Before her game that night Leigh was outside trying to determine how she wanted to hit the ball. "Always play any sport to your fullest potential," senior Leigh Weldon said.

As Danielle practiced for her game after school, she aimed to hit the ball accurately. "Tennis is my favorite sport because everyone has a chance to get involved," junior Danielle Gadson said.

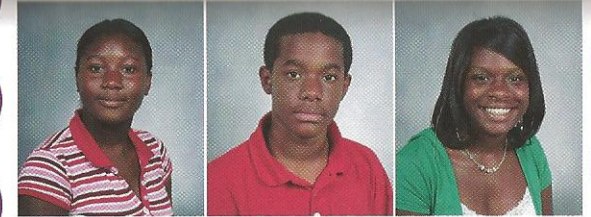

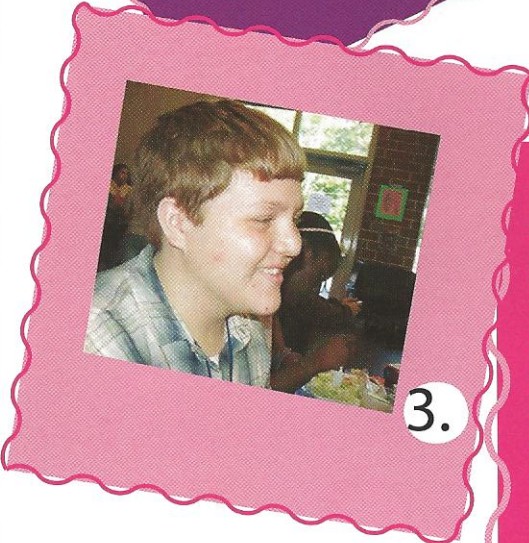

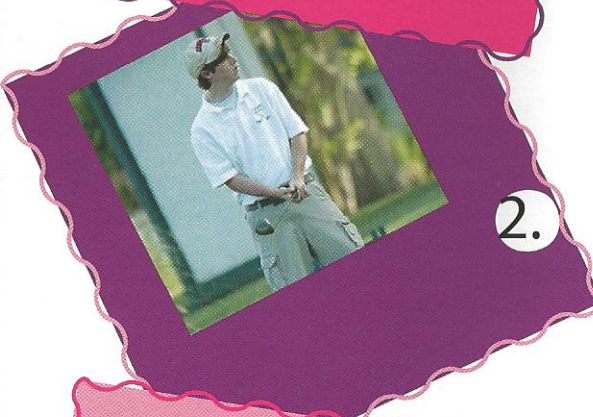

As Teiara practiced the correct stance, she thought about how she compared to tennis champions. "I love playing tennis 'cause it makes me happy when people tell me I'm Serena W.," junior Teiara Kelly said.

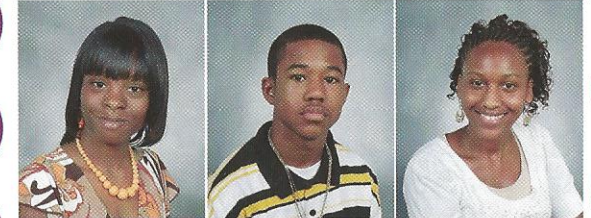

On the way to her next class, Brittany stood in the hall and talked about her game the previous night. "I love tennis because I enjoy being out there playing with other people," junior Brittany Grant said.

1. Zach hit the ball a great distance at the game Saturday evening. "It doesn't matter what way the wind is going in order for a ball to go the direction you want it to go," senior Zach Sloman said.

2. As Clay waited for his chance at the tee, he inspected how far he wanted to put the ball. "It really depends on the way the wind is blowing," senior Clay Fennessey said.

3. Eating lunch with all of his friends, Glen Amberson talked about the golf team. "It depends on the direction of the wind to determine the way the ball goes," sophomore Glenn said.
