Senior Casey Chubb went to look over the selection of food available in the Commons Area. "Being in NHS is a great privilege and a lot of fun and I know it will open a lot of doors for me in the future," Casey said.

Sarah Smoak aimed to capture the correct proportions of what she saw in the hall. "NHS does a lot of good things for the community and the school. It's a fun way to be involved. It has made me more responsible and I'm glad I was able to be in it for the last two years," senior Sarah said.

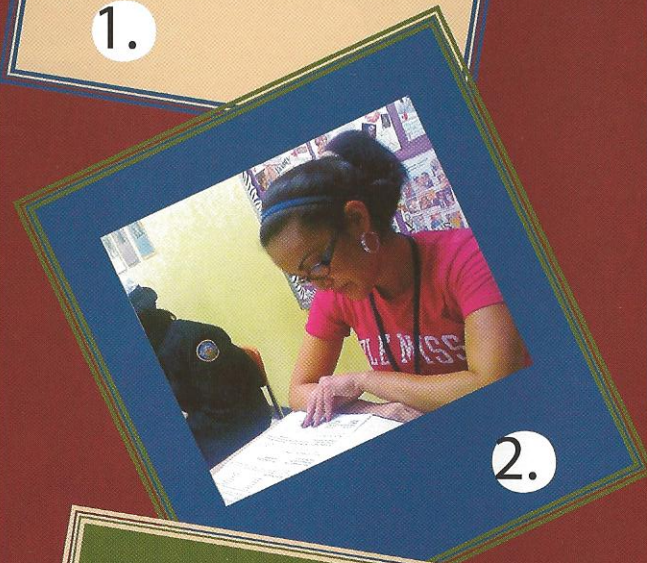

Christan worked to demonstrate her perspective of the hall. "NHS gives us an opportunity to give back and improve the community. It makes me feel good to do good things for other people," senior Christan Spires said.

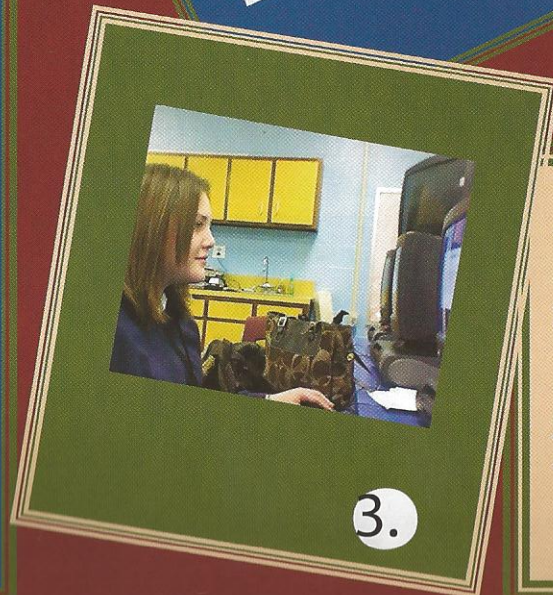

Iesha Burns took notes in class while working on writing her paper. "What I enjoy most about NHS is the opportunity to do community service. NHS makes it easy to give back to the community," senior Iesha said.
