BREAKING WITH A NEW DIMENSION

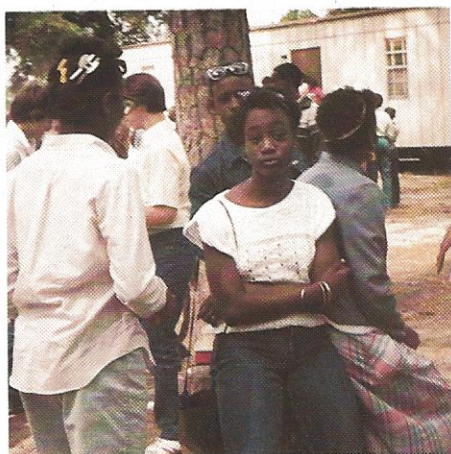

86

SIGHTS OF CMS

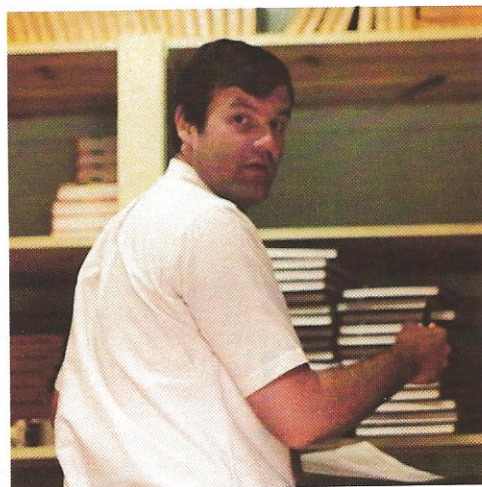

We're really the Pointer Sisters.

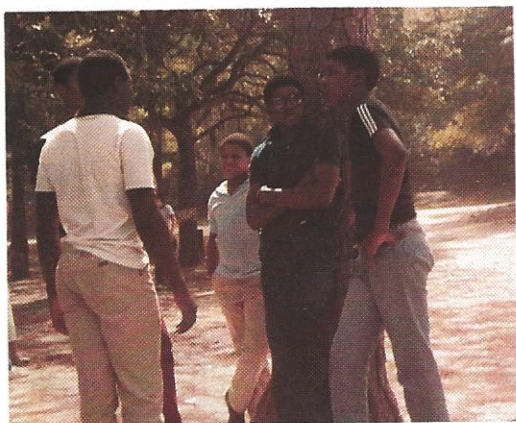

They made me come here.

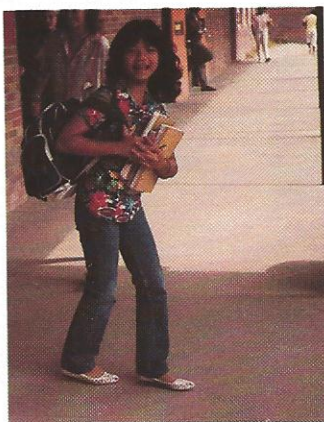

Future Wrestlers.

I could'a had a V-8.

Well, how do we move this tree?

That bell catches me everytime.

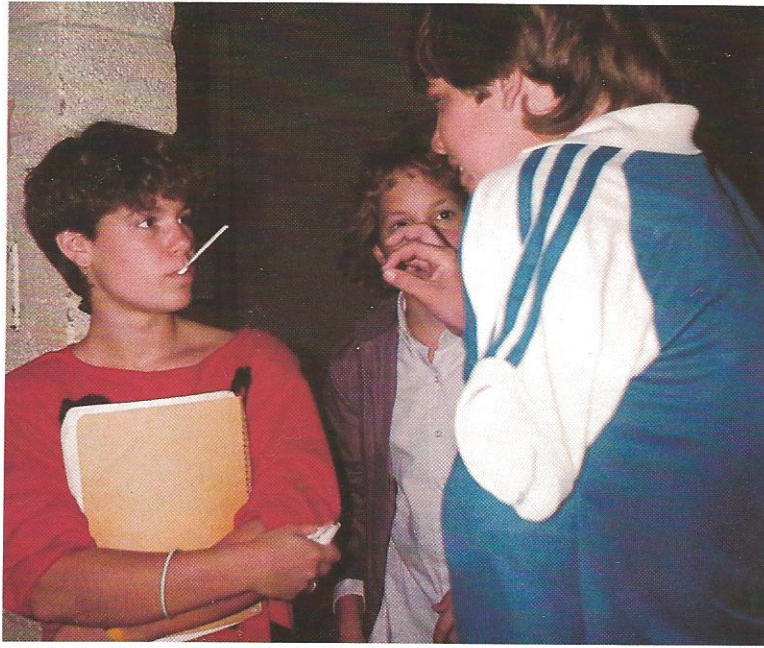

Smiling Carolina
Seasel.

