FOREWORD

The presentation of this 1967 REBEL marks the end of another long and hard year. It was a long and hard road at first, but with the corporation of everyone this year has turned out to be one of the best ever. For over a hundred of us, it has been too short and now we are wondering what the future holds for us.

We have done many things and have seen many changes in us and in the school, but they are all memories to us now. But there is one thing that will always be with us, and that is our education that we have received from our instructors, who we are greatly in debt to.

As you look through this book it will bring back many memories of happiness, but for others, sadness.

The 1967 REBEL will always keep these memories close to our hearts as the years pass by.

Captain Fred Hattrich

The staff of the 1967 REBEL takes renewed pride in presenting the year's publication to Captain Fred Hattrich. With his coaching and teaching experience behind him, we can readily explain where Captain Hattrich gets his patience and understanding with the Corp of Cadets. It is with great respect and a deep sense of gratitude that we salute you: CAPTAIN FRED HATTRICH.

Since the Cross Sabre Club's beginning a good many years ago, it has progressed very rapidly. Under the guidance of Col. Waddy Thompson, the club has built, from scratch, a very elaborate club house and has made a name for itself, which is well known around campus.

The Club's income comes mainly from the sale of Pepsi-Colas. They have machines in various positions throughout the school. They use the money from these sales to purchase furniture, give steak suppers and most of all for their annual trip to some location of great interest, such as National League Football games.

We wish to thank Col. Thompson for his untiring efforts put forth to make the Cross Sabre Club a better place for its members as the years go by.

On behalf of the Cross Sabre Club, God bless you.

Sincerely,

Athletics takes on a broader aspect than merely winning games or cheering the team. It has a deeper and more significant importance to the spirit and life of a school. Qualities of sportsmanship, determination, loyalty, and initiative evolve from athletics that are building factors of strong character and sound conviction. Individuals with these qualities become stars not only among their friends, but also stars in society, in America, and in the world. They are the stars to which posterity can look for guidance.

Included in the many branches of the athletic department are football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, and tennis. Carlisle is proud of its fine sports department, proud of its victories and proud of the star athletes it produces.

BLOCK C CLUB

The Block "C" Club is made up of the more high spirited boys at Carlisle. It is probably the most popular club on campus. To become a member an individual must letter in a varsity sport. Also he has to go through an initiation which is quite exciting. The initiations have tapered off quite a lot, but going through is still no easy task. When a boy goes through it, he can honestly say he has accomplished something. Each year the club invites the entire faculty to its parties and sponsors the Joseph Norman Award for the all-round athlete and cadet.

On behalf of the Block "C" Club, best of luck and may God Bless you.

Sincerely,
BILLY McCUE.

Cadet Capt. Billy McCue, Editor
"The 1967 Rebel"
Carlisle Military School
Bamberg, S. C. 29003

Dear Billy;

First, to you and your staff, my deepest thanks for allowing me to choose your 1967 "Miss Carlisle." Even if the task of selecting one, from so many pretty girls was difficult, it was a very pleasant difficulty.

Next, to all the young men of Carlisle, who entered girls in this competition, my congratulations on your good taste in femininity. All of your entries were attractive and any of them would have made a fine addition to the "Beauties Section" of your yearbook.

Since I began helping with the candid photography a few years ago, it has been with a great deal of anticipation, that I have looked forward to receiving a copy of "The Rebel" and this year it will be more so.

Thank you again for the privilege of selecting "Miss Carlisle," and my best wishes for a most successful year to all the cadets at Carlisle Military School.

Sincerely,

Joel W. Hand, Jr.

FIFTH YEARMEN

The Fifth Yearmen, which consist of those entering Carlisle in the eighth grade, and following on through until graduation, are only eleven in number. Their first year at Carlisle was in the year 1962. They started out with 35 classmates, who through the years fell out of school. The fifth yearmen have seen many changes: anywhere from new buildings to changes in school regulations.

Upon graduation these boys probably feel more sentiment and regrets in leaving than any of the cadets. They have met and made more personal friends through the years, than most achieve in a lifetime.

SENIOR PROPHECY

It was a late November morning as I entered the city limits of Bamberg, I felt a slight tremor of apprehension course through me. It had been almost ten years since I had last driven over these streets. Carlisle Military School was now an up-to-date Institution all sparkle and glistening from Barracks to Bullring.

Today was to be the day of our class reunion. We had planned to all converge upon Bamberg on the day of the Camden vs. Carlisle football game. I had great hopes of a Carlisle victory.

Not everyone leaves C.M.S. for good when he graduates, for when I arrived at the school I found that several of my classmates now held prominent positions there. Nee Inabinett was now Headmaster, and I found Mark Sink doing work as Maintenance Engineer and working closely with Commandant Charlie Henry. The Band has a new director, Scott Lawson, who was doing a fine job. Canteen Specials were still the same but Sparks Ramey had lowered the cost of extra catsup.

