Kevin Bazzle was sitting in the bleachers in the gym while thinking about his next game during fourth period. "I love baseball because I've played it almost all of my life," senior Kevin said.

"Knock it out of the park"

Colleton County High School baseball was a very interesting sport to watch if you were looking for great entertainment. They worked very hard to acheive their goal of winning. They praticed every chance they got. The players were very serious about their games. "I think our schools baseball team is the best," sopohmore Ashley Simmons said.
