Another year has passed at Carlisle, and as we look back we realize that we are richer both in knowledge and in spirit. We have learned to live a new way of life, made many new friends, and learned many worthy lessons. As we leave now, perhaps never to return, we remember Carlisle as a series of experiences, and as life goes on we will often think back and remember fondly some incident of our life here.

In the future, one may wish to return to the past and savor the memories he has of the life he experienced here. But memories may grow dim with the years, and one may not be able to remember what he felt, what he saw, and what was said.

This, then, is the mission of the 1961 REBEL: to contain within its pages life at Carlisle, those experiences that shaped our lives and made our years here richer and fuller. If, then, in the future, one reads over our edition and remembers once again what Carlisle was to him, our mission will have been accomplished.

Thank You,
The 1961 REBEL STAFF.

MRS. RISHER

DEDICATION

It was once said, in effect: "Behind every great man, there is a greater woman." And MRS. RISHER, we hold this to be true. Your influence on our lives has left us richer and fuller, and so with love and gratitude, we respectfully dedicate this our work, the 1961 REBEL, to you.

PRESIDENT

COL. JAMES F. RISHER was born in Hampton County, S. C., and graduated, in the class of 1911, from The Citadel. He taught in the public schools of Colleton County, and was the Superintendent of Ehrhardt High School for two years. In 1924, he came to Carlisle to teach, and in 1928 was made Headmaster, purchasing the school in 1939. In 1958 he purchased Camden Military Academy, and he now serves as Col.-President of Carlisle and Camden. Besides being a top-rate educator, Col. Risher has held many important positions in community and national organizations. The Corps of Cadets appreciates his influence on our lives, and we are proud to have known him.

HEADMASTER

COL. W. R. RISHER was born in Ehrhardt in 1927. He attended the Bamberg grade school and graduated for Carlisle Military School in 1944. In 1947 he graduated from The Citadel with a B.S. degree in Physics. After doing graduate work at the University of North Carolina, he came to Carlisle in 1948, where he became instructor of Physics. In 1958 he was made Headmaster of Carlisle. Col. Risher is also active in community and national affairs, having been vice-president in charge of public affairs for the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. We are very fortunate to have such a man as our headmaster.

COMMANDANT OF CADETS

LT. COL. JAMES M. GRIMES, was born in Bamberg, S. C., and attended the public schools of Bamberg, S. C., graduating from Bamberg High School. He attended The Citadel and graduated from Wofford with an A.B. degree. Upon graduation from Wofford, he was commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Army Reserves. During World War II he was a Captain in the South Carolina State Guard. Col. Grimes has been at Carlisle 26 years where he has served as Commandant of Cadets. He presently teaches American History. Col. Grimes is respected by all cadets and is very popular with the cadets because of his kindness and willingness to help.

FELLOW SENIORS:

These last four years have been a lot of work and a lot of fun. I seem to remember more of the good time than the hard ones.

I have been highly honored to serve as your president this year, and I hope I have been able to do my job in the best interests of the class.

You have been great, and I think we have all done a good job to make this senior class the best one to graduate yet.

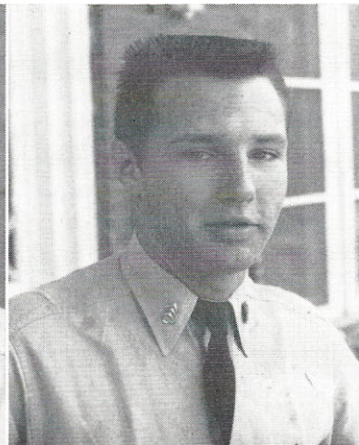

I wish you all the best of luck in whatever walk of life you choose and hope we will always be friends.

