

"I think head-bands are stupid because they make your head look funny...and if you don't wear them right then they make your hair look weird," sophomore Courtney Harper said.

"I feel like I have to wear my jewelry everyday, I feel naked without it," sophomore Aaron Baldwin said.

"JUST SAY NO...to popped collars! It looks stupid and it's really NOT cool," sophomore Joshua Tuten said.

"I think leggings are tacky and the girls that wear them are trying too hard to be like the people in magazines," junior Siddhi Naik said.

"I love ripped jeans, they are cute," freshman Ashley McCauley said.

"I like boat shoes, they are cute," senior Mesha Wilson said.

"I think Sperrys are played out," senior Charlotte Anderson said.

Ernest's Fashion Corner

"Something that I feel like I have to wear everyday is my hat... um and my underwear for sure," senior Ernest Murdaugh said.

"I prefer straight legged pants, I hate the 'baggy' look," Troy said.

"A trend that I think should come back into style is that whole 80's thing. It was really laid back like no one cared how dirty you looked because it was cool."

"I think Rainbows are super comfortable and equally trendy! They are gnarly!" senior Allen Lash said.

"I think those sandals are too expensive," junior Tyler Ard said.
