

"You get to meet new people as you go from school to school. Wrestling makes you think a lot about strategy." - Senior Cyrus Legree

Freshman Dakota Snyder and senior Traequan Shaw trade strategies and converse before their home tournament.

Junior Brandon Bright tackles his opponent to try and win his match. Brandon said, "the best part of wrestling is definitely the matches."

2. Freshman Trevor Owens

"My sister got me interested in wrestling. It's a great way to make new friends," freshman Steven Crosby explains.

Senior Traequan Shaw explains, "Wrestling is a man's sport. The best part is having the highest record."

"Wrestling helps keep me in shape and manages my time," says senior William Hood.
