Freshmen Taanyia Linder and Aneesa Sinclair sit in the comfortable chairs as they play Kahoot for review. They say, "It's both fun and good for learning."

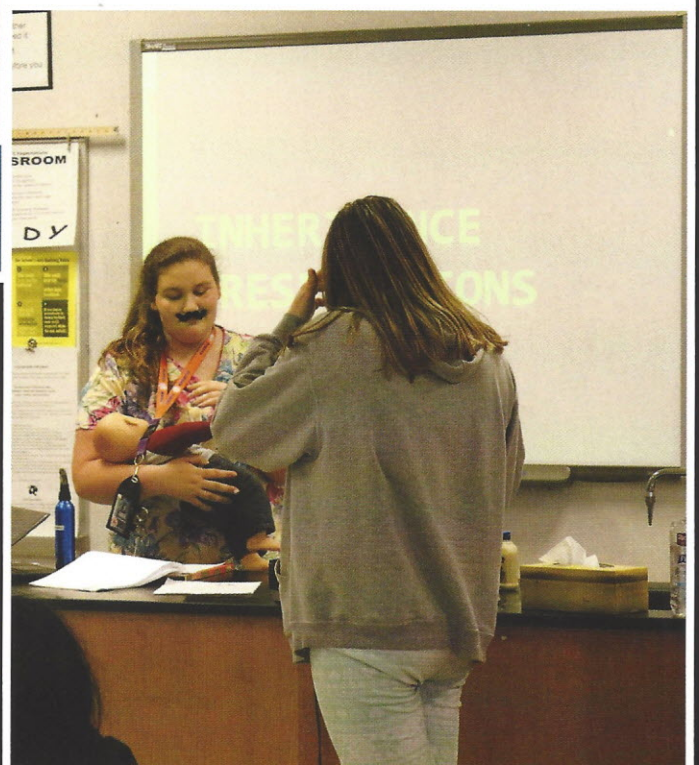

Freshmen Julia Durr and Cora Raygin both feel they've learned a great deal already from HCA. The program has introduced several different medical careers available after high school, including some that Julia plans to investigate further for the future.

Freshmen Montaijah Colleton and Jalynn Davis say, "HCA is the best because it helps me in so many ways, and I can't wait to see where it will get me by my senior year."

Left: Freshmen Skylar Happney and Victoria Campbell collaborate on their production of the famous Romeo and Juliet with the assistance of Ms. Marianiello.

Right: Freshmen Elizabeth Price and Lauren Demers (with the mustache) act out a play about genetics, showing where their child got his great looks.
