

You Can Find Me In The Club

Distinguished Women

"I like being a Distinguished Lady because I like seeing the different steps of other groups and I enjoy meeting new people," senior Amani Hills said.

Members of the Distinguished Women and the Kappa League joined together before during Homecoming.

"I decided to be a part of the Distinguished Ladies because I know people would look up to me and it would set me apart from other girls around the school," senior Lakiesha Levant said.

