FOREWORD

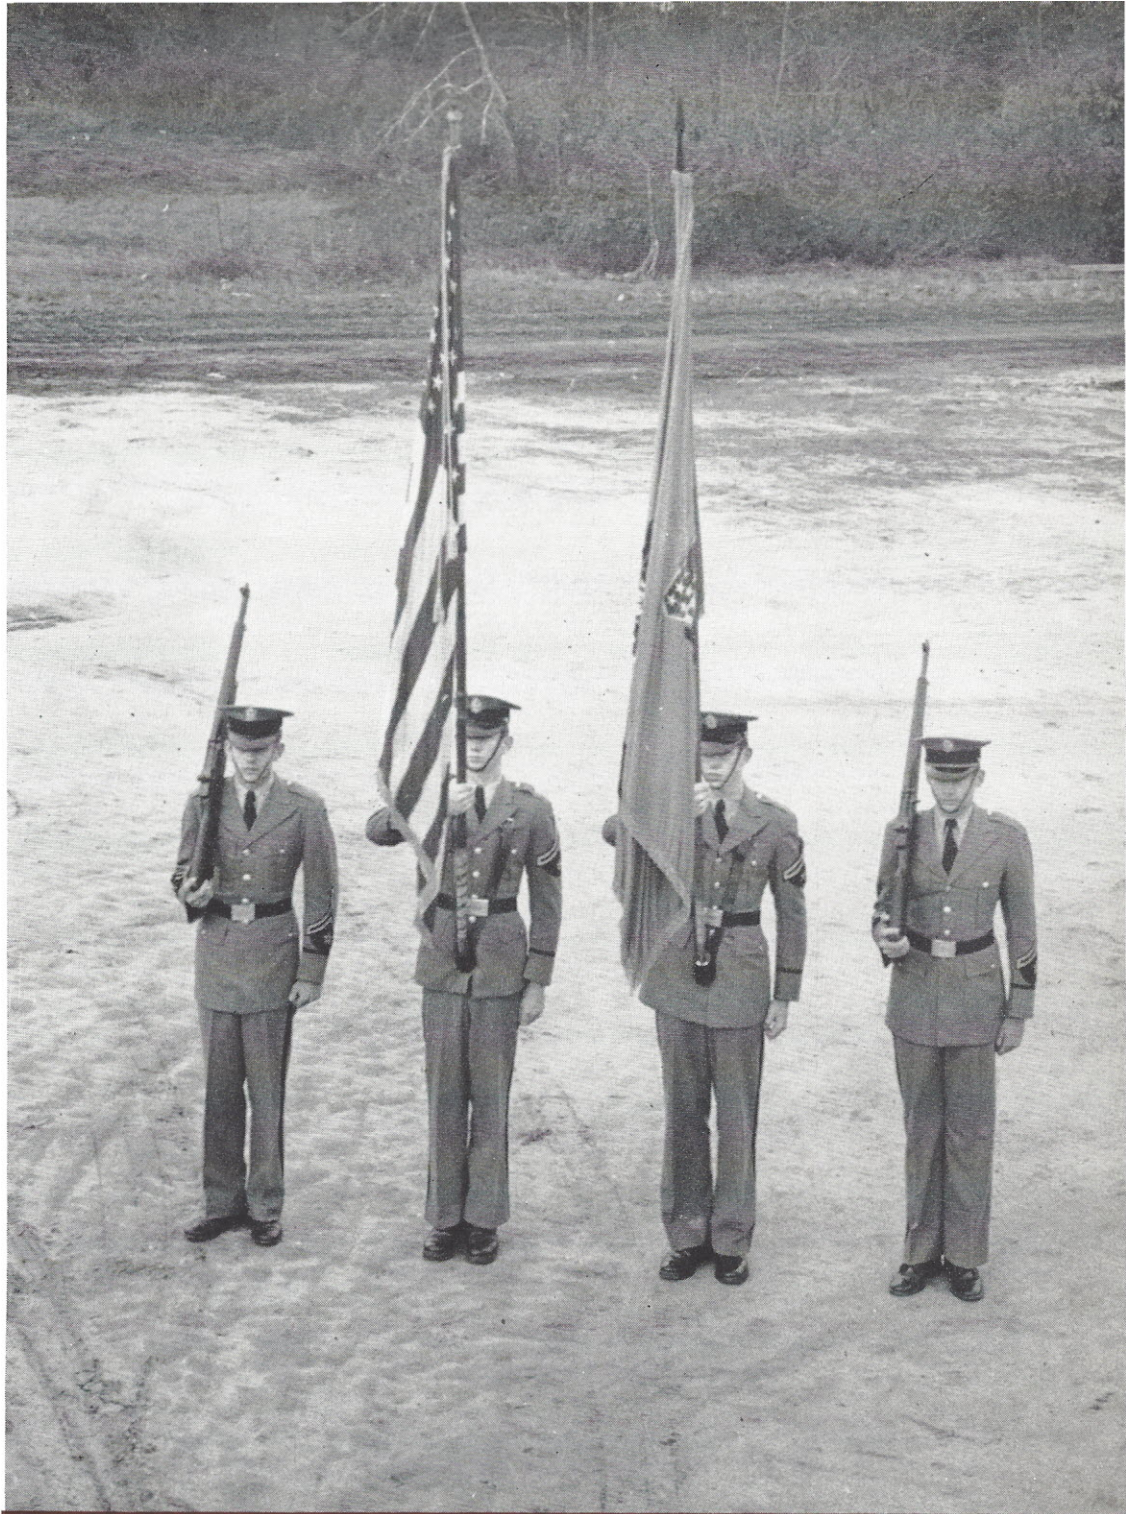

For you, the readers of the '55 REBEL, we have endeavored to produce a book portraying the school year, to be referred to for memories for many years. These pages will bring you the cadet, his duties, classes, athletics, activities, and above all, his classmates.

