

1. Junior Parker Stroble concentrated while chipping the ball. "Golf is something I've always been interested in," Parker said.

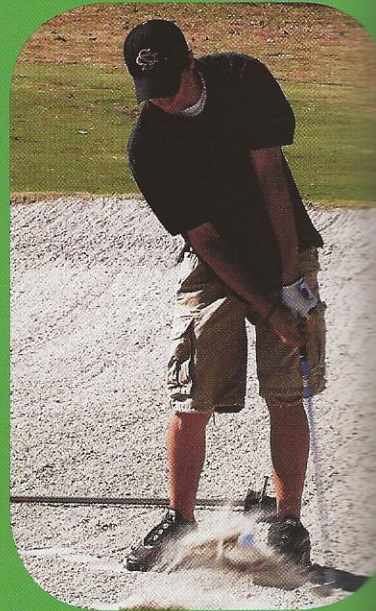

2. Junior Joseph Fox putted the ball and waited to see where the ball went. "I plan to continue golf in the future. It's not just a high school thing," Joseph said.

3. Junior Justin Whitley showed a little confusion as he got ready to putt. "My favorite thing about golf is driving the ball," Justin said.

4. Senior Justin "Trey" Carter showed determination while putting the ball out of the sand. "My favorite thing about golf is it's relaxing but yet competitive," Trey said.

This year people joined the Golf Team at Colleton County High School. Beginning in February, the team got right to work. Golfers practiced Monday through Thursday for two hours and had big plans to make the school proud. Their determination paid off and the Colleton County High School golf team had their highest finish in a match. "All of our players had good progress this year; they have improved and are getting better," Coach Wheeler said.
