While sitting and making small talk with her friends at lunch, junior Aubrielle Rogers commented on the color pink. "Pink reminds me of serenity," Aubrielle said.

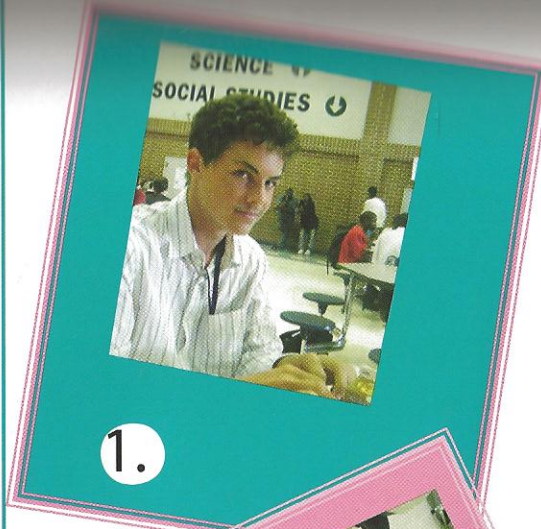

Senior Gary Howell was in a discussion with his friends about the color pink. He shared his neutral opinion about the color. "Pink is okay, I guess," Gary said.

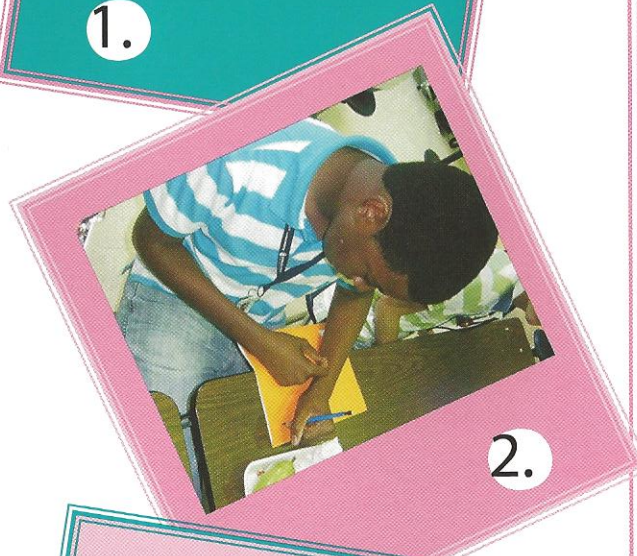

Senior Briana Ellison used her lunch to sit and joke with friends. "I don't see anything wrong with a guy wearing pink. It's just the color of a shirt," Briana said.

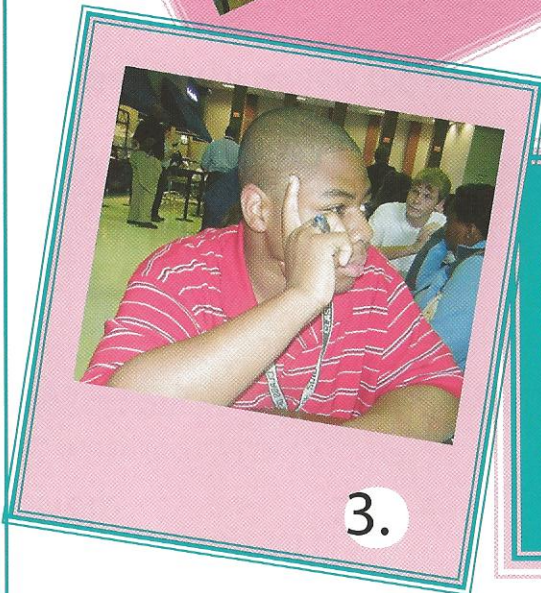

Jared laughs with his friends before school begins. "I think pink is sexy," Jared Jenkins said.

1. Lunch at CCHS is a time for students to socialize, eat, and relax. Freshman Eric Sutton took some time to unwind after finishing his food. "I don't like pink because it's a girly color," Eric said.

2. Sitting in the commons area during second lunch, senior Clifton Brown decorated a folder. He was waiting for the bell to ring to dismiss the students back to class. "Anyone can wear pink whether they're a boy or girl," Clifton said.

3. Seemingly in a daze in the commons area, junior Levi Blue sat and pondered life. "We all need some pink now and then," Levi said.