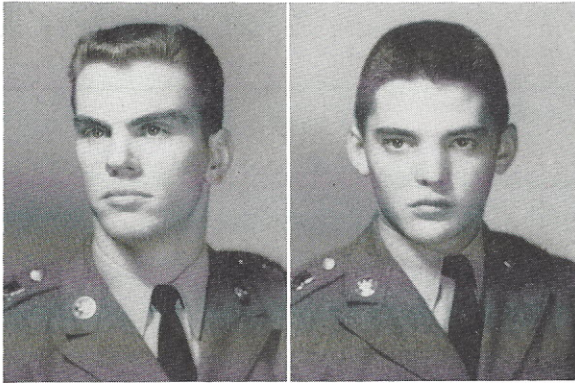

Sincerely,
RONALD T. PERDUE,
President.

THE SENIOR PROPHECY

Two score and nine years ago our contemporaries brought forth upon this campus a new class, conceived in the memory of hallowed traditions and dedicated to the proposition that we should all meet once again in this year, 2000 A. D.

We are the first to arrive on the campus and, as we do (we notice many changes). In the middle of the grounds we see a tall, four-story, ultra-modern classroom building surrounded by beautiful shrubbery. About one hundred yards to the left of the classrooms stands the new glass-fronted, one-million-dollar library, which holds a total of almost three hundred and fifty thousand books. At the crest of a small hill we notice four huge barracks buildings, enclosing four large quadrangles, with gently sloping ramps leading to each of the three floors. Patton Hall, where the cadets enjoy their fabulous meals, is enclosed on three sides by glass and is large enough to seat the entire cadet regiment at one time.

It looks like the Carlisle Golden Cyclones have brought back their third victory in a row from the cadets at West Point. We see smiles on the faces of the football team of 1961. Larry Bozeman, our right halfback, has come to see us from his quarterhorse ranch in Greensboro, N. C. Arthur Brabham, who was our hard-driving fullback in '61 and is now the owner of the Baltimore Colts, smiles brightly after hearing the news of the victory. The brightest smile of all comes from our '61 quarterback, Rolly Fagan. Rolly has joined us from the beaches of Florida, where he is the owner of a large pavillion at Fort Lauderdale. "Big Hersch" Herschelman, whom we remember as one of our big tackles, joins us from the Navy, where he is in command of the battleship "Hemlock." Mr. and Mrs. Ronald T. Perdue have emerged into our midst from the heart of Florida. Ronnie was our star guard in 1961. Our most athletic senior of '61, "PeeWee" Yearty, who now owns Spalding Sporting Goods Company, joins his fellow teammates of that great 1961 football season.

We notice a large Greyhound bus driven by Richard Polk pulling in from points north. Richard J. Hoffman, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, while climbing off the bus, tangles his feet in his judicial robe, causing his judicial wig to fall from his judicial head. We see James DuMars on his knees, sifting the sand with his fingers in search of his glasses which were crushed under the wheels of the bus as it pulled away. As the bus drives off we see the frantic figure of Ralph DeRentz, who is desperately trying to climb out of the back window. It seems that he was so busy beating his bongos that he forgot to get off.

A cold wind whips in from the north, and who should arrive but "Moose" Moore, wrapped in a parka, carrying a large sign advertising "Great Northwest Snowshoes." Butch is the president of the firm.

From the direction of Anderson comes Ricky Raible, a reformed Yankee, driving his latest new car. He's wrecked a total of one a year since he graduated. It seems that Rick has reorganized some sort of singing group up there—the "Debbi-tunes," or something like that.

With a screech of tires, Kenny Schlosser arrives in a Pontiac. Kenny was severely injured in his youth by a herd of termites who mistook him for a toothpick but is now doing quite well.

We walk into the library and are not surprised to see Billy Goodwin and Ward Griffin revising the history of the War Between the States. They weren't satisfied with the last outcome. Over in a corner we spy Max Ford, three-time winner of the Nobel Peace Prize for Literature, looking over all the old editions of the REBEL, still convinced that the 1961 edition was best.

