

MEANWHILE...

Cat Tales 2018

*Colleton County High School
150 Cougar Nation Drive
Walterboro, South Carolina 29488
1593 Students
cchs.colletonsd.org
Cat Tales, Volume 16
2017-2018*

A HERO ISN'T SOMEONE WHO WEARS A CAPE OR HAS SUPER POWERS. THEY AREN'T MASKED AVENGERS WHO SAVE THE WORLD FROM EVIL DOINGS. A HERO IS SOMEONE WHO HAS COURAGE IN WHAT THEY DO AND HOW THEY DO IT. HEROES TAKE SMALL STEPS TO MAKE BIG IMPACTS. COLLETON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL IS A PLACE WHERE STUDENTS AND STAFF COME TOGETHER TO ENCOURAGE OTHERS, TO HELP BETTER OURSELVES, AND TO MAKE OUR WORLD A BETTER PLACE WITH EACH NEW DAY. NOT EVERYONE IS FIT TO BE A HERO, BUT HERE AT CCHS, WE ALL ARE.

WE ARE THE EVERYDAY HEROES.

SUPERHERO SPREAD: TOWN HEREOS STRIKE AGAIN!

CCHS SUPER SENIORS CONTINUE TO PROTECT THE TOWN OF WALTERBORO

Local heroes, known as "The Seniors", celebrate another win for the town after reclaiming Walterboro's prized Spirit Stick. This is only one time of many that the Seniors, avidly and informally dubbed "The Super Seniors", saved relics of our precious town, showing themselves worthy of the unofficial title of 'heroes'.

WALTERBORO LUMINARIES POSE FOR PHOTOS
FOLLOWING ANOTHER
CITYWIDE SAVE!
(Cont. on page 2)

Pictured:

Top Left: Sophomores McKenzie
Crosby and Amber Avant

Top Right: Seniors Jared Bailey and Mackenzie Ferguson

Bottom Left: Seniors Denise
Morales Paez and Haleigh Barnett

Bottom Right: Freshman Ashton
Stone and Senior Macie Stone

JUSTICE IS SERVED AS LAWBREAKERS ARE PUT TO REST!

Meanwhile, after days chasing, the infamous criminals who robbed the town of Walterboro of hundreds of thousands of dollars have finally been caught by the Student Superheroes. After saving the town once more, an event was held in their celebration, to show the towns support of their local superheroes.

(SEEN RIGHT) Student Superheroes celebrate their win.

STUDENT SUPERHERO SPREAD: CONT. PHOTO OP

SPIRIT WEEK 2017

Juniors and seniors get excited about Hero vs. Villain Day. L to R: Rylee Chandler (11), Shaleen Creel (11), MyAsia Ancrum (12), Anni Crook (12), Sinclair Brown (12), ?? (12), and Kayla White (12).

Colleton County Spirit Week is always something students look forward to. This week, leading up to the homecoming football game, is a way for students to show their creativity and individuality in a fun way. Throughout the week, Monday through Friday, students show off how much spirit they have for the school by participating in extravagant costumes and fundraising contests throughout the week. This year, students were allowed to become a favorite star on Monday, celebrate a favorite holiday for Tis the Season Tuesday, represent a favorite Disney or Nickelodeon character on Wednesday, save the world on Hero vs. Villain Thursday, and last but not least, support their class and the school on Pride Day Friday.

Juniors Cameron Coursen, Breanna Varnadoe and Caroline Duffy save the day by dressing as the Powerpuff Girls.

The class of 2018 shows their school spirit on Pride Day Friday, donning their class shirts and wearing their school colors in preparation for the homecoming game.

Deja Davis showed her spirit by dressing as Kimmy from The Purge: Election Year.

Top: Students show off holiday spirit on Tis the Season Tuesday, dressed as for the every-popular Christmas. L to R: Makenzy Hand (9), Abby Bryan (9), Amarery Sanders (11), Mystery Santa, and Alexis Thomas (9).

Bottom: Students from HCA & SHHS (yellow building) were highly excited to group together for the Tis The Season Tuesday photo.

1. Alexis Stephens, Tresuana Salley, Mercedes Jenkins, and Miranda Dantzler pose for their last year as seniors.
2. Senior Jared Bailey and Mackenzie Ferguson shows their spirit by dressing out for Disney vs Nick.
3. Senior Ashlyn Harley and Junior Lauren Herrington dress as Sharkboy and Lavagirl.
4. Junior Miesha Adams tackles Gotham City villains in style. Boom! Bam! KAPOW!

Seniors Mahogany Aiken and Garret Tyler show off their school spirit on Pride Day Friday with matching shirts and face painting. As representatives of Student Council and one of Ms. Goodwin's Youth Leadership classes, they kept all of the Spirit Week events fun and organized.

Johnathon Gardner (12) jumps in front of Kayla White (12) with much enthusiasm to show off his Disney gear. Johnathon dresses as Stitch from "Lilo & Stitch" while Kayla transforms into Edward Scissorhands.

From jerseys to face paint, these students showed their game face when it came to Pride Day Friday. Talk about homecoming ready!

Left: Seniors John Bell and Kenzy Stanley represent the Fourth of July and Christmas for Tis the Season Tuesday.

Right: Ni'Asia Stephens (11) and Majave Fryar (9) are nice and cozy in Christmas pajamas for Tis the Season Day.

HOMECOMING

photo by Cindy Crosby

The Class of 2018, the senior class, won the Spirit Stick during the homecoming game after a tough fight during spirit week!

Homecoming was filled with healthy but competitive festivities, starting with the week-long class vs. class competitions, including an ultra-charged pep rally, and leading up to the Homecoming Court and to the football team playing all-out against Beaufort. The student section was filled to the max and roaring with spirit! Crowning the winners for Homecoming and the awarding the spirit stick was definitely a great way to end homecoming week.

Kasheyonna David was crowned Miss Junior at the 2017 homecoming game!

Senior Macie Stone was crowned Colleton County High School's 2017 Homecoming Queen!

Jalasia Barnett was crowned Miss Senior at the 2017 homecoming game!

The student section was packed for the homecoming game! The Colleton County student section is always supporting their cougars! You can always count on the student section to get hype and to stay hype whether it is a loss or a win!

L: Senior Ashlyn Harley expressed her excitement for the Class of 2018 during the Homecoming Pep Rally.

C: Freshman Jackson Bell participated in the Plunger Crawl to put the freshman class on top, which was hosted by Student Council.

R: Juniors Stephanie Hooker and Jackson Morelli show their school spirit during the Homecoming Pep Rally before being escorted onto the court.

The seniors celebrated their last CCHS Homecoming by winning the Spirit Stick!

"Don't Fall! Don't Fall!"
The Varsity Cheerleaders performed during the halftime show at the homecoming prep rally to hype up the crowd of students.

As a fundraiser during Spirit Week, the student body picked Coach Lewis to be pied in the face by senior Joe Sanders.

1

1. Hannah Robertson was crowned as Miss Freshman at the 2017 Homecoming Game!

2

2. Tierra Samuels was crowned Miss Sophomore at the 2017 Homecoming Game!

18

SEN18R TAILGATE

The Class of 2018 enjoy their day out by cooking and hanging out with friends.

Sen18r Tailgate, which occurred on October 24 prior to the Senior Night football game, is one event that lets seniors celebrate their last year in high school. With the the privilege of Tailgate, seniors deck out in class shirts and crowns to enjoy a few hours of free time outside together again as a class. Cooking out, dancing, football, and cornhole were all present during this years Tailgate, creating a memorable day for all students involved. Now on to graduation....

(Above) A group of seniors sit around and chat, enjoying the meal that they have prepared for Tailgate.

Students gather by a tent and dance their hearts out to the music blaring from the cars and speakers nearby.

The Class of 2018 stayed dressed in their classes attire, representing their school and their ruling class with Cougar Pride.

Seniors pose for a photo after dancing the afternoon away with peers, letting themselves go and having a blast.

Seniors laughed, danced, took commemorative photos, and had as much fun as possible. We made sure to make the most out of our Senior Tailgate." ~ Haleigh Barnett (Class of 2018)

Senior Tailgate is a CCHS tradition that allows students to indulge in being Seniors. Being so close to the finish line can be stressful, so the time spent forgetting problems and having fun with peers is one of the many memorable Senior experiences.

1) Seniors from the Student Council tent pray before they begin feasting.

2) Students start eating after elaborate set up and cooking for their peers. As with any tailgate, students share BBQ, side dishes, and desserts of every variety.

Below: Seniors enjoyed their time out, hanging out with friends and posing for photos.

3) Lauren Chewing and Alize Pryor

4) JuaQuanna Chisolm and Soleil Fryar-Sims

5) Mariah Risher and Faith Allen

6) Deasya Brown and Alexis Stephens

Prom 2018

Enchanted Garden

PROM COURT 2018

Prom Queen: Carlise Washington
Prom King: Legrier Bodison-Cooper

Senior Prom Court:

Keith Allen
 Madison Lord
 Dayle Marchant
 Halle Robertson
 Kaysia White
 Jared Bailey
 Brenden McCorkle
 James McDowell
 Jax Sanders

Prom Princess: Kendall Bell

Prom Prince: Joshua Jones

Junior Prom Court:

Kendall Bell
 Jax Hogan
 Joshua Jones

COUGAR TIMES

COLLETON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL'S FINEST NEWS SOURCE

SINCE 2011
$1.50 (WALTERBORO ONLY)

MEETINGS AND FUNDRAISERS UNDERWAY? CCHS PROTECTORS DO JUST THAT!

LOCAL MEETINGS COMMENCE AS PERSISTENT PALADINS STRIVE TO FIND SOLUTIONS

Student Superheroes are back at it again, this time strategically planning meetings and fundraisers to solve the towns major issues, including crime solving, alliances, and the aiding of those in need. Fundraisers have been placed about the city to donate to neighborhood funds as well as to equipment purchases for the blossoming guardians to continue protecting our precious town.

Above pictured are three examples of the rather elusive happenings around town as each individual group works towards the same goal. Getting together to plan out how they can raise money and keep their campaigns going is critical in keeping everyone safe. These hard workers will eventually join forces and begin to work towards larger organizations.

EXCLUSIVE! CAPTURED MEETINGS!

PLAY YOUR CARDS RIGHT!

In a view of one of these town model meetings, we see our defenders sorting out their game plans. They are consistent and precise with their task, making sure to be cautious with every step possible opponents may take, they use the information they have gathered as they create defense plans.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT!

Joe Sanders stands undercover with local citizens as he glances around in search of new heroes to recruit, or any foe to defeat. This induction is necessary for every defender to complete in their never-ending struggle to keep Walterboro safe.

DRAW IT UP!

Talented artists around the town draw up items that aid the heroes and their mission towards peace in Walterboro. While this reporter observed, maps, wanted posters, and various signs announcing fundraisers were being made.

PREPARE TO FLY!

Local heroes take to the sky and use their height as a vantage point to search for any wrong-doers in disguise. From hogs to villains, this group of protectors will scour the city of any potential criminals.

TCTC

TCTC's Director William Hayden (pictured) says this year's projected sixteen CATE completor students is the highest in modern CCHS history. The campus, originally built in the '50s, is largely unchanged despite its scores of alumni.

CCHS's sister campus, Thunderbolt Career and Technical (TCTC) underwent another major shift in staff in 2018. Despite this, TCTC Director William Hayden says, TCTC remains committed to its goal of training fluent tradespeople. With 500 students making up 18 career and technical education courses, TCTC is an important part of many students' academic life. Besides the training in industrial and commercial environments, TCTC has fostered a strong community. Many students identify first as TCTC students before CCHS enrollees. Agricultural Science instructor Robbin Lutton said of TCTC: "I'm always impressed with the kids who come in completely green and end up being the 'student expert' of their interest."

Alex Campos (10, left) says Mr. Fanchette's Mechanical Design class helps with his job in construction. Teddi Cook (12, right) says her favorite part is her classmates' antics.

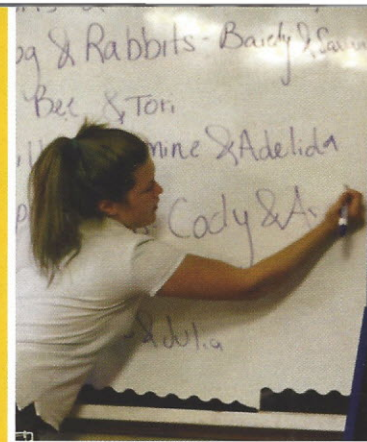

Arthur Russell's Welding class is incredibly popular among CCHS's industrial students. Unfortunately, 2018 marks his final year at TCTC. He announced this fall that he will begin teaching welding as part of his own non-profit in state prisons to try and share his decades-long career with disadvantaged inmates. His students, he says, are always welcome in his shop.

Durham Bozard fills the Automotive teaching position, saying he is excited for the "settling-in" to be over so Auto. can get back to work.

Anton Gaines's Masonry course (right) faces a unique challenge: taking students with experience with two different instructors and helping rebuild their skill set. "TCTC has been very welcoming," Gaines reported. Next year, he says, he'd like to extend Masonry into the community, possibly working with county Parks and Recreation Department.

1. Domine Boyert (12) describing her visits to CC Animal Shelter: "It breaks my heart to see the animals at the shelter. They're too cute, and I wish I could take care of all of them." Animal Care students and FFA members regularly visit the shelter to assist in caretaking. 2. Aspen Keen grooms Concho, a regular visitor to Mrs. Lutton's class. 3. Aspen and Candice Grooms wash a young boxer at the animal shelter. 4. Victoria Wilson writes the animal's posts out. Students care for animals on rotation.

Paula Pitts (left) describes Culinary as a "school-based enterprise". Students leave the course certified and experienced in running a commercial kitchen. Pitts reported an exemplary intro class this year. Many students reported changing careers to culinary now thanks to her class.

Seniors Tresauna Salley and Miranda Williams love that Ms. Pangalangan's Childhood Development courses allow them to work directly with children at Black Street ELC.

Building and Construction isn't your average workshop. While intro students are building birdhouses... Kyle Davis (10), Lane Lee (11), and Charles Martin (10), (right) try not to think about the workload they're sitting on. This pile of lumber would become... Right: A 13-foot tall rocking chair! Built over the course of 5 weeks, Instructor Mike Swearingen poses here for scale.

COUGAR NEW TECH

During Trust Day activities, students and facilitators enjoy each other's company with an intense tug-of-war game on the practice field. Malcolm Greene offers his support to help the teachers win. Activities throughout the day allow students to build stronger relationships within the CNT family.

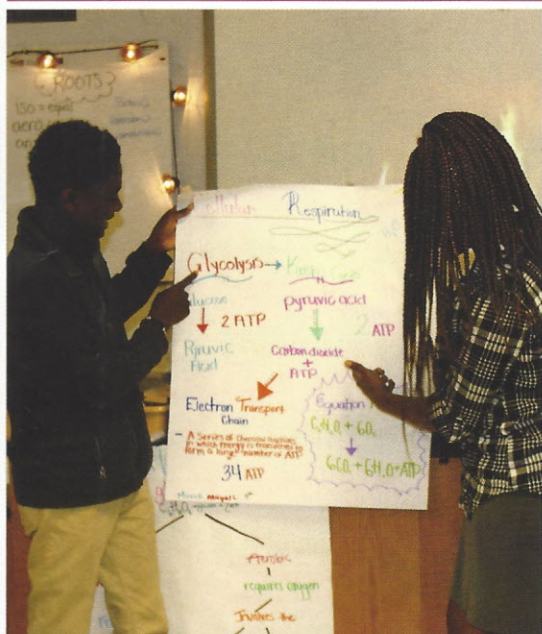

Cougar New Tech is the first New Tech school in South Carolina's Lowcountry. CNT is a project-based learning concept where students solve real world problems by applying learned content. Achievement levels are based on five criteria: knowledge and thinking, worth 50% of the grade; written communication, worth 15%; oral communication, worth 15%; agency, worth 10%; and collaboration, worth 10%. In addition, CNT students are required to demonstrate the three guiding pillars: Trust, Respect, and Responsibility. These are the three keys that Cougar New Tech celebrates every year--both daily and with scheduled events such as Trust Day, quarterly Family Time, and EXPO. CNT is strives to be one big family, in which we all enjoy each others presence, struggles to greatness, and accomplishments.

"Trust day, to me, is like one big family reunion, it's a time for all of us to just get away from class and become closer as our CNT family."
-Senior Jared Bailey

Senior Johnathon Gardner, (located in the front), says, "Treat your friends like family because family is not an important thing--it's everything."

Freshmen Daylen Battle and Ma'Niiya Brown present a Cellular Respiration poster to classmates in Mrs. Boseman's Biology 1 class.

Top: Seniors Montana Crosby and Shandyce Washington with Junior Adam Groves play Kahoot as a review game.

Bottom: Sophomores Sophie Horvath, Trey Nettles and Jordan Scites collaborate on a group assignment in Social Entrepreneurship, a class is combined with Chemistry under the guidance of Ms. Thorne and Ms. Ryan.

Mr. Gluek and Mrs. Ellison are proud of Mrs. Ellison (10) and Noah Feather (9) for winning the Respect Key and Student of the Month at our first Family Time.

CNT c/o 2018 gathers for a picture after a long day of games and fun, creating lasting memories at their final Trust Day. Karrington Blakeney says "It was a wonderful day, and we finally spent time together for our last Trust Day."

Joanna bridge plays the history-based board game that she and fellow sophomores, Jahlil Muhammad and Darin Mowry, made in class. Alex Sherrill and Danielle Hickman play their version of the same project. The students did a SUPER job creating a fun learning experience.

Junior Kortney Edwards receives the Student of the Month Award thanks to his work and remain in email contact with teachers for more work right after having a tumor removed from his brain. You're a TRUE HERO of the 2017-2018 school year, Kortney.

Participating in a Family Time tradition, Deanna Munro (12) gives a shout-out to fellow CNT students and teachers: "Y'all have had made a large impact in my life the past four years. You've helped me through rough patches and celebrated my accomplishments. I can't imagine a better group of people to call my family or a better way to spend one of my last Family Times."

