

Sophomore Amber Lewis worked on her spread for the yearbook during third period in Ms. Edwards' class. "I got into yearbook because I like taking pictures," Amber Lewis said.

I like taking pictures," Amber Lewis said.

Amber's Friends!

Sophomore Heather Kimbler sat in yearbook third period and read over surveys for her spread. "Yearbook is a pretty fun class and I enjoy it very much," Heather Kimbler said.

Ashley Simmons, a sophomore in yearbook, worked on her spread third period. "I would take this class again because it's really fun and I enjoy it!" Ashley said.

Write It; Act It; Read It

Drama, Newspaper, and Yearbook... when you think of those classes you don't know how much work and effort goes into them. Deadlines were so important in all of those classes. There were many benefits that come with the classes. You learn many new things like how to speak in front of others and how to turn things in on time. There were many reasons you could take classes like those, but the top two reasons were to help you improve your ability to learn and help in many different career fields.

-Heather Kimbler

Is it hard to deal with deadlines?

Stephanie Ard 10    Tiphany Boyd 10    Christopher Cook 9

Amber Dail 11    Pedro Guillen 10    Hunter Hart 10
Larry Hiott 10    Xavier Jones 10    Andrew Levesque 10

Students whose hobby is playing an instrument

Dallas Loper 11    Timothy O'Connor 11    Tre-ana Parrish 9