off the bull ring to Wilson, J. C.

SHIELL bequeaths his guidon to Sirmans.

SMART bestows his crude coffee-maker to Winters and his mouthpiece to Stover.

TEN BROEK endows to every Junior the thrill of being a Senior.

THOMPSON, B. I., wills his ability to fail four subjects at one time to Tyree.

THOMPSON, W. L., leaves his ability to practice basketball after a game to Lund.

WALDROP bequeaths his ability to jilt the Bamberg women to Toole.

WALSH bestows his ability to snow other people's women and his love for Lynne and the swimming pool to Jack Stone.

WATSON wills his college algebra book and its restrictions to McDaniels, E. C.

WEST leaves his ability to get up at Steel and not be late to Fincher.

WHITTLE bequeaths his raking ability to Seabrook.

WILSON, L. R., bestows his ability to get into trouble with Col. Grimes to Billy Wearmouth.

WILSON, S. H., leaves all things connected with Carlisle to McAbee.

WOOD, W. C., wills his torn P-Coat and the shattered remains of several shirts to Tyree.

WORLEY leaves his empty tooth-paste tubes to Briggs, F. R.

WORRELL leaves Carlisle and takes all he owns with him, including one hard-earned diploma.

YOUNG bequeaths the infirmary to Dr. Winters.