

Boys Tennis

SERVE IT, SMASH IT, WIN IT, LOVE IT

PUSHING EXPECTATIONS

Freshman Makel Bowman was first inspired to play tennis after he saw how much fun his brother had while playing it. "This years season turned out a lot better than I thought it would, especially since the majority of our team is rookies. My main goal for next year is to get more people on the team and get more people to love tennis. I think next season will be really good."

TROUBLE IN DOUBLES

Freshman Adam Buckner and senior Thomas Warren joke around and talk strategy before playing doubles.

NO TIME FOR WAITING

Junior Anthony Chapman takes a deep breath and braces himself to hit the tennis ball.

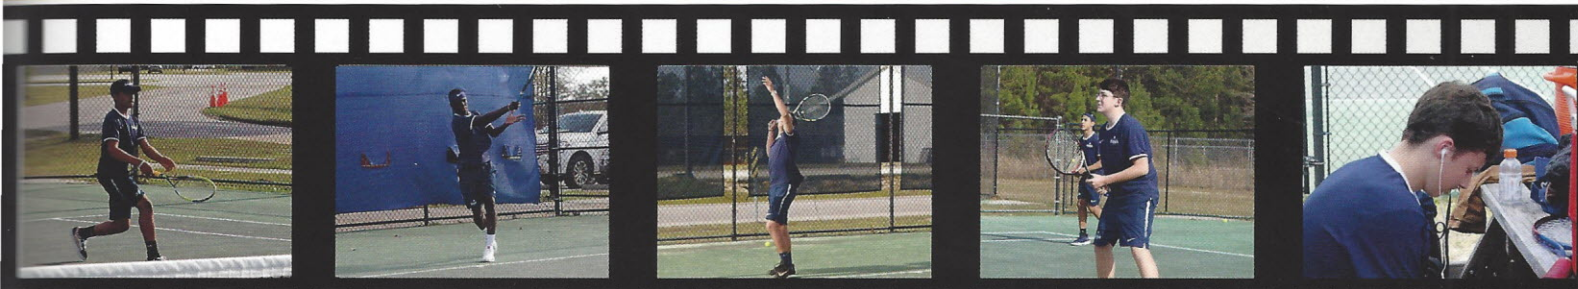

ACE THE MATCH!

R: Senior Thomas Warren serves the ball to mark the beginning of a new match between CCHS and the opposing team, Bluffton.

The Calleton County High School boys tennis team has had a really good season so far. Despite losing so many seniors last year, each player has upped their game to show just how much passion they have for this sport. With the only senior leaving at the end of this school year the rest of the team must work hard to continue picking up where he can not. This season, the tennis team has a majority of new players, so each one of them must learn both how to play tennis and how to keep them on the right track. The team made it to playoffs despite the amount of new athletes on the team, which is truly inspiring to say the least. Regardless of how next year goes, our CCHS tennis boys will always try their hardest.
