

1.

2.

1. Sophomore Ronmiktrius Cobbs and the team practiced her favorite cheer, 'Hustle', before a basketball game. "If I were to change something, I would like to learn more cheers, dances, and have better songs to use," Ronmiktrius said.

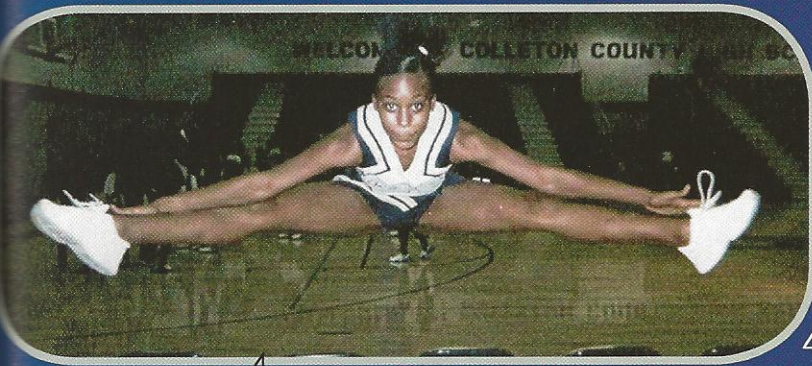

2. Senior Maggee Byrd danced to Ying Yang Twins at the 2006 Homecoming game. "I like half times because we get to show off all of our hard work," senior Maggee said.

3. Senior Aubry Stegall cheered the team out on to the court in her new fashionable uniform. "The uniforms themselves are a little uncomfortable but the sense of school pride you get when you put them on is worth it," Aubry said.

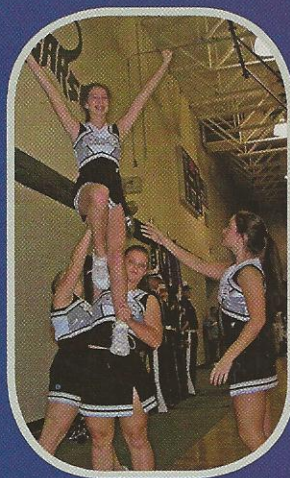

4. Sophomore Aaronyce Marcus flew high in her magnificent toe touch. "My favorite cheer is HUSTLE because it shows spunk and attitude," Aaronyce said.

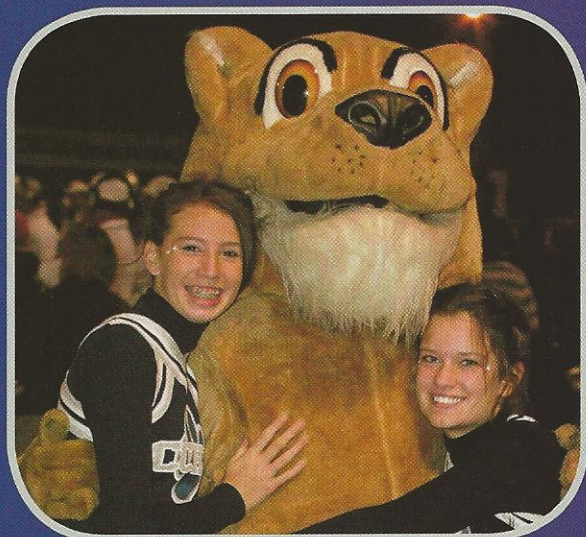

3.

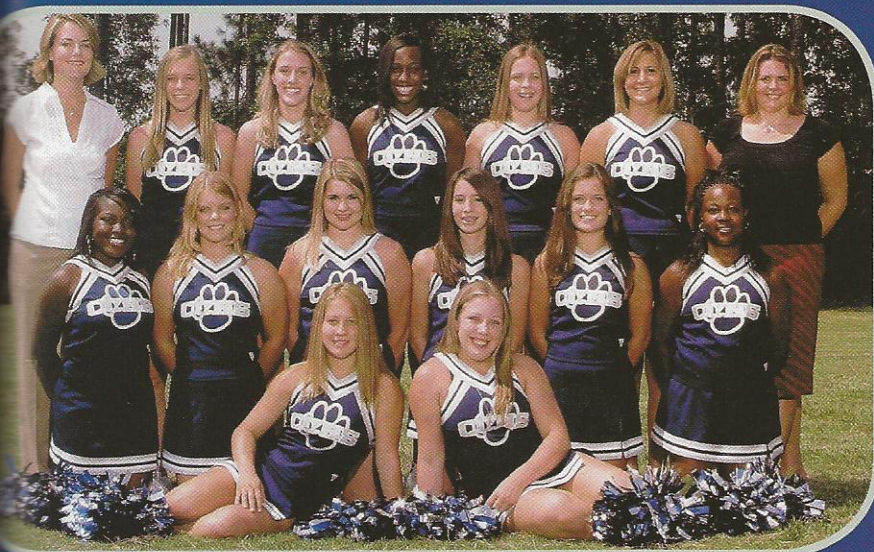

4.

Junior Danielle appeared in a chair at the basketball game against the Knights. "I think we help the team by cheering for them; because if they did not hear us cheering them on, it would not get them as pumped up to play harder," Danielle Campbell said.

Rookie cheerleaders, junior Danielle Campbell and sophomore Lindsey Lowery, posed for a picture with Freddy the Cougar after the Homecoming victory win over Battery Creek. "It takes mental and a lot of physical strength (not to mention dedication, time, and SPIRIT) to be a Varsity Cheerleader. We also have to learn and perfect a lot of dance routines and STUNTS," Lindsey said.

Front Row:

Jessica Barr and Brittany Boyd
 2nd Row: Raveen Johnson, Tabitha Spahn, Melissa Cheshire, Danielle Campbell, Lindsey Lowery, Ronmiktrius Cobbs
 Back Row: Coach Melissa Crosby, Maggee Byrd, Stephanie Castles, Aaronyce Marcus, Emily Blankenship, Rachel Culpepper, Assistant Coach Nikki Mitchell