Blake Marvin (9) works on the Worst Foods in America project: "I loved this project but hated that the foods they chose were some of my favorites" Juniors Kyia Brown and Shelby Crabb are excited to have been "funded" after all their hard work to convince the Sharks of Mrs. Shipp's Shark Tank that their product is most profitable. Juniors Felicity Steward, Dondrea Berry, and Joel Crosby collaborate on their portion of a vocabulary database for the whole class as their first English 3 project.

1

2 3

HCA

HCA Mauricio Forero says, "HCA is a roller coaster ride for us new freshmen. It's an amazing and inspiring experience."

Keyondra Kryar said that HCA is a great program that is full of caring people who help her achieve her goals.

Zachary Miles takes advantage of finishing his work early to study for the big test. HCA encourages collaboration with problem-solving to achieve independent learning goals.

Low Country Area Health Education Center (AHEC) has teamed up with HCA to provide a direct community connection to health care careers. The students in this picture are the first group to have completed the first module for AHEC content. Congratulations!

1. Freshman Montaijah Colleton and Jalynn Davis say HCA has helped them mature in so many ways. They are really a family and are growing together day by day.

2. Freshman Adam Padgett (left) says, "One thing I have done in HCA so far is write down some goals, and now I'm trying to achieve them," as he works with friend Lucas Lutz (right) on the group tasks.

Freshmen Dyanisha Washington (left) and Kerhona Sharpe (right) read Romeo and Juliet to prepare to act out the play for English 1.

Freshmen Taanyia Linder and Aneesa Sinclair sit in the comfortable chairs as they play Kahoot for review. They say, "It's both fun and good for learning."

Freshmen Julia Durr and Cora Raygin both feel they've learned a great deal already from HCA. The program has introduced several different medical careers available after high school, including some that Julia plans to investigate further for the future.

Freshmen Montaijah Colleton and Jalynn Davis say, "HCA is the best because it helps me in so many ways, and I can't wait to see where it will get me by my senior year."

Left: Freshmen Skylar Happney and Victoria Campbell collaborate on their production of the famous Romeo and Juliet with the assistance of Ms. Marianiello.

Right: Freshmen Elizabeth Price and Lauren Demers (with the mustache) act out a play about genetics, showing where their child got his great looks.

NJROTC

Photo by: Wade Spees

Major John Dunmyer, US Army, guides juniors (L to R) Shatterria Mays, Alexis Basler, and Kaeleigh Wilson in the Massing of the Colors in The Citadel's Sumerall Chapel. The cadets described it as "really stressful, but we had to represent."

CCHS's NJROTC branch celebrates their 25th anniversary this year, and 2018 comes with many changes. With adult staff leaving and the hiatus of exhibition teams, an outsider might conclude that spirits are down in the corps. Sophomore Chief Petty Officer James Jennings (11th) says nothing could be less true. Cadets are excited for the revamp of the program, he says. Platoon Commander Ifrain Reyes (12th) says a big part of that is the peer-mentorship element. The program has grown significantly since 1993, now staffing over 150 cadets. Faced with that responsibility, interim director PR-1 Christopher Hutchens says the program continually strives to balance between different subject areas and roles.

Cadets have learned to march in-step even when they can't see their ranks, such as on this dark night of the city's Christmas parade.

Cadets are expected to be well-rounded and independent citizens. As such, classroom lessons cover many topics. From naval strategy to US government and from personal finance to business leadership, cadets are sometimes overwhelmed with the scope.

TRADITION (L): Paulina Sanjuan (11), Colyn (12) and Kaeleigh Wilson (10), and Alexis Basler (11), carry out the long-time duty of presenting the flags for the school events.

THIRD GENERAL ORDER (R, facing): Inspection is one of the most stressful times for a cadet, but Ashuntai McBride (9) remains strong.

CHANGES (R): Master Sergeant Eric Russell left the program this year, the fifth in a cycle of staff leaves for NJROTC over the past four years.

Officer Rebecca Smith

Company Commander Kyle Harrison

Officer Kristopher Warren

Company Commander Devon Breland

Officer Michael Turgeon

Learning to lead

Walterboro High's Naval Junior ROTC program aims to develop informed, responsible citizens by building self-discipline, pride, responsibility and accountability.

By SYLVIA DUKES
Staff Writer

In 1993 the Naval Junior ROTC program was formed at Walterboro High School under the leadership of Lt. Commander Charles Armentrout.

As a 20 year active duty veteran, LCDR Armentrout served on six U.S. Navy ships and served duty in Virginia, Rhode Island, and Washington, D.C., and serving as a Naval Aviator in Vietnam. Among his decorations are the Bronze Star with "V", Purple Heart, and the Combat Action Ribbon. With the military experience of Armentrout and his organizational abilities, Walterboro High was similar way to launch the program that has since become an award-winning institution.

LCDR Armentrout is assisted by two experienced Associate Naval Science Instructors, Collette County and about 80 percent is military.

"In the first year the cadets are taught the basics of the ROTC program. They are oriented into military customs, leadership and following, government, geography, oceanography, and history," Armentrout explained.

The cadets are only required to attend the classes five days a week. However, there are a number of teams that meet after school to practice for competitions. Cadets can be members on one or all of the teams.

"We have two drill teams, and a color guard, which marches at football and basketball games, and at community affairs," said Armentrout with pride in his voice.

"We have an athletic team, which competes in push-ups, sit-ups, races, relay. We have an orienteering team, who are trained to read maps and a compass, and have to be able to find their way from point A to point B in the woods. We have an outstanding academic team. They have not finished lower than ninth in competition and have come in second and third in meets. They have finished in the Top 10 in every one of the state matches this year."

"The drill team has stayed in the top five. In 1995 the team won the state championship. Last year we received the Naval Honor Unit. In the first and a half years of history in the NJROTC program at Walterboro High, the cadets have earned over 150 trophies," said Armentrout.

Though most schools have an ROTC program at the high school level, the military across the country are Army, Other schools may have the Navy, Air Force, or Marine cadet programs. Textbooks and uniforms are provided to students, so they all start off with the same opportunity. In today's ROTC programs, female students are often in the forefront and making up over half the students participating.

The institution is made up of four different year groups, depending on how many years they have been in the program. The institution is divided into two companies. Each class represents a platoon. The institution's highest ranking student officers are Cadet Commander Amanda Martinez and the Executive Officer Cadet Lt. Commander Debra Williams. To reach advancement each cadet must pass an exam. If they fail the first time, they have the opportunity to take the exam again. This allows each cadet the opportunity to move ahead.

Cadet Lt. Scott Hooty, Operations Officer, 12, and Cadet Lt. Sharon Church, Company Executive Officer, 17, discussed how the NJ ROTC program has helped them during their four years as cadets.

"The discipline that you learn in ROTC helps a lot in other classes that you are in. The leadership training helps you out in other areas of your life besides ROTC," Church said. "And you learn how to deal with other people."

"ROTC made me a stronger leader," said Hooty. "I have learned that the higher up you go, the more the AWARDS EARNED: LCDR Charles Armentrout, USN (RET) gives awards to cadets, Sharon Church, Debra Williams, Amanda Martinez, Lashawn Proctor, Jacque Henderson, and Tristy Jones.

MARCHING SHARP: Cadets show their stuff as they practice on White campus.

Continued from page 11

Naval Junior ROTC Program
LCDR Charles Armentrout
Featured In: The Press & Standard
February 26, 1999

This newspaper pressing, displayed proudly in NJROTC's "bridge" (command room) describes the structure of the program as it was when LCDR Charles Armentrout started it. As NJROTC interim director PR 1 Christopher Hutchens attests to, "The program has stayed very true to that. We try to reinforce those ideas, even in spite of how large we've gotten. Our first duty is teaching that."

LEADING THE CHARGE

The ROTC roster is full of go-getters, but none exemplify leadership moreso than this year's Commanding Officer, senior Mileidy Villalobos. Described by her subordinates and superiors as unwaveringly direct, cheerful, and committed, Villalobos is always on-deck and at full attention when needed.

©Unibet Image '16

"The craziness of the first semester put a lot of stress on our commanders. Despite that, the cadets know they can rely on us to keep order and support them," says Executive Officer Shatterria Mays, describing the leader corps. Her focus to the work was clear as she spoke, never looking up from her clipboard.

CHORUS

Through a strong, family-like environment, Chorus members are able to confidently learn and perform music under the direction of Chorus teacher Mrs. Stephanie Drawdy.

(Below) Chorus members patiently wait for their cue to go on the field and perform. The pregame show is one of the group's first opportunities of each to shine before the school and community.

(Below) Dalton Moore (11), Joshua Jones (11), Andrew Cook (9), and Lance Calcutt (11) stand in formation, preparing to sing with all their might. Once the pregame show is finished, Calcutt takes on his other role of the night as the football team's kicker.

At Homecoming, the Colleton County Chorus gave an inspirational show to kick off an amazing night.

Acting as conductors, Seniors Ethan Bennett, Gracie Pierce, and Rachel Dandridge (right) lead the choir through the performances of The National Anthem as well as the CCHS Alma Mater before the start of the Homecoming football game.

Songs for the Holiday Season was the title for this year's annual holiday concert, led and performed by the Choir and Choir director Mrs. Stephanie Drawdy.

1. Juniors Laura Lucas and Susanna Siegler perform a duet entitled "Pie Jesu".

2. The girls of CCHS Singers (Junior Angelina Stephens, Junior Susanna Siegler, and Senior Lauren Chewning pictured) perform Ariana Grande's version of "Santa Baby", complete with choreography.

3. Junior Lance Calcutt holds a prop from the performance of the Hawaiian themed Christmas song "Mele Kalikimaka".

4. Junior Camryn Fields, the second soloist of the evening, performs "Sweet Little Jesus Boy".

5. Anne Mathis Thomas (9), Shelisa Williams (10), and Abigail Beach (9) sing "Do You Hear What I Hear?"

6. Senior Ethan Bennett and Junior Dalton Moore sing and dance during the Singers' boys performance of "Little Saint Nick".

7. After performing "O Holy Night", Chorus teacher Mrs. Stephanie Drawdy accepts gifts from the senior members of Chorus.

8. Freshman Rebekah Hanna and Abigail Beach sing their rendition of "Stille Nacht" or "Silent Night", played on guitar.

9. Sophomore twins Abigail and Grayson Altman perform the duet "Gesu Bambino".

10. Junior Laura Lucas and Senior Ethan Bennett perform a duet of "Santa Claus is Coming to Town".

11. Junior Joshua Jones sings the powerful track by Whitney Houston, "Who Would Imagine a King?"

BAND OF BLUE

The Band of Blue prepares to take the field with the leading of the Drum Majors Hunter Pinckney (11) and Miriam Yale (12) on Homecoming Night, held on October 6, 2017.

The always astonishing Band of Blue had another unique show for us this year. They carried us to the world of Neverland. We saw the fictional characters Peter Pan, Wendy, and Captain Hook. The songs for the performance were based on Ruth B.'s "Lost Boy", but were played at a lower key to accommodate the variety of instruments. Even with our 175-member ensemble being one of the top bands in the state, they didn't get there easily. The band started practicing mid-summer, continuing all the way into November to perfect a show we will remember.

Caroline Davis (11), Elizabeth Lawton (12), Shaquanay Kelly (12), Jada Priester (11), and Candice Grooms (11) get last minute instruction before a performance. photo by Eric Bjork

Wendy and Peter Pan are sharing a dance in the middle of the field with the sound the band in the background playing the Lost Boy. The characters Peter Pan (Left) played by Morgan Dandridge (10) and Wendy (Right) by Kara Wynn (10).

The Color Guard team is responsible for interpreting the music from the band through dance. Ashley Dantzler (Left, 12) and Cheyanne Myers (Right, 11) are members of the color guard team. (Center) The brass section of the band is responsible for the melody in the background which helps the show come together as a whole.

(Left to Right) 1. Drum Major Megan Newton (1 1), on her riser, conducts the Band of Blue to keep everyone in time. 2. Curtis Nesmith (1 2) says of his last year experience in band, "All your hardwork and dedication means nothing without the same effort from all the members of band." 3. Another Band of Blue's Drum Major, Miriam Yale (1 2), also conducts the band. Their leadership is one of many reasons these players are so successful with the show and this season's performances.

Drumline: The heart and bass of the band. The drumline keeps the tempo of the music. They're also the reason you want to jump and dance when the Band of Blue starts playing!

(Left) - During the summer, the band and color guard practice for their first show on one of our game nights. While others are still on break, they're hard at work.

(Right)- The trumpet section of the band creates the melody for the band on Senior Night.

Robert Adams (1 1, Left) and Deondre Way (1 1, Right) have been in band for 7 years now, starting in 6 grade.

photo by Cric Bjork

CHS Band of Blue

I've never seen a group of people that works so hard together to achieve a single goal-- to be superior. These students work countless hours, day and night, no matter the weather conditions, constantly getting better and better and making the organization known. That's the Band of Blue.

WINTER GUARD

The Colleton County High School Varsity Winter Guard performs their first show of the season, Mad Hatter, at the CWEA competition hosted by Colleton County High.

After hard work, determination, and long paractices, the Colleton High School Varsity and Junior Varsity Winter Guard teams are proud to perform their crowd-pleasing shows that have a touch of literary fantasy to them. The Varsity's show, Mad Hatter, is about a journey to create the perfect hat for the Mad Hatter from Alice in Wonderland. The JV's show, Going back to Neverland, is about staying connected with your inner childhood. They as the success of this year proves, these teams continue to keep surprising us with their captivating performances.

Seniors Priscilla Chapman and Shaquanay Kelly, along with Juniors Shayvaughn Sweat and Zykria Walters, wait patiently for their awards.

After long hours of practice, the Colleton County High School junior varsity winter guard gracefully perform their first show of the season titled Going back to Neverland. Throughout their performance the crowd could not take their eyes off the girls.

To quote senior Tiffany Infinger, "Self-belief and hard work will always earn you success."

Left: "Guard gives you the opportunity to express your feelings through music, without having to say a word," says Junior Dyneira Brown.

Right: "Winter guard is a team effort. If one wins we all win, if one fails we all fail," says Freshmen Lindsey Barnes.

TEACHER CADET

Teacher Cadet is a class to help students understand the basics of teaching that they need to begin their career as an educator. While the main goal for Teacher Cadet is to encourage students to become teachers, there is also a secondary goal: to develop future community leaders. Despite the initial lack of enthusiasm to become an educator, each student quickly learns that, even if education isn't a career path they want to pursue, everything they're taught can be used in day to day life. With engaging activities and even getting to help teach in an elementary school, these students quickly become excited as new opportunities open for them and their future.

Left to right: Scott Bell (12), Garrett Tyler (12), Thomas Pryor (12), John Bell (12), Olivia Phillips (12), Keeley Murdaugh (12), Caroline Duffie (11), Cameryn Coursen (11), Hailey Standing (12), Skyler Marchant (12), Marci Inabinett (11), James Goodwin (12), Lauren Goettee (12), Riley Phillips (12), Elizabeth McLaughlin (11), Tejas Patas (12), and teacher George Smith.

Cameryn Coursen and Marci Inabinett look through previously designed children's books to gather inspiration about their own book. With a blend of humor and a meaningful lesson in the end, their search for the perfect story idea ends here.

Junior Elizabeth McLaughlin says her ultimate goal in Teacher Cadet is to "convince [people] in high school to consider pursuing a career in education."

A necessary tool for an upcoming teacher is to be able to write. To exercise this, the Teacher Cadet students are told to write a children's story that they can read to elementary school kids. They can write about whatever they choose, but each story must have a lesson in the end.

Top: Seniors Keeley Murdaugh and Tejas Patel
Bottom: Thomas Pryor, Garrett Tyler, and Hailey Standing

Senior William Bowman explains that one of the things that he contributes to the Colleton County High School is his exceptional tennis skills.

ART

Art is used in many different ways; an outlet for creativity, a way to express one's emotions, or a device for developing and learning skills. Art is everywhere, and here at Colleton County High School it is taught by teachers Sally Davis, Heather Whitten, and Jeannie Langston. Many art classes are given at CCHS, giving students the opportunity to hone their skills and experiment with different kinds of art making such as classes tackling basic art skills, 3D art, and photography. These classes continue to provide knowledge and encourage students to create pieces to share with the community.

(Above) Jadaya Hugie (10) and Tykara Brown (11), of Mrs. Davis's class, work hard on laying down base colors for their "Trash to Treasure" 3-D art pieces. Mrs. Davis, as an Art teacher as well as the Art department head, has one Michelangelo quote she wills Art students to live by, "The greatest danger for most of us not that we aim too high and miss it, but that we aim too low and reach it."

In Ms. Jeannie Langston's class, Freshman George Morris, Emiliano Caudillo (top) and Tamiyah Stephens (left) work hard on projecting the information they learned throughout the semester onto a cohesive study guide for the upcoming exam.

From Mrs. Heather Whitten's Class, (Above) Jasmine Coleman (9), Bruce Davis (9), and Hunter Spires (11) work on their sketches of historic buildings.

(Below) Tenia Brown (10), Jasmine Coleman (9), Jahiem King (10), and D'Andre Brown proudly hold up their pieces.

Top Left: Senior Jasmine Boyart, from Mrs. Davis's 3-D Art and Photography class, creates the designs for her "Trash to Treasure" project. Jasmine's talents can also be seen on this yearbook cover. She designed our Freddie the Cougar Superhero. Bottom Left: Senior Madison Lord, also of Mrs. Davis's class, scours the internet for inspiration for her new piece, "2-D to 3-D". Madison and other students use their photography skills to capture pint-sized superheroes at Black Street Early Childhood Center. With masks, capes, and a green screen, the children were transformed into Batman, Flash, Captain America, and others!

SPANISH

la celebración!

Spanish is a critical course for a student to learn in order to help expand one's horizon. Beginning with learning how to ask for someone's phone number in Spanish I to differentiating between preterite versus imperfect verbs in Spanish 3, these classes provide knowledge and necessary resources for a person's day to day life.

Spanish Club is helpful for those who are either not yet taking Spanish or just simply want to learn more about it. Ms. Davis does her best to help club members improve their Spanish speaking skills by making the activities both fun and engaging.