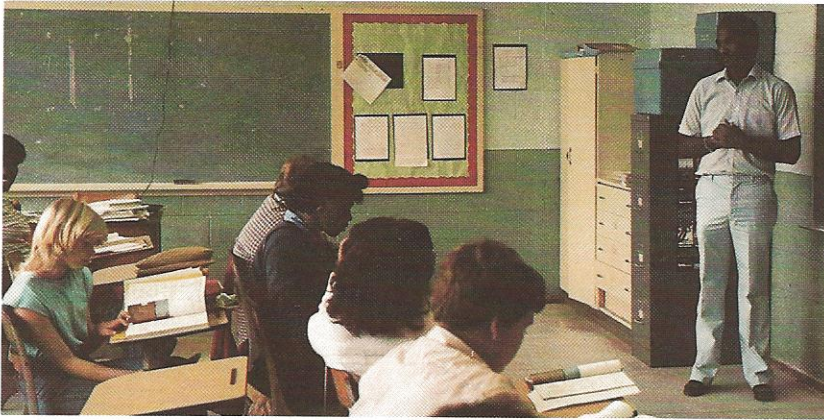

Guess who?

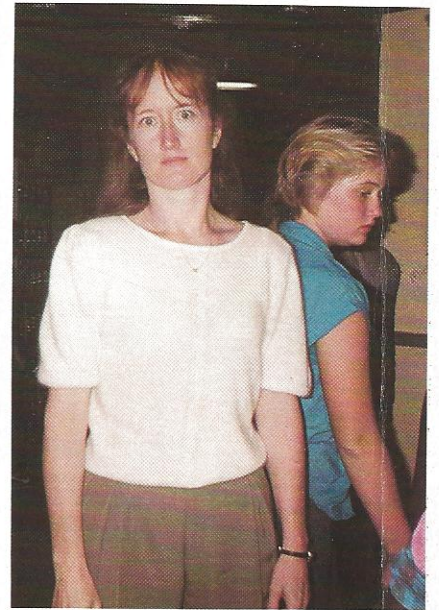

"I just dare you!"

I'm so excited I just can't stand it!

Master the Math, make the money.

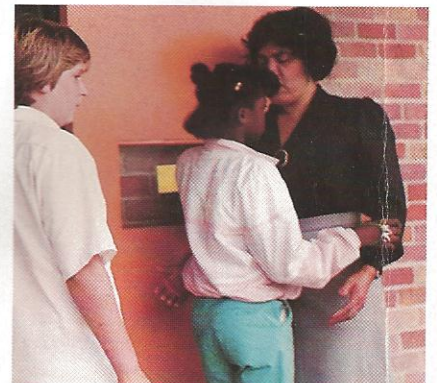

Lord knows we try to keep them together.

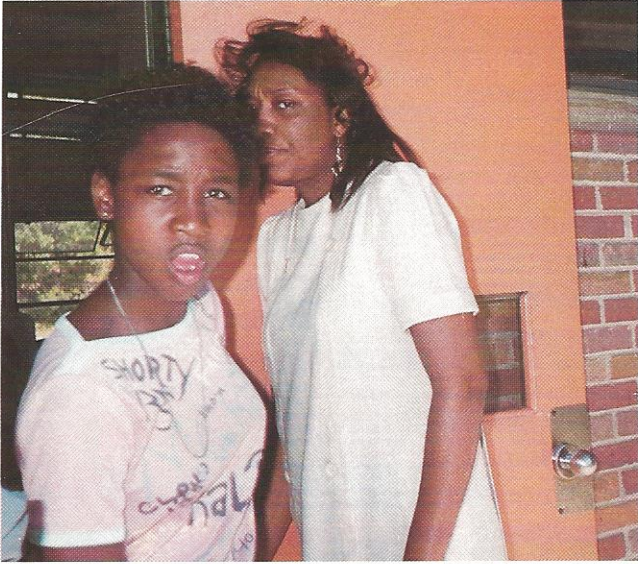

"You all make me sick."

