

Stem Family Night

Best Practices for 21st Century Learners

CCMS began a new Best Practices project each quarter as a collaboration between all subject areas. Students prepared and designed activities to promote career and college readiness. Their hard work was on display during Family STEM night.