Seniors Trekia Daniels, Shannon Bowman, and Tyleshia Hudson quickly pose for a photo as they enjoy sampling regional dishes on Cultural Day in Ms. Davis's class. They are pleased with the good job the class did in planning the event.

Sophomores Amber Avant, Hans Gabriel, and Tenia Brown brainstorm ideas on how to promote the Spanish Club to get more members.

MS. Albert, Sophomore Jasmine Leyva and Freshmen Ashley Goettee work diligently on the challenge as the class continues to learn past tense verbs.

Cultural Day is an inclusive way to learn the history and traditions of Spanish speaking countries. It's a day where students can participate in learning the countries' heritage by bringing in some of the more popular foods from the country they've recently been learning about.

Bottom: Seniors Ashlyn Harley and Alan Grym, Juniors James Gibson and Lauren Herrington at Cultural Day.

Juniors Tierra Daniels and Dalton Moore share a high five after successfully helping to plan and organize Mr. Aguero's Cultural Day.

VIDEOGRAPHY!

Left to right: Seniors Anni Crook, Ashlyn Rawls, James Goodwin, Garrett Tyler, Al'Jaya Robinson, William Bowman, Joseph Burn, and Jacob Ellington pose for the final shot of their morning announcements introduction.

The videography club, under the direction of Mrs. Tabatha DeWitt, focuses on the process of making videos. The students in this club are responsible for making the CCHS video announcements. Being trusted with filming and editing equipment and duties, these students are always well behaved and down to business, delivering important announcements for the rest of the school. With a mix of serious news and funny segments, the videographers know how to keep the attention of viewers.

Senior JV Goodwin proudly shows his editing skills during postproduction on the CCHS video announcements.

Seniors William Bowman and Anni Crook read the upcoming sports events for the following week while Senior Ashlyn Rawls watches the camera to make sure it stays in focus to keep all the other members in line while the recording is going.

Senior Jacob Ellington walks around in an inflatable dinosaur costume to startle and confuse any students walking in the hallway.

Top: Seniors Al'Jaya Robinson, Joseph Burn, and William Bowman set up the tripod and camera for the weather portion of the video announcements.

Bottom: Senior Jacob Ellington reviews an announcement that was given to the videography club to ensure that it is appropriate before they film.

GAMER'S GUILD

Gamer's Guild is a club for people to come together so they can socialize and bond over games that they enjoy. The most popular game in the club is Magic: The Gathering, but there are a number of other options for the members to play. Mr. Litzinger, while also being the club director, is an avid participant and often teaches the newest members how to play these games. For instance, he often uses coins to show the amount of "mana" used in Magic. The use of strategy for each game and the fun they have playing them provides both a challenging but enjoyable time for each member.

Seniors Kaylee Pacetti and Angel Bennett check their cards to see if they have the winning hand. Each card plays a different role and uses different abilities. Getting the right cards in the right order can ensure your win.

Junior Felicity Steward thinks strategically about where to place her next piece in hopes of winning the game Tsuro.

Senior Brendan McCorkle and Junior Felicity Steward think strategically about where to place their next piece to insure they don't lose to one another. Senior Angel Bennett sets up Tsuro so her friends can join.

Top: Seniors Andrew O'Quinn and Erik Sammons play an intense game of Magic: The Gathering as they both try to defeat the other.

Bottom: Senior Gene Wynn places his hand down, beginning his game between him and his opponent. Having been a member for so long, he's made new friendships throughout the years.

Erik Sammons (12) picks another hand after defeating his opponent by using the Soul Conduit card, which switches the two players' life totals.

RED CROSS

"Every two seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood."
~ The Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross club American Red Cross allows students to have the opportunity to develop leadership and life-saving skills by hosting events. Students learn how to make a difference by organizing and helping at three blood drives during the 2017-2018 school year. During those blood drives, the club members go around to make sure the donors are well or if they need any assistance. The club members work together to take care of those who are sick, homeless, or wounded. Our Red Cross team is always there to help those when a disaster or tragedy occurs!

Mr. Pearson gave a thumbs up while donating blood at the first blood drive of the year!

The Junior Red Cross team was ready to dominate their first blood drive of the year on December 5, 2017.

Senior John Bell gave a thumbs up to show he was alright and was determined to donate his blood for those in need.

Top: These are your officers of the Junior Red Cross Club: President Hailey Standing (12), Vice President Olivia Herrington (11), and Advisor Ms. Julie McMillan.

Bottom: Senior Garrett Tyler gave blood for the first time and had a huge smile after fighting his fear of needles.

YOUNG AGENTS OF CHANGE

Young Agents of Change is a social entrepreneurship program that is meant to help our youth to see problems in the community as opportunities. This program provides them with the tools to build skills in critical and creative thinking as well as communication skills. It enables them to believe that they are capable of being leaders, entrepreneurs, and world changers. During the school year, the club members are engaged in many activities, such as raising money and holding canned food drives to give to the people in need. Giving back to the community and helping those in need are the major objectives of members of the ever-thoughtful Young Agents of Change Program.

Young Agents of Change senior officers Olivia Phillips, Anni Crook, and Madison Lord pose and show off their superhero smiles.

Members of the Young Agents of Change, along with advisor Ms. Bria Burke (back right) pose for their group photograph to show off their new t-shirts, an honor that these students wear well because it shows how they've helped the community.

Freshmen Kayla Dantzler enjoys playing games and helping with the elderly at the Colleton Courtyard nursing home.

L: Sophomore Teniia Brown plays bingo with the elderly at the Colleton Courtyard nursing home. Sometimes time and a smile are as important as a monetary gift.

R: Senior Curtis Nesmith and Freshmen Emmalie Nesmith enjoy and assist in wrapping Christmas presents for local children.

Seniors, Olivia Phillips, Keeley Murdaugh, and Campbell Crook wrap Christmas presents to give to local children.

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

The Colleton County Delegation posed for a picture on the State House steps on the last day before the Governor's Banquet.

Youth In Government (YIG) is a YMCA program in the United States that allows middle and high school students to participate in a model government at a local State House. This year, 30 of our students went to YIG in Columbia, SC, with schools from all over the state. Cameryn Coursen (III), Susanna Seigler (III), Anni Crook (I2) and Olivia Phillips (I2) participated in leadership positions. This program allows students to experience what it is like to work in the South Carolina Legislature. There, the Colleton County High School delegates present their bills to a committee, and if it is passed, they will present in a chamber. If the bill is passed through the chamber, it could possibly be signed by the YIG Governor.

Seniors Maria Manaeva and Shakayla Gill presented their bill to their committee to get it passed to chambers.

The Colleton County Delegation gathered at Carolina Ale House for dinner before "mandatory fun night."

Senior Mychael Aiken is speaking in affirmation of a bill called, "An Act to Change the State Drink from Milk to Sweet Tea," while in a committee.

1. A few of the delegates get a little dressy for the opening session at the Columbia fairgrounds. L to R: Kendall Bell, Cameryn Coursen, India Stokes, Shaleen Creel, Dakari Grant, Kasheyonna David, and Rylee Chandler.

2. Advisor Miss Thorne and Seniors Anni Crook, Taylor Virden, Campbell Crook, and Madison Lord took a picture for their last YIG trip on the state steps.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP

Youth Leadership is a credited course facilitated by Mrs. Rebecca Goodwin. Students build leadership and collaboration skills both within the classroom and through the activities they organize around school. Often their assignments support the goals of events sponsored by Student Council. For that reason, many StuCo representatives take this class at some point in the year, but all students in the class benefit from the chance to step up in a leadership role for the school, taking their skills with them to other classes and organizations. This year we can thank the Youth Leadership class for working with events like Spirit Week, the Candy Grams and Boo Grams to raise funds for Student Council, and much more.

Mrs. Goodwin's first semester Youth Leadership class takes a break from working on their next project to smile for a photo. The class consists of all grade levels during both semesters.

Sophomores Kaylee Pak and Heather Dowd are selling Candy Grams to raise money towards Student Council.

Sophomores Heather Dowd and Kaylee Pak and junior Stephanie Hooker sort through Student Council t-shirts. Such tasks of organizing help students to set goals and work together in the most efficient way. Right: Junior Jim Bailey smiles for a photo while contributing to the ugly Christmas sweater contest.

Thinking...

Juniors Stephanie Hooker and Jim Bailey, along with sophomores Heather Dowd and Kaylee Pak, try to finish all of their work before their semester of Youth Leadership comes to a close. They've planned hard and worked harder to finish their goals.

Mrs. Goodwin and senior Garrett Tyler stand proud of Youth Leadership's and Student Council's hard work on Spirit Week.

BANG

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council members came together over the break. While they were there they ate, exchanged gifts, and had an ugly christmas sweater contest! 1st place was Macie Stone, 2nd place was Hannah Robertson, and 3rd place was James McDowell.

Student Council is an organization dedicated to help the students. They give them events to look forward to in school. Student Council comes together weekly to plan the next pep rally, special events, such as spirit week. Since it is split into separate grade levels, each class has their own officers to plan what the grade level does to help us win spirit week. Student Council also develops ideas on how to give back to the community by using fundraisers and donations.

Stu Co members Staphanie Hooker (11), Garrett Tyler (12), and James Bailey (11) pass out secret santa gifts for teachers.

Freshman Student Council, Sydney Howard, Grace Ann Cox, Camden Segura try to sell raffle tickets to raise money and try to get people to donate gifts that they can give to MUSC and The Ronald McDonald House.

Stu Co members at Cane Bay High School for their district rally. Cougars always represent our school well!

Top: Junior Student Co member Cameryn Coursen, with the help of freshman Morgan Cummins, sell raffle tickets for a gift basket. All proceeds go to the children in Haiti.

Bottom: Senior Thomas Pryor at Special Olympics helps the kids with their field day activities. This is always as rewarding for the volunteers as it is for the kids participating.

YOUR STUDENT COUNCIL CLASS OFFICERS...

Officers: President~ Anne Mathis Thomas, VP~ Hannah Robertson, Secretary~ Rebekah Hannah
Sophomore Officers: President~ Matilyn Griffin, VP~ Madison Strickland, Secretary~ Amaya Bunton
Junior Officers: President~ Shaleen Creel, VP~ Thomas Warren, Secretary~ Jim Bailey
Senior Officers: President~ Riley Phillips, VP~ Lucas Bell, Secretary~ Olivia Phillips

On December 9, Freshmen members set up at Bilo from noon to 3 pm, collecting donations for Xanders Give Back, an organization that provides gifts for children in hospitals.

"This year, we have planned everything more proficiently, and I'm excited to see what our Sophomore Stu Co can do this year. As Secretary of 2020 Stu Co for the past two years, I feel as if this year will be very effective."

-Amaya Bunton (IO)

SUPER! AWESOME! SUPER! AWESOME!

Left: Senior Olivia Phillips, channeling her Ms. Frizzle, is pictured with her pet named Liz off of the Magic School Bus.

Right: Senior Christmas surprise Garret Tyler "hangs out" during Spirit Week wearing a stocking for 'Tis the Season Tuesday.

JAG

After a thrilling trip to Washington, DC, the JAG members along with Mr. Thomas and SC Rep. Tim Scott head home from Charleston airport.

Jobs for American Graduates (JAG) is a youth development program that is dedicated to helping at-risk students graduate from high school and make a successful transition into either postsecondary education or meaningful employment. After students leave JAG, they are expected to enlist directly in the military, go straight into the workforce, or enroll in a four-year college. The program teaches students leadership skills, employability skills, and basic educational skills that will lead to success in the workforce. With new leadership from Advisor Patrick Thomas, the CCHS JAG program continues to thrive in 2017-2018.

Seniors Shantasia Allen, Jahmari Johnson and Phoenix Brown all stop for a quick moment after being inducted into the JAG program.

Sophomores Evan Wright and JaMaine Williams discuss an assignment in which the JAG class was to write three personality traits as part of personal reflection and goal-setting strategies.

Seniors Jahmari Johnson and Shantasia Allen, along with Junior Cory Smalls, pose with Advisor Mr. Thomas in front of the statue of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in Washington, DC. This was a rich experience for growth and opportunity.

During the JAG Installation and Initiation ceremony, Alixa Villalobos (12), Shaquille Yates (11), Jackson Hiers (12) and Disney Colson (9) show how honored they are to be officially be a part of the JAG program.

Left: Mrs. Shider greets Masiah Ferguson with a big smile as she inducts her into the JAG program. Middle: Senior Mariah Risher said, "JAG was the best experience of my high school year. It taught me leadership, intelligence, and the ability to form bonds with my peers." Right: Students of the JAG program pay close attention as they are spoken to about the importance of the JAG Installation and Invitation ceremony.

Students of the JAG program show how excited they are to accept the responsibility that they must uphold within the JAG program.

Sophomore Masiah Ferguson shares a light-hearted moment: "The JAG program doesn't only give us advise, they also give us good bacon."

After receiving a $1,000 check from Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the JAG class, along with Asst. Superintendent Dr. Juliet White and Mr. Thomas, snap a picture to capture how excited they were.

Mrs. Kathy Shider, Director of Guidance at CCHS, shakes Junior Tiana Daniels' hand as she congratulates her after being inducted into JAG.

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY

National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony on October 18, 2017 in the Performing Arts Center for all new inductee members.

National Honors Society (NHS) is a organization based around outstanding students who maintain a 4.0 GPA and willing to volunteer to numerous school and community activities. Under the authority of Mr. Louis Gluek and Ms. Madeline Brawley, members further their academic success as a group, and within the community to guide them in their journey to adulthood. Each inductee must complete 40 volunteer hours--10 group and 30 individual--before the end of the school year. One of the major group events for this year took NHS to Northside Elementary.

As Northside Elementary held their PBIS Event, Laura Lucas helped children carefully slide down the inflatable slide.

At the Northside Fall Festival on November 17, 2017, Juniors Jackson Mow and Wesley Bryan helped fourth graders shoot hoops during their time outside.

Juniora Abigail Branch, Elizabeth McLaughlin and Kensley Danzler cool off in the shade on the inflatable slide at Northside's PBIS Event.

Top R: Senior Jared Bailey helped students decorate their face with festive fall images.

Bottom R: Senior Alexis Farish congratulates a Northside student with a sticker on her goody bag for the cup toss at their fall festival.

NHS volunteers were able to be role models for the younger students while learning organizational skills of a large event.

ZAP!

Senior Ashlyn Rawls says, "Being the vice president of NHS has given me great opportunities in and out of the organization!"
 2. Robert Dent (Member) states that "NHS has allowed me to meet people I would have never met."

NHS members gather for a group photo in their new club shirts outside of the library in the courtyard. Their shirts identify them as academic and service oriented for CCHS.

Seniors Tejas Patel, Jared Bailey and Alexis Farish take a hay ride during the Blackstreet Elementary's Fall Festival.

Students take group photo while eagerly waiting to start their beach sweep for an annual community service project located on Edisto Island.

Cami Crook (Secretary) and Anni Crook (Member) Come to agreement on how NHS has given them the opportunity to help many people and encourage others to participate in volunteer work themselves.

1. Mikayla Robertson and Taylor Fussel hold conversation with one of their elementary teachers, Kelly Wiers, at a Northside's PBIS event. 2. Nick Fanchette spreads out hay for the hay game where children at Northside had to dig through to find prizes! 3. Abigail Branch signs off one of the kids after she offers at Northside's PBIS event.

KABOOM

FFA

FFA class went to Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College for a tour and introduction to their programs. Victoria Myers (11) says, "I loved going on this trip. This trip helped me finally decide where I want to go to college."

Colleton County High School's Future Farmers of America (known as just FFA) is a youth organization within the education setting that prepares students for leadership roles, personal growth, and career success. FFA was founded in 1928, and it is easy to become a member at CCHS: All a student needs to do is enroll in one of the agricultural courses at TCTC. Being a member of this program gives you endless opportunities from the local, state, and national levels of FFA, including millions of dollars in college scholarships.

"FFA has given me the opportunity to explore what I want to do in the future FFA is tons of fun and everyone there is supportive I honestly love it," -Savannah Hughes (11).

Junior Damontre Ferguson drives the obstacle course trying to be put on the list for best tractor drivers.

L to R: Joshua Stalling (12), Jim Lane (12), Hunter Preston (12) and Hunter Burleson (11) enjoy a nice day in the greenhouse planting flowers and learning how to grow crops.

Senior Julia Cottingham says, "FFA, to me, is helping out the overall society by growing and producing healthy goods while helping animals at the same time."

Demonstrating how she actively helps animals, Julia is refilling the rabbit feeder with grass. Feeding and caring for the animals are one of FFA's many responsibilities.

FBLA

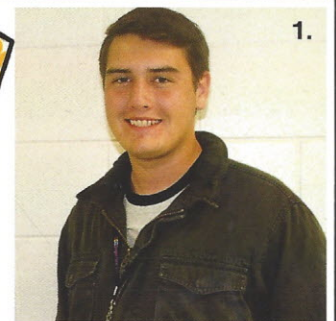

The Future Business Leaders of America have been working hard this year! This organization is dedicated to the development of prospective business people and community organizers. At CCHS, members are challenged at competitive events and attend conferences that aid in the development of social and business related skills. In a year of rebuilding after the departure of a long-time advisor, this chapter has again seen much success in the 2017-2018 school year under the new leadership of Mr. Joseph Arras.

FBLA competitors gather outside James Island Charter High with their newly received awards for this year's regional competition! From here, winners move on to conquer the state, then the national level.

THE 2017-2018 FBLA Chapter! The photo includes: Jared Bailey, Al'Jaya Robinson, Christian Chisolm-Riley, Megan Newton, Jonathan Gardner, Shelly Sechrist, Olivia Phillips, Madison Lord, Briana Green, Amaya Bunton, Charity Crosby, Abigail Branch, Marilena Crosby, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Logan Bailey, Ashlyn Ballew, Mackenzie Ferguson.

1.

2.

3.

4.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Right, top to bottom

1. President Jared Bailey (Grade 12) says, "Over the last 4 years FBLA has given me the skills and etiquette to be successful in the business world."

2. Member Al'Jaya Robinson (Grade 12) says, "This club has given me the opportunity to meet many new people and learn to network."