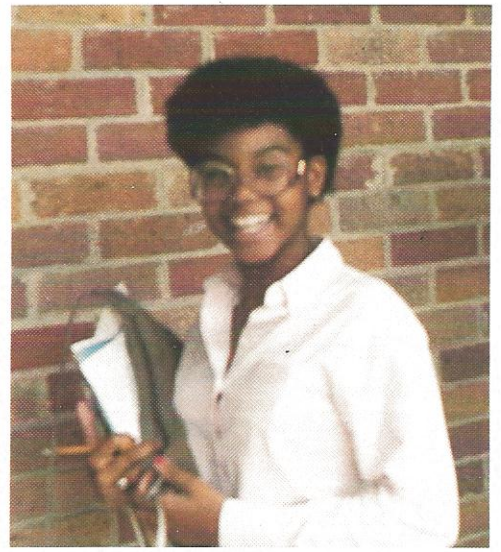

Who said we can't be Beauty
Queens?

Line up for morning hugs.

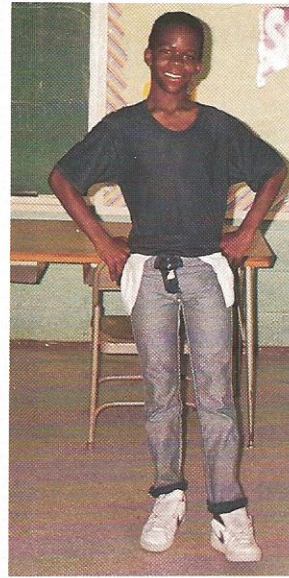

"Hey, y'all." "Girl, Please!"

Don't you wish you were this pretty?

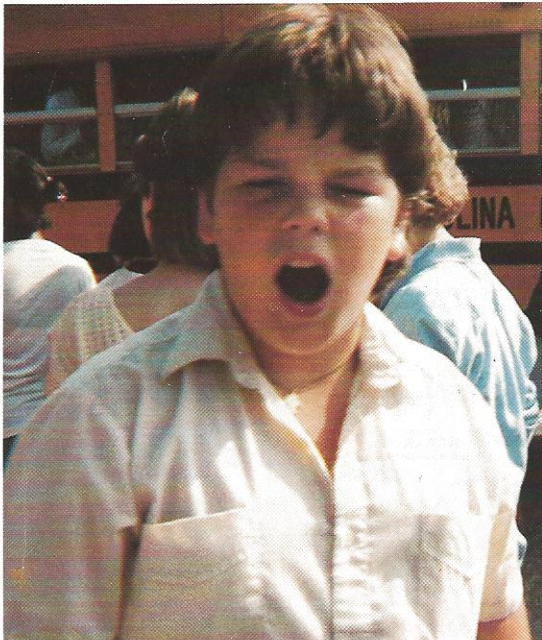

Oh, PLEASE, give me just one more point.

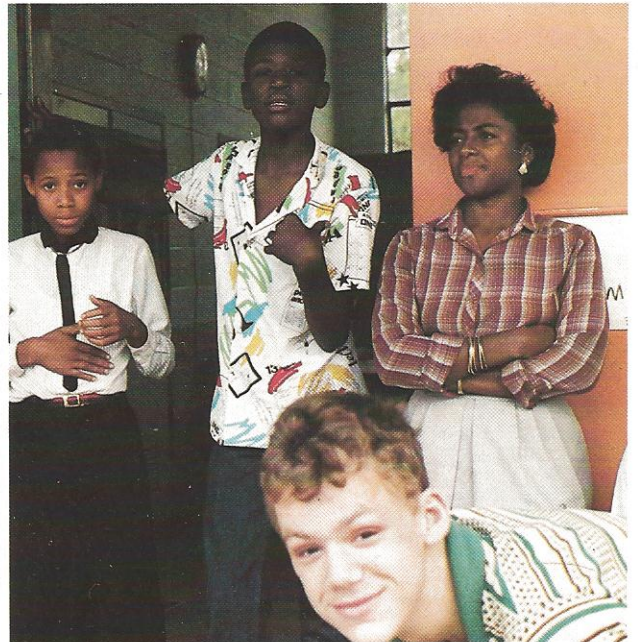

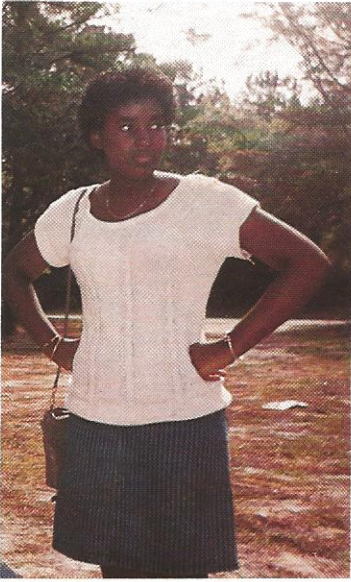

Dig this new style.

