"I like the coach because he pushes us to become better on the team," senior Hristos Stamatopoulos said.

"I've been playing soccer since I was little, so when I got to highschool I decided to play for the team," freshman Camden Wiggins said.

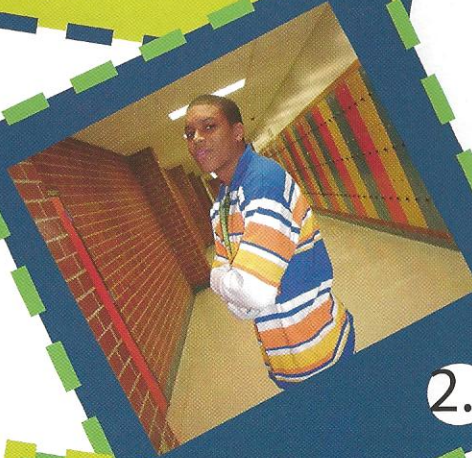

"I think Stratford is the hardest team for us to play against," sophomore Derek Fitch said.

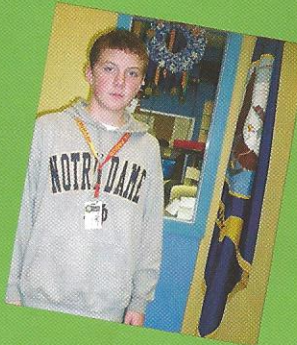

"I practice two or three hours a day for soccer," freshman John Payne said.

1."My favorite thing about soccer is, I get to meet others that play the same sport as me," sophomore Zachary Clegg said.

2."I'm the goalie on the team, and that's my favorite thing to do, stopping the ball from going into the goal," junior Johnathon Gordon said.

3."The team practices about ten hours a week, including games," freshman Michael Travis said.
