“Hippie Day was my favorite day because I had the greatest outfit for it. I think that Lance and I gave the cheerleaders the idea for Kris-Kros Day when we wore our pants backwards to school.”

Jesse Walker

“I was really shocked, but also glad, when we had so much participation during Spirit Week. Since it was my first year on Varsity, it made it more special because I felt like I had more to do with what went on that week. My favorite day of the week was Kris-Kros Day because everyone looked so funny walking around with their jeans backwards.”

Amy Godley

“I liked Blue and White Day the most because we got to go into the gym for a big pep rally. We also got to make posters for the game Friday night. The skits that the older kids did were funny. My class tried really hard to win the spirit contest too. I also enjoyed the rest of spirit week, mostly Red-neck Day.”

Owen Brittle

“I liked Hippie Day because you got to wear your parents ancient clothes that have been in the attic for 20 years. My mom had the perfect shirt and with sandals and cut off jean shorts. It made the perfect outfit.”

Garnett Johnston

“My favorite day during Spirit Week was Pajama Day because we could wear our favorite pajamas and slippers. Some students even brought their favorite teddy bears, even Mrs. Morehead.”

Kristen Carter

Why Mrs. Howell, what big ears you have! Involved is one word to describe our teachers here. Many faculty members participated all week long, here the Moreheads, Mrs. Howell, and Mrs. Buckner dress up for Pajama Day. Pajama Day is the most comfortable day during the week.

Perry “Josephina” Hunt was crowned Mock Homecoming Queen for obvious reasons. This contest was a great spirit raiser during the pep rally on Friday. Josephina’s escorts may have also helped her win.

The Junior’s skit won the contest with Coach B. Sauls giving his team a pep talk, Walter Fralix using Holly Griffith as a gear shift, and help from Freshman Garner Regenovich acting as the overheating motor.
