Spirit week was always a time of the school year that students looked forward to. Junior Isa Miller dressed as a bum for tacky day. "Kanye West released many of my favorite songs," Isa said.

Stumbling upon the janitors' secret stash of cleaning equipment, junior Rebecca Saunders grabbed a mop and danced while singing her favorite song "Haunted" by Evanescence. "My brain would melt and seep out of my ears if I didn't listen to music," Rebecca said.

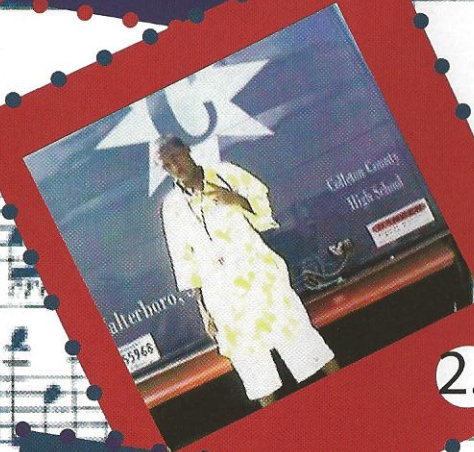

Many NJROTC students were excited for Annual Military Inspection held on November 18th. Freshman Simone White sat in the Commons Area and prepared to polish her shoes. "My favorite artist is Lil Wayne," Simone said.

After a failed attempt at climbing a tree near the back patio, senior Ralph "Kent" Godley paused to take a breather. "My favorite song of all time is 'Fall For You' by Secondhand Serenade," Kent said.

1. In an attempt to be just like his idol, Lara Croft, senior John Hiott went on a safari through the bushes outside of the main entrance of the school. "If I had to name a song that paralled my being, I would have to say 'I'm Too Sexy'...for obvious reasons," John said.

2. On Friday afternoons the band students loaded the Band of Blue 18-wheeler for their Saturday competitions. Senior Maurice Hodges stood behind the truck when the loading crew was finished. "The song that most parallels my life would be 'Conceited' by Remy Ma because I'm conceited," Maurice said.

3. A playful student, junior Yu Min Ni, was given a piggy-back ride by her friend, junior Kayla Murdaugh. "The music I listen to makes me want to burst out with random dance moves and makes me write the song lyrics on my teachers' boards," Yu Min said.