3. Secretary Megan Newton (Grade 11) says, "I joined FBLA because I saw all the cool things that they were doing, so I knew I had to get involved!"

4. Member Christian Chisolm-Riley (Grade 12) says, "FBLA has taught me responsibility and really helped me with talking to people in a business setting."

During awards ceremony, competitors receive their awards after competing at regionals. 1. Competitors wait for awards ceremony. 2. Charity Crosby (10) waits for her place to be announced. 3. Amaya Bunton (10) and Briana Green (12) wait for their place to be announced. 4. Seniors Jared Bailey and Madison Lord examine their first place medals. 5. Juniors Abigail Branch and Elizabeth McLaughlin wait for their place to be announced.

LADIES OF EXCELLENCE

All of the members of the Ladies of Excellence gather back stage to prepare for the annual Black History Program at CCHS, which is partnered with Men of Distinction.

Autumn Nesbitt (12) and Mrs. Wade (Advisor) are practicing for the Black History Program.

Ladies of Excellence have meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. On December 13, 2017, Mrs. Bright spoke the ladies on the subject "23 Qualities That Make A Girl Stand Out".

On March 3, 2018, the Ladies of Excellence and Men of Distinction hosted a carwash, a bake sale, and yard sale all in one at the Palmetto Rural Telephone Cooperative parking lot.

The Ladies of Excellence host an annual Christmas Dinner for foster kids and their alternative parents. People from around the community and the school donate presents. The purpose is to provide gifts for the kids every year and feed them a nice, home-cooked meal with some food to take home. The dinner this year served 150 people.

Top: Autumn Nesbitt (12), Essence Wright (10), Brionna James (11), Kyia Brown (11), Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Brooks, Tiara Garrett (11). Bottom: The Ladies of Excellence (CCHS) and Sisters in Action (CCMS) come together to serve food at the Christmas Dinner.

MEN OF DISTINCTION

Mission of our Cougar Men of Distinction is "to develop intellectually capable and respectful young men with sound minds, healthy bodies, and the ethical spirit needed to contribute wisdom, compassion, and leadership while reasoning and achieving educational, personal, and career goals in our global society." Some of the young men have become mentors to the younger boys at Northside Elementary School. Throughout the year they have had several fundraisers to raise money so that they can visit colleges in Alabama, the Atlanta, Georgia, area, and Life University in Marietta, Georgia. The Men of Distinction have many on-going, yearlong projects as well, including the Dress for Success Wednesdays. This encourages members to project a positive image by wearing a dress shirt and a tie. The Men of Distinction will continue to expand their club to help more and more young CCHS men.

Members of the Cougar Men of Distinction (L to R): Lester Robinson (12), Jimmy Manigo (12), Legreir Cooper-Bodison (12), Jameson Butler (12), Saterrence Robinson (10), Ian Shark (9), Deante Drain (10), Tywan Ford (10), and Timothy Wright (11).

Cougar Men of Distinction have a brief meeting to plan for their upcoming trip to Alabama in May of 2018.

"Don't watch the clock; DO what it does and keep going!"
 ~ Senior President Jamison Butler (left)
"The greatest promise may come wrapped up in many problems. To me this means to never give up on the goals you want to achieve in life."
 ~ Junior Vice President Timothy Wright (right)

"Coming together is the beginning, keeping together is progress, working together is success." We need to all be on the same page to succeed.

~ Senior Treasurer Legreir Cooper-Bodison (top left)

"A goal without a plan is just a wish." Know what you want to do and do it!

~ Senior Secretary Jahmari Johnson (top right)

Bottom: The Cougar Men of Distinction discuss the positive impact they can have on others from what they learned visiting colleges and schools.

Advisor Mr. Johnson states, "Our goals are to help foster young men into a more positive behavior to better their academic mindset and to try and help them see the bigger picture, think outside the box and have a more positive outcome of their future."

COUGAR TIMES

COLLETON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL'S FINEST NEWS SOURCE

SINCE 2011
$1.50 (WALTERBORO ONLY)

THE UNDEFEATED KEEP HIS TITLE!

LOCAL BOY BREAKS RECORD FOR FASTEST MAN ALIVE

Wyatt O'quinn, a previous owner of the Fastest Man Alive title, races to the finish line with one intention: to reclaim his record, coveted by all would-be superheroes. With strong determination and many hours spent training, these goals were quickly met as O'quinn instantaneously passed the other runners and beat his previous record by four minutes. As the other runners race to catch up, O'quinn was left with satisfaction as he crossed the finish line, securing his title once again and leaving his challengers in the dust. His legacy is secured.

A NEW BAND OF SUPERHEROS JOIN TOGETHER TO KEEP WALTERBORO SAFE!

Armed with their integrity and devotion to the protection of the city, this league of heroes band together to discuss their game plan on how to take down their opposers. These young paladins have one goal in sight: to perserve the purity of Walterboro.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

As halftime comes to an end, the team huddles up to discuss the next play. Throughout October, the boys incorporate pink into their uniforms to support Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

The Colleton County High School football team adapted throughout the year to new many changes in the program. With a new coaching staff, the cougars rebuilt their program and went to the first round of the Class AAAA football playoffs. They earned this success by team building activities and events and by learning that winning a game takes the whole team, not an individual. The Cougars finished their 2017-2018 football season 4-7 overall and 2-3 in the region. Way to go, Team! What a terrific new start!

Senior Jameson Butler (#9) transitions off of the field as the special team comes on for a punt return against Stall.

Senior middle line backer Jalen Lawton (#21), with his arms wide open, runs celebrate with Senior Legrier Bodison-Cooper (#7) after a sack against Ashley Ridge.

Senior Campbell Pryor (#49) gets ready to kick an extra point against Ashley Ridge while Junior Lance Calcutt (#22) holds the ball in place.

1. Senior quarterback Craig Grant (#4) jumps up to celebrate the touchdown against Ashley Ridge with one of his teammates.

2. Senior Javaree Salley (#57) and juniors Malcolm Greene (#71) and Troy Allen (#47) gather together to discuss their strategies for the next play against West Ashley.

C: "This season was a season not to forget. I loved everything about this football season, the coaches, players, and the overall environment of our football program. I am looking forward to next year and what God has in store." ~ Junior Lance Calcutt (#22)

L: Senior Craig Grant (#4) gets ready for a snap. Grant had a career record of 5325 passing yards and 52 touchdowns and was named to the 2017 North-South Bowl Game.

R: Senior Tristian Nieves (#2) stares down the field before snagging a punt return.

For the Homecoming Game, the seniors escorted the captains out on the field for the coin toss against the Beaufort Eagles.

Senior wide receiver Jermari Stephens captures the progress of the year when he says, "Go out with a bang!"

After a tough loss against Beaufort, the team gathered around on one side of the field to listen to their head coach, Coby Peeler, about the outcomes of the game.

1. Seniors Nick Wilkey (#29) and Craig Grant (#4) celebrate a quarterback keeper play that turned into a touchdown against Lakewood.

2. Freshman Jalen Levine (#8) succeeds with the tackle on third down in Cougar territory.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Our Varsity Girls smile for a team photo in their uniforms. Left: Dakari Gant (#15), Whitley Weathers (#16), Coach Kaitlyn, Coach Duncun, Makenzy Hand (#18), Ashlyn Harley (#9). Bottom: Jade Frazier (#3), Laura Lucus (#17), Amiyah Robinson (#1), Emilia Crosby (#14), Faith Allen (#5).

Our Varsity Volleyball team worked hard and built strong bonds in the 2017 season. Being on a team like this, it's hard not to be as close as they are. Even though they are all in different grades they are all friends, which helps them in this sport where communication on the court and working together are keys to playing successfully.

Junior Amiyah Robinson (#1) lunges to pass a ball to save the point. The girls play with all-out effort for the full game.

Before every game our Varsity girls come together for a team-led prayer. They pray that they have a good game and that no one gets injured.

Senior Faith Allen (#5) sets the ball up high so one of her teammates can hit it over the net and catch the other team off-guard.

Dakari Gant

Flyin' High!

Above: Freshman Whitley Weathers (#16), Junior Dakari Gant (#15), and Senior Faith Allen (#5) get ready to receive the other team's serve.

Bottom: After each game our Varsity girls give the other team a low five under the net and tell one another "good game."

Left: Freshmen Makenzy Hand (#20) gets ready to block the ball so the other team can't score a point. Center: Going for the kill, eleventh grade Dakari Gant (#15) says of her sport, "Volleyball. Its a sport, its a passion. Live it. Love it. Play it." Right: Junior Emilia Crosby (#6) and Freshmen Makenzy Hand (#20) high five after a great win.

Coach Yvonne Duncan and her volleyball team celebrate after an important win. The team credits her leadership with their successful program.

Colleton County Varsity plays on home turf ready for another win. On the court are Faith Allen (#5), Makenzy Hand (#20), Amiyah Robinson (#1), Ashlyn Harley (#9), and Jade Frazier (#3).

Below: Keeping eyes on the ball and on teammates: Makenzy Hand (#20), Ashlyn Harley (#9), and Jade Frazier (#3).

"Have confidence in your volleyball ability, and then be tough enough to follow through until you reach your volleyball goals"
-Amiyah Robinson

Junior Emilia Crosby, Senior Faith Allen, Junior Laura Lucas, & Senior Ashlyn Harley

Servin' it up!

JV FOOTBALL

"Football is like life. It requires perseverance, self denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication, and respect for authority." ~ Vince Lombardi

Our JV Football team acts as an allusion to the importance of cooperation, dedication, and humility within the student body. They wear the CCHS moniker loud and proud to represent their school with honor. The team devotes themselves to one common goal. They keep their bond tight and mindset intact to execute the best plays in every game. Every member stays motivated and disciplined, showing this through their amazing performances. They held their own this season and represented Colleton County High with pride.

Juniors Jim Bailey (#34) and Preson McCloud (#13) watch their teammates on cautiously, studying the plays of both teams as they occur.

Teammates gather on the field and get into position, anticipating the snap that sets off the the play.

For the Fall 2017 season, the JV Cougars were lead by Coach Peeler, Coach Bowers, and Coach Singleton. They led the team to an overall success of 6 wins and 2 losses.

(Right Top) Coaches and players discuss their plans before heading to the field for the next play.

(Bottom Right) Being good sports, Cougars take their walk across the field to congratulate the other team for a good game.

JV Cougars get in formation, prepared for the snap that leads into the next course of action towards another victory.

JV VOLLEYBALL

Our JV Volleyball girls worked exceptionally hard this season. Their final season record was 8-8. Their success can in part be contributed to the strong and lasting bonds the team made. Making friends with your teammates is one of the keys to working together and having a successful season. This allows players to trust one another's decisions on the court and to accept help when needed. We are very proud of our Junior Varsity Lady Cougars this season! As they progress, we look forward to seeing them on the Varsity team and beyond!

A tradition that our JV volleyball have withheld all season is that before every game they come together and pray for good luck and no injuries.

"Once you become part of this team there is no they, there is we. There is no I, there is team. There is no individual, there is a family. When we start together we end together and no is left behind." - Leiana Rivera, Sophomore

Top L: Sophomore Charity Crosby (#10) jumps to block the other team trying spike the ball as Sophomore Kaycee Bell (#14) keeps her eye on the ball.
Bottom L: Sophomore J'Nay McClain jumps to tip the ball over the net to catch the other team off guard as Freshman Grace Ann Cox (#11) watches as a back up just in case.

Top L: Freshman Grace Ann Cox (#11), Sophomore Kaycee Bell (#14), and Bayleigh Crosby (CCMS) are getting ready for the ball to come over the net as the other team serves.
Bottom L: After a time-out the JV team puts their hands together and yells "COUGARS" to show how ready they are continue the game.

"You can only get out what you put in, which should be nothing less than 100%." - Donae Bowens, Sophomore.

VARSITY CHEERLEADING

AWESOME!

Varsity Cheerleaders at the football game, cheering on the sideline, sending high spirit vibes to the team.

Every game night, Colleton County Varsity Cheerleaders put their all into supporting the football and the basketball teams. This group of talented athletes perform stunts and cheer throughout the game to energize the crowd and inspire the team to greatness. Under the guidance of Coach Meagan Driggers, the 2017-2018 Varsity Cheerleading Team learns to collaborate together to make the whole group stronger. They became a family: Through all the tears and laughter that come with the hard work put in throughout the year, they learn to love each other like sisters. The unbreakable bond of this team shows in the excellent work they do on the field and on the court.

Sophomore Tierra Saumel performs a stunt of strength and flexibility during the first home game of the season.

As a senior, the opening game can be exciting, but bitter sweet. Senior Mahogany Richards says, "From cheer I will miss the sisterhood and the bus rides with my cheersisters." It's those times that the girls can bond.

An incredible performance by the cheerleaders at the Homecoming Pep Rally brought everyone to their feet.

Top: The cheer team competed against two marines to see who could do the most push-ups during the homecoming game. With every touchdown, they celebrate by matching the score in push-ups.

Bottom: Sophomore Brie Sauls and Senior Daishia Ferguson support their Cougars and the fight against cancer by wearing pink at the Homecoming Game.

Look like a lady and cheer like a boss!
-Daishia Ferguson

Front: Mahogany Richards and Kayla Mincey Middle: Amber Avant, Daishia Ferguson, Elise Walker, Skylar Brown, Kaylee Pak, Symone Aiken, Brianna Sauls and Adriene Jenkins Back: Tierra Samuels, Sarah Ward, Charity Crosby, India Akins, Tah'Ajah Goodwine and Kasheyonna David

Top Left: Before the girls basketball game Senior Deja Davis and Junior Kasheyonna David play a little one-on-one on the sidelines.
Top Right: At the start of the basketball game cheerleaders Elise Walker, Kasheyonna David (1 1), Mahogany Richards (1 2) and Kayla Mincey (1 2) show us the special bond that the cheerleading team shares, as seen in with these game-winning smiles.

Top Left: The cheerleaders cheer on the basketball team with the cheer "Do the Cougars Rock" as the time winds down on the game clock. They help keep the team and the crowd motivated.
Bottom: The cheerleaders line up on the court to cheer as the girls varsity basketball team is introduced.

Left: As the other team lines up at the free throw line, the cheerleaders do a "miss it" cheer in hopes that the other team fails their shot.
Right: The Cougar Cheerleading Team is proud of the efforts they've all put towards leading the Cougar teams through 2017-18.

SUPER!
SUPER!
SUPER!

JV CHEER

L to R, Top: Emir Gathers, Ashley Goettee, Teniia Brown, JiLaysha Brown, Taa'Nyia Linder, Aneesa Sinclair, Samone Brown, Jade Jenkins, Jamia Mitchell
Bottom: Cheyenna Goethe, Shamira Bell, JayInn Davis, Paraja Dubois, Byonka Mcelveen

Cheerleading holds a special place in the world of sports, and especially during high school. Getting riled up in the stands, shouting cheers, and ra-ra-ra-ing until throats are sore are staples of a high school career; all this is championed by the Colleton County JV Cheer Squad. Here to continue directing the providers of school spirit is JV Coach Calista Brynn Nettles, who is one of two new Cheer coaches this 2017-2018 school year. Coach Nettles leads a group of fifteen committed girls who are always willing to encourage one another as well as the other CCHS teams, filled with the positivity and drive to keep them and the student body going. Within this squad, a sense of homeliness and knack for teamwork must be present in order to make the teams' co-operation and overall performance as smooth as possible. The girls act as an energetic powerhouse, encapsulating what it means to be pushers of passion on the Colleton County High School campus.

The squad locks arms and discusses the techniques for new stunts the teams planning to perform.

"Cheer is a display of discipline, practice, dedication, determination, skill, and athleticism."

The JV girls and Coach Nettles talk through and practice routines in preparation for the next game.

The girls start their confident walk to the field, ready to cheer on their counterpart football team.

Cross Country

Cross Country's past two years were dominated with one name, and two athletes: the Altmans. But this year, Coach George Smith reports, was a whole different race.

"We had four different runners to become our first girl across the line. It wasn't just Abigail out in front and Grayson right after; Kensley Dantzler was our first girl to cross the line at the Coach's Classic and Kayla Dantzler, a little ninth grader, was our first girl across at the state championship race."

This change shows in the records: for the first time ever, CCHS was ranked in the Top 10 for most of the season. We finished twelfth in the state. Coach Olivia Lee projects that "with this momentum, they will be number six in two years."

(L to R, standing) Tyler Scites, Ashlyn Ballew, Blaine Cook, Edward Bennett, Coach Olivia Lee, Coach George Smith, Kayla Dantzler, Lauren Reynolds, Wyatt O'Quinn, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Olivia Stephens, (L to R, bottom) Ashley Reid, Kensley Dantzler, Grayson Altman, Abigail Altman, Dorothy Dessoys, Stacey Bennett, Gavin Padgett

RUNNERS UP: "The deck is stacked against us, definitely, but we don't let that break our stride" said Junior Wyatt O'Quinn (above, center left). "With only five runners, we have to all pull weight because we don't have the numbers to cushion a bad time. Still, leading teams despite that speaks to [Boys Cross Country's] strength as a team."

Junior Kensley Dantzler, Freshmen Kayla Dantzler, and Lauren Reynolds (CCMS) keep a confident pace together.

Freshman Blaine Cook (above, #2330) was twenty seconds shy of qualifying for the Boys State Championships, says Coach Smith.

Practicing at both the local golf course and the Wildlife Sanctuary provides a wide variety of running experiences that help the team endure hills, water hazards, uneven terrain, and long distances.

Stretching is another important aspect of training to maintain strength and flexibility on a Cross Country course.

8-AAAA All-Region
Grayson Altman, 8th:
21:50.07

Kensley Dantzler, 11th:
22:16.10

SCHSL State Championships

Kayla Dantzler, 64th:
22:04.00

Abigail Altman, 78th:
22:22.00

Grayson Altman, 81st:
22:32.00

Kensley Dantzler, 83rd:
22:38.00

Dorothy Dessoys, 109th:
23:40.00

Sophomore Abigail Altman continues to lead the pack at the Lake Murray Invitational despite sustaining stinging injuries across both legs. 59

VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

The Colleton County Boys Varsity Basketball team watches their teammates from the side lines and supports them, hoping to encourage their team to do the best they can.

