

JV GIRLS BASKETBALL

Whether you're a basketball player or a basketball fan, you're in with the popular crowd. This sport combines physical skill, intelligence, and coordination. The game is flexible enough to enable each player to develop their own individual style.

However, coming together is the beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success. And that success all comes down to one basic idea:

Throw the ball through the hoop!

Front: Shardaja Adams (# 11), Donae Bowens (# 10), Dominique Moore (#3), Shaleshia Funn (#35), Miesha Adams (#5), Jahmeira Johnson (#4), and J'nay McClain (#2) Back: Martasia Stephens (#23), Jy'aire Stephens (# 1), India Stokes (#21), Zora Jamison (# 15), and Rebecca Cohen (# 13).

When the girls get ready for their opponents in the Cougar Den, they take one last time to wish each other luck and promise to give the game all they've got. In order to succeed, they know to follow the game plan and putt in as much work as possible.

Sophomore Donae Bowens (# 10) uses all her strength to take a steal from the other team as they lose control over the ball.

1. "The season didn't go as we wanted, but we laughed, shared many memories, and hustled, win or lose. We never gave up until the clock said 00:00 and that's what matters," recalls sophomore Zora Jamison (# 2).

2. "I can do all things through Christ who strenghtens me," is the verse that sophomore Donae Bowens (# 10) lives by.

3. Before calling the starting line-up, the girls go over the game plan one last time.

4. "Seven days without shooting hoops . . . makes one weak," jokes junior India Stokes (# 21).