What a way to spend a day!

Do it again!

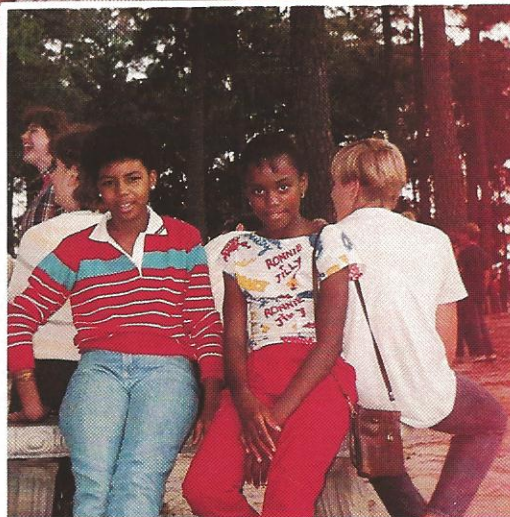

We play your tunes.

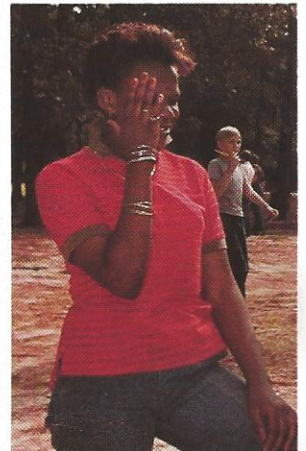

The innocence of youth.

I wish you would!

Wake me for the week-end.

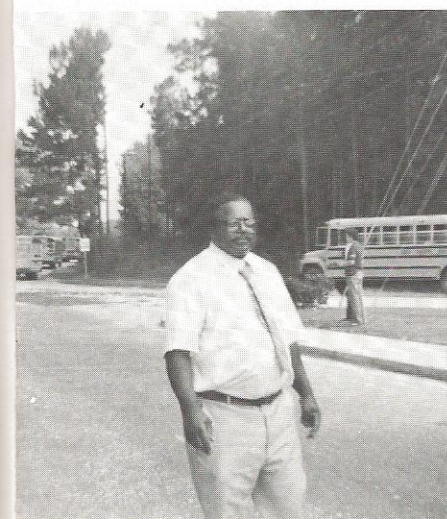

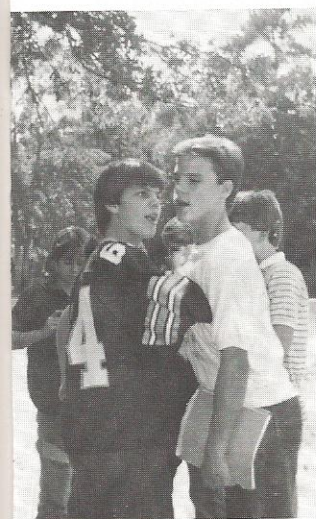

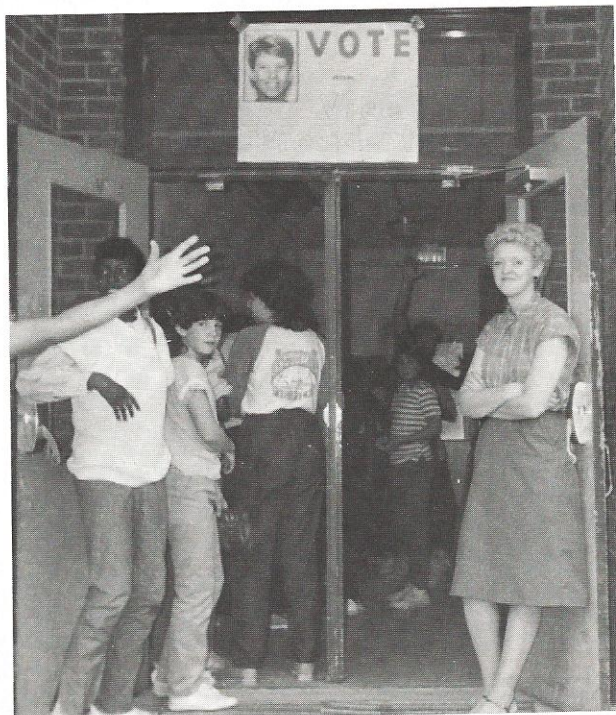

I'm so embarrassed!