The varsity boys basketball has had a great season this year. These boys were the first to go to the second round of playoff. Another achievement was that the team set the school record for most points scored in a single game. These, along with many more accomplishments, prove that these boys are capable of whatever they put their mind to with the help of teamwork and a common goal. Each player left every game immensely proud of themselves. The varsity boys basketball team is hoping to continue their lucky streak with many more accomplishments in the next season.

Senior De'lajae Ferguson (#1) and junior Nyeem Green (#5) work as side kicks to keep the ball out of the competition's hands.

Senior Jerry Green (#21) guards the ball with his superhero strength. Jerry says, "Don't let the game play you; you play the game."

Top: Junior Shykem Chisolm (#10) watches his opponent and hopes he can make it to the basket with the ball safely.

Bottom: Senior Tyler Gant (#3) looks to his teammates for their support in transferring the ball from one player to the next in order to score the winning basket.

"You can't think about it; you just have to do it," says senior Tristian Nieves (#2) at the Colleton vs. Beaufort game.

Left: Junior Shykem Chisolm (#10) stands guard as he watches closely to see what move his opponents make.

Middle: Junior Lance Calcutt (#22) watches the ball closely to come away with the rebound.

Right: Senior Nyeem Green (#5) holds his hands out for his teammate to pass the ball with juniors Javon Williams (#4) and Bailey Encalade (#33) following closely behind to watch his back.

Junior Shykem Chisolm (#10) chases after the ball to recover their opponents' lost possession with teammates De'lajae Ferguson (#1) and Bailey Encalade (#33) following closely behind to make sure he doesn't miss.

Sophomore Jeremiah Mosley (#11) goes to pass the ball to junior Devon Farmer (#35), careful to avoid accidentally passing it to the opposing team.

A true success story: Devon Farmer (#35) has grown as a player on the field, on the court, and in the classroom.

Left: Sophomore Jeremiah Mosley (#11) grips the ball tightly as he pushes a Beaufort player out of his way so he can shoot and score.

Right: Junior Bailey Encalade (#33) flies above his opponents' heads as he jump-shots the ball.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

Rise and shout because the Cougars are out! Basketball is a team sport and teamwork makes the dream work. Here, in the Cougar Den, these girls root and support each other, but most of all they communicate with each other to keep the team on a winning spree.

"The game of basketball was created by James Naismith in December of 1891 but to us, it's a legacy and we are going to keep it alive." -Coach Perry Smalls

Sophomore Omari Kirkland (#3), "You miss 100% of the shots you don't take."

Above: Juniors Scha'Mari Stephens (#15) and Ka'ri Edwards (#35) put on the undefeated face as they race down the court ahead of the Beaufort players to recover their positions. If you're on the basketball court, you're playing offense and defense. Bottom left: The Lady Cougars show the bond that's needed in order to work together to win the game. Players must rely on one another to always work with "team" in mind. Bottom right: Junior Scha'Mari Stephens (#15) puts on her biggest smile when Omari Kirkland shoots a 3, knowing the other team has no chance at winning the game.

photo by Cindy Crosby

Coach Perry allowed Senior Carlise Washington, #33, to live her dream on of playing on the girls varsity basketball team. Carlise is a special needs student but was a new addition to the team when she scored the first point of the game against Wade Hampton.

1

2

3

STUDENT SECTION

Coming out of the Cougar Den!

1. Sophomore Ashley Savage (#4) says, "Always give 110% and never give up."
2. Junior Kari Edwards (#35) exclaims, "I was told to pass the ball to another teammate but the hoop was always open first!"
3. To quote senior Shantasia Allen (#5), "I like basketball; you have to always remember to try."

To motivate herself out of a defeated-mindset, freshman Ashley Bowman (#12) says, "On a scale of 1 to 10, I'm a 9 and the basketball is the 1 I need right now." This is how our Lady Cougars win!

As the girls get ready to start their game, they have their final pep talk. Each girl makes sure they have a shared mindset and their eyes on the goal.

During any game, you'll always hear Coach Perry Smalls yelling "Keep your hands up." Left: Senior Shantasia Allen (#5) guards before she successfully steals the ball from a Beaufort player. Right: Sophomore Ashley Savage (#4) joins junior Scha'Mari Stephens (#15) guard another player so no ball will be passed by or through them.

Teamwork works!

JV BOYS BASKETBALL

Front: Jalen Levine, Jeremiah Monroe, Jermaine Parker, Xavier Washington
Middle: Edwardian Stansel, Evan Wright, Raheem Hodges, Silas Holmes, Stephen Gadson, Antwan Griffin
Back: Jahlil Ellison, Alex Sherrill, Trakell Murray, Da'Quan Bryant, Darius Johnson, Loushon Campos

Teamwork is one of the key factors in basketball. It takes intelligence, commitment, confidence, leadership, passion, communication, and integrity to be a basketball player. Becoming a part of the basketball team doesn't make you just a basketball player, it make you a brother and friend that everyone on the team can count on. The team becomes your family, the court becomes your home, and the basketball becomes your friend.

Sophomore Jeremiah Monroe (#4) charges towards the basket for two more CCHS points.

Playing defense, Sophomore Jermaine Parker (#11) hustles down the court as he keeps his eyes on the ball the entire time, watching for the opportunity to get the ball back.

Sophomore Alex Sherrill says his favorite quote is from NBA's Stephen Curry: "Be the best version of yourself in anything you do. You don't have to live anybody else's story."

Top: After having an amazing start and a strong fight throughout the game, the JV Cougars show how confident they are when a shot made with seconds to go makes it through the net.

Bottom: Sophomore Daquan Bryant (#10) gets the chance to shoot a free throw after getting fouled. Daquan takes a deep breath, looks at the goal, and sets up a scoring shot.

JV GIRLS BASKETBALL

Whether you're a basketball player or a basketball fan, you're in with the popular crowd. This sport combines physical skill, intelligence, and coordination. The game is flexible enough to enable each player to develop their own individual style.

However, coming together is the beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success. And that success all comes down to one basic idea:

Throw the ball through the hoop!

Front: Shardaja Adams (#11), Donae Bowens (#10), Dominique Moore (#3), Shaleshia Funn (#35), Miesha Adams (#5), Jahmeira Johnson (#4), and J'nae McClain (#2) Back: Martasia Stephens (#23), Jy'aire Stephens (#1), India Stokes (#21), Zora Jamison (#15), and Rebecca Cohen (#13).

As the girls get ready for their opponents in the Cougar Den, they take one last time to wish each other luck and promise to give the game all they've got. In order to succeed, they know to follow the game plan and put in as much work as possible.

Sophomore Donae Bowens (#10) uses all her strength to take a steal from the other team as they lose control over the ball.

1. "The season didn't go as we wanted, but we laughed, shared many memories, and hustled, win or lose. We never gave up until the clock said 00:00 and that's what matters," recalls sophomore Zora Jamison (#2).

2. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," is the verse that sophomore Donae Bowens (#10) lives by.

3. Before calling the starting line-up, the girls go over the game plan one last time.

4. "Seven days without shooting hoops . . . makes one weak," jokes junior India Stokes (#21).

GIRLS' TENNIS

(L to R) Matilyn Griffin, Mariah Risher, Taylor Virden, Anni Crook, Kendall Bell, Alicia Roberson, Abigail Lee (kneeling), Campbell "Cami" Crook, Daryn Hooker, Madison Strickland, Megan DeWitt

The ball is high in the air. Junior Madison Strickland takes a deep breath. Then, like a lightning bolt after a strong gust calms, her racquet cracks the ball clear over the net and deep into the opposite box. She exhales. These are the scenes the team describes when they explain their love for the sport. While team members report score performance was down from last year, senior player Alicia Roberson says the intensity was surging in comparison--and with good reason: the team of twelve has six seniors this year. "We definitely miss them," said Junior Kendall Bell. "We depend on them so much for guidance." Together these Lady Cougars have learned perseverance and integrity of the game far beyond the skills that make them successful as a team.

Twin Seniors Anni and Cami Crook say they've grown together through tennis. The two held the #1 and #2 spots respectively this season.

L to R: Senior Alicia Roberson reported being impressed with sophomore Lov'ea Gooden's commitment to the sport, despite being entirely new to it. Juniors Kendall Bell, Madison Strickland, and sophomore Matilyn Griffin are all eager to move up in the team ladder, a sentiment many in the team express.

"I'm a very consistent, shot-by-shot player," Daryn Hooker (12) says. Daryn, #4 this year, was a power player and got several critical wins.

Right: Doubles partners Abigail Lee (9) and Mariah Risher (12) walk onto the court. Mariah, after the match: "Doubles requires you to put your trust in somebody else's skills. I think it's a great chance to grow because of that." Right, second from right: Megan DeWitt (10) savors a team huddle. "I'm worried about the future of the team; we need to recruit more and push our players."

BOYS TENNIS

Rightstep onto our court your going to get amazed. This year the team stands by the motto: "I let the racket do the talking." This year OHS has 3 middle-schoolers, a Junior, and 4 Seniors on the tennis team. The seniors are the back bone of the team: they try to teach underclassmen how to trust, respect, and support one another and the sport itself. One thing they all had to learn was to have confidence in everything they do. "Motivation and determination are what makes a true champion," says Legrier Bodison-Cooper. With leadership from their coach, Jaymie Strickland, the 2017-2018 boys tennis is taking all hopes for access into the play offs.

Legrier Bodison-Cooper (1 2), William (Trey) Bowman (1 2), Makel Bowman (middle), Adam Buckner (middle), David Fanchette (1 2), Sean Fanchette (middle), Joe Sanders(1 2), and Thomas Warren (1 1)

Seniors David Fanchette and Legrier Bodison-Cooper have a bond like a four leaf clover, hard to find but lucky to have.

Left to Right: William (Trey) Bowman, the motivator of the team. Senior David Fanchette, the brains of the team. Senior Legrier Bodison Cooper, the face of the team. Senior Joe Sanders, the voice of the team. Junior Thomas Warren, the heart of the team.

Senior Joe Sanders says, "I easily fell back this year because of my loss of confidence. But hey, this is my last year. I gotta make it count."

"I don't know much about waiting, but I do know how to serve".
Legrier Bodison Cooper

L: Junior Thomas Warren takes a deep breathe and gets set to hit the tennis ball.

R: Senior David "Nick" Fanchette says, " I really enjoy the strategy in tennis, planning shots and such. This year we also had the most fun and team dynamic."

Senior William (Trey) Bowman says " Tennis is a stress reliever and a fun way to play and joke around with friends".

WRESTLING

Before the individuals tournament, the team ended practice, like always, with a huddle. "Our strengths," Packy said afterward, "are on our feet, switches, and escapes. That's a reflection of the coach; I've got to do my best to build that confidence."

After a slow start, CCHS's wrestling team showed a unique kind of growth this year. With key wrestlers from previous years retiring, the team's new roster faced an uphill battle. The experience, teammates report, was what led to such a strong sense of brotherhood on the team.

"It's not a great reference," Coach Patrick "Packy" Burke said when asked about his coaching philosophy, "but last year Stall High School showed up wearing sunglasses. The coach said 'We're trying to block out the haters.' Silly, I know, but that's exactly what I'm talking about when I say, 'Today they may not be #1; you may be #1!'"

Here's to our #1 CCHS Wrestlers!

Coach Jaquez demonstrates an escape with Mychael Aiken (12) to Fernando Leyva (10). Leyva lost nearly 100lbs in weight before the season, and had an excellent first-year record.

The team moves one of the massive wrestling mats back into their hall above the auxiliary gym. Maintenance of the mat, uniforms, and hall is shouldered by the whole team.

Terrance Calloway (10, left) practices blocking a cradle with Andrew "Blaine" Cook (9). Cook, known for his speed, has wrestled for 8 years.

One thing obvious in the practice hall is the friendly atmosphere. Despite the seemingly savage turns, tilts, and takedowns, the team always remains supportive. Both healthy criticism and spontaneous grappling are abundant.

Top: Blaine Cook clings to Hunter Preston (12). Hunter, suffering a rib injury, said it was like wrangling a monkey. Bottom: Even the coaches get in on the fun after practice.

SENIOR SLAM

Wyatt O'Quinn (11, above) pushes his opponent into the mat. O'Quinn, a veteran of the team, warns against cockiness: "Even in the last 3 seconds of the match, and you're 5 points down, you can pull through. But, well, they can too, if you're not careful."

Senior Hunter Preston spectates. "I've had such an improvement; I don't want it to end," he said.

Senior Nicholas Wilkey takes his opponent to the mat with speed and power. Nick regularly practices with partners well above his weight class.

Wyatt O'Quinn (11, above) pushes his opponent into the mat. O'Quinn, a veteran of the team, warns against cockiness: "Even in the last 3 seconds of the match, and you're 5 points down, you can pull through. But, well, they can too, if you're not careful."

Amarie Daniels (left) practices turnovers on Terreak Gadson (11). Daniels, an 8th grader, had only one loss this season.

Wyatt O'Quinn faces off. This moment, just before the whistle blows, is when "practice is really put to the test," teammates say. Coach Packy tells his wrestlers to "never give their partners a move, because rivals never will."

Terrance Calloway prevents his opponent's crossover lock. Control is pivotal to wrestling.

Tyrese Pressey (11), after a victory in Chapin: Pressey is considered the best sparring partner, thanks to his intensity and strength.

WOW!

VARSITY GIRLS SOCCER

POW

Coach Danny Wiggins talks to the girls pre-game and discusses what they need to do on the field. The girls are eager to start and bring home the win.

This years Varsity Girls Soccer team has been working hard. When they say team they mean it! It takes every girl to make an impact and win. To be a part of this unit, you have to be competitive and want shared success. There is no room for being weak and fragile, it's their kryptonite; aggressiveness is their super power. This is what takes our Lady Cougars to the playoffs!

Senior Karis Thomas (# 19) makes a tackle to gain possession of the ball to score a goal. Junior McKenna Mabry (# 10) and senior Macie Stone (24) wait for the pass

Junior Caroline Duffie (# 7) passes the ball back to senior Daryn Hooker (# 18). Combining passes spreads to get the ball to sophomore Heather Dowd (# 11), who readily awaits the chance to dribble the ball towards the goal.

Senior Daryn Hooker (# 18) says, "I enjoy spending time with my teammates on and off the field. Some of the girls are my best friends and playing on the field with them is the best!"

Junior Amber Warren (# 8) is defending the ball as May River players attempt to dribble the ball down the field to score a goal. In the meantime, senior Karis Thomas (# 19) anxiously waits to receive the ball if her assist is needed.

1. Senior Faith Allen (#6) says, "Soccer is unpredictable and exciting, which makes it challenging because you never know what's going to happen."

2. Junior Amaya Robinson (#12) states, "After scoring, it feels good because the crowd gives off positive energy and my teammates say encouraging things to me. This makes me feel special."

3. Freshman Anne Mathis Thomas (#14) says, "I love soccer because it gives me a chance to be myself with my teammates!"

"Some dream about scoring goals. . . We Make Them!" says junior McKenna Mabrey (#10).

#24 Senior Macie Stone goes by what Tim Notke says while playing soccer: "Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard!"

Junior Cameron Coursen (#21) strikes the ball up field away from the opposing team with the help of junior Amiyah Robinson (#12), Sophomore Heather Reed (#11), freshman Dorothy Dessoye (#16). Superheroes work together!

The team huddles together on the soccer field for a reflective moment to focus on doing well in the game! This is a tradition that has been kept up over the many years Colleton County has had the girls soccer team.

VARSITY SOCCER

The Varsity Boys Soccer team shows off their excitement on the journey they have had this season, while much more excitement is soon to come next season.

Rules: #1 If it moves, kick it.
#2 If it doesn't move, kick it until it moves.

To be straight forward, the Varsity Boys Soccer team always score. They're filled with enthusiasm and strength. The quote, "You can't choose your family just like you can't choose your team" is true for these young men. Just like family, they disagree on somethings, but they all love each other and wouldn't trade their experiences on the field for anything. Winners in life don't always win; they just don't give up. With that in mind, this season the boys soccer team has made it further than any other year.

Go Cougars!

Junior, Corey Bowman (#1) is the goalie for the team. He stays on the tips of his toes trying to fill up the goal space and never let their opponents make a goal. Corey explains, "I've been playing since I was 2, Soccer helps me clear my mind when I'm stressed."

Seniors Garret Tyler (#4) and Jared Hazard (#18), and Junior Caleb Grinberg (#5) watch in awe as their teammate, Junior Gregory Wilson (#16), stops the other team from scoring and recovers the soccer ball to his team's possession.

Left: Junior Lance Calcutt (#6) always pushes himself to put in more effort, even after scoring a goal for the Cougars.

Right: Junior Gregory Wilson (#16) shows his strength as he throws the ball into play far down the field. He says "in order to be great, you have to help your teammates."

1. Senior Thomas "Campbell" Pryor (#9) fixes his aim toward the goal before kicking the ball across the field with his super strength.
 2. Juniors Jimeque Brown (#5) and Shornden "Preston" McCloud (#13) team up to block the ball from their opponents in order to keep the ball moving toward the goal.
 3. Senior Jarrod Grooms (#12) watches his opponents from Hilton Head as he makes his next move, blasting the ball across the field.

Senior Garrett Tyler (#4) races down the field in order to get the soccer ball before a Hilton Head opponent tries to kick it to his teammate.

Sophomore Jaheem Black (#8) says, "The fans can make you famous, a contract can make you rich, the press can make you a superstar, but only the love can make you a player."

1. Junior Gerardo Valdez (#10) stands on the sidelines practicing his skills, waiting to score a goal.
 2. Senior Jared Hazard (#18) and junior Caleb Grinberg (#5) get into their positions on the field to score some goals.

JV GIRLS SOCCER

Assistant coach Danielle Van Hulst talks to team about strategies and gives a pep-talk before their game at May River High School.

Soccer is more than just a competitive sport, its freedom. It is an activity where players can relieve stress and forget all of their worries. This Junior Varsity Girls team teaches beginners the concepts of communication, hard work, and respect. They work hard and practice, practice, practice! These young Lady Cougars know that working as a team is what it takes to succeed, but they also really know how to have fun as they get things done.

