

SIGNING DAY

Each February brings great promise to prospective student-athletes when National Letter of Intent Signing Day finally arrives. This year CCHS was pleased to host a special day for four top athletes as they formally pledge to attend and play for their select colleges. Allyn Wiggins, Norman Hand, Trey Murray, and Nick Salley make us proud both on and off the field.

Congratulations, Cougars!

ALYN WIGGINS//
Allyn Wiggins will join the Furman University team to play soccer.

NORMAN HAND//
Norman Hand has signed to play football for the Tennessee Tech University Golden Eagles.

TREY MURRAY//
Trey Murray heads to North Carolina to play football for the Catawba College Indians.

NICHOLAS SALLEY//
The Charleston Southern University Buccaneers welcome Nick Salley to the 2016-17 football season.

CCHS SUPERSTARS//

NICK SALLEY DAY //
December 11, 2015, was designated Nick Salley Day at CCHS. We celebrated Nick as he prepared to represent Cougar Football in the annual North-South All-Star Game on the following day. Nick was the first Cougar to play in the All-Star game since 2008.

CALEB O'QUINN DAY //
CCHS declared February 25, 2016, Caleb O'Quinn Day. Coach Burke, teammates, friends, and the CCHS student body wished him luck in the SC State Wrestling Championships held on the following day.

Remember that the National Letter of Intent date in February is for football, soccer, and men's water polo. The regular signing period for all other sports occurs in April. Unfortunately, the deadline to go to press long before this date. The yearbook staff in no way intends to neglect or disrespect our other athletes who may be awarded scholarships after our early March deadline.