As I toured the barracks, I found Phil Colman, Wayne Hughes, Cliff Farr, Tommy Wood and Ruppert Colman having a bull session. Phil is a designer of rhinestone studded hub caps for Volkswagens. Wayne is a taster for the Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer Co., and Cliff Farr is a traveling salesman for a lingerie Co. specializing in negligees, Ruppert and Tommy who are grads of West Point are special advisors to the cadets with the intent to uphold the Academy's Honor Code.

As I left for the game I happened to see Enon Hopkins and Bird Owens walking toward the field, so naturally I gave them a ride. Hop and Bird are both employed in the Edward L. Finck Equipment Co. Hop being a traveling salesman and Bird a test driver for tractors. Riding down main street I noticed a few cadets coming out of a barber shop and as I guessed Roy Dunn and Stick Baine had made the Big Time. Directly in front of me was a large truck and the name on the side told me that Sally Simmons had been successful after all. The Simmons Sanitation Service was the latest thing in the state.

As I approached the James Grimes Stadium I happened to spot Butch Wiggins directing traffic. He always had a soft spot for the law. After purchasing my ticket from Charlie Kickham and my program from Ed Boss I came across Doctors Buddy Agan and Tommy McLaughlin prominent Urologists. I now decided to find a good vantage point from which I could watch the arrival of other classmates. It turned out that Don Arrants had printed the program in his shop and from the pages I learned that the stadium was erected by the David M. Blanchard Co., and the plumbing installed by Tom Britton.

Almost as soon as I had seated myself, up walked Mr. and Mrs. Rod Parker. Louise now kept Rod in shape by making him drill their platoon of kids every day. Rod was now the S.A.I. at C.M.S. and the advisor for the Glen Alexander Schultz Memorial Clubhouse, and Louise was teaching a "trim-nastics" course at B.H.S. I thanked them for all the work they had done in order to make the reunion a success. I learned from Rod that Chuck Norvell was managing the Bamberg Country Club, with Sandy Chandler managing his golf cart concession and David Anderson as grounds keeper.

Down on the field the C.M.S. football team was warming up, with Head Coach Mike Sweat getting them fired up for the game. Just before the captains met in the center of the field, the Reverend Billy McCue gave the invocation. Bill is the preacher for the First Baptist Church of Bamberg with his wife, Berta, as organist and treasurer. The physical condition of the Carlisle 11 was administered by Mike and Martin Farley who are regional managers for Dave Fulghum Gyms. Rod goes on to tell me that a few of our classmates would not be able to show up. Doctor Ronnie Baroody, a nose job specialist, was in surgery and couldn't make it but his secretary Stich Nissen sent his regards. Frank Wester also couldn't be here because he was in the hospital due to an injury he received while giving a demonstration of alligator wrestling to a group of Seminole kids. A few of our gang was off in foreign countries. David Fox was in Egypt searching for precious herbs for the PhisoHex Soap Co., traveling with him was Wayne Gilmore who also was doing some research but for the "Mum" deodorant Co. The French Foreign Legion had claimed the allegiance of Johnnie Seals who just recently was promoted to P.F.C. Howell Myers told us that John was doing real fine in the Legion. Howell had joined their ranks due to the heartbreak he suffered from the loss of his sweetheart, Bobbie, to a local haybailer in Scranton. Howell's joining was partially caused by Terry Hammond who flunked basic training. There will always be a soft spot in my heart for Lawrence Atkinson because he is doing something for humanity. He and his brother Frank are Peace Corps Volunteers and are teaching personal hygiene and speech to aborigine natives of Australia. I was also proud to hear that Tommy Eggleton and Ronny Holmes were musicians in the Salvation Army Band. I was sorry that these boys couldn't make it back to C.M.S.

It was a hard fought contest on the field all the way, but C.M.S. had a decided advantage due to the vocal calisthenics of the coach. As I looked toward the gate in walked Don Gowder, whom Rod told me, was the head of the Congress for Racial Equality. He was being closely guarded by Richie Richardson and four others. Right behind Don were Eddie Lafitte, Mike Goodgame and Cordie Prevatte. All three were surf instructors at Pawleys Island. They ran a small saloon as a sideline. Presently I noticed a large crowd forming in the vicinity of the entrance. The sound of sirens struck my ears and I strained to see who was coming. Tommy Quarles, now Mayor of Goose Creek, S. C., had arrived with his police escort. Instead of late model cars the escorts were driving mule wagons. The drivers were also familiar and they turned out to be Eric Marsh, Tommy Williams and David Truesdale. Politics are sure not what they used to be, because Rod had told me that Andy Jamison had been impeached from his Senatorial Post for speaking out against the President's wishes.

It was now half time and the voice of Walter Momeier over the P.A. system informed us that we were to witness a guest performance of the Joseph E. Hinely and Charles E. Smith International Traveling Circus. Ringmaster Larry Lawson announced that Vic Boyd and his trained Baboons were to be first on the program. Vic's act was to be followed by Steve Cobb and his strongman act. To conclude the program Freddie Bair and Gil Beede allowed themselves to be shot out of a cannon into a bucket of water. Both of these boys were under the care of Dr. Phil Hamilton who is a practicing Psychiatrist.