The 1955 REBEL Staff sincerely hopes you will keep this book as a link with cherished memories and enjoy a look back at times. If this is true our efforts will not have been in vain.

Sincerely,

THE REBEL STAFF.

To You, Capt. Thompson

We dedicate the 1955 Rebel in gratitude for your sincere interest in all of the cadets, and for your direction in matters military.

To you, whom we shall always remember as a part of Carlisle, we, the 1955 REBEL Staff, dedicate this book.

OUR HEADMASTER

YOUNG GENTLEMEN

Live each day as if it were your last. Put aside selfishness and greed, and remember that he is greatest who serves best.

JAMES F. RISHER,
Colonel-Headmaster.

The Carlisle Faculty is the nucleus of the school. By their untiring labor and effort they have made this institution what it is today. Any cadet who has a problem, no matter how trivial, can go to any member of the faculty for guidance.

Leading the faculty is Lt. Col. Grimes, Commandant of Cadets, whose work it is to see that the Cadet Corps operates smoothly.

Now that the work is in such a frenzied state we realize that we will be on our own in a short time. To the faculty we owe the folding of our lives and our only wish is that we may live up to all of their expectations of us as citizens of our nation and of the world.

MILITARY

BATTALION

The Cadets at Carlisle undergo a rigid military curriculum. Aside from their daily drill and Sunday Dress Parades, the students are subjected to a maximum amount of military training in regular military science and tactics classes. Here they are taught not only to be a good soldier in war, but also a good citizen in peace. These classes are instructed by the P.M.S.&T., Capt. Waddy Thompson.

The Cadet Corps is under strict military discipline and supervision at all times. All school regulations are carried out through the cadet commissioned and non-commissioned officers, as well as by the faculty.

Carlisle operates on the age-old honor system, and military courtesy is traditional.

The student body has received much recognition and praise for its functioning as a well-disciplined and well-trained military unit. It is only through the complete cooperation of each individual that this achievement could have been attained.

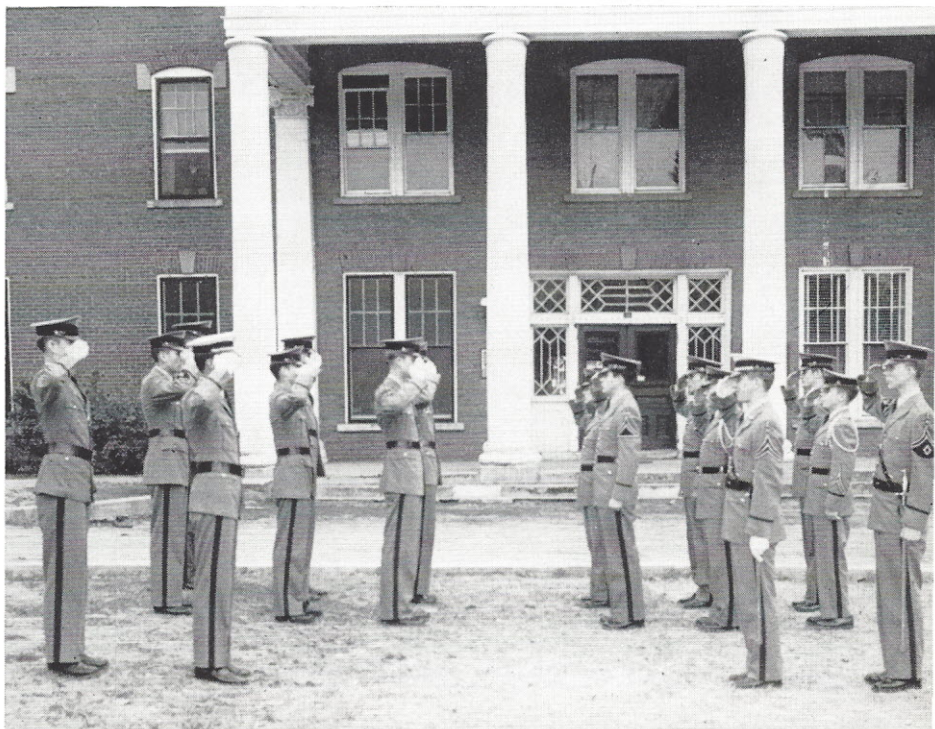

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

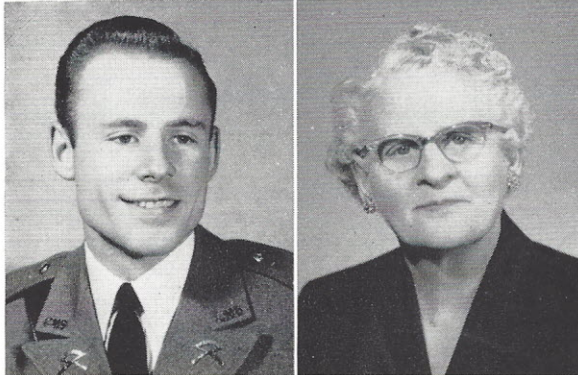

An important phase of military life at Carlisle is the changing of the guard.

Each day at noon, the new and retiring guard form to observe guard mount routine. The officer of the day, a commissioned officer, is in charge of each group. He is responsible for maintaining discipline of the cadets at school and on leave through the officers and sergeants of the guard, and the Military Police.