7th grader Faith Bishop (#3) and 8th grader Charleston Beach (#39) are ready to receive the ball in spite of their opponents' attempt to block them.

Sophomore Zy'Aire Johnson (#33), the goalie, waits to block the ball from entering the goal. Meanwhile, Sarah Ward (#37) and Kasheyonna Davis (#36) wait for a mistaking rebound to kick the ball up field and away from the opponents' goal.

Junior India Stokes (#34) and Freshman Kaylee Reimel (#23) walk onto field to get into their positions because a new play is about to begin.

#28 Sierra Obenaus (8th grade) dribbles the ball up the field and passes to #2 Ryleigh Bishop (8th grade), who then dribbles further up the field to the goal!

JV Boys Soccer

It's black. It's white. It makes you fall down, but it teaches you to get up. This is just another reason why soccer is loved: soccer is life! Coaches Packy Burke and Jessica Ryan instill this in their players. To these CCHS Cougars, life is like soccer in that you need goals to shoot for; to be successful, these boys use everything in their power ... except for their hands.

Coach Ryan takes the opportunity for one-on-one instruction as she points out specific strategies to Jorge Caudillo.

The JV Boys Soccer team do everything as a thrill. They show excitement, responsibility, and strength. During any game, they put in as much work as possible. The boys wanted the team to have a soccer pun, but honestly, they already created many goals this year.

Seniors Robert Miller (#20) and Nathaniel Green (#10) and Junior Jorge Caudillo (#9) run down the field to get in position to stop their opponents from reaching the goal, all while keeping a good eye on the soccer ball that will soon be at their feet and in their control.

Sophomore Darius Johnson (#20) is the goalie for the JV boys soccer team. During the game against Hilton Head, he makes sure to keep his focus on the soccer ball.

1. Junior Hunter Pinckney (#33) does an instep drive after the soccer ball is kicked to him. He also likes to use the phrase "Passive Aggressive" to get by any failures in the game of soccer.

2. Junior Robert Adams (#27) exclaims, "I got nothing but love for the game!" as he races down the field to help his teammates against their opponents.

Junior Caleb Grinberg (#3) practices good hand-eye coordination before the game to assure him and his team defeat Beaufort. As he throws the ball into play, practice and hardwork are what he and his team rely upon.

★ VARSITY SOFTBALL

The Colleton County High School Varsity softball team huddles around their coach, Mr. Rusty Adams, to motivate each other before the big game.

The quote, "Being a part of a team is like being a part of a family" is true to our Lady Cougars. When you're a part of a team, you work together and help each other out, just as you would in your family. Winning is a good feeling, but working as a team to reach that goal is even more enjoyable. Not only do you feel good about yourself, but you feel good about your team. Knowing you have support on and off the field really can make an impact. Starting off the season with a good attitude could lead to a great year for the Colleton County Varsity Softball team.

Senior Hallie Robertson (#7) goes up to bat at the first scrimmage of the season against James Island. Her stance says she's ready!

First baseman Freshman Karson Hiott (#9) practices for the perfect throw before their big scrimmage.

Left: Freshman Sydney Howard (#4) aims and fires the ball toward home plate with the hopes of getting the competition out.

Right: The team celebrates their success in the first inning against Cane Bay.

1. Senior Victoria Brewington (# 12) says, "You don't have to be great to start, but you have to start to be great."
2. "Softball eases my mind of any problems or stress that may be going on outside the field," says senior Ashlyn Rawls (# 14).
3. Sophomore Ashley Savage (#8) says, "I wanted to try something new and all my friends were telling me how fun softball was, so I decided to give it a try."

Junior Dakari Gant (# 15) bunts her way safely to first base, where she remains untouched and protected from her competition.

Countless hours of practice help the Colleton County Varsity softball team succeed and makes them strive to do better whether they are on or off the field.

Senior Hallie Robertson (# 7) believes in the quote, "The harder you work, the harder it is to surrender."
-Vince Lombardi

Left: Hannah Robertson (# 11) steps in and swoops down to catch the ball before throwing it to third base.

Right: Freshman Whitley Weathers (# 16) grips the ball tightly and focuses her attention on the next batter.

Now! VARSITY BASEBALL

The Colleton County Varsity Cougars Baseball team show their cougar pride as they loudly cheer for their team members at their first game of the season.

Baseball is a good sport to help teens improve physical fitness and build lasting friendships. It also improves skills such as communication, team work, and problem solving. Baseball tends to help people feel confident and come out of their shells, as well as showing that success does not come from just one team member doing a good job, but from the team as a whole. The Colleton County High School Varsity Cougar Baseball team hopes to demonstrate all of these skills throughout the season.

Senior pitcher Tyler Bell (#16) practices his super sonic pitch for the next game against the Cobras.

WHOOSH

Senior pitcher Alan Grym (#3) throws a fierce curveball with a mission to strike out his opponent with the crowd in a roar as he succeeds.

Senior Ethan Bryan (#7) waits patiently for the right moment to dash towards second base and on towards home plate.

Left: Junior Chase Hadwin (#5), steps up to the base as he readies himself to strike the ball with his super strength.

KAPOW!

Right: Junior Jackson Morelli (#8) goes for the ball with his super speed, hoping to throw it in field before the competition makes it to safety at home plate.

1. The team huddles in a group with their coach to discuss their next big game plan.
2. Junior Henry Gibson (#10) kneels down to catch a high speed curve ball.
3. While watching his other teammates, Lane Lee (#12), waits for the right moment to sprint to the next base. Lane believes in the quote from Tommy Lasorda that says, "There are three types of baseball players: those who make it happen, those who watch it happen, and those who wonder what happens."

Sophomore Ronald "Trey" Nettles (#1) keeps his eye on the pitcher, waiting for the opportunity to race towards safety at third base. Speed makes stealing bases a cinch!

"My dad got me into playing because, when I was younger, I would always watch him play. Even though I have years of experience, I still have challenges that I come across."
- Senior Alan Grym (#3)

Sophomore Jackson Bell (#11) leaves a trail of dust behind him as he safely slides over home plate, causing the crowd to cheer loudly at his victory.

Left: Cody Cox (#6) steps up to the plate, hoping to knock yet another ball out of the park. Cody comes from a family of intense players and fans.

Right: Senior Austin Barwick (#17) celebrates crossing home plate to add another run to the score board.

JV SOFTBALL

JV softball teammates cheer on their teammate at bat as freshman Dominique Moore (#18) stands ready to be the next batter, carefully watching to see how the opposing team's pitcher will throw.

The Colleton County JV Softball team made it to third in regionals. Assistant coach Simeon Hammonds says, "I always regard every season as a process. It's going to start off slow, but the girls improve every day. You can see them improve, and as the season progresses. They're starting to grasp the concept of a team and the benefits of putting in hard work." These girls don't weigh heavily on one person when they play; they all work together. They pull each other up when one of them is down, they encourage each other, and they give each other constructive criticism when needed. Softball is more than just a game to these girls, it's a sisterhood.

Sophomore Kydaisia Holmes (#10) waits in the outfield for the opposing batter to hit the ball so she can catch it and strike them out.

Left: The Colleton County JV Softball girls huddle together on field to discuss their next moves and to keep each other motivated to win.
Right: Freshman Natalie Craven (#19) watches the ball with her hands ready to strike the opponents out.

Sophomore Dezgyrea Woodbury (#16) stands on base, closely watching the opposing team's batter.

Top: Freshman Ashlyn Hammonds (#12) readies herself to pitch the ball at the batter from the opposing team with hopes of striking them out.

Bottom: Freshman Shardaja Adams (#14) launches the ball to another teammate as the batter from the opposing team makes a run for second base.

JV BASEBALL

Despite a rough patch at the beginning of the season, the Colleton County JV Baseball team has pushed through. As each player grows more confident in their abilities both on and off the field, it really shows in their performance. The boys also work together and help each other during both practices and games. Head coach Jake Jacobs says, "It has been a season with a large learning curve. We have made many improvements on several aspects of the game." While there are a few players who stick out to coach Jacobs, he believes that everyone is trying their hardest and that's what he looks for most.

The JV baseball teammates and coaches watch the game intently, shouting supportive words when necessary, but always being careful to not distract those on the field.

The Colleton County Cougar JV Baseball team huddle together before their game to devise a plan on how to beat the opposing team, Beaufort. Joking around and hyping each other up before a game has become so common it's almost ritual.

Freshman Benjamin Kennedy (#13) catches the ball after the opposing batter swung and missed.

Top: Sophomore Mason Jolly (#14) throws a curve ball at the opposing batter as fellow teammate Jackson Bell gets into position to catch the ball.

Bottom: Sophomore Devar Frasier (#15) clears his mind and focuses all of his attention on the ball as it cuts through the air towards him.

Sophomore Jermaine Parker (#11) stands ready at bat with hopes of getting a homerun on the front of his mind.

TRACK

Left: The Colleton County boys 4x100 team placed second.
Middle: Sophomore Abigail Altman places second in the girls 1600 meter run.
Right: Senior Antonious Allen places third in the 100 meter dash.

The Colleton County High School track team has trained hard this year. With practices ranging from running 400 meters to ladders, they've toughed through this extensive workout to improve their endurance and speed. Each runner has continued to impress themselves and coach. Starting the season off strong, the girls placed eighth at the first Saturday meet while the boys placed seventh. Both coach George Smith and Courtney Singleton are immensely proud of the progress the teams have done throughout the season.

Freshman Kayla Dantzler passes the baton to sophomore Grayson Altman in the 4x800 meter relay.

Left: Sophomores Grayson (left) and Abigail (right) run the 1600 meter dash finals as they finish fourth and third respectively.
Right: Junior Kensley Dantzler goes to pass the Spring Valley runner in front of her in the 800 meter finals.

Top: Senior Jaden Koger places first at the Woodland Saturday meet as he fiercely races ahead of the other hurdlers, leaving competitors stunned.

Bottom: Senior Jermari Stephens and junior Devonte Lee congratulate each other after giving their all during the 400 meter dash.

Junior Elizabeth McLaughlin sprints ahead of her competition in the first Saturday race of the season.

Left: Freshman Jalen Levine sprints in the 400 meter dash finals, finishing in tenth place with a time of 55 seconds.

Middle: Freshman Blaine Cook pushes himself to stay in ahead of the competition in the 3200 meter run finals.

Right: Senior Jaden Koger runs the 4x100 relay finals, boosting the team's ranking up even more.

Sophomores Donae Bowens and Ashlyn Williams pass the baton in the 4x100 race. A genius technique for when the front runner is ready for the baton is to yell "Stick!", which tells the passer to trade the baton.

Sophomore Hans Gabriel runs the 1600 meter race, leaving a pack of sprinters behind as he breaks from the group with a burst of energy to get ahead.

"I joined track because it's fun and it's something I'm good at. The running helps with my endurance so I can better myself in any other sport."
-Junior Bailey Encalade

Left: Sophomore Donae Bowens sprints the 200 meter dash, making herself known at her first Saturday meet.

Right: Junior Justice Dupont concentrates on jumping her best in the 100 meter hurdles.

FIELD

Sophomore Ashley Reid passes over the bar at the West Ashley Wednesday meet. She placed second as she cleanly passed over 6'6". Though Wednesday meets are mainly for practice, it's a good way to see competition before a Saturday meet.

The field portion of track and field has also done an amazing job this season. Despite the small setback they faced with a lack of people for certain events, they quickly bounced back as they practiced daily, working on their strength and endurance. From jumping to throwing, each event requires hard work and training, both of which the participants fulfill. Every ounce of hard work that was put into practice was shown in the track meets this season, as we had many place in the top eight. Many new personal records (PRs) were set this season, leaving every coach that helped happy with their work.

Sophomore Jadaya Hugie, despite having an injured leg, readies herself over the bar before leaping off of one foot.

Senior Jaden Koger strategically thinks of where to place his feet in boys long jump. He placed second in long jump with a distance of twenty feet and seven inches. His long jump helped extend his jump and plant his feet firmly.

Junior Delshaun Wilkey gives his all as he launches the disc and throws 71'8" at the first Saturday meet of the season.

Top: Senior Shantasia Allen clears the bar in high jump, making a clean pass over the 4'4" mark, a good start to the season.

Bottom: Senior Hunter Ohmer, after making a perfect takeoff, angles himself over the bar to ensure that he doesn't knock it off.

some AWESOME!

1. Junior Breanna Varnadoe places third in girls pole vault after clearing eight feet, a new personal record for her.
2. Senior Jalen Lawton places first in shotput with a throw of 48'8" at the Adidas Lowcountry Invitational.
3. Senior Hunter Ohmer places first in boys pole vault as he clears 11'6" at the Cougar Classic.
4. Junior Shaniya Fields places third in long jump and second in triple jump at the Cougar Classic.

and more AWESOME!

Senior Nicholas Wilkey sprints down the runway, focusing all of his energy for when he jumps at the end, ready for when he finally bursts out and plants his feet into the sand.

KABOOM

Freshman Nikaya Bahrenburg-Miles begins her first years of throwing for Colleton County High School. She plans to continue for the rest of her high school career, getting better each year.

Left: Freshman Jalen Levine leaps into the air during the high jump event with a bar raised over five feet.
Right: Sophomore Tiffany North takes in a breath before launching the disc, setting a new PR.

Left: Junior James Daniels power throws the shot 34'3" at the first track meet of the season.

Right: Junior Victoria Myers sets her first personal record of the season for discus as she throws a 55'11".

KAPOW!

COUGAR TIMES

COLLETON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL'S FINEST NEWS SOURCE

SINCE 2011
$1.50 (WALTERBORO ONLY)

CALLING ALL SUPERHEROES!

THE LATEST REPORT FROM THE COUGAR CITY SAYS COLLETON COUNTY HIGH NEEDS YOUR HELP IN KEEPING WALTERBORO SAFE.

Francesca Clair Abelita

Diamonte Aiken

LaShawn Aiken

Mahogany Aiken

Look beyond the sky--there is no limit.

You can't fail if you don't try. Yeet

Mychael Aiken

India Akins

It is better to be absolutely ridiculous than absolutely boring.

Antonious Allen

Faith Allen

Imani Allen

Shantasia Allen

Shermonie Allen

Mind over matter: I don't mind and you don't matter.

Stand strong, believe in yourself, and chase your dreams.

MyAsia Ancrum

Jared Bailey

Lazy rule: If you can't reach it, you don't need it.

Haleigh Barnett

Jalasia Barnett

There will never be another "Jalasia the Goddess". 👑

I tried...

Houston Barr

William Bartram

I'm just gonna wing it.

A wish is not a goal: hope is not a plan of action: SUCCESS DOES NOT HAPPEN BY ACCIDENT!!!

Austin Barwick

Tristin Beach

John Bell

You can't win 'em all.

"Do you want to live or just survive it?" --Jerry Medlock

Scott Bell

Ethan Bennett

Shayla Bennett

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

Karington Blakeney

Shaquanda Blanding

Morgan Bodison

Legrier Bodison Cooper

*"Be the straw that stirs the drink."
--Scott Bowers*

Michael Bowers

Sharon Bowers

Shannon Bowman

"If a man does not have the sauce, then he is lost." --Gucci Mane

William Bowman

Jasmine Boyert

Regard the ones who were there for you, not the people that never cared.

Catch me cookin' in a studio

Aaron Breedlove

I had a dollar to spare, so ...

Devon Breland

Victoria Brewington

Marc Bright

Seyvon Broughton

Deasya Brown

Deyonte Brown

Jj'Quan Brown

Kyani Brown

Sinclair Brown

*I thank Google, Symbolab, and Quizlet. ... also my inspiration: "Never let success go to your head;
never let failure get to your heart." --Beyonce*

Skylar Brown

*"It always seems impossible until it's done."
--Nelson Mandela*

There may be people more talented than you, but there's no excuse for anyone to work harder than you :)

Ethan Bryan

DeAndre Bryant

Joseph Burn

Erica Caldwell

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

Queenin': the act of tastefully embracing your individuality; leading by example; living as a muse; an advocate of limitless possibilities.

Jessica Campbell

John Campbell

Cassidy Carter

"Still it's hard not to imagine how different our lives would be if given the chance to fix every failure, to rewrite the canon."
--Casey Crescenzo

James Cavanaugh

Ty Chaffin

Priscilla Chapman

Hannah Montana said nobody's perfect, but here I am.

Lauren Chewning

Shyanne Chisolm

Xavier Chisolm

Christian Chisolm Riley

Momma, I made it outta the hood! Lit!

Lindsey Cone

Teddi Cook

Four years of learning, for what? More learning, and a lifetime of work.

Julia Cottingham

Asher Cox

Benjamin Creel

Life is all about that chance, just make a smart move.

BISCUITS!!!

Anthony Crimely

Anni Crook

What feels like the end is often the beginning
--unknown

Nickname is to codeman as e-mail is to codeman6311@gmail.com

There are far, far better things ahead than any we leave behind.

Campbell Crook

Abigail Crosby

Michael Crosby

Montana Crosby

Cody Dalton

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

2018 SENIORS

*"With the new day comes new strength and new thoughts."
-Eleanor Roosevelt*

It is what it is.

Rachel Dandridge

Trekia Daniels

Ashley Dantzler

Edward Dantzler

Always make it worth it.

Miranda Dantzler Williams

Joseph Davenport

Deja Davis

Ka Ron Davis

*"First they laugh, then they copy."
-Dejer Wejer*

Michael DeLonge

Sierra Denny

Robert Dent

Samuel Drawdy

There's a difference between doing a lot and having a lot to do.

*They say that when you graduate, your chances of winning 1 million dollars are increased by 15%.
Just do the work and get it over with...*

Tyrese Edwards

Jacob Ellington

Luther Erwin

David Fanchette

Don't forget: we'll be selling senior quotes until the last week in November. - me, a lot

*Be fearless in the pursuit of what sets
your soul on fire.*

Victoria Farish

Tainanah Fenley

Daishia Ferguson

Deidrea Ferguson

Mackenzie Ferguson

I don't know what I'm doing, but I know I'm doing it really well.

