SEN18R TAILGATE

The Class of 2018 enjoy their day out by cooking and hanging out with friends.

Sen18r Tailgate, which occurred on October 24 prior to the Senior Night football game, is one event that lets seniors celebrate their last year in high school. With the the privilege of Tailgate, seniors deck out in class shirts and crowns to enjoy a few hours of free time outside together again as a class. Cooking out, dancing, football, and cornhole were all present during this years Tailgate, creating a memorable day for all students involved. Now on to graduation....

(Above) A group of seniors sit around and chat, enjoying the meal that they have prepared for Tailgate.

Students gather by a tent and dance their hearts out to the music blaring from the cars and speakers nearby.

The Class of 2018 stayed dressed in their classes attire, representing their school and their ruling class with Cougar Pride.

Seniors pose for a photo after dancing the afternoon away with peers, letting themselves go and having a blast.