Looking upward, our breath is taken away at the sight of two lone figures floating up-side down toward the earth. Buddy Shelton and Teddy Wilson seem to have gotten tangled in their parachutes while trying to get out before the satellite went into orbit. The tests for the Air Force Academy are getting rougher.

We bump into Bill Fraylick, who is dragging a huge projector by the cord and has a large bag of reels over his shoulder. We tried to tell him before that the Sunday movies had been discontinued, but he refuses to listen. Travis Johns is following close behind him. Being, also, a non-believer, he wants to keep order in the show. It should be an easy job.

Looking to our right we see a grayhaired old man wearing a Carlisle uniform. Well, if it isn't Wes Clem! We reckon that one year of post-graduate work wasn't enough for him.

Pulling up in an old pick-up are Pete DeShields and Wally Hallows, fresh from their "cracker" factory in Georgia. They've never been able to escape the Georgia characterization laid down by Erskine Caldwell.

Under the old oak tree, from time to time, we see Ken Owens sitting, history book in hand, studying and slowly doing the hambone. Oops, he missed a beat!

As we gather in the new, million dollar auditorium, we are greeted by Carlisle's Commandant of Cadets, Colonel John A. Zappitello.

But wait—late as usual, in rush the former editors of the Carlisle Bugle, Doug Kornahrens and David Smith, who have spent the past thirty-nine years roaming the vast stretches of the Gobi Desert, seeking to understand the true philosophy of life.

We are met here to decide whether this class, being so conceived and so dedicated shall long endure. We know it shall, for it is the best. So saith the prophets.

TO THE CLASS OF "62"

Well fellows, this has been a hard year for all of us, but with a little help from everyone we have finally become seniors.

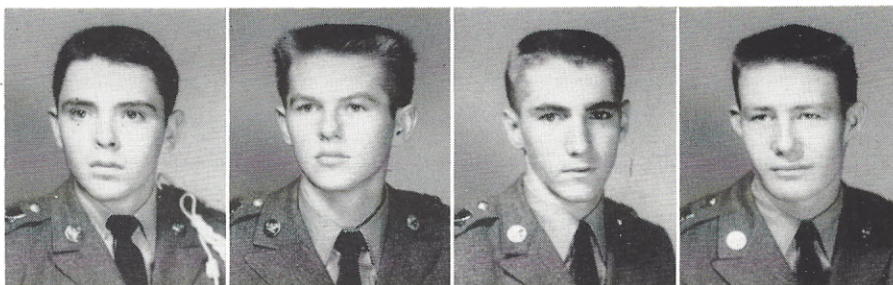

The officers, Vice-President, Perry Bryant; Secretary, Homer Groce; Treasurer, Jug Parrish, along with the other members of the Junior Class, have all helped in making this the best class yet. We hope to have the best Senior Class Carlisle has ever had next year.

Sincerely,

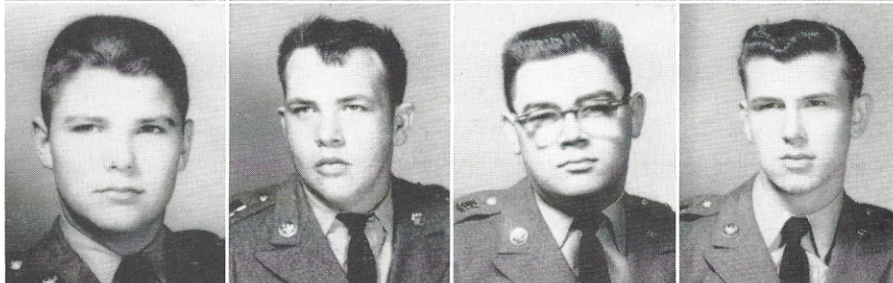

BEN SUMMER,
President.

This year was long and rough for all of us. Although we've had to study hard, it's been worth it. The good times that we have had will always be lasting memories.

