

Comments

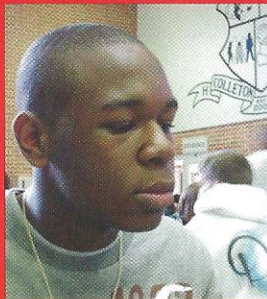

While Ariel was talking with her friends outside on the patio during lunch she stopped to talk about pressure. "I'm not under any pressure because of my friends. They are the best friends you could ask for," junior Ariel Snow said.

As David was sitting at lunch talking to his girlfriend he told me the kind of pressure he felt. "I feel the school pressures you to be a perfect kid," senior David Hanley said.

While waiting outside of class Melea thinks about all the pressure she is under. "My teachers pressure me to do a lot of work and turn it in on time," sophomore Melea Driggers said.

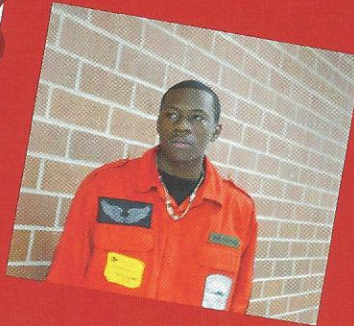

As Tillotson was sitting at lunch he thought about the pressure he was under before school. "I feel the school pressures you to belong to a certain group or clique," senior Tillotson Gadsden said.

1.

2.

3.

Jazmine Garcia 9
Kristina Hiers 9

Jonathon Gaymon 10
Teirara Kelly 11

Shannon Gore 9
Brandy Merritt 9

Marjorie Morris 10

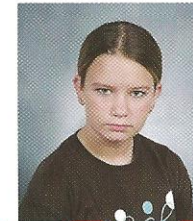

Tiffany Newton 9

Nicole Smalls 9

Taylor Standfield 9

1. While waiting on her friends to walk in to have lunch, Loretha stares off. "I'm under a lot of pressure to pass because if I don't then I can't play softball," sophomore Loretha Chaney said.

2. Melissa was staring at her boyfriend trying not to laugh while in the Commons A rea durnig lunch. "Coaches pressured me by making me keep my grade high and devote a lot of time to them," sophomore Melissa Cannavo said.

3. While Tyree stands in the hallway waiting on the bell to ring after lunch. "Teachers have pressured me to the point I think my head was going to blow," sophomore Tyree Gadsden said.