This traditional military custom is the keystone of the cadet government. Every commissioned and non-commissioned officer learns to exercise authority with justice and judgment and to command the respect of fellow cadets by soldierly conduct.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

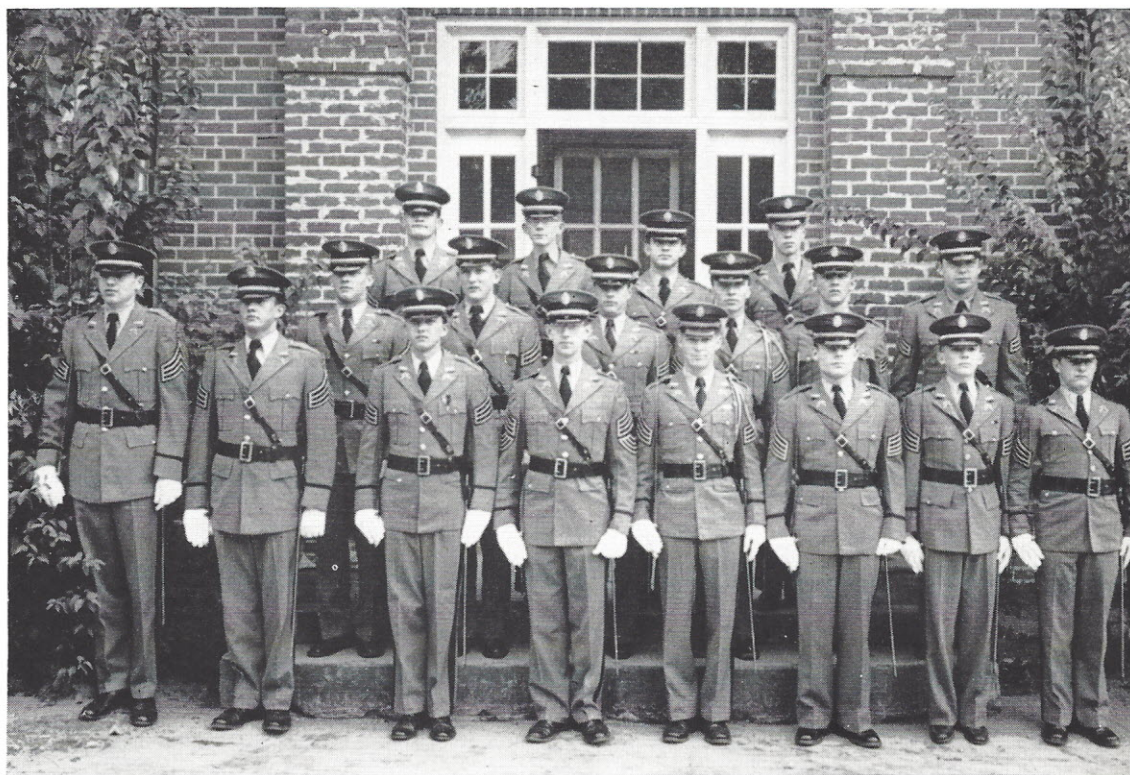

Of all the organizations at Carlisle, by far, the most respected is the Honor Council. This group of cadets, along with their faculty advisor, form the nucleus of student government at Carlisle. Upon the shoulders of these persons rests the responsibility of recommending punishment to the Headmaster for major rule violations that strike at the core of discipline. The decisions of this group affect not only the cadets involved, but very often set a precedent that may be followed in future years.

The Honor Council is made up of the cadet major who acts as chairman, all cadet captains, and the P.M.S.&T., Capt. Waddy Thompson, who is the faculty advisor.

CROSS SABER CLUB

Upon this group of cadets falls the most responsible position of all. Their tasks are leadership and discipline. They must set an example for the battalion to follow in their actions at all times, for a commissioned officer is never off duty. At any time during the day or night he must be ready to answer the call of duty.

The Cross Saber Club has been responsible for many advancements in the Corps of Cadets. If there are capable leaders, there will be, of necessity, duty-minded, conscientious cadets under them. The everyday routine of life at Carlisle revolves around these few hand-picked cadets.