Now that we've become Juniors, let's work hard and make next year's Junior class the best one yet.

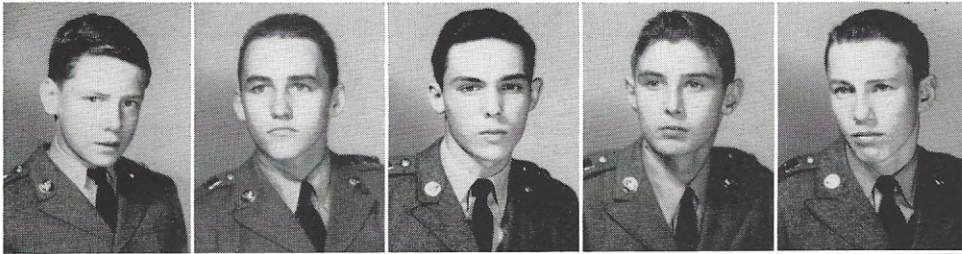

Along with Bob, Flip, and Geoff, I wish you success and happiness in the days to come. I hope to see you as friends and classmates again next year.

Sincerely,

Thank You
MISS JUDY

Your kindness and devotion to all of us has left its mark, Miss Judy. You have given of yourself so very freely; you were our "mother" away from home, and we shall never forget you. The REBEL Staff, on behalf of the entire Corps of Cadets at Carlisle, wishes to take this opportunity to say that we have never known a nicer person during our stay in Bamberg.

The Carlisle Entertainment and Recreation Organization, under the supervision of Major Carson Sturgeon, is a very important club here at Carlisle. CERO is responsible for obtaining the many dance bands that play at our dances and

1961 REBEL STAFF

This annual represents a dream that has become a reality. But to achieve this, much hard work had to be endured by everyone on my staff, as well as many others just remotely connected. Changing a good dream into just half as good a reality is not easy, but we of the 1951 REBEL think we have done it.

Being editor-in-chief of the annual was fun to me because I found that the work was not too hard and that I could burden my subordinates with the really hard jobs. Therefore, let me make it plain that this is their annual; without their never-ending resources, suggestions, and stamina, there would be no 1961 REBEL. My hat is off to my staff; I salute them for a job well done.

I would like to take this small space to sincerely thank our advisor, Major Guy Eargle. The 1961 REBEL Staff realizes that Major Eargle has been the main-stay of this annual, and without his humor, kindness, and willingness to help we would have long ago given up. His photography graces the pages of our "dream," and it is a testimony to the man who most influenced this publication.

Every cadet at Carlisle is very appreciative of the fine work done by the Bugle Staff.

LIBRARY STAFF

Under the direction of Mrs. Harold Rice, the Library Staff performs a valuable duty for Carlisle.

Helping cadets develop an enthusiastic interest in books, assisting library visitors, and promoting library interest throughout the school are only a few of the well done duties of the Library Staff.

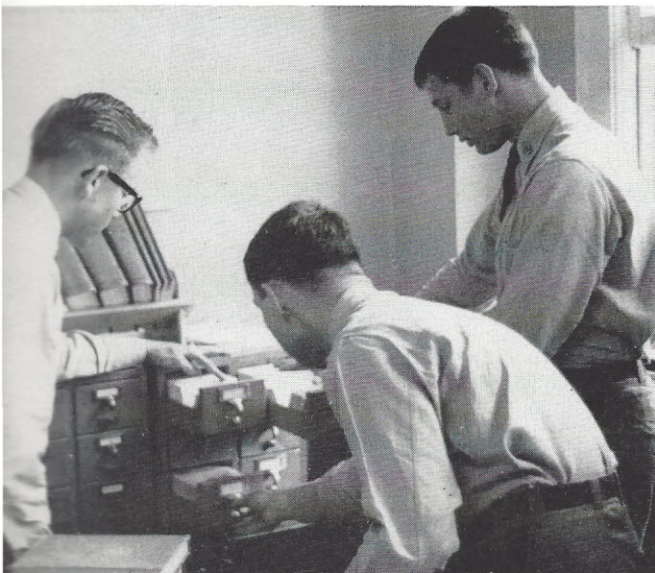

Being always ready to help when needed, the members of the Library Staff receive great appreciation by the many cadets visiting the library.

