

"My grades weren't as good as I wanted them to be, but I plan to attend Savannah College to become an interior designer," senior Kristen Kinneary said.

"One thing that I regret not doing in high school is not partying enough," senior Kristin Burriss said.

"'End of the Road' by Boys II Men will definitely remind me of high school years because I know that after graduation everyone will move on and start their new lives," senior Latavia Donaldson said.

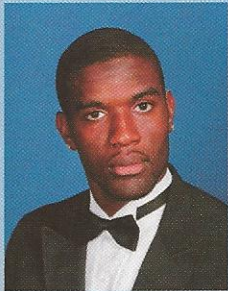

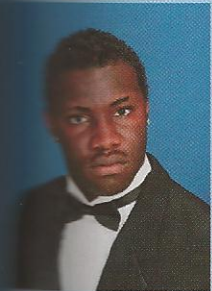

"'Yesterday' by Boys II Men will remind me of high school years because it expresses how hard it is to say goodbye to goodtimes," senior Charles Anderson said.

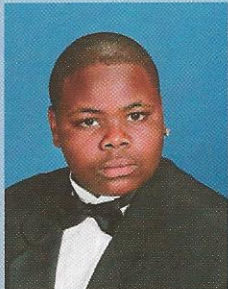

Growing Up and Moving

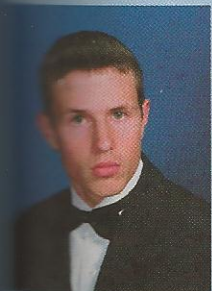

"I hate the fact that I was a slacker during the high school years. I was just ready to get out of high school. One song that will remind me of all of my high school years is 'Wal Mart Parking' because it talks about typical high school experiences. In the future, I plan to study hard in college and become a judge for juveniles," senior Taiesha Andrews said.

"One thing that I regret not doing in high school is participating in more student activities, like the school talent show. I plan to become a rap artist and produce my very own music. One song that will remind me of all of my high school years is 'It's a Hard Knock Life' because high school isn't always easy," senior Tarelle Flowers said.
