

Catherine Upchurch

"My favorite type of music is rap and my favorite rapper is Rick Ross," sophomore Darius Jefferson said.

Darius Jefferson

"The music I like the most is R & B because it has more meaning than most music," senior Natasha Williams said.

Ashleigh Fletcher

"If I were music I would be Rap because I like to do it and it describes me and my lifestyle," junior Keenan McMillian said.

Jesse Riddle

"When I was younger my favorite artist was M. C. Lyte because she was the only female rapper during her time and I looked up to her for that," sophomore Shakeria Washington said.

Larova Folger

"When I was younger the song that I liked most would have to be 'Old McDonald had a Farm' because I loved making the noises," sophomore Shakeria Nelson said.

Whitley Douglas

Inspired by Tom DeLong, an artist he related to very well, senior Corey McKemie enjoyed playing and singing the artists music.

"My most inspirational artist is Tom DeLong from Blink-182 because his lyrics are easy to relate to," said Corey.

Practicing voice warm ups, senior Victoria Barnes told why she would rather sing in the shower than in front of people. "I like to sing in the shower because I am not being judged by anyone and I can mess up and no one can say anything about it," Victoria said.

Profanity YES!

"I do not mind profanity because it makes the music more powerful and if that is how they feel, then that is how they feel," senior Hannah Lane said.

Profanity NO!

"I do not like profanity in my music because it violates the whole song," senior Charles Anderson said.