After much pleading and coaxing the C.M.S. team finally managed to gain victory. Satisfied over seeing so many of my friends and a fine ball game I left for Ziggys where a luncheon was to be held. The first to greet me was James Schofield who is now a very wealthy photographer making the playmate shots for Hugh Hefner and Playboy magazine.

Headwaiter Jim Cadien escorted me to the Gold room where I found a number of the class '67 already sampling the cocktails. I greeted Brian Marchant and Larry Hamer and they told me that Brian owned and operated a home for unwed mothers and Larry was a director of a children's day nursery. Steve Zumbunnen was the owner of Shoneys in Denmark and Irvin Anderson was a used car dealer for General Motors.

While dinner was being served I had an opportunity to speak to Joe Bryson. Joe was a special correspondent for Mad Magazine and was doing a feature on the War in Viet Nam. He had a sad story to relate concerning one of our most beloved classmates Sandy Schultz. Sandy was a mess officer serving in the 32nd Batt. known as the "Screaming Idiots." It seemed that he had changed the diet from the old routine and had upset the Top Brass, they had him drawn and quartered (separation of ones body by tying ones limbs to horses) and he now rests in that mess hall in the sky. Len Inwood and Mark Atkins had almost the same fate. They were partners in a fish camp on the Edisto River and a flood had wiped them out. They were swept down river to Prigen's "Swinging Pines" and drowned in the mash barrel of a still. Snake Prichard was now a postmaster and had done away with zip code because it was too complicated for himself. Charles McLain was a janitor at The Citadel and George Kruse was a P.E. instructor emphasizing weight lifting.

The party was rolling along nicely when it was announced that Jimmy Moller had just won the U. S. Open golf tournament. Disc Jockey Bill Nimchick and Gil Nickles entered the group, Gil had just made a big deal with CBS to film his life story. The screen play was to be written by Dave Jennings.

Chip Rentz told me that he had an important job with the Stucky Candy Co. as a pecan picker and Tommy Peeples, Ronald Nash and Wayne Pickard were back up singers for Key Kerneghan and his Famous Sparks. T. R. Price and George Johnny Kearns gave us a good laugh when they told of their experiences in Africa hunting a beautiful white Goddess named Marsha.

The director of the Summerville Speedway, Bob Limehouse, walked in carrying the checkered flag and assuming he was early.

Western Union messenger Alvin Ashcraft surprised us all with a singing telegram from Windmill. He was recuperating from an accident when he was knocked down by a little old lady in a wheelchair. The last to arrive was Robert Buckland and Rusty Colby who were bumming money with Malcolm in barracks so they could get a cocktail at Ziggys.

From time to time it has been said that all good things must come to an end. Our reunion ended on a happy note. A toast to health, happiness, prosperity and a wish for the fulfillment of all ones dreams and ambitions. For me it is back to my job. I am on Chapter 492 of the "Great American Novel" and I'll hopefully finish by the time of our next reunion.

To my classmates; farewell.

We, the members of this year's REBEL staff, would like to take this small portion of time and space to say a few things which we feel would be appropriate.

To start with, we would like to extend our hardest thanks and appreciation toward all those fine persons who have contributed to the tedious labor involved in publishing and making this REBEL of 1967, the best for all of you, and above all the best yet. From the workers, typists, photographers, managers, and editors on up, we thank you all from the bottoms of our hearts.

And while you thumb through this yearbook, especially you seniors, we hope we have brought to your eyes and hearts all the fond memories you have experienced here at Carlisle. Though it seemed at the time, to be mostly hardships and grief, now that it is nearing its ultimate end, you most probably will look back on it all and realize that Carlisle has meant a great deal to you, and you will have that feeling of regret, that I, myself am sure every graduate before us and every man to graduate from this institution from here on, has had and will have, that you actually have enjoyed every wonderful moment here and you kind of hate to leave.

Taking into consideration that most of us will never see each other again, we would like to wish you every one, the very best of luck in the type of life and career that you choose to be your own. We feel certain that all your endeavors will and must be successful.

On behalf of the 1967 REBEL staff, I would sincerely like to say . . . God bless you and may luck go with you all.

There Will Always Be Someone Taking Your Measure!

Some measures are taken with a tape but the more important measures of life are taken by the people who size us up, whether it be a sweetheart, a classmate, a son or daughter, or a prospective employer. There is always some keen eye, whether we know it or not, scrutinizing the dimensions not only of our physiques but of our minds, abilities, and characters.

Your training at Carlisle Military School has been designed to improve the dimensions of both your mind and character so that when you graduate it can be said that here stands a Cadet foursquare to the world, ready and eager to shoulder the responsibilities which his particular talents and abilities qualify him to assume.

We measure Cadets for uniforms. Our customers measure us in their appraisal of our ability to execute a uniform contract satisfactorily. It will be a never-ending effort on our part to keep our measurements good in the eyes of Carlisle Military School.

We salute the Graduating Class and wish you all Godspeed in your chosen field of endeavor.