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018

SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

India Fishburne

Jewel Fishburne

BeAsia Forero

Matthew Fowler

Carlyle Fraser

Shadell Frasier

JaKiya Frazier

Soleil Fryar Sims

Taylor Fussell

Tyler Gant

Heather Gardner

Jonathon Gardner

Shyheem Garland

Robert Garner

Caitlyn Gaydon

Maudejai George

Daquan Gethers

Shakayla Gill

Natalyn Gillison

Jahasia Glover

Lauren Goettee

James Goodwin

Tah Ajai Goodwine

Nykila Graham

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018

SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

Craig Grant

Khyla Grant

Ahteaona Green

Autumn Green

Just pronounce my name right and give me my diploma.

... looking in the mirror, thanking God for what I'm about to be..

Briana Green

Niaha Green

Tavion Green

Tyreece Green

Willie Greene

STREET

Annaliese Hawkins

Jarrod Grooms

Alan Grym

Stephen Hambleton

Ashlyn Harley

Kyja Harrison

Annaliese Hawkins

Christopher Haynes

Jared Hazard

Jose Hernandez

Jackson Hiers

Joshua Hiott

Katherine Hiott

Losers quit when they're tired; winners quit when they've won.

"If you're not first, you're last."
-Ricky Bobby

I spent 18 years going to school, just to go back to school.

Yes, I'm the girl who climbed into her backpack. No, I can't do it anymore.

Tristen Hiott

Austin Hodges

Imajea Holmes

Michele Holmes

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018

SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

Trinity Holt

Emily Hood

Daryn Hooker

Maxwell Horvath

Tylechia Hudson

Katrina Huggins Smith

Alexa Hunt

Tyleyah Hutchinson

Tiffany Infinger

Virlean Jant

Kourtney Jefferson

Latrell Jenkins

Mercedes Jenkins

Aaliyah Jones

Breanna Jones

Shaquanay Kelly

Delenn Kennedy

Devin Kinsey

Amber Kirkland

Jaden Koger

Elizabeth Lawton

Jalen Lawton

Kayla Lawton

Marina Lollar

Madison Lord

"Interesting..."

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

Ty'Asia Lynah

Taylor Lyons

Maria Manaeva

Jimmy Manigo

Roy' Neisha Manigo

Roy' Teisha Manigo

Syler Marchant

Asia Martin

Brendan McCorkle

James McDowell

Haley McKenzie

Hannah McKenzie

Kyona McTeer

Kayja Mincey

Denise Morales Paez

Bryan Moyer

Desiree Muckenfuss

Kayja Muckenfuss

Keeley Murdaugh

Sofi Murdaugh

Christopher Murray

Jamarri Myers

Autumn Nesbitt

Curtis Nesmith

Nicholas North

I'm about my paper!

Raven North

Andrew O'Quinn

Kimberly O'Quinn

Be kind and truthful, and life will be beautiful.

William O'Quinn

Hunter Ohmer

There is no success without failure.

Bailey Padgett

Cassedy Padgett

Joshua Padgett

TeJas Patel

If you don't build your dream, someone will hire you to build theirs.

*High school never ends
- Bowling for soup*

Faith Pearce

*"Every setback is a setup for a comeback."
-- Joel Osteen*

Olivia Phillips

Riley Phillips

*That's not my name!
--The Ting Tings*

"I wanna thank Google..."

Makenzie Pierce

Montavius Pinckney

Hunter Polk

Tahirah Powell

*I mean, I don't even know why you girls bother at this point.
Like, give up. It's me.
I win; you lose!*

Timothy Pressley

Morgan Price

Aize' Pryor

*Sometimes you get to what you thought was the end, and you find it's a whole new beginning.
--Anne Tyler*

Brianna Pryor

Thomas Pryor

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018
SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

Bailey Raez Johnson

Tara Ramey

Ashlyn Rawls

The tassel was worth the hassle.

Cheyenne Rice

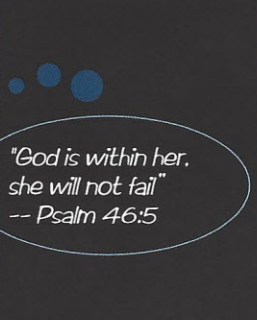

Mahogany Richards

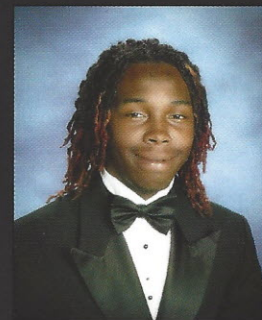

Melvina Richardson

Mariah Risher

*"God is within her, she will not fail"
-- Psalm 46:5*

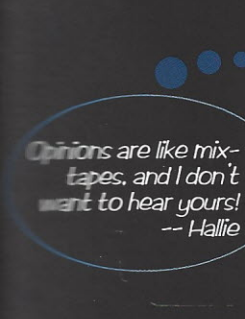

Jailyn Rivers

Peace out, CCHS!

Alicia Roberson

*Opinions are like mix-tapes, and I don't want to hear yours!
-- Hallie*

Hallie Robertson

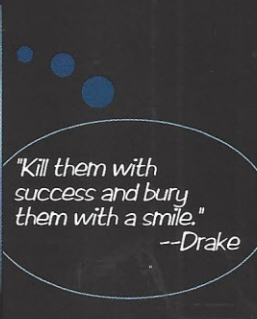

Makayla Robertson

Al Jaya Robinson

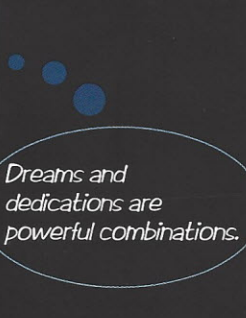

Navoni Robinson

*"Kill them with success and bury them with a smile."
-- Drake*

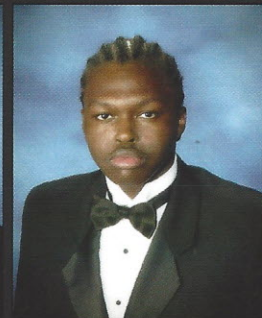

Nicole Robinson

Dreams and dedications are powerful combinations.

Ryan Russell

Antonio Rutledge

Heidi Salas

Dwayne Salley

Javaree Salley

Jerrell Salley

Jonaisha Salley

Tresuana Salley

We can't all be princesses; someone has to clap when I walk by.

I want to do things that Joe Sanders would like to do. What I'm afraid of is people taking away my advantages.

Joe Sanders

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

2018

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

SENIORS

Madeline Saunders

*Friends, Season 1,
Episode 4, Minute 14:05*

Destiny Scott

DaRiana Seabrook

Shelly Sechrist

Curtis Shaw

Jason Short

Allison Shuman

To be old and wise, you must first be young and stupid.

Cameron Simmons

Kierra Simmons

Caprina Smith

*I've learned from the bad times and was humbled by the good.
Thank you for all of the great life lessons, good luck to all my boys in the 9th grade!*

Gary Smith

Makayla Smith

Hailey Standing

Latavia Stanfield

*"Conquer your shyness; embrace your flyness."
-- Kanye West*

Kenzy Stanley

Alexis Stephens

Jermari Stephens

Macie Stone

Dylan Strickland

Caleb Stroble

Heaven Leigh Teal

Colin Thomas

Deja Thomas

Dakota Thompson

An act of kindness is never wasted.

Dylan Strickland

Caleb Stroble

Heaven Leigh Teal

Colin Thomas

Deja Thomas

Dakota Thompson

2018
SENIORS

2018
SENIORS

2018
SENIORS

2018
SENIORS

Michael Turgeon

*"If you don't play to win, don't play at all."
--Tom Brady*

*"No it's not that."
--Danny Duncan*

Garrett Tyler

Matthew Tyler

Franklin Valentine

Stay in school.

Kacie Vance

Taylor Varn

Alixa Villalobos

Mileidy Villalobos

Live life freely!

*It was fun, but thank God
I'm done!*

Taylor Virden

Delonte Wade

Devine Wadlington

Carlise Washington

Shandyce Washington

I'm 97% sure people don't like me, but I'm 100% sure I don't care.

James Waters

Asia White

Pettiness is key!

No ma'am, it's Mel.

Chyna White

Kayja White

Get a picture while it's free, but don't lie and say we dated in high school.

Jamell Wiggins

Nicholas Wilkey

James Williams

I've always been about the bread. That's why I stay ahead.

Colyn Wilson

*Of course,
I dress well, I didn't spend all that time in the closet for nothing.*

Sydney Wolfe

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018
SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

*This is Same'ra's World.
Everyone's a Samaritan.*

Samera Wright

Gene Wynn

Keep up with the hard work, and one day you'll be able to buy as many fries as you want.

Miriam Yale

Shaquille Yates

Malaysia Young

*"I can do what I want, you do what you can."
--Young Scooter*

Freddie Cougar

Admit it: I am your favorite superhero!

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018
SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

2018 2018 2018 2018 2018 2018

SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS SENIORS

Miesha Adams

Robert Adams

Rafeale Agnew

Ahmod Aiken

Mickayla Aiken

Nikell Aiken

Jacob Atkinson

Richard Ayala

James Bailey

Austin Ballew

Onyx Barksdale

Alexis Basler

Brad Beard

Kendal Bell

Antaijah Bellamy

David Bennett

Michaela Bennett

Yoselin Bolanos

Corey Bowman

Abigail Branch

Darius Bright

Danasia Brown

Dyneira Brown

Indiah Brown

Jarrod Brown

Jimeque Brown

Kyja Brown

Leah Brown

Morgan Brown

Terrence Brown

Willis Brown

Kimberly Brunson

Wesley Bryan

Deangelo Bryant

Travis Buckner

James Bunton

Lance Calcutt

Hannah Caldwell

Marylin Carmona-Martinez

Lyndi Carter

Jorge Caudillo

Rylee Chandler

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

Jemari Chaney

James Chisolm

Jazmyh Chisolm

Blione Clark

Thomas Cloud

Jemaesha Coleman

Daniel Colleton

Jade Collins

William Collins

Christopher Cook

Pamela Cook

Travis Cook

Elayjah Copeland

Cameron Coursen

Cody Cox

Jimmy Cox

Shelby Crabb

Alana Crawford

Shaleen Creel

Campbell Crosby

Dondi Crosby

Emilla Crosby

Ischa Crosby

Joel Crosby

James Daniels

Tierra Daniels

Kensley Dantzler

Summer Darley

Kashayonna David

Caroline Davis

Christopher Davis

Savion Davis

Skyar Davis

Harleigh Deloach

Bryan Demers

Matthew Demers

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

Kate Downey

Laquisha Drayton

Tyrone Drayton

Caroline Duffie

Justice Dupont

Alexandria Eaddy

Kari Edwards

Kortney Edwards

Tatyanna Edwards

Veronica Edwards

Bailey Encalade

Katelyn Evans

Devon Farmer

Addisyn Fee

Damontre Ferguson

Camryn Fields

Shaniya Fields-Manigo

Jacob Fox

Janiah Francis

John Frank

Thomas Frank

Cody Frasier

John Frierson

Aaron Fryar

Terreak Gadson

Dakari Gant

Tylan Gant

Hailey Gardner

Madison Garren

Terrance Garrett

Tiara Garrett

Charisma Gatewood

Anthony Generette

James Gibson

Kyle Gluck

Lewis Goff

Fiorella Gonzalez

Lovea Goodwin

Renee Green

Dmari Gregory

Henry Thomas Grice

Tshawnaiah Griffin

Caleb Grinberg

Candice Grooms

Adam Groves

Dakota Groves

Jason Hadwin

Lorenzo Hall

Madison Hamilton

Alexis Hand

Christopher Harrison

Jacob Havers

Jacqueline Herring

Deondre Heyward

William Hickman

David Hiers

Hunter Hiers

Bryce Hiott

Joshua Hiott

Jucoya Hogan

Stephanie Hooker

Delaney Howard

Lanequa Huggins

Jashae Inabinett

Marci Inabinett

Ta Kalaya Isaac-Mixon

Timberly Timaja
Jackson

Alexa James

Brionna James

Bryanna Jenkins

Jeremy Jenkins

Jordan Jenkins

Shada Jenkins

Beyounce Johnson

Joshua Jones

Kayon Kelly

Lindsey Kinsey

William Kittrell

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

Jason Knox

Jmyra Koger-Aiken

Kelly Ladson

Olivia Langdale

Christian Lee

Devonte Lee

Lane Lee

Morgan Lee

Bailey Lesesne

Joshua Leyja

Jennifer Leyva

Larry Lightsey

Gerroll Lingard

Anthony Lisbon

Jada Lollar

Jackson Long

Laura Lucas

Jason Lyons

McKenna Mabry

Patrick Mack

Cameron Mangum

Christina Manigo

Damontrez Manigo

Shatterria Mays

Carson McCauley

Shornden McCloud

Elizabeth McLaughlin

Krista McLane

Collin McMillan

Briann McTeer

Brianna McTeer

Jajuan Meminger

Adelita Mendez

Alaina Mitchell

Kiara Mitchell

Austin Moore

Dalton Moore

Deljante Moore

James Moore

Kevin Morales

Jackson Morelli

Beyonce Morris

Janie Morris

Jhakiha Mosley

JyAsia Mosley

Destiny Moultrie

Bradley Mullis

Victoria Myers

Tiwanna Nelson

Megan Newton

Erin Nichols

Jabori Nix

Dalton O'quinn

Jakariah Oree

Caleb Owens

Kerria Patrick

Cody Peritte

Zaron Pinkney

Anthony Pok

TiAsia Powell

Antanasia Prioleau

Warren Randolph

Karrington Reed

Savannah Reid

Catherine Richardson

Melvina Richardson

Cheyenne Rivers

ShaDiamond Rivers

Willow Roberts

Whitney Robertson

Amiyah Robinson

Breonna Robinson

Elijah Robinson

Joseph Robinson

Keith Robinson

Kerri Robinson

Roneisha Robinson

Haley Roscoe

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

Haley Roscoe

Rachael Rourke

Caitlyn Russell

Dameon Aaron Sanders

Paulina San Juan

Matthew Scites

Tyler Scott

Decota Shider

Zashaun Shider

Elisha Simpson

Teddra Singleton

Kenneth Smalls

Jaden Smith

Hunter Spires

Lacey Stanley

Diamond Stephens

MarTasia Stephens

Niasia Stephens

Schamari Stephens

Desirae Steward

Felicity Steward

India Stokes

Kiasia Sutter

Shayvaughn Sweat

Chandler Taylor

Shanera Teasdel

Joshua Thurman

Edward Uzry

Gerardo Valdes

Michelle Valdobinas

Breanna Varnadoe

Raydashia Varner

Juliana Velazquez

Zykria Walters

Amber Warren

Thomas Warren

Alan Washington

Destiny Washington

Elijah Washington

Rashawn Washington

Shyann Webster

Delshaun Wiley

Rachel Williams

Gregory Wilson

Michelle Worden

Makayla Worley

Briana Worthley

Timothy Wright

Kendra Yates

Roberto Zepahua

Meanwhile... the CCHS Juniors are Heroes

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

JUNIORS

Alessandreae Jan
Abeita

Cassidy Ackerman

Jordan Adkins

Troy Allen

Abigail Altman

Grayson Altman

Nicholas Armentrout

Amber Avant

Hanna Avant

Miranda Avery

Mya Bahrenburg-Miles

Logan Bailey

Brianna Balatbat

Ashlyn Ballew

Damien Barnett

Ethan Barnett

Madison Barr

Lance Barrineau

Tanner Bartell

Clayton Bartram

Ashley Beach

McKenna Beach

Kayce Bell

James Benton

Ryanna Benton

Bennie Bernachei

Jaheem Black

Erica Blakey

Dante Bodison

NyAishia Bostic

Donae Bowens

Catherine Brewington

JoAnna Bridge

VaShaun Brigmon

Benjamin Brown

Cornelia Brown

Jadakiss Brown

Jatashjah Brown

Jaylin Brown

Kaitlynn Brown

Kanya Brown

Krishawn Brown

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Madison Brown

Nicholas Brown

Teriia Brown

Sydney Brunson

Christopher Bryant

Daquan Bryant

Karon Buckner

Travon Buckner

Ariya Bunton

Thomas Bunton

Jessica Burbage

Hannah Burns

Arkez Calloway

Terrance Calloway

Loushon Campos

Alex Campos-Vega

Marvin Cannon

Rogers Capers

Christopher Carmona

David Carter

Michael Carter

Makaylah Cates

Fred Chambers

Anthony Chapman

Coriyanah Chisolm

Anquavious Cochran

Rebecca Cohen

Mason Cole

Cassidy Colson

Kiana Conaway

Kaitlyn Conover

Polly Covington

Dylan Craven

Mackenzie Craven

Hope Creel

Bailey Crosby

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Benjamin Crosby

Caitlin Crosby

Charity Crosby

Jordan Crosby

McKenzie Crosby

Morgan Cummings

Morgan Dandridge

Dylan Dangerfield

Jeremiah Daniels

Shania Dantzler

Gabriel Davis

Jasmine Davis

Jaylynn Davis

Destiny Deas

Lillian Delk

Megan Dewitt

Tyreese Donaldson

Heather Dowd

Jernia Drayton

Remme Driggers

Deandrea Elliott

Taylor Ellis

Zahara Ellison

Douglas Evans

Devonia Farmer

Alexa Farnsworth

Tyquan Ferguson

Ontario Fishburne

Luis Flores

Luis Flores-Rogers

Aaliyah Francis

Allen Frasier

Devar Frasier

Jade Frazier

Zyaire Frazier

Shianne Fripp

Shaleshia Funn

Rebecca Furr

Hope Furst

Hans Yuri Gabriel

Kailla Gadsen

Stephan Gadsen

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Wesley Jacques

Javon James

Adriene Jenkins

Jade Jenkins

Tamia Jenkins

James Jennings

Jenna Johns

Bree Johnson

Zyaire Johnson

Mason Jolly

Sha-Quenta Kelly

Bryan Ketchum

Shidez Kinard

Jahiem King

Tina Kirkhart

Omari Kirkland

Zypher Kisner

Liana Kornahrens

Wesley Kubik

Devon Lairmore

Malik Lawson

Shania Lee

Logan Lemacks

Jose Leyja

Fernando Leyva

Jasmine Leyva

Tyler Linz

Kristopher Lisbon-Gosha

Edwin Lucas

Joshua Mack

Carla Marin

Destiny Marshall

Diamond Marshall

Grayson Marshall

Christian Matthews

McKinnzie Mayes

Faith Mays

Toby McClendon

Jnay McClain

Jon McClendon

Ashlan McDonald

Virginia McEwen

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Nydrea McGee

Cody Metzmeier

Dazmaleek Milbry

Alexis Mincey

Jania Mitchell

Tamysija Mitchell

Jeremiah Monroe

Dominique Moore

Jeremiah Mosley

Darin Mowry

Trakell Murray

Malik Myers

Tiffany North

Kaylee Pak

Jermaine Parker

Michael Pollack

Casey Powell

Carolina Ramsey

Kristen Ray

Christopher Reyes

Haven Rhodes

Bryanna Rhoney

Zanae Richardson

Kristopher Richmond

Joshua Rickman

Leiara Rivera

Jeremy Robertson

Christopher Robinson

Julius Robinson

Terrence Robinson

Jabari Rodgers

Tierra Samuels

Taniya Sanders

Maci Sausville

Ashley Savage

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Jordan Scites

Aliyah Scott

Leonard Scott

Jadah Searson

Madelin Shaffer

Alex Sherrill

Madison Sightler

Amerr Simmons

Hannah Simpson

Briana Smalls

Jalliyah Smalls

Macaju Smalls

Bobby Smith

Hannah Smith

Arthur Smoak

Isabel Smutz

Savannah Spahn

Lanandria Stanfield

William Stanfield

Edwardian Stansel

Olivia Stephens

Tamiyah Stephens

Treshawn Stephens

Jacarre Stevens

Emdria Swinton

Janet Taylor

Krista Taylor

Elizabeth Tharp

Benjamin Thigpen

Jelisa Thompson

John Thompson

Ethan Thurston

D'Angelo Vandemark

Alicia Vasquez

Selvin Villalobos

Elise Walker

Sarah Ward

Paul Warren

Corey Washington

Joshua Washington

Styaisia Washington

Shakenya White

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Sydney Widrick

Shadifamon Wiggins

Ashlyn Williams

JaMaine Williams

Jamal Williams

Jaylin Williams

Nyheim Williams

Shelisa Williams

Kadeigh Wilson

Keyshaun Wilson

Victoria Wilson

Dezyrea Woodbury

Destiny Wright

Essence Wright

Evan Wright

Jha Heem Wright

Kara Wynn

Taylor Young

Meanwhile... the Sophomores step up as Heroes!