The Flight Club of Carlisle renders a very educational and interesting hobby for cadets who are interested in aeronautics and flying.

THE BRIGADIERS

The "Brigadiers" is Carlisle's own orchestra. Under the leadership of Major Bill Scaffé, the "Brigadiers" do an excellent job of providing fine music for dances in and around Bamberg.

A performance of the "Brigadiers" is always highly praised and appreciated by the audience.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club, composed of boys showing an interest or special ability in the field of electronics, is another worthwhile organization here at Carlisle.

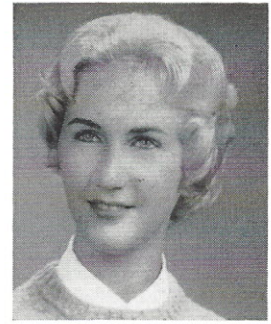

Using their own tools, equipment, and spare time, the members of the Radio Club construct elaborate hi-fi and stereo outfits for their rooms. While doing this, they receive valuable knowledge and experience, and many of the boys will later go into this field as a career, better prepared to do their job by having engaged in this activity during their stay at Carlisle. The Radio Club is, undoubtedly, a very noteworthy organization, and we are proud to have such a group on our campus.

SIGMA EPSILON

This year saw a great many momentous changes and events here at Carlisle, and one of the very best events to take place was, we think, the establishment of a literary fraternity on our campus. The Sigma Epsilon Society is composed of a group of boys who display special ability in English or in journalistic activities at Carlisle. The aim of the society is to raise the academic standards of the boys within the group, as well as to give its members an opportunity to use their talent more often.

We of the society this year realize that the group is a fledging organization, and we hope that the society, now that it has been established, will continue to function successfully in the future, because we think it meets a definite need.

1961 GOLDEN CYCLONE

a big year for FOOTBALL

Athletics is a very important phase of cadet life. The importance is not only evident in the physical condition of the men, but also in the teamwork, in competitive spirit, and in the sense of fair play which it fosters. Under Coaches Philips and Young, Carlisle football this year saw the fruits of labor of a month's sweat and blood during early practice.

The last game was with Camden, and the hard work of Carlisle paid off. The Cyclones went ahead in the first three minutes and dominated play the entire game, winning 35-6. The football trophy was ours. We are proud of the team and their record of nine wins and one loss. We hope that in years to come Carlisle will field teams that will play as hard as this year's team.

The Golden Cyclone made history in sports this year, and we hope baseball is no exception. The boys will work hard to develop themselves for the games ahead, we are sure.

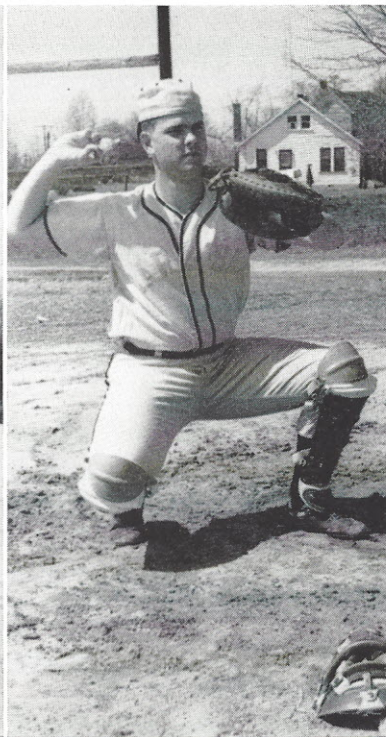

Although the annual goes to press before baseball season is completed, we are sure that, under the excellent coaching of Richard Phillips, this season will be great.

