

"My favorite class was Mr. Mambou's class because we had so much fun in there and I really enjoy his teaching," senior Jackie Moultrie said.

"My favorite memory of sophomore year was when prom came around and I got to go with my best friend," senior Christina Hiers said.

"My favorite senior memory is ordering caps and gowns and knowing that I'm almost finished," senior Melinda Marsh said.

"My favorite teacher has to be Mr. Blackwell for US History," senior Theron Hamilton said.

"Running into the back of a parked car would be my most embarrassing moment," senior Brittany Ford said.

"If I could redo anything from high school I would study more, pay attention, and I would have taken my SAT sooner," senior Andrea Quintana said.

"One thing I will miss most about high school is getting to play football," senior Jamell Washington said.

"Memories I have from my freshman year involve my friend Jennifer, who moved, and how we always used to get in trouble for talking in class," senior Jamie Gardner said.

"My most embarrassing moment happened one morning when I got off the bus and was walking up the stairs in the gym. I missed a step and fell down a few of them," senior Marion Shider said.

"My most embarrassing moment was when I got caught cutting the lunch line. I got written up and I had to do 25 jumping jacks," senior Ra'kell Booth said.