

Comments

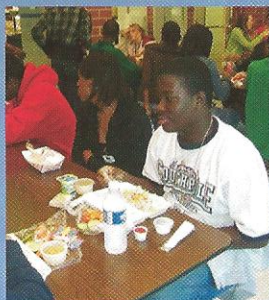

Jabari Holloway sat in his American Government class last week learning about how the world has changed over many years. "Never let go," senior Jabari said.

Christan Spires was working on her newspaper article in Mrs. Brown's room. "I like track because of the people," senior Christan said.

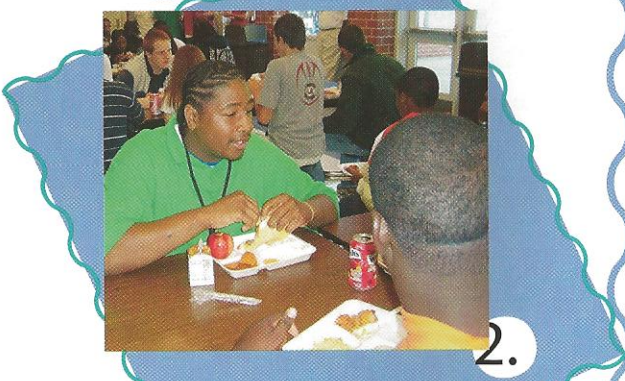

Senior Whitney Cummings participated in a shot put and discus competition at West Ashley High School. "It was just a different sport I wanted to try," Whitney Cummings said.

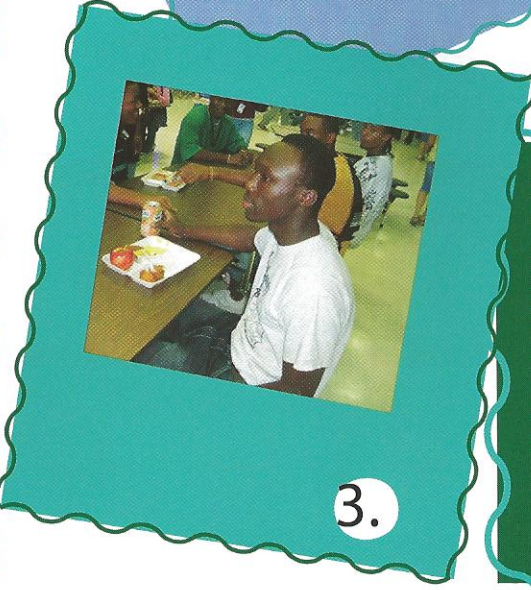

Floyd Mulligan sat and ate his lunch in the Commons Area. "Our track practices are incredible. They challenge us so we can become better athletes," junior Floyd said.

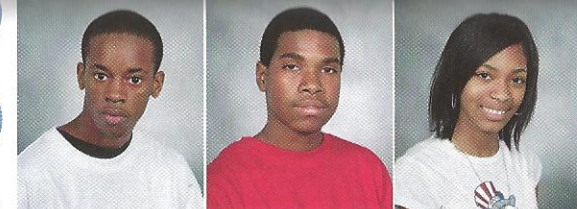

1.

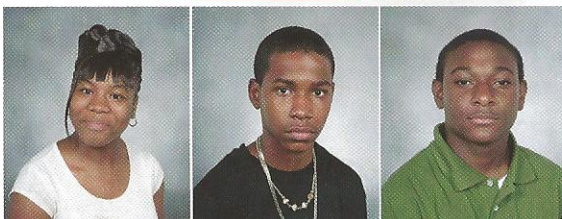

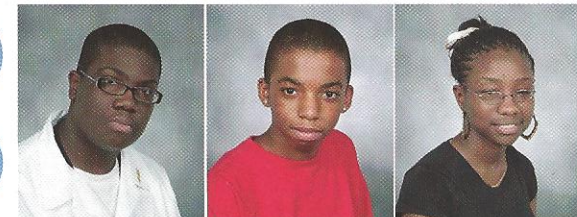

2.

3.

Tyren Kearse 10 Terrell Lawton 9 Cheyenne Mooror 9
Daquan Moultrie 9 Dahquan Pearse 9 Latonia Singleton 10

Shakema Sweat 9 Carell Tabb 9 Davaun Taylor 9
Patrick Wade 9 Katelyn Willis 11 Jakeem Wright 11

1. Senior DeAngela Haynes stood in the hallway outside of Mrs. Hood's Geometry class. "Track requires a lot of effort in certain areas," DeAngela said.
2. Junior Davante Pondexter sat and talked with some friends in the Commons Area during his lunch period. "I love going to the track meets because we get to meet new people," Davante said.
3. Senior Christopher Williams ate his lunch in the Commons Area. "I joined track because I like to run and I'm fast," Christopher said.