Our roster of sports would not be complete without the golf team. Under the coaching of Maj. Bill Scaffe and Capt. Jack Steadman, they have prepared diligently for the scheduled matches and tournaments. Two lettermen returned this year: Luther Shelton and Nickey Greene.

Even though we will have already gone to press by the time all the matches have been completed, we are sure that they will end this season with a fine record.

The Intramurals program meets a very definite need at Carlisle. This program provides recreation for cadets who are not participating in varsity sports. Included in the program are: football, baseball, softball, and basketball. We sincerely thank Capt. Malin Threatt and his cadet staff for their efforts in providing us with a worthwhile program, such as this, in order that we may more fully enjoy our days at Carlisle.

The Block "C" Club is an organization of the boys who have lettered in a varsity sport. To join the club is no easy task; first, the nominee must be officially appointed by his coach or faculty advisor, and then he must be able to meet the requirements of the Block "C" initiation, portions of which are shown below.

Any boy who gains membership in the Block "C" Club can be justly proud of himself.

During the year, the Block "C" Club engages in various social activities, such as parties and field trips, and the cadet member gets a chance to perform as an integral part in the tradition of this worthy club.

Dear Max,
Your kind invitation for me to judge your 1961 "Miss Carlisle" contest was greatly appreciated. It has been a pleasure.

As far as I am concerned, each girl is a winner and should feel honored to have been in the competition. After much thought I have finally selected your Queen and her court. They are marked on the back of the pictures.

Thank you again for thinking of me. Best wishes for a most successful yearbook.

INFORMAL DANCES

The informal dances are part of the varied social life at Carlisle. Many of these dances are held throughout the year, providing a needed change-of-pace and hours of enjoyment to Carlisle Cadets and their dates. Music at these informal dances is provided by the "Tremoloes," a rock-and-roll combo shown below. Their music this year has been a contributing factor in the fine successes of the informal dances.

The Honor Council is the governing body here at Carlisle. It is unique because the Honor Council, composed of cadets, passes judgment on its fellow cadets whenever justice needs to be passed. It is the most respected organization at Carlisle, because its members symbolize the finest moral and spiritual aspects of life at Carlisle.

CROSS-SABRE CLUB

The Cross Sabre Club is composed of the commissioned officers here at Carlisle. During the year, the Cross Sabre Club initiates many worthwhile projects in order to earn money for fixing up their clubhouse.

This clubhouse is always kept in perfect condition by the officers; this year new flooring, a refrigerator, a sink, and a stove were some of the improvements. During the year, officers often invite their dates to the clubhouse for refreshments during dances. During week-nights, the officers who qualify may go to the clubhouse for a little relaxation and television.

