

Mary Beth Bolt, Eileen Campbell, Meggie Hulse, and Sloane Upchurch celebrate a tea party for Sloane's seventh birthday. Dressing up, crowns, and all the proper tumblings makes for a special time. Most students become friends in Kindergarten and will remain so throughout their time at CPA.

While on summer vacation in Paris, France, Senior Dawn Burros happened upon former United States President Richard Nixon. Getting the chance to meet this important man was a really big thrill to Dawn and added great deal to her educational trip.

Juniors Jason Strickland and Tina Patel spends time researching his Science Fair project at the Colleton County Memorial Library. Countless hours were spent by CPA students at this important facility, working on various research projects. Students were assigned special projects in history, science, Spanish, and English, including the dreaded annual term paper.
