

iAM

"I believe that every student has a story and a voice to tell their story. In my job I get the amazing opportunity to be able to hear those stories and see people's background." As CCHS principal, Dr. Melissa Crosby has a goal to make students aware of their ability to express those unique perspectives in their own way, giving them the voice to say, "I am. . . ."