NON-COM CLUB

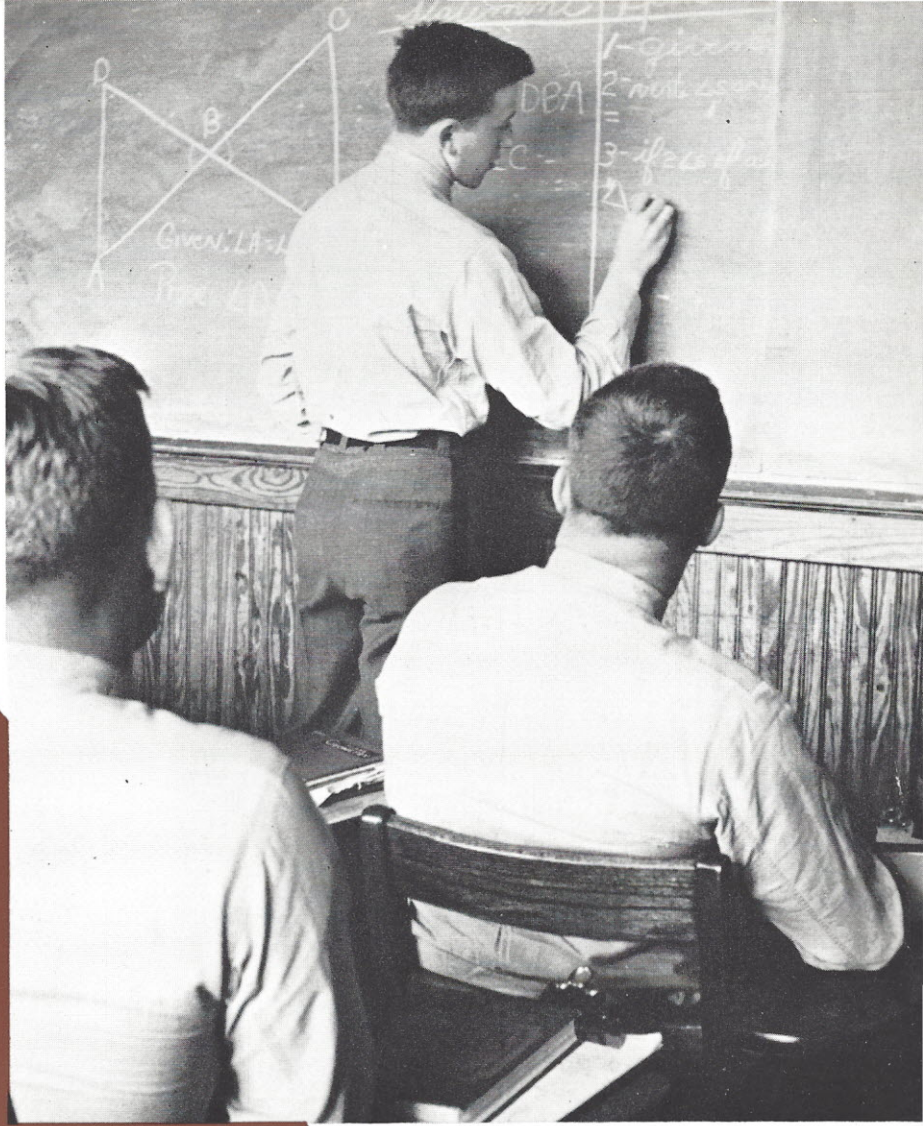

The Non-Com Club is composed of some 113 boys who have gained recognition as good leaders. It is a privilege to belong to this group of men.

The non-commissioned officers, from P.F.C. to 1st Sgt., form the backbone of the battalion. They must see that the rules and regulations are carried out. Each member and rank has its responsibilities.

By and large, the non-coms, are one of the finest groups of boys to be found.

Seniors at Ease

CHALLENGE TO THE SENIORS

As we, the seniors of 1955, embark upon our journey into life, let us not forget the ultimate end of this voyage. Do not live from year to year, but rather from day to day, making certain that each day all the responsibilities to our God and our Country will have been fulfilled. Do not forget that, in spite of all the plans you make, tomorrow may never come.

As we go forth, let us vow to do our best to leave the world a better place than it was before we came. Each of us will make his contribution, whether it be in the field of science, religion, politics, or any of the other various fields of endeavor.

To some, graduation is simply a stepping stone to more technical education; to others, it is the end of formal education and the beginning of a task at which they may labor for the rest of their days. Whichever it may be to you, be certain that you conduct yourself in a way that will reflect credit on you, your institution, and your class.

Life will be filled with both disappointments and moments of supreme elation and well-being. Take both in your stride and you will emerge at the completion of it to find yourself fully prepared to meet the Master of men and take your place in the immortal halls of everlasting life.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The rain beat a strange melody on the metal roof of the patrol car. It was a cold rainy night in February. The metallic hum of the atomic turbine in our new '67 Ultrabile in combination with the rain was beginning to tell on our nerves. Suddenly our thoughts were interrupted by the blare of the short-wave receiver as the dispatcher, "A. Y. W." HICKLIN gave us our orders.

"Proceed to 1955 Carlisle Street to investigate a disturbances at the Black Dog Ballroom." As we pulled up we noticed renowned lawyer and crooked politician R. R. HAIR mourning soulfully over the wreckage of his new Crown Victoria. We screeched to a halt in front of the club and went down a flight of stairs to the entrance. The door was suddenly thrown open and out came ZEMP and FRANKLIN forcibly ejected by bouncer BILLY JOE WILSON for calling Chef "BOOT-SNOOT" STRAWHECKER's muffins "grease balls." We crossed over the threshold into the dingy dump.

Now that the disturbance was cleared up we decided to have a nightcap before going home. Headwaiter DON BARGER led us to a table over in the corner. As we sat down we heard a loud yelp. Someone had just stepped on JIM BERRY's hand as he was conducting a crap game under the table with BARTON, TOBIN, and CRAWFORD. We came to the conclusion that this place was something more than just a run of the mill speak-easy. At the table next to us were WHITNEY CUNNINGHAM, well known physicist, and English professor ROY SHARP, discussing the educational aspects of a two-headed man. As we nursed our drinks along STEED came over to our table and tried to interest us in buying some reefers which he and AUSTIN were now manufacturing. At the bar BILL ELIOPOULOS poured CARL JOHNSON another drink as he gazed into the mirror behind the bar at his shining scalp and whimpered softly, "Oh my long lost hair." Standing at the cash register we saw bookkeeper JACK STONE paying off bootleggers BOLTIN, CHEATHAM, RAY, and TROWELL for their last load of moonshine.