Advisor's Foreword

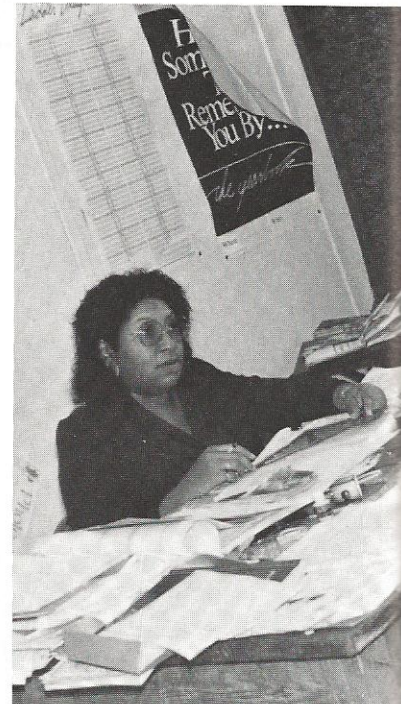

Once again, the Annual Staff of Colleton Middle School has the privilege and pleasure of presenting to you, the 1985-86 edition of the Bullpup.

This year our theme is "Breaking with a new Dimension." We hope that we have covered the range in which this school year has extended to form to your required dimensions of memory.

The staff showed great enthusiasm this year in preparation for the unveiling moment of this book. They set out in various dimensions to capture your faces, so that this book would be like a star of magnitude, not only to your eyes but also to your memory as well. As the years go by you will be able to reflect back upon the "Good old days," and long lost friends of Colleton Middle School.

We are graciously indebted to those who helped to make this year's publication of the Bullpup possible. You will always be within the realms of our dimension.

Principal's Message

"The Man Behind The Scenes
At Colleton Middle School
Campus A."

Principal, Franklin R. Smalls

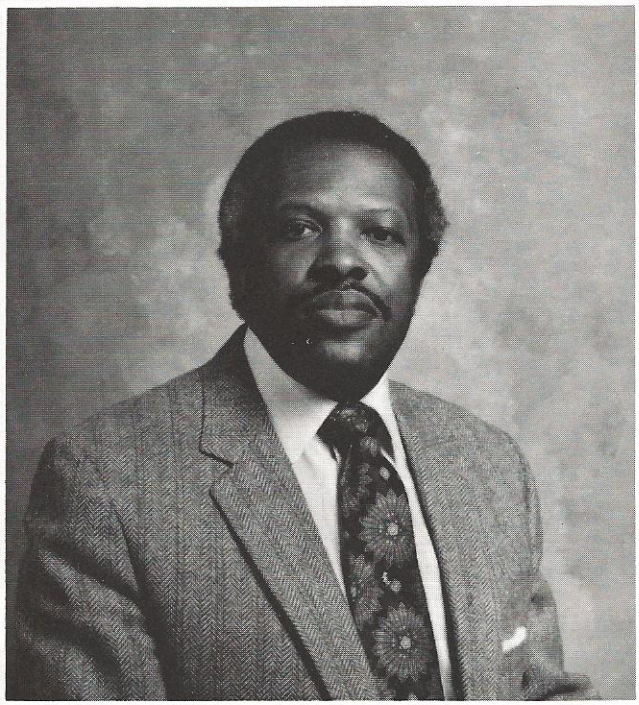

Colleton Middle School is four years old now and this is the third yearbook. There are many things that need to be improved upon, but when I look at the total school program and achievements; I am proud, but not completely satisfied because there are so many other things that need to be done.

Many words of thanks goes to the staff for their support; students for their behavior and achievement. Just remember, my primary objective is to provide an opportunity for every student at Colleton Middle School to build a strong foundation for high school.