RISHER RIFLES

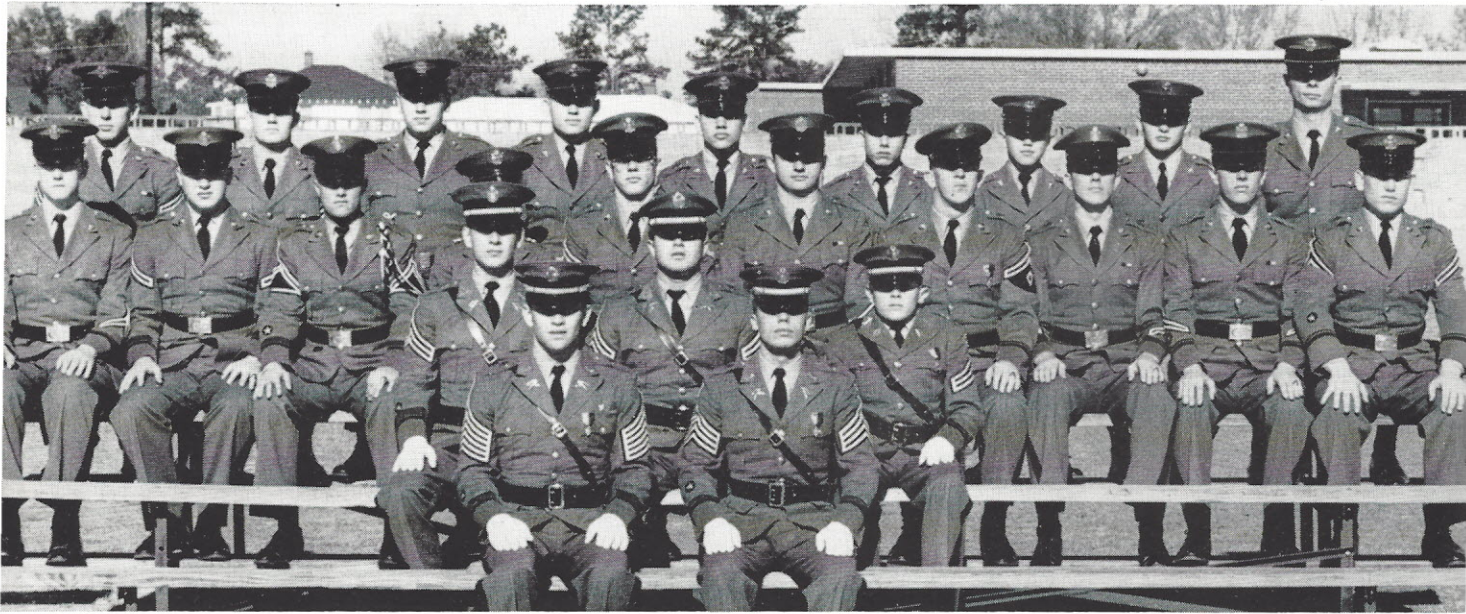

In the past, the Carlisle drill teams have been mainly a touch-and-go affair, but this year, Cadet 1st Lt. Duard Bradshaw fielded a highly successful and talented group.

Starting with new cadets, adding a few experienced hands, and initiating hours of hard instruction and practice, paid off. This year, The Risher Rifles represented Carlisle at many parades and gave performances at nearly every dress parade. The Cadet Corps realized very soon that The Risher Rifles were something to be proud of, for their precision drilling, military bearing, and general appearance enhanced many a Sunday afternoon.

The REBEL Staff, then, realizes that The Risher Rifles are the elite of Carlisle, and to Lt. Bradshaw and his men we say: "Thanks! We are proud of you."

TRAINING CADRE

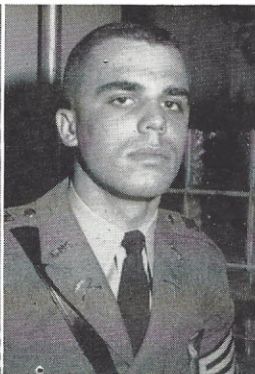

This year, as in the past, the Training Cadre was a success. On September 6, 1960, the "rats" entered Carlisle, and it was up to the Cadre to govern and help them in their transition from civilian to cadet. For six weeks, the "rats" learned the plebe system, how to drill as a unit, and how to conduct themselves in a military way. It was up to the Cadre to instill in the "rats" a great amount of discipline, and it was up to the Cadre to make these boys realize what was expected of them here at Carlisle.

The REBEL Staff, on behalf of the Cadet Corps takes this time to congratulate the Training Cadre for a job well done.

TAPS

And so, at last, the story ends. Now it is time to separate, and for the Senior Class, each to go his own way. But, no matter how distant our relationships are in the future, let us remember the greatness of this, our Carlisle. The REBEL Staff wishes to each and every cadet a happy journey in the days that lie ahead, and to the Seniors we especially say: "Good Luck. You have made it, and you have proven yourselves men." May God bless you and keep you in the days to come.