Wearing a black eye and with his arm in a sling we noticed Private Eye SAM "KELVANEY" RICHARDSON enter the joint with his partner "SNOOPER" MCNEIL. They were on the trail of "SPOT" WALL whose wife was still trying to get the goods on him. Con Man "SLY SYL" ELLIOTT sauntered over to the table and tried to interest us in some new oil stocks he was selling, followed closely by used car dealer "CONSCIENTIOUS CLAUDE" HORTON and his partner HARLEY trying to peddle off a couple of stolen cars sold to them by ROGER FLYNN and JOE CROSBY. On the other side of the dance floor we noticed an intellectual discussion taking place between big game hunter JACK MAJOR and noted dental surgeon LESLIE RABON.

As we prepared to depart we were approached by "HARDROCK HARVEY" WEARMOUTH who invited us to join him in the back room. We walked back around the check room to a small door. After a coded knock the door was opened and we were ushered to another door by guards "ROD" McELWANNEY, "MUGGER" RODRIGUEZ, and "TRIGGER HAPPY" TOOLE. As we entered this closely guarded gambling casino we were greeted by its owner and operator "BIG JIM" GUIRADO and his right hand man "LEFTY" SMITH. Standing beside these two were their bodyguards JIM BRANTLEY and CARSWELL RAHN. This was quite a setup. The first thing to catch our eye was the poker table where the dealer for the house "FAST FINGERS" FINCHER was dealing the cards out to several big shots including Probation Officer LAMAR ELLIS, Public Safety Director GEORGE NILES and waterfront bosses TERRY HEFFRON and "O'B" O'BRIEN. Local bookie WES FERNS was standing in front of a large blackboard taking bets on coming basketball games while BRANNOCK, FINLEY, KING, and MANGELS tried to perk up business by seemingly placing bets themselves, but it was a losing proposition because by now it had become known that star players for Eastern State, JULIAN BYRD and ARCHIE "THE ATHLETE" LAMONTAGNE had been throwing games. We ambled on through the rows and rows of one armed bandits to where "FISH" GARRETT was operating a roulette wheel for the benefit of his sole customer, "DUMB DON" ECKHOLDT. We had arrived at the conclusion by now that something must be done about all this so we headed for the door to call the squad. We were then accosted by panhandler GEORGE MARTIN who had just been refused thirty cents for a can of brew by the Casino's cashier, GORDON CARSCADDEN.

As we finally reached the outside we tripped over HAROLD TYREE and JOHNNY WADE having a friendly pinochle game in the gutter. Just as we got to a telephone we were overtaken by two of the gunmen from the casino, LITTLEJOHN and WOOD, but we slapped them under arrest and tossed them aside for the paddy wagon. We called headquarters and they sent driver BENNY OUTEN over with the wagon along with a troop of guards consisting of WALLACE, EXLEY, WASH, and ZEIGLER.

Upon their arrival we departed from the scene and returned to headquarters to make out our report on the evening's activities.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1955, having been declared as sound of mind and sane in senses, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we leave our thanks and appreciation for all that they have done toward producing the most incomparable class ever.

ARTICLE II

To the Junior Class we leave the honor of becoming Seniors.

ARTICLE III

To the poor unfortunate rats and underclassmen we leave our most-cherished possessions and traits.

AUSTIN, E. G., leaves the lower half of South Carolina to Wilson Schulze to be presided over, with Summerville as its capital.

BARGER bequeaths his ability to go to Orangeburg, without getting caught (as he did) to Clay and Dixon, R. A.

BARTON endows Lyda with his room and all its collected dust; maybe he can give it to someone else.

BERRY bestows upon Bernhardt all the grits, rice, and biscuits he can eat.

BOLTIN wills his sympathy to the class of '56.

BRANNOCK leaves his collar stay to Jimmy Baker, if he can find it, and also his brains to Coroneas in hope that he can put them to better use than he did.

BRANTLEY bequeaths his ability to get out of M. P. duty to all the P.F.C.s of "A" Co. in '56.

BYRD, J. A., endows Billy Brown with his basketball uniform, No. 4.

CARSCADDEN bequeaths the trials and tribulations of the editorship of the Bugle, the easy life of captain-personnel, five night leaves a week, and unused set of senior textbooks, the love that all the faculty have for him, the ability to sleep through all classes with his eyes open after staying up 'til 5:00 A. M. the night before, and all the rest of his Carlisle possessions to be divided equally between Tommy Winters and Norman Voorhees with hopes that they may be able to talk the faculty into giving them to them.

CHEATHAM bestows his uniform upon the Salvation Army.

CRAWFORD wills his ability to Rikard of making extra night leave accidentally.

CROSBY leaves all his old cigarette butts to Clindon; may he use them sparingly.

CUNNINGHAM bequeaths his ability to answer questions which he knows nothing about to Wilson Schulze.

ECKHOLDT endows Stover with the Carlisle Male Chorus, Black Dog, Buppy, and Colgate.

ELIPOULOS bestows "B" Co. upon the Bradley Brothers in hope they will soon grow tall enough to become members.

ELLIOTT wills to Capt. Dallas his almost new French book minus several pages.

ELLIS leaves all of his "Pink Passion" letters to the brunet who works in Kemp Cleaners.

EXLEY bequeaths his ability to sort out reports incorrectly to anyone who gets the job.

FERNS leaves Carlisle, after five long years, with some wonderful memories of a great school.

FINCHER endows his dark secrets of magic to Cregg, Spears and Winters.

FINLEY bestows upon Betty Chavot his ability to do the rifle manual.

FLYNN wills a deck of worn out cards to Billy Tharpe.

FRANKLIN leaves his hard-earned diploma to his mother and to Mauricio his ability to stay out of love.

GARRETT bequeaths all of his unpaid debts to Jake Olsen and all of his great French grades also.

HAIR bestows upon Mackey his ability to pull special leaves and furloughs.

