

Comments

Shaquille Jenkins sat eating his lunch in the Commons Area during second lunch thinking about what they would be doing in ROTC. "Being in ROTC I learned to be a good citizen," sophomore Shaquille said.

Miranda Lawton was in the Commons Area eating her lunch and chatting with friends, when one said something funny and she laughed. "The Chiefs are always right," sophomore Miranda said.

Corree Holley was chatting with her friends in the Commons Area at lunch eating pizza. "ROTC is a great source of leadership and discipline, and Gunner Rocks," junior Corree said.

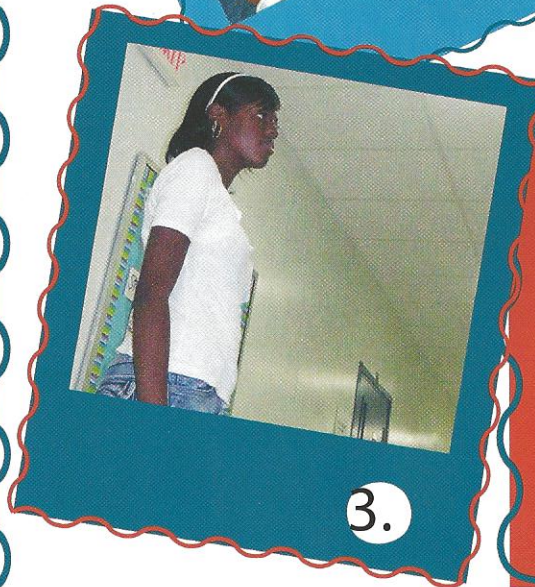

Senior Benjamin Gaddy was at lunch not feeling good in the Commons Area sat and tried to talk with friends but was unable to because he had a really bad headache. "Don't think it's all Military, you still have plenty of book work," Benjamin said.

1.

2.

3.

Hunter Garvin 9
Joi Hamilton 10

Shadiquah Grant 9
Justin Heath 10

Darian Greenwell 11
America Jamison 11

Arthur Jones 10
Vincent Smith 9

Rebecca Saunders 11
Bailey Stone 9

Monica Simmons 11
Khadeja Thrower 9

1. Freshmen Ray Martin in PE played basketball with other team members during second period. "Being in ROTC has disciplined me to a degree I never could have achieved," Ray said.

2. Jamaica Nix was in the Commons Area during fourth lunch sitting and talking with friends about the fun vacation she took over summer break. "Always do what is right no matter what the consequences are," senior Jamaica said.

3. Constance Lingard stood outside Coach Ritter's Geometry class during first period because she missed a test for him when she was out sick and the class was going over it. "Never give up," sophomore Constance said.