Hillary Clegg was so surprised when they called her name for Miss Sophomore. "It being so cold that night, is the only thing that could have been changed," sophomore Hillary said.

Ashleigh was so happy that she won Miss Freshman she couldn't stop smiling. "I enjoyed everything that night and I loved walking across the field in front of all my friends," freshman Ashleigh Fryar said.

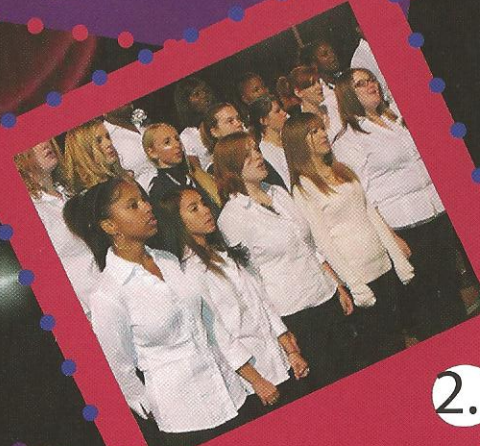

For some that was their last time walking on the field. Melissa was just happy to be in the top three. "The hardest thing to do that night was running against my friends," Melissa DeSantiago said.

The night of the game, the Homecoming Court all looked very pretty as they smiled from ear to ear. "Even though I didn't win I still was happy to be participating that day and I'm glad my friend won," Charli Pringle said.

1. The band was there that night to keep the game fun and exciting. "I really can't tell you what I was thinking about I just was really hoping we won that game, CG," sophomore Chelsea Douglas said.

2. Everyone had a part in the Homecoming, wheter it was the court, the game, or the parade. "I was in the Chours for Homecoming and I really enjoyed it and seeing our team win the game," senior Amanda Floresca said.

3. Another thing that happened that night that was really fun to see was the drumline performing during half-time. They had the whole crowd cheering. "The Homecoming was fun but the parade should have lasted longer," junior Simon Andrews said.
