Dena was thinking of all the things she hates as she sat with her friends during lunch. "I hate preps because they cause too much drama," sophomore

Dena Hall said.

Dena's Friends

Amber and Dena were hanging out at lunch making jokes and funny faces. "I love and hate preps because they're rude, but I consider myself one," sophomore Amber West said.

Freshman Roy Hickman enjoyed lunch with his friends. "I hate the way people act at our school," Roy Hickman said.

Be a Lover not a Hater

There is a thin line between love and hate. You choose what you love and what you hate. Senior Dexter Garret loves Clemson while sophomore Amber West loves Carolina. "Don't hate! Appreciate," senior Lloyd Robinson said. The principle that you should be a lover not a hater still stands in today's society.