HARLEY gives to juniors the easy life of a senior.

HEFFRON wills to his mother his hard-earned diploma and to "B" Company's next captain the ability to swing a paddle at the right time.

HICKLIN leaves "click click" to Darby.

HORTON bequeaths to Posey his ability to get mail twice a day; he needs it bad.

JOHNSON, L. C., endows Johnson, M. P., with two more years of Carlisle in hope that he will enjoy it.

KING bestows his physics book upon any cadet who wants it.

LAMONTAGNE wills his bed to Bobby Bernhardt; he spends most of his afternoons there anyway.

LITTLEJOHN leaves to Rahn, W., and Jack Bragg his hundred dollar hat and his three hundred dollar suit.

MCELWANNEY bequeaths his ability to become a senior someday to Fetzter.

MCNEIL endows to Charlie "The Bat" Jones and Billy "The Kid" Tharpe his ability to dislike and be disliked by all Bamberg girls.

MAJOR bestows his sergeant chevrons to Jack Grieves and George Fittz in hope that they will make the grade, and will be able to use them as well as he did.

MARTIN wills to Capt. "Salade" a bottle of hair restorer and door knob polish.

MANGLES leaves his ability to Clifton to be at least ten minutes late to every class and get reported.

NILES bequeaths the art of dancing the double twirl and landing in Ellis' trunk to Gregory.

O'BRIEN endows his kindly Geechie talk to Yankee Bernhardt.

OUTEN bestows Kenneth LeRoy Kuipers to "Hoghead" Posey.

RABON, L. P., wills his bed to anyone who will have it.

RAHN, W. C., leaves Carlisle to Rahn, W.

RAY bequeaths to Posey the Jane Tood Inn in hopes that he will be able to hold his drinks better.

RICHARDSON bestows his telephone system to Taylor and hopes he doesn't get caught.

RODRIGUEZ bequeaths his love for Sgt. of the Guard to Fetzter.

SHARPE wills Carlisle to the Indians, in hopes they will rebuild Guilds Hall.

SMITH, F. H., leaves his ability to fall asleep in Capt. Estes "most interesting" English class to Bernhardt and Coroneas.

STEED bequeaths the metropolis of Bamberg to Callahan.

STONE endows; being of sound mind and not under the alkafuence of inkohol, and in the presence of three outstanding citizens, Salzman, Hendee, and Bailey; to Billy Tharpe with his ability to get up happily at the first note of first call, and stay neat and wide awake throughout the day.

STRAWHECKER bestows his record for the biggest nose to "Scrooge" Machamer.

TOBIN bequeaths his ability to sleep late to Bernhardt.

TOOLE leaves his physics book and college algebra book to Nedell in hope that he has as much fun with them as he did.

TROWELL leaves Bamberg to anyone who wants it.

TYREE leaves the "Skyline Club" to Magruder, Olsen and Haithcock.

WADE bestows his ability to pitch baseball to Smith, H. W.

WALL bequeaths to Harold Oakley room 203 in Memorial Barracks.

WALLACE leaves to Jenness his rifle and fond memories.

WASH wills his ability to graduate from Carlisle to Tharpe.

WEARMOUTH "High ideals and higher goals,
To sweet Neil Lund flows."

WILSON, M. J. bequeaths his fountain pen and address book to Stover and Nedell.

WOOD endows Parker with his ability to fly and walk away from the landing.

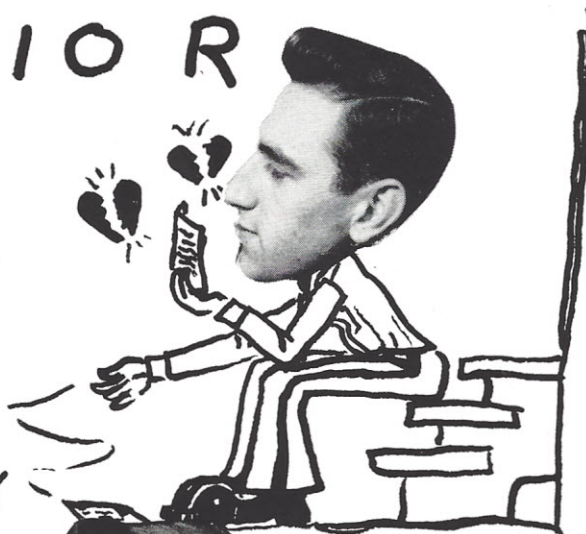

ZEIGLER wills to Johnson, M. P., a half a tube of toothpaste so he won't run out next year.

ZEMP leaves his drugstore to Rev. Stroman.

As the editor of the '55 REBEL, I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the members of my staff for their valuable assistance in compiling this yearbook.

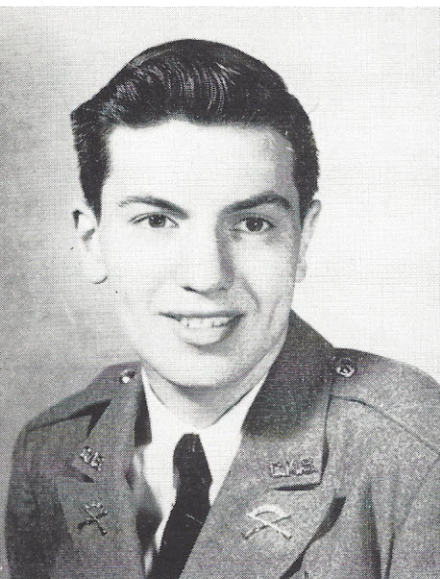

We have worked to make this year's REBEL as interesting as possible. In reading this book we hope that you, the student body, will derive a great deal of enjoyment from its pages.