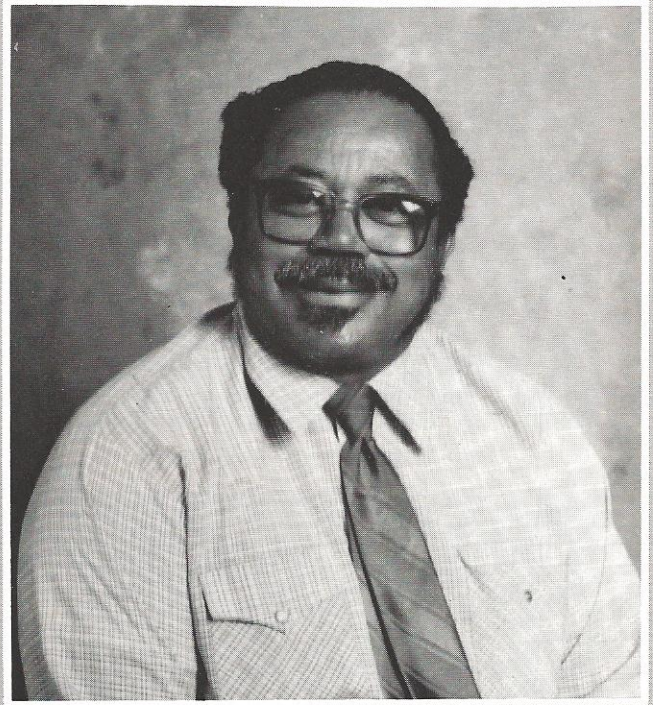

May I say to the 8th Graders, good luck in high school and to the 7th Graders, I look forward to seeing you next year.

Dedications

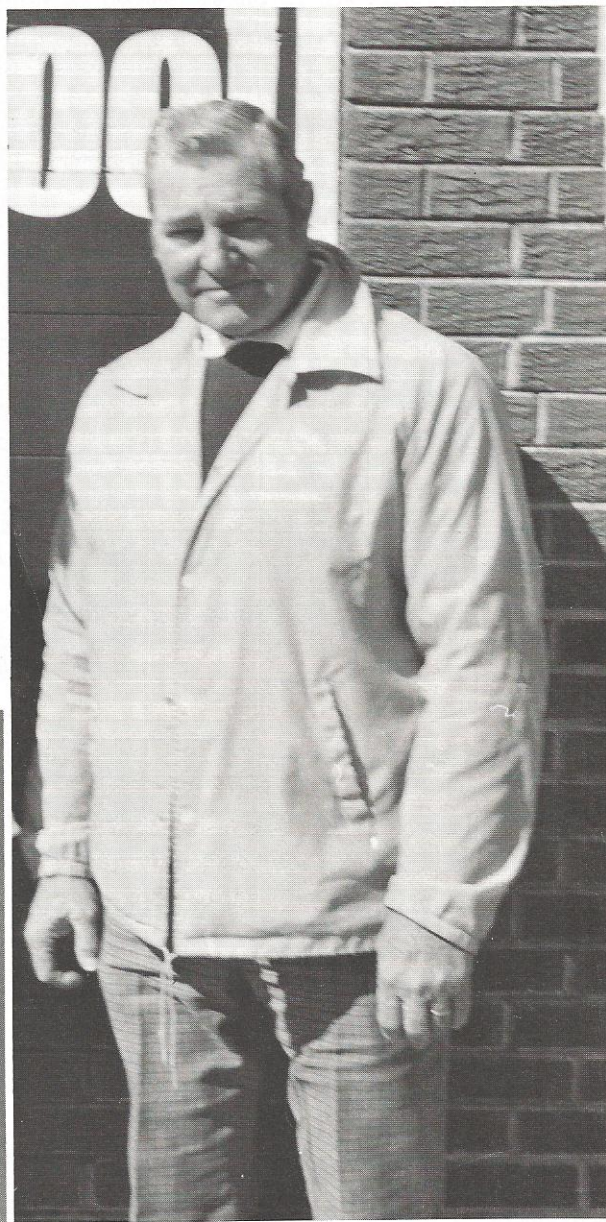

The Bullpup Annual Staff of Colleton Middle School is indeed honored to dedicate the 1985-86 publication to two gentlemen who have had the opportunity to embrace the school's environment, with their friendliness, smiles, courtesies, inspiration, knowledge, firmness and guidance. If it were not for such wonderful instructors and administrators as these, we could not have had the many happy memories in our school life recollection. They helped to instill high ideals within the minds of our students and encouraged them to try to excel to their utmost abilities.

