

Only a Memory

"My favorite memory from my junior year would have to be hanging out in the parking lot with my friends and playing hacky sack and messing with Andrew's truck," senior Chris Smoak said.

"Through my high school years the thing I liked the most was being in chorus and participating in the concerts and being in plays," senior Hannah Lane said.

"My most embarrassing moment in high school would be falling on my face during lunch," senior Derek Brett said.

"My favorite class in high school was Geometry because Lindsey Craven was in there and she made it fun," senior Brett Raimer said.

"My favorite class was NJROTC because it taught me a lot about myself. It also helped me become more open," senior Raymond French said.

"My favorite memories as a senior have been with my baby, Chris Shider, because we have had many ups and downs, but managed to make things work. He is my best friend and I love him to death," senior Jaquawna Terry said.

"My favorite teacher is Mrs. Courtney because she cares about her students and their education as well as their personal lives," senior Aubry Stegall said.

"My favorite memory as a senior so far has been the senior tailgate party," senior Courtney Ulmer said.
