Yeah We Got Spirit!

Spirit Week was the week when a lot of students could really express themselves. Everyday of the week there were different activities to do. There were days where students could dress up which were twin day, opposite day, tacky day, spirit day, and black out day (which was added this year).

Kelly's Friends!

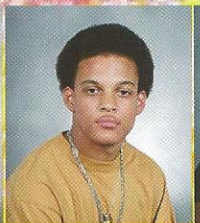

Senior Ammon Weeks went all out on black out day by painting his body black, while Justin Robertson rebelled and dressed in all white. "I get really excited when it's time for Spirit Week," Ammon said.

Sophomore Tiyana Stephens looked just like a dude on opposite day. "The funniest thing I saw during Spirit Week was when my brother and his friend dressed like old people." Tiyana said.
