

CLASS PROPHECY

Curious after a period of 10 years, we sent a reporter to gather news about the Seniors of 1955.

We learned that Judson Parker is living in Spartanburg, S. C. and is now owner of a big Textile business and Vice-President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

We were not too surprised to hear that Harold Scott is an accomplished lawyer and business man in Philadelphia.

Emerson Maree has realized his dream and is interning at John Hopkins, and assistant coach and music director at the Y.M.C.A.

Bettye Johnson, Delores Robinson, Mamie Simmons are partners in one of the South's largest Clothing businesses.

Carrie Coaxum, an accomplished singer, is opening at the Paramount Theatre in the fall along with Duke Ellington's Band.

Shirley Summers is Physical Education teacher at Morgan State, with her is Mary Cummings, head of the English Department and Annie P. Gethers, Dean of Women.

Edith Frasier heads the Music Department at Johnson C. Smith University.

We heard that Vernon Holmes is now playing professional basketball with the Globetrotters.

Edward Boles is now a happily married business man and has 3 daughters and 1 boy.

Mary Lane Saunders is leader of an all Girls Band. Her assistant is Mary Helen Williams.