

Shante Bradley

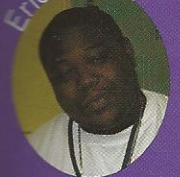

"I've been playing soccer since I was 11," sophomore Jessica Polk said.

Kathleen Blackmon

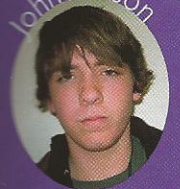

"I like playing basketball with a group better because if you shoot the ball when your alone, you have to go back and get it yourself," senior Kevin Brown said.

Eric Wright

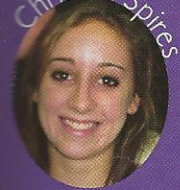

"I like to go shopping at the mall with my sister, Riddhi, in my extra time," junior Siddhi Naik said.

John Wilson

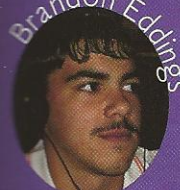

"I ride around with my two closest firends Chikken and Liza; I guess that's my hobby," senior Melanie Marotto.

Christan Spires

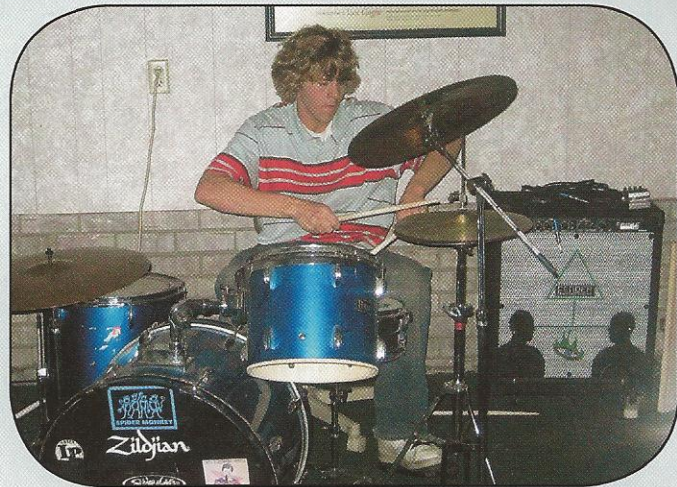

"I don't really have time for a hobby, I go to work after school every day," sophomore Kristi Rahn said.

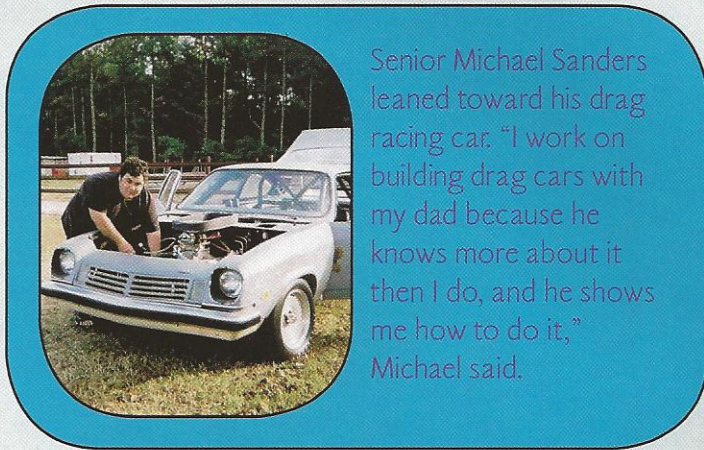

Brandon Eddings

Making a beat, junior Brian Hawkins played the drums. "I practice playing everyday after school with my band," Brain said.

Freshman Amber Hooks paused to catch the falling flag. "I spend my time after school practicing for colorguard, I learned my hobby from Mrs. Meshach," Amber said.

Senior Michael Sanders leaned toward his drag racing car. "I work on building drag cars with my dad because he knows more about it then I do, and he shows me how to do it," Michael said.

Junior Jenna Breland stood as she sang an old favorite song. "I learned how to sing from my mom, it's something I've been doing all my life. I'd rather sing alone so that I can show people my true talent," Jenna said.