CARL JOHNSON,
Editor-in-Chief.

The Library Club is one of the most active organizations at Carlisle.

The objectives of the club are: to more thoroughly acquaint cadets with library services, resources and procedures; to create a wider interest in good books and reading; to provide an opportunity for the development of leadership and to raise the prestige of the school library.

Cadets and faculty officers come to the library to find material for class and recreational reading. Our library is becoming a real service center for the whole school.

BRIGADIERS

Carlisle's Orchestra, under the direction of Captain William Scaffé, and assisted by Cadet Major Wes Ferns, provides wholesome entertainment for many social functions at Carlisle and the surrounding community.

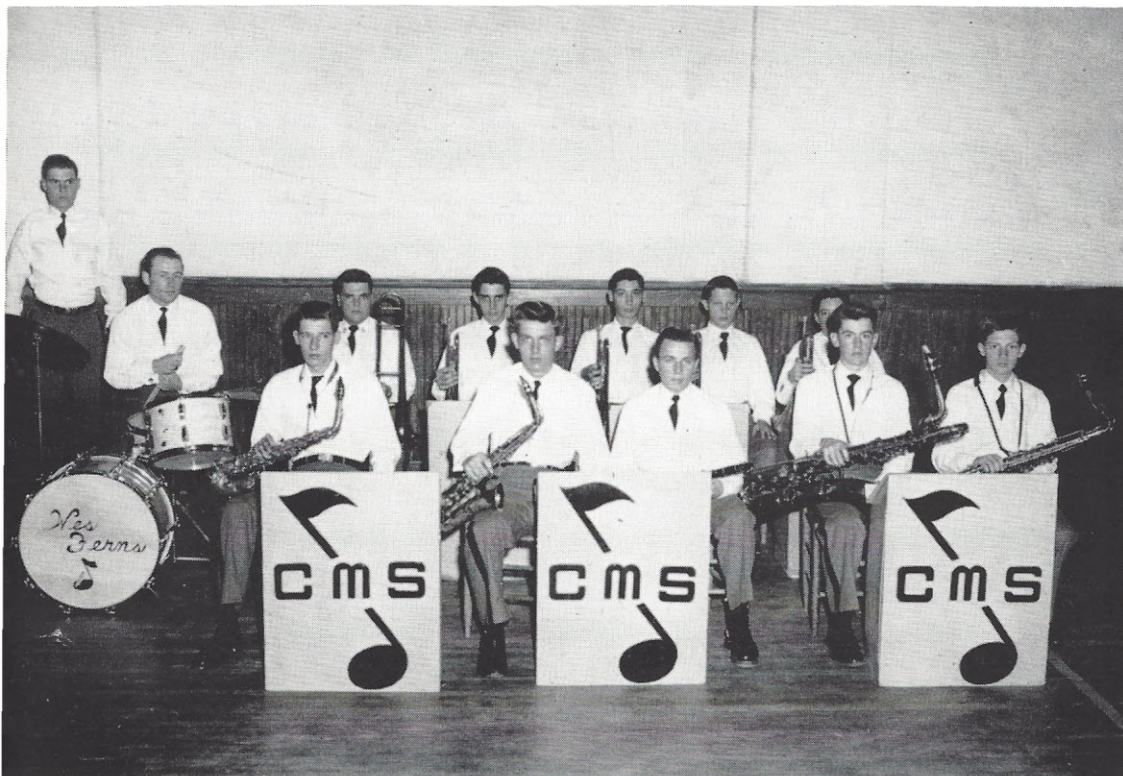

The orchestra is composed of the most proficient members of the Carlisle Band. They retain their positions by hard work and good performances.

CERO

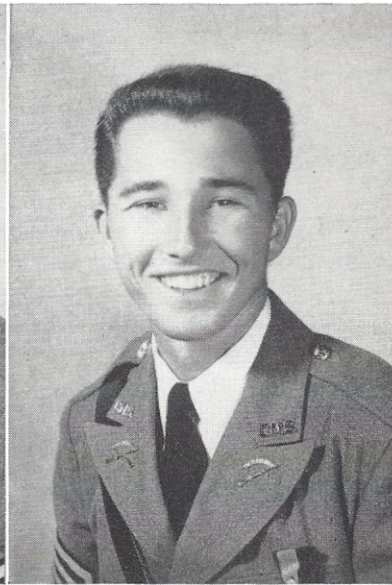

The Carlisle Entertainment and Recreation Organization has the responsibility of providing for certain social events which highlight the school year.

Under the supervision of Capt. M. Carson Sturgeon, faculty director, the members of this group devote a great amount of time and effort in planning for the decorations and arranging for the music for the formal and informal dances.

Much credit is due this organization for its contribution to the social phase of life at Carlisle.

FLIGHT CLUB

The Carlisle Flight Club, which has been organized for the benefit of the Cadets, trains each member in aeronautics and instills in his mind the need for good pilots today.

Under the supervision of Capt. Guy Eargle, faculty advisor and instructor, and Mr. A. E. Cadle, owner and operator of the Bamberg Flying Service, the cadets, through hard work, can earn their pilot's license.

Dear Editor Johnson:

Your candidates for MISS CARLISLE are all so lovely to look upon it wasn't easy to settle down to the difficult but pleasant task of selecting the winner and her court!

I have finally made my decisions and you will find that I have designated my choices on the backs of the photographs.

Greetings and good wishes to all!

The Block "C" Club is, in all probability, the most honored organization on the Carlisle campus.

