Cheerleading holds a special place in the world of sports, and especially during high school. Getting riled up in the stands, shouting cheers, and ra-ra-ra-ing until throats are sore are staples of a high school career; all this is championed by the Colleton County JV Cheer Squad. Here to continue directing the providers of school spirit is JV Coach Calista Brynn Nettles, who is one of two new Cheer coaches this 2017-2018 school year. Coach Nettles leads a group of fifteen committed girls who are always willing to encourage one another as well as the other CCHS teams, filled with the positivity and drive to keep them and the student body going. Within this squad, a sense of homeliness and knack for teamwork must be present in order to make the teams' co-operation and overall performance as smooth as possible. The girls act as an energetic powerhouse, encapsulating what it means to be pushers of passion on the Colleton County High School campus.

The squad locks arms and discusses the techniques for new stunts the teams planning to perform.

"Cheer is a display of discipline, practice, dedication, determination, skill, and athleticism."

The girls start their confident walk to the field, ready to cheer on their counterpart football team.

The JV girls and Coach Nettles talk through and practice routines in preparation for the next game.
