

1.

Photo by: Jim Killian

2.

Photo by: Jim Killian

3.

Photo by: Jim Killian

1. Some of the CCHS Singers thank Mrs. Drawdy for her outstanding job by giving her flowers and a gift at the Christmas Concert.

2. The students perform a dance choreographed by junior Hannah Houck at the Christmas Concert.

3. The students complete another very successful Christmas Concert, led by Mrs. Drawdy.

4. Freshmen Ashley Henson, Sierra Zirk, Skylar Avant, senior Haley Davis, and freshman Crystal Saunders are all smiles before their first big performance.

4.

Photo by: Jim Killian

5.

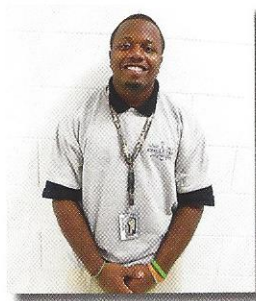

5. Chorus members show their spirit by singing the Alma Mater at the Homecoming Game.

"Chorus is a great learning experience. It teaches me correct posture and to breathe right," as said by sophomore Taleyah Washington.

"I used to just sing at church, but then Ms. Drawdy said that I could really sing, so I took Drawdy (class)," says sophomore Tristen Douglas.

Freshman Johnny Singleton says, "I started singing in church when I was little. I never get nervous on stage."

"I have a fun time in chorus. Everyone is like a family," says sophomore Nicole Frank.