Membership in the Block "C" Club is limited to those cadets who have earned a varsity letter in one or more fields of sports at Carlisle. Since the requirements for earning these awards are very rigid, the membership roll includes only those men who are outstanding in their respective fields of athletic endeavor.

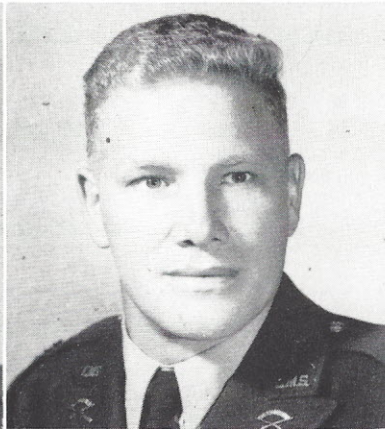

The Block "C" Club has sponsored dances, parties, and other events that confirm its importance and activity.

In the heart of South Carolina,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our dear old Carlisle
As the years go by.

CHORUS

May it ever be our watchword,
"Conquer and Prevail,"
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old Carlisle, hail.

SECOND VERSE

We are working all together
To make a better school,
We are proud of dear old Carlisle,
And forever will be true.

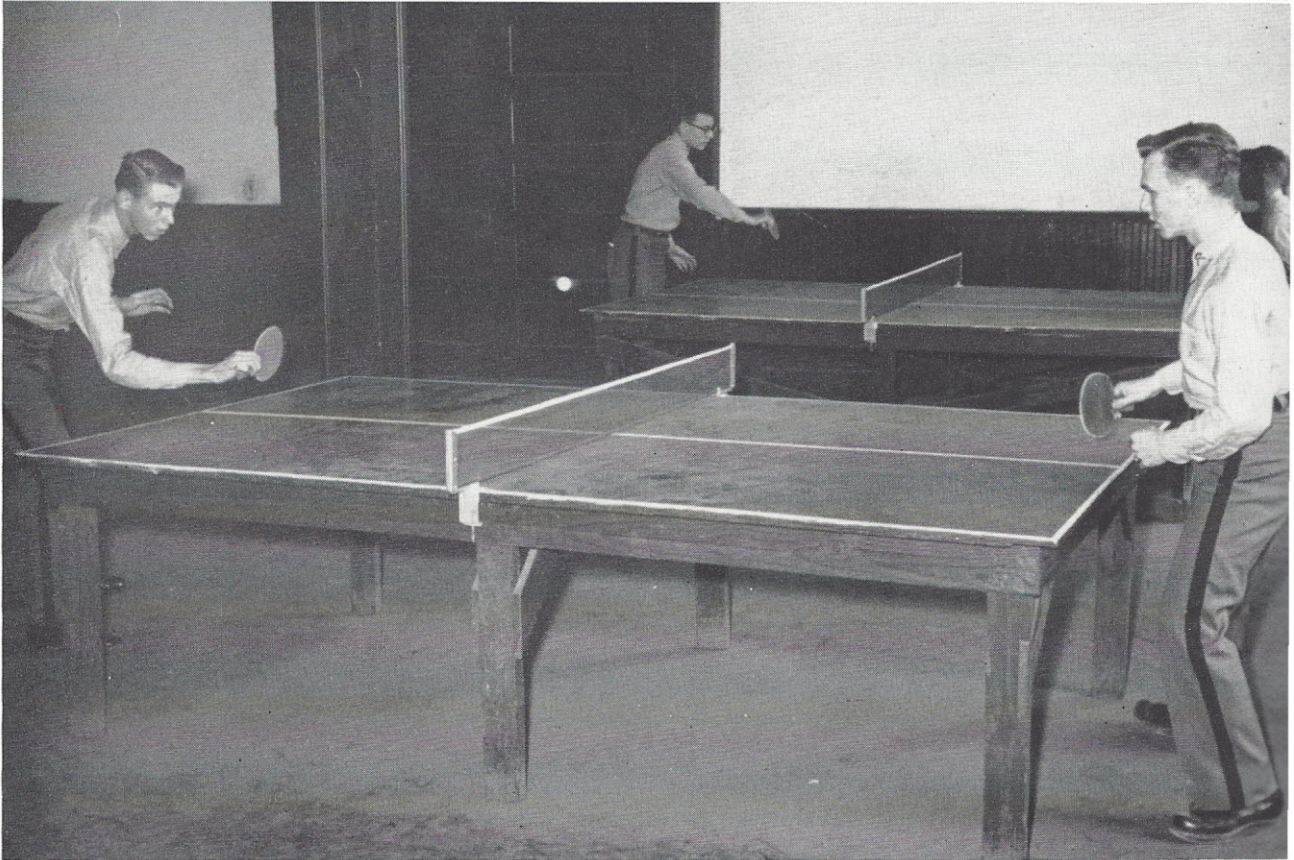

THIRD VERSE

When we from thy halls have parted,
And life's battle's on
Thy great spirit shall inspire us.

CARLISLE MILITARY SCHOOL training is designed to develop alertness for opportunity and the skill and ability with which to make the most of opportunity.

THE IRVING L. WILSON COMPANY was organized a little more than five years ago because the founder of the company was interested more in opportunity than in security. That there was a glorious opportunity to specialize in the manufacture of military school and college uniforms seemed to be self-evident and a challenge which the Irving L. Wilson Company has accepted. We are dedicated to the proposition of producing better uniforms at reasonable prices and to give our customers a high degree of personalized service.

We are proud to be one of the uniform suppliers of the Carlisle Military School and we hope by the way in which we serve you that we will continue to merit this privilege.