It has been said that, "The greatest thing in this world is not so much where we are going, but in what direction we are moving." Your generosity of means, time, and effort has been inspiring, and in many cases, sacrificial.

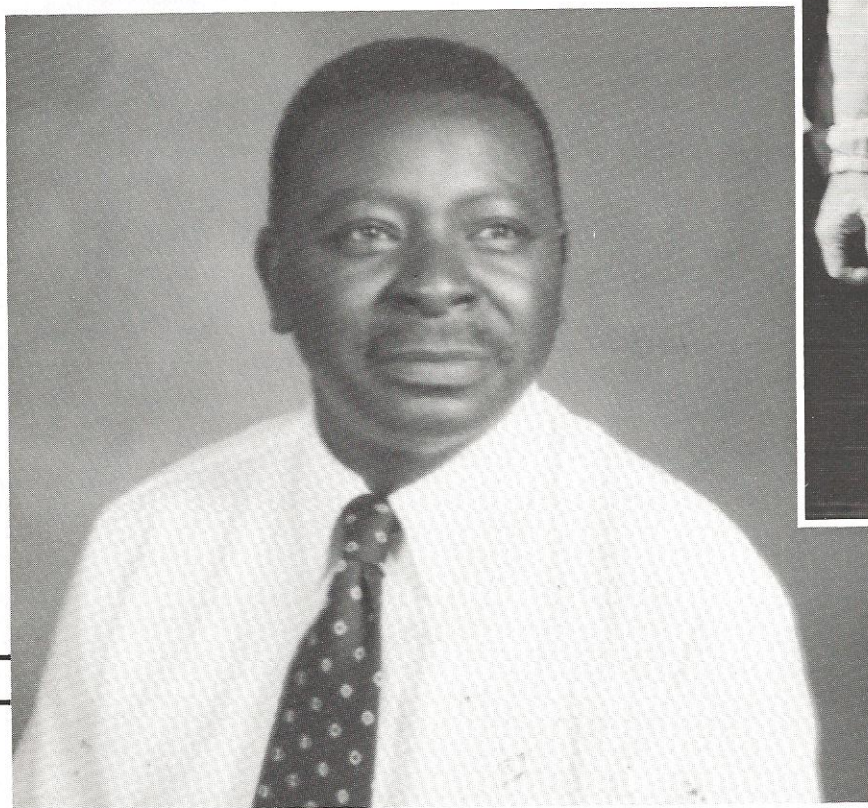

Your willingness and vision in planning, unity of purpose, cooperative endeavor, and the sustained drive to completion, have been thrilling to witness.

The memory of the two of you is like a legend; long remembered.

Colleton Middle School Band

"The Junior Band", is a group of musically inclined students who through years of experience have learned how to make enjoyable music.

Music is not the only thing stressed in band. The ability to get along with others, to cultivate loyalty to one another or to an organization.

The band participates in the Christmas parade, concerts, assemblies and festivals during the school year. The band is under the direction of Mr. Keith James.

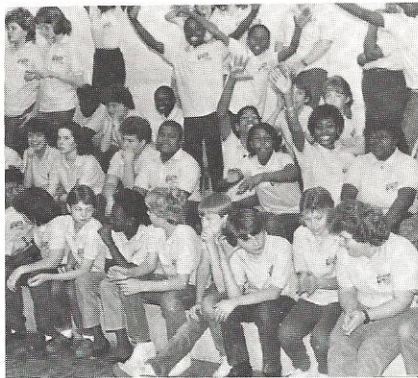

The Colleton Middle School Chorus

The Chorus of Colleton Middle School, Campus A, presents two main programs during the school year — one at Christmas and one in the spring.

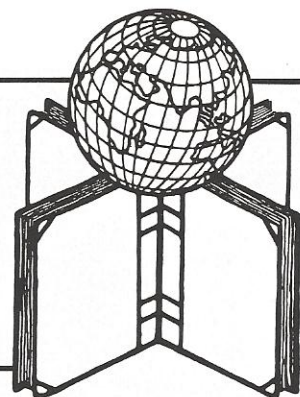

Out students participate in choral clinics during the school year where they sing music that is prepared in advance with other students and also by themselves.

The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Janice Young.

Much time and effort was taken to put this book together. We, the Staff, would like to thank our Advisor, Mrs. Kennedy, for her endless devotion. This was not an easy task and it was not an impossible one, but because of cooperation, we can say, "It's well done."