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORES

Samantha Adkins

Miguel Agnew

Mariah Aguilera

Tylek Alexander

JaTodd Allen

Shaniya Allen

Neyda Antonio-Bernache

Michelle Bachewicz

Nikaya
Bahrenburg-Miles

Brian-Eastin
Ballew

Lindsey Barnes

Austin Barnett

Daylen Battle

Abigail Beach

Brett Beach

Jacob Beach

Austin Beasley

Olivia Beckett

Jackson Bell

Terri Bell

Jaheim Bellamy

Howard Bennett

Hannah Biering

Tristin Boatwright

India Bostic

Terrance Bostic

Nathaniel Bowman

Saigron Bowman

Calin Breedlove

Noah Brockman

Isaiah Brooks

Natalie Brooks

Jamary Brothers

Jilaysha Brown

Jordan Brown

Kenard Brown

Mariiya Brown

Mikayla Brown

Roman Brown

Samone Brown

Timothy Brown

Abby Bryan

Collin Bryan

Gage Bunton

Alise Burris

Jakye Butler

Jastmine Calloway

Cadence Campbell

Victoria Campbell

Zamir Carey

Tyler Carlton

Sincere Carroll

Christopher
Carson

Thomas Carter

Emiliano Caudillo

Xavier Caudillo

Brandon Chapman

Jennings Chapman

Dillan Chase

Janniya Coleman

Jasmine Coleman

Kristian Coleman

Andrew Cook

Daniel Cortez

Caleb Cox

Grace Cox

John Cox

Laurel Crabtree

Garrett Craven

Natalie Craven

Rylan Craven

Hannah Creel

Lynctia Crenshaw

Brittani Crockett

William Cullen

Anyia Daniels

Kayla Dantzler

Bruce Davis

Jalynn Davis

Donovan Deloach

Ashlyn Demers

Dorothy Dessoye

Joshua Doby

Tianna Dotson

Victoria Douglas

Anola Dowling

Deante Drain

Julia Durr

Colt Edens

Dylan Erickson

Noah Feather

Antonio Ferguson

Ashanti Ferguson

Cassidy Ferguson

Kobe Ferguson

Tatiana Ferguson

Chayla Fields

Jadja Fishburne

Selena Flores

Junior Flores-Moradel

Latron Floyd

Jon Tasia Ford

Mauricio Forero

Tyrell France

Kaitlynn Frier

Justin Fronck

Keyondra Fryar

Majave Fryar

Joseph Fussell

Tia Gadson

Emir Gathers

Takji Givens

Hannah Glover

Rakeiria Glover

Andrew Godley

Ashley Goettee

Isaac Graham

Robert Graham

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

Daryl Green

Lamontre Green

Nathaniel Green

Caleb Greene

Antawn Griffin

SeQuan Griffin

Tah Griffith

Maria Guardado

Morgan Hadwin

Logan Hall

Amari Hamilton

Jazmyne Hamilton

Ashlynn Hammonds

Makenzy Hand

Malik Hankerson

Misty Hanley

Rebekah Hanna

Dakota Henn

Jacob Herndon

Justin Herndon

Danielle Hickman

Harold Hicks

Cora Hill

Karson Hiott

Christianna
Hojnowski

Aliesha Holmes

John Holmes

nayrone holmes

Silas Holmes

Maya Horton

Sydney Howard

Tyler Hudson

Christall Hughes

Trendel Hundley

Tyler Jackson

Autumn Johnson

Jaquante
Johnson

Johnathan
Johnson

Phillip Johnson

Cameron Jones

Dillan Jones

Frank Kellam

Terrance Kelly

Benjamin Kennedy

Shamar Kinard

Zaterkia King

Deovion Kinsey

Cedrick Kinsey-Wilkins

Malajah Kirkland

Mondeez Kirkland

Saniyah Knight

Aundiya Koger

Abigail Lee

Lacy Lee

Filawa Legree

Jalen Levine

John Linder

Taanjia Linder

Jeremiah Little

Ashlee Lockerman

Bethany Long

Luciano Lopez

Lucas Lutz

Kayla Lynch

Caleb Mabry

Omega Mack

Shadarea Mack

Eduardo Marin
Mercado

Gabriel Marin-Carrera

Blake Marvin

Dominick Mays

Orlandis Mays

Ashuntai McBride

Katelyn McCall

Brianna McCrary

Carson McDonald

Raven McGrew

Ian McLaughlin

Mekayla McQuillan

Alaysia McTeer

Mikka Mendenall

Alajia Middleton

Zachary Miles

Robert Miller

Bianca Mina-Moreno

Jacob Miron

Brittany Mitchell

Sharde Mixon

Jahiem Moore

Solomon Moore

Brian Moreno-Burgoa

Christina Morral

George Morris

Jalaysia Mosley

Andrew Muckenfuss

Ahnya Murray

Jerry Myers

Johnathon Nelson

Emmafie Nesmith

Walter Nettles

Jalen Payne

Indyahna Pierce

Dennis Pierre

Naajah Pinckney

Sara Polly

Raymond Powell

Elizabeth Price

Kaylee Reimel

Dashaun Rhodes

Jacob Richard

George Ritchie

Aaliyah Rivers

Patrick Rivers

Hannah Robertson

Bryan Robinson

Victoria Ross

Hanna Russ

Amanda Sahlmann

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

Shaihem Salley

Hayden Sauls

Cairah Searson

Camden Segura

Ian Shark

Keshona Sharpe

Alston Sherrill

Amari Shuler

Winter Siders

Alphonso Simmons

Jorryn Simmons

Aneesa Sinclair

Caleb Smith

La-ola Smoak

Trystan Smoak

Jahshon Spencer

Joshua Spiva

Landon Stanley

Denzel Stephens

Emajya Stephens

Faith Stephens

Gyease Stephens

Donald Steward

Vernon Steward

Ashton Stone

Zackery Sutton

Adashia Taylor

Alexis Thomas

Anne Thomas

Ayreana Thomas

Jaquan Thomas

James Thomason

Jacob Thurman

Kamarion
Thurmond

Gabreal Trower

Zachery Trower

Destiny Ulmer

Priscilla Valdobinos

Brayden Vargas

Christopher
Varnadoe

Thomas Varnadoe

Khaziah Varner

Sarah Velazquez

Aaron Virden

Hayes Walling

Dynaisha Washington

Jayshawn
Washington

Xavier
Washington

Whitley Weathers

Khaadir Wesley

Bradley Westbury

Tyasia White

Aigonna Williams

Austin Williams

Carlesa Williams

Jahmaal Williams

Micah Williams

Shakhown
Williams

Paul Antonio
Winbush

Zoe Worden

Jayda Wright

Janiy Youmans

Morgan Zirk

Meanwhile . . . the Freshmen rise to be Heroes!

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN

Isaac Agina

Robert Agüero

Marcella Aiken

Amanda Ballard

David Blankenship

Rachalla Bionse

Brandi Roseman

Scott Bowers

Kimberly Brantley

Madeline Brawley

Anna Bright

Vernessa Brooks

Madison Brown

Brianne Buckner

Kevin Burton

Cashauna C-Bowers

Emily Cano

Naomi Comia

Mallory Crawford

Ben Crutcher

Lydia Culler

Sally Davis

Tabatha Dewitt

Stephanie Drawdy

Thomas Fagan

Louis Gluck

William Hayden

Caroline Hooker

Christopher Hutchens

Leslie Jenkins

Shon Johnson

Chernilyn Keaise

White-Footman
Kimberly

Pamela Kinary

Gwen Koger

Olivia Lee

Chris Lewis

Karen Lockerman

Charles Locklair

Gurmadi-Ravi
Madhavi-Srivally

Stephen McMillan

Arthur McNeil

Chase McRae

Richard Mellott

Muntagima Miller

Sta Nakia

Lisa Nettles

Tripp Padgett

Ryan Pearson

Coby Peeler

Alyssa Pickett

Cynthia Richardson

Ann Robinson

Jared Rosendo

Michael Schaffer

Kathy Shider

Courtney Singleton

Valerie Singleton

Perry Smalls

George Smith

Nichole Stephens

Lynn Stroble

Kathie Stroman

Patrick Thomas

Gregar Valdehueva

Ricky Valentine

Kelly Villwock

SUPER

STAFF

SUPER

STAFF

Judith Vincent

Kathleen Vo

Ylonda Wade

Ronald Wertz

Bertty Williams

Susie Williams

Whitney Williams

Nelson Yates

Celeste Gantt

Andy Kubik

Aretha Bennett

Rajasekhar Reddy

"Richard Ford"

Mary Evans

Hollie Bailey

Jennifer Shipp

Bria Burke-Koskela

Mary Katharine Thorne

Victor Sina

Leon Hammond

Lauren Townsend

Michael Litzinger

Tom Finigan

Emily Towey

Dee Kihard

Morgan Bailey

Robin Barnes

Jennifer McElveen

Jeannie Langston

Atla Khaisar

Yvonne Duncan

SUPER

STAFF

SUPER

STAFF

GOLF

Junior Jim Bailey, the Tiger Woods of the team, lines up for a shot of the game. Understanding the terrain, angles, force, and resistance are all part of the game of golf.

Golf has been around since 1497. The sport as we know it originated from a game played on the eastern coast of Scotland. Now in 2018, Colleton County High School has celebrated the best golf season since 2015. Stances, swings, grips, drives, and putts have been under close scrutiny for improvement through practice and concentration. Our Cougars made a tremendous comeback, working hard for new coach, Mr. Chris Lewis.

CCHS Golfers (L to R) Jim Bailey (11), Ben Crosby (10), Dalton Moore (11), Anthony Chapman (10), Anthony Vance (9) wait for their opponents to show so they can dominate them on the field.

Drives get them to the green, then players tap into their calm: 1. Jacob Miron practices putting before competition begins. 2. Anthony Vance uses skill and patience to knock the ball in hole to make par. 3. Ben Crosby putts himself to victory against Berkeley.

1. Ben Crosby says, "Knock the ball in the hole, Tiger." 2. Jim Bailey started playing golf for Colleton County this school year: "I have always wanted to play golf competitively in high school, so I'm living out my dream." 3. Anthony Chapman explains his focus for improvement: "I started when I was eight, and my biggest challenges on the field are overthinking and concentrating too much." 4. Jacob Miron explains his motivation: "I started playing for the high school because my dad was a pro in Massachusetts, so I want to follow in his footsteps."

Lacey Stanley

Alexis Stephens

Ahteona Green

Jared Bailey

Haleigh Barnett

Daishia Ferguson

McKenna Beach

Nick Fanchette

Kyia Brown

Addisyn Fee

Camerlyn Coursen

Johnathon Gardner

Ashlyn Rawls

THANK YOU
CCHS
YEARBOOK STAFF

RIZER
CHEVROLET • BUICK • GMC

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 2018 and to all at CCHS for another successful year.

You are all Superheroes!

SHONEY'S

Tom Lewis
Owner/Operator

1177 Sniders Highway
Walterboro, SC 29488
Exit 53 I-95

Phone: (843) 538-2040

Fax: (843) 538-4018

Cell: (843) 599-9493

Email: tlshoneys@aol.com

Quality Material Solutions, LLC.

Jim Hiers

Manager of Opportunities

(843) 599-0263

Qms@lowcountry.com

440 Ivanhoe Road

Walterboro, SC 29488

Global Recovery, LLC.
Recycle, Reuse, Reclaim.

J. Eddie Beach

jeb@grllconline.com
www.grllconline.com

139 Pioneer Gym Rd.
Harleyville, SC 29448

843-462-2760
843-462-2763

Consignment Envy

843-782-5000

Vintage, Antiques & Home Decor
Shoes, Bags & Accessories
HOME OF THE FOREVER SALE

813 Bells Highway
Walterboro, SC 29488
20-40% OFF EVERYDAY

Proud to Support the Cougars.

*Supporting our local communities and neighbors is the South State Way.

Walterboro / 520 N Jefferies Blvd & 600 Robertson Blvd
SouthStateBank.com / Member FDIC

SOUTH STATE BANK

KEEL MURDAUGH

COUGARS

Victoria Alexis Farish

My angel baby, wow, I can't believe you are graduating! We are so very proud of you and know the future is going to be everything you want it to be. With your strength and determination, you can reach any goal you set. Reach for the stars, go as far as you want, but always remember where you came from. Always put God first, and see His guidance in everything you do.

"I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean. Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens. Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance, and when you get the choice to sit it out or dance . . . I HOPE YOU DANCE!"

We love you always and forever,
Mom, Dad and Cameron

Lucas, Colin & Campbell

From preschool to high school, baseball to soccer, service through church and adventures at the farm, you've been thick as thieves. Your many trials and adventures have made you into the wonderful young men you are today.

We are so proud of all you have done and can't wait to see the path you carve for yourselves. No matter what you do, always be kind, help everyone you can, remember your roots, your manners, your faith, and your way home.

With all our love,
Your Parents

Hunter Ohmer

Son, We closed our eyes for but a moment and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. We may not carry you in our arms but we will always carry you in our hearts. You have given us so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for us is telling others that you are our son. - author unknown

Be strong enough to stand alone, smart enough to know when you need help, and brave enough to ask for it. -Mark Amend

Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory. -Dr. Seuss

Take pride in how far you have come and have faith in how far you will go. -author unknown

Raising you to become the man that we hoped you'd be has not always been easy but you have made us proud in so many ways! We love you to the moon and back!

With all our love,
Dad, "Momma", Briana, Tyler, & Whitleigh

Senior Superlatives

Most Likely to be a Superhero

Joe Sanders & Navoni Robinson

Soothing the savage as Most Musically Talented Autumn Nesbitt & Ethan Bennett

Mister and Miss CCHS to the rescue!
Garrett Tyler & Macie Stone

Defeating all contenders with the ability to Talk Your Ear Off
Brianna Pryor & Jared Bailey (with Deja Davis)

Superpower: Most School Spirit
Macie Stone & James "JV" Goodwin

Love Wins with the Cutest Couple Shelley Sechrist & Johnathon Gardner

Super Athletes to the Rescue!
Tristan Nieves & Faith Allen

Tech Savviest of the CCHS Superheroes
Rachel Dandridge →
&
David "Nick" Fanchette

Kayla White & Legrier Bodison-Cooper

Always the Life of the Party!
Skyler Marchant & Houston Barr

Slayin' "enemies" with the Best Comebacks
Brianna Pryor & Edward "Jay" Dantzler

Class Clowns breaking down barriers!
Ahteona Green & Jerry Green

Knockin' Out with Fashion
Raven North & Jameson Butler

Superpower: Most Likely to Sleep through an Earthquake
Allison Shuman & John Campbell

Superhero Sidekicks
Faith Allen & Ashlyn Harley

A Trio of Sidekicks in white
Cameron Simmons, Dewayne Ferguson, & Xavier Chisolm

Melting cold hearts with Amazing Smiles
Legrier Bodison-Cooper & Chyna White

Fighting the dull by being Most Artistic Jasmine Boyert & Garrett Tyler

Not mutant, but definitely Most Changed Since Freshmen Year
James McDowell & Jua'Quanna Chisolm

The Most Ambitious fight with knowledge and brain power!
Shaquannay Kelly & Keel Murdaugh

Another volume of our lives has come to a close:
the 2017-2018 school year!

Have you acted like a hero this year?

Have you contributed to the positivity within your environment?

If you haven't, will you make an attempt to better yourself and be a hero next year?

Be a true Cougar: tackle obstacles, help others, and be a better person, not only for yourself, but for the community. Take life as it comes, but don't let the future be your kryptonite. Now is your time!

