Sophomore Michele Crosby got on the bus at the end of the day to go home. "I get on eBay to shop for iPods and I love playing solitaire also," Michele said.

Michele's Friends!

Freshman Trevor Groves stood outside on the back patio after school. "I think the Internet was invented because it's faster and easier to share information," Trevor said.

Sophomore Shannon Hunt pulled the door open to sneak inside to get away from her boyfriend after an argument. "I think the Internet was invented so I can use it - duh," Shannon said.

~Surfs Up~

Teens today probably couldn't live without the internet. They spend hours a day surfing the web, interacting in chat and game rooms, and joining online communities. There are millions of websites out there, all available to anyone who has a computer and connection. Half of the school more than likely has a MySpace account, and the other half has a Facebook profile. Some even have both! It's an easy way to keep in touch with those people you don't see on a daily basis. The internet opens up a new world with amazing possibilities, and we're learning more and more about it all